6 Anti-dumping measures on ECSC products. U.K.

(1) In relation to any product covered by the ECSC treaty, the Secretary of State may by order make such provision as appears to him to be appropriate for the purpose of giving effect to any Recommendation or other Community obligation arising under that treaty and relating to the imposition, amendment, suspension, revocation or annulment of anti-dumping measures, that is to say, measures for affording protection against dumping or the granting of bounties or subsidies by countries which are not members of the Coal and Steel Community.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) above, so far as may be necessary for giving effect to Community obligation, an order under that subsection may, in circumstances specified in the order,—
(a) require the provision of security of an amount determined under the order by way of provisional duty;
(b) provide for the collection of the whole or a particular proportion of any amount so secured;
(c) charge a duty of customs; and
(d) make provisions of the order applicable to goods imported into the United Kingdom or another member State before the order comes into force ; and the power to make an order under that subsection includes power to vary or revoke an order previously made in the exercise of that power and shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.

(3) Where the application or amount of any charge imposed by an order under subsection (1) above depends in some factor other than the country of origin, the Commissioners may require the importer of any goods to state such facts as they may think necessary in order to determine the duty chargeable on those goods ; and if any facts so required are not stated, the duty chargeable shall be determined on the basis that the facts are such as the Commissioners may determine.

(4) . . .^{F4} any duty chargeable on goods by virtue of subsection (1) above, . . .^{F4} shall be addition to any other duty of customs for the time being chargeable on those goods.

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTARY

77 Disclosure of information to tax authorities in other member States. U.K.

- (1) No obligation as to secrecy imposed by statute or to otherwise shall preclude the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or an authorised officer of those Commissioners from disclosing to the competent authorities of another member State any information required to be so disclosed by virtue of the Directive of the Council of the European Communities dated 19th December 1977 No.77/799/EEC.
- (2) Neither the Commissioners nor an authorised officer shall disclose any information in pursuance of the said Directive unless satisfied that the competent authorities of the other State are bound by, or have undertaken to observe, rules of confidentiality with respect to the information which are not less strict than those applying to it in the United Kingdom.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall permit the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or an authorised officer of those Commissioners to authorise the use of information disclosed by virtue of the said Directive other than for the purposes of taxation or to facilitate legal proceedings for failure to observe the tax laws of the receiving State.
