General dental services

25 Arrangements for provision of general dental services.

- (1) It shall be the duty of every Health Board, in accordance with regulations, to make as respects their area arrangements with dental practitioners under which any person for whom a dental practitioner undertakes in accordance with the arrangements to provide dental treatment and appliances shall receive such treatment and appliances; and the services provided in accordance with those arrangements are in this Act referred to as “general dental services”.
- (2) Regulations may make provision as to the arrangements to be made under subsection (1), and shall include provision—
- (a) for the preparation and publication of lists of dental practitioners who undertake to provide general dental services;
  - <sup>F13</sup>(b) for conferring a right, subject to—
    - (i) <sup>F14</sup>subsections (2A) and (2B)]
    - (ii) the provisions of this Part relating to the disqualification of persons providing services; and
    - (iii) section 8 (persons over retiring age) of the Health and Medicines Act 1988 and regulations made under that section, on any dental practitioner who wishes to be included in any such list to be so included;]
  - <sup>F15</sup>(c) . . . . .
  - (d) for the removal from the list of dental practitioners undertaking to provide general dental services for persons in any area of the name of a dental practitioner in whose case it has been determined in such manner as may be prescribed that he has never provided, or has ceased to provide, general dental services for persons in that area.
- <sup>F16</sup>(2A) No dental practitioner who is a national of a member State and is registered by virtue of a qualification granted in a member State shall be entitled to have his name included in the list kept by a Health Board unless he satisfies the Board that he has that knowledge of English which, in the interests of himself and his patients, is necessary for the provisions of general dental services in the Board’s area.]
- <sup>F17</sup>(2B) Regulations may make the exercise of the right conferred by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) subject to any provision made by or under the regulations, and, in such cases as may be prescribed, may confer a right of appeal to a prescribed body in respect of a refusal to include a dental practitioner on such a list as is referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection.]
- (3) The remuneration to be paid under arrangements made under this section to a dental practitioner who provides general dental services elsewhere than at a health centre shall not, <sup>F18</sup>, consist wholly or mainly of a fixed salary [<sup>F19</sup>unless either—

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the remuneration is paid in pursuance of arrangements made under section 33, or
- (b) the services are provided in prescribed circumstances and the practitioner consents, and it shall be the Secretary of State's duty, before he prescribes any circumstances for the purposes of paragraph (b), to consult such organisations as appear to him to be representative of the dental profession.]

- (a) by an order under [<sup>F21</sup>section 32 of the Dentists Act 1984] (interim suspension); or
- (b) by a direction or [<sup>F22</sup>an order of the Health Committee under] that Act (health cases), the suspension shall not terminate any arrangements made with him for the provision of general dental services, but he shall not provide such services in person during the suspension.

(5) Regulations may provide for the making of payments in consequence of suspension to a dental practitioner whose registration is so suspended.]

General ophthalmic services

26 Arrangements for provision of general ophthalmic services.

(1) It shall be the duty of every Health Board to make as respects their area, in accordance with regulations, arrangements with medical practitioners having the prescribed qualifications, [<sup>F23</sup>and with ophthalmic opticians], for securing [<sup>F24</sup>the testing by such practitioners and opticians of the sight—

- (a) of a child;
- (b) of a person whose resources fall to be treated under the regulations as being less than his requirements or as being equal to his requirements; or
- (c) of a person of such other description as may be prescribed.

(1A) In this section—

“child” means—

- (a) a person who is under the age of 16 years; or
- (b) a person who is under the age of 19 years and receiving qualifying full-time education; and

“qualifying full time education” means full-time instruction at a recognised educational establishment or by other means accepted as comparable by the Secretary of State, and for the purposes of this definition—

- (i) “recognised educational establishment” means an establishment recognised by the Secretary of State as being, or as comparable to, a school, college or university; and
- (ii) regulations may prescribe the circumstances in which a person is or is not to be treated as receiving full-time instruction.

(1B) Regulations under this section may direct how a person’s resources and requirements are to be calculated and, without pre-judice to the generality of this subsection, may direct that they shall be calculated—

- (a) by a method set out in the regulations;
- (b) by a method described by reference to a method of calculating or estimating income or capital specified in an enactment other than this section or in an instrument made under an Act of Parliament or by reference to such a method but subject to prescribed modifications;
- (c) by reference to an amount applicable for the purposes of a payment under an Act of Parliament or an instrument made under an Act of Parliament; or
- (d) by reference to the person’s being, or having been, entitled to payment under an Act of Parliament or an instrument made under an Act of Parliament.

(1C) Descriptions of persons may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) above by reference to any criterion and, without prejudice to the generality of this subsection, by reference to any of the following criteria—

- (a) their age;
- (b) the fact that a prescribed person or a prescribed body accepts them as suffering from a prescribed medical condition;
- (c) the fact that a prescribed person or a prescribed body accepts that a prescribed medical condition from which they suffer arose in prescribed circumstances;
- (d) their receipt of benefit in money or in kind under any enactment or their entitlement to receive any such benefit; and

- (e) the receipt of any such benefit by other persons satisfying prescribed conditions or the entitlement of other persons satisfying prescribed conditions to receive such benefits.
- (1D) Regulations which refer to an Act of Parliament or an instrument made under an Act of Parliament may direct that the reference is to be construed as a reference to that Act or instrument—
- (a) as it has effect at the time when the regulations are made; or
  - (b) both as it has effect at that time and as amended subsequently.
- (1E) Regulations may provide that a person—
- (a) whose sight is tested by a person who provides general ophthalmic services; and
  - (b) who is shown during the testing or within a prescribed time after it to fall within subsection (1) above,
- shall be taken for the purposes of the testing to have so fallen immediately before his sight was tested; and the testing shall be treated—
- (i) for the purposes of any arrangements under this section;
  - (ii) for the purposes of remuneration in respect of the testing; and
  - (iii) for any such other purpose as may be prescribed, as a testing of sight under this Act.
- (1F) Regulations shall define the services for the provision of which arrangements under this section are to be made and the services so defined are in this Act referred to as “general ophthalmic services”.]
- (2) Regulations may make provision as to the arrangements to be made under subsection (1), and shall include provision—
- (a) for the preparation and publication of lists of medical practitioners, [<sup>F25</sup>and ophthalmic opticians] respectively who undertake to provide general ophthalmic services;
  - (b) for conferring a right, subject to the provisions of this Act relating to the disqualification of practitioners, on any medical practitioner having the prescribed qualifications, [<sup>F26</sup>or any ophthalmic optician], who wishes to be included in the appropriate list, to be so included;
  - (c) for conferring on any person a right to choose in accordance with the prescribed procedure the medical practitioner or ophthalmic optician by whom his sight is to be tested or from whom any prescription for the supply of optical appliances is to be obtained <sup>F27</sup>;
  - (d) for the removal from the list of medical practitioners, [<sup>F28</sup>or ophthalmic opticians] undertaking to provide general ophthalmic services for persons in any area of the name of a medical practitioner, [<sup>F29</sup>or ophthalmic optician], as the case may be, in whose case it has been determined, in such manner as may be prescribed, that he has never provided or has ceased to provide general ophthalmic services for persons in that area.
- (3) The power conferred by this section to prescribe the qualifications to be possessed by any medical practitioner includes—
- (a) power to prescribe a requirement that the practitioner shall show, to the satisfaction of a committee recognised by the Secretary of State for the purpose, that he possesses such qualifications (including qualifications as to experience) as may be mentioned in the regulations, and

[<sup>F34</sup>(cc) [<sup>F35</sup>such drugs and medicines and such listed appliances as may be determined by the Scottish Ministers for the purposes of this paragraph] which are ordered for those persons by a prescribed description of [<sup>F35</sup>person in accordance with such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed,] in pursuance of functions in the health service, the health service for England and Wales, the Northern Ireland health service or the armed forces of the Crown (excluding forces of a Commonwealth country and forces raised in a colony); and]

and the [<sup>F37</sup>provision of drugs, medicines, appliances and services in accordance with the arrangements is][<sup>F38</sup>together with additional pharmaceutical services provided in accordance with a direction under section 27A, referred to in this Act] as “pharmaceutical services”.

In this subsection—

“listed” means included in a list for the time being approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this subsection;

“the health service for England and Wales” and “the Northern Ireland health service” mean respectively the health service established in pursuance of section 1 of the <sup>M1</sup>National Health Service Act 1946 or any service provided in pursuance of Article 4(a) of the <sup>M2</sup>Health and Personal Social Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1972.

[<sup>F39</sup>(1A) The descriptions of persons which may be prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) (cc) are the following, or any sub-category of such a description—

[<sup>F40</sup>(a) persons who are registered in the register maintained under article 5 of the Health Professions Order 2001;]

(b) persons who are registered pharmacists;

(c) persons whose names are entered in a roll or record established by the General Dental Council by virtue of section 45 of the Dentists Act 1984 (c. 24) (dental auxiliaries);

(d) persons who are ophthalmic opticians;

(e) persons who are registered osteopaths within the meaning of the Osteopaths Act 1993 (c. 21);

(f) persons who are registered chiropractors within the meaning of the Chiropractors Act 1994 (c. 17);

(h) persons [<sup>F42</sup>not mentioned above] who are registered in any register established, continued or maintained under an Order in Council under section 60(1) of the Health Act 1999 (c. 8);

(i) any other description of persons which appears to the Scottish Ministers to be a description of persons whose profession is regulated by or under a provision of, or made under, Northern Ireland legislation and which the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate to specify.

(1B) A determination under subsection (1)(cc) may—

(a) make different provision for different cases;

(b) provide for the circumstances or cases in which a drug, medicine or appliance may be ordered;

[<sup>F60</sup> Remuneration for services]

Textual Amendments

F60 S. 28A inserted (prosp.) by Health and Social Security Act 1984 (c. 48, SIF 113:1), ss. 7(2), 27(1)

- (1) The remuneration to be paid to persons who provide <sup>F62</sup> . . . , general dental services, general ophthalmic services or pharmaceutical services under this Part of this Act shall be determined by determining authorities (and they may also determine the remuneration to be paid to persons providing those services in respect of the instruction of any person in matters relating to those services).
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 28B, determining authorities are—
  - (a) the Secretary of State; and
  - (b) so far as authorised by him to exercise the functions of determining authorities, any Health Board or other person appointed by him in an instrument (referred to in this section and section 28B as an instrument of appointment).
- (3) An instrument of appointment—
  - (a) may contain requirements with which a determining authority appointed by that instrument must comply in making determinations; and
  - (b) may be contained in regulations.
- (4) Subject to this section and section 28B, regulations may make provision about determining remuneration under subsection (1) and may in particular impose requirements with which determining authorities must comply in making, or in connection with, determinations (including requirements as to consultation and publication).
- (5) Regulations may provide—
  - (a) that determinations may be made by reference to any of the following—
    - (i) rates or conditions of remuneration of any persons or any descriptions of persons which are fixed or determined, or to be fixed or determined, otherwise than by way of a determination under subsection (1);
    - (ii) scales, indices or other data of any description specified in the regulations;
  - (b) that any determination which in accordance with regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a)(ii) falls to be made by reference to a scale or an index or to any other data may be made not only by reference to that scale or index or those data in the form current at the time of the determination but also by reference to the scale, index or data in any subsequent form attributable to amendment or revision taking effect after that time or to any other cause.
- (6) Regulations may—
  - (a) provide that determining authorities may make determinations which have effect in relation to remuneration in respect of a period beginning on or after a date specified in the determination, which may be the date of the determination or an earlier or later date, but may be an earlier date only if, taking the determination as a whole, it is not detrimental to the persons to whose remuneration it relates;

- (b) provide that any such determination which does not specify such a date shall have effect in relation to remuneration in respect of a period beginning—
    - (i) if it is required to be published, on the date of publication;
    - (ii) if it is not so required, on the date on which it is made.
- (7) A reference in this section or section 28B to a determination is a reference to a determination of remuneration under subsection (1) of this section.]

- (1) Before a determination is made by the Secretary of State which relates to all persons who provide services of, or of a category falling within, one of the descriptions of services mentioned in section 28A(1), he—
  - (a) shall consult a body appearing to him to be representative of persons to whose remuneration the determination would relate, and
  - (b) may consult such other persons as he considers appropriate.
- (2) Determinations may make different provision for different cases including different provision for any particular case, class of case or area.
- (3) Determinations may—
  - (a) be made in more than one stage;
  - (b) be made by more than one determining authority;
  - (c) be varied or revoked by subsequent determinations.
- (4) A determination may be varied—
  - (a) to correct an error; or
  - (b) where it appears to the determining authority that it was made in ignorance of or under a mistake as to a relevant fact.
- (5) Determinations may, in particular, provide that the whole or any part of the remuneration—
  - (a) is payable only if the determining authority is satisfied as to certain conditions; or
  - (b) is to be applied for certain purposes or is otherwise subject to certain conditions.
- (6) Subject to [<sup>F64</sup>section] 25(3), remuneration under section 28A may consist of payments by way of—
  - (a) salary;
  - (b) fees;
  - (c) allowances;
  - (d) reimbursement (in full or in part) of expenses incurred or expected to be incurred in connection with the provision of the services or instruction, and may be determined from time to time.

- (7) At the time a determination is made or varied, certain matters which require determining may be reserved to be decided at a later date.
- (8) The matters which may be reserved include in particular—
- (a) the amount of remuneration to be paid in particular cases;
  - (b) whether any remuneration is to be paid in particular cases.
- (9) Any determination shall be made after taking into account all the matters which are considered to be relevant by the determining authority and such matters may include in particular—
- (a) the amount or estimated amount of expenses (taking into account any discounts) incurred in the past or likely to be incurred in the future (whether or not by persons to whose remuneration the determination will relate) in connection with the provision of services of the description in section 28A(1) to which the determination will relate or of any category falling within that description;
  - (b) the amount or estimated amount of any remuneration paid or likely to be paid to persons providing such services;
  - (c) the amount or estimated amount of any other payments or repayments or other benefits received or likely to be received by any such persons;
  - (d) the extent to which it is desirable to encourage the provision, either generally or in particular places, of the description or category of services to which the determination will relate;
  - (e) the desirability of promoting services which are—
    - (i) economic and efficient; and
    - (ii) of an appropriate standard.
- (10) If the determination is of remuneration for a category of services falling within one of the descriptions of services mentioned in section 28A(1), the reference in subsection (9)(a) to a category of services is a reference to the same category of services or to any other category of services falling within the same description.]

32 Regulations as to sections 29 to 31.

[F106(1)] Regulations shall make provision—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/08/2004. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, Part II is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 August 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) [F<sup>107</sup>for inquiries]. . . under sections 29 to 31 [F<sup>108</sup>to be held in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed by or determined under the regulations]. . . and, in particular, for F<sup>109</sup>. . . any person who is the subject of such an inquiry [F<sup>110</sup>to be] informed, as soon as may be, of the substance of any charge or complaint to which the inquiry relates and [F<sup>111</sup>to have] an opportunity—
- (i) of appearing, either in person or by counsel or solicitor or such other representative as may be prescribed, before the Tribunal F<sup>112</sup>. . . , and
  - (ii) of being heard by the Tribunal F<sup>112</sup>. . . , and of calling witnesses and producing other evidence on his behalf,
- and [F<sup>113</sup>for the hearing], F<sup>112</sup>. . . [F<sup>110</sup>to be] in public if the person who is the subject of the inquiry so requests;
- (b) for conferring on the Tribunal F<sup>112</sup>. . . such powers as the Secretary of State considers necessary for the purpose of holding such inquiries, including power to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and to administer oaths; and
- (c) for the publication of decisions of the Tribunal F<sup>112</sup>. . . under this section and of the imposition and removal of any disqualification [F<sup>114</sup>or condition]imposed by virtue of this section, and for the intimation to any person who is the subject of such an inquiry of the grounds upon which any disqualification [F<sup>114</sup>or condition]has been imposed in his case.

[F<sup>115</sup>(2) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) may in particular provide that, where (apart from the regulations) it would be the duty of the Tribunal to inquire into both an efficiency case and a fraud case in respect of the same person, they may inquire into one case before inquiring into the other and, after proceedings in the first case are finally disposed of, may if they think it appropriate adjourn the other case indefinitely.]

(1) A Health Board who have made representations under section 29 may, at any time before the case is disposed of by the Tribunal, apply to the Tribunal for a direction to be made under subsection (2) below in relation to the person to whom the case relates.

[ A Health Board may, if they have requested a review of a conditional disqualification <sup>F117</sup>(1A) on the ground mentioned in section 30(3)(b) or (c), at any time before the review is concluded apply to the Tribunal for a direction to be made under subsection (2) in relation to the person to whom the review relates.]]

(2) If, on an application under this section, the Tribunal are satisfied that [<sup>F118</sup>either of the conditions for doing so is satisfied], they shall direct that subsection (3) below shall apply to the person concerned as respects services of the kind to which the case in question [<sup>F119</sup>or the case to which the review in question ]relates.

- (a) that it is necessary to do so in order to protect persons who are, or may be, provided with [<sup>F121</sup>primary medical services or] services under this Part [<sup>F122</sup>, section 17C arrangements or a pilot scheme] to which the case in question, or the case to which the review in question, relates;
- (b) in, or in the case of a review relating to, a fraud case, that unless they do so there is a significant risk that—
  - (i) an act or omission within section 29(7)(a) will occur; or
  - (ii) the investigation of the case or the review will be prejudiced.]

(3) A person to whom this subsection applies shall—

- (a) be deemed to have been removed from any relevant list in which his name is included,
- (b) be disqualified for inclusion in any relevant list in which his name is not included, and
- (c) be deemed to be a person in relation to whom there is in force a declaration [<sup>F123</sup>of unfitness in relation to ]the provision [<sup>F124</sup>or performance ]of services of the relevant kind.

(4) A direction under subsection (2) above shall cease to have effect on the Tribunal's disposing of the case [<sup>F125</sup>or review] in connection with which it is made.

[<sup>F126</sup>(5) In subsection (2) above, the reference to patients is to persons to whom services of the kind to which the case in question relates are, or may be, provided under this Part of this Act.]

(6) In the application of subsection (3) above to any person—

- (a) “relevant list” means a list [<sup>F127</sup>prepared under this Part of this Act] of persons [<sup>F128</sup>performing or] undertaking to provide <sup>F129</sup> . . . services of the kind to which the direction applying the subsection to him relates, and
- (b) “services of the relevant kind” means services of the kind to which that direction relates.
