(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (1) above, so far as may be necessary for giving effect to Community obligation, an order under that subsection may, in circumstances specified in the order,—

- (b) subject to such amendments as the Secretary of State may specify by order made by statutory instrument, being amendments which appear to him to be necessary or desirable to take account of any international agreement to which the United Kingdom is a party.

(6) No order shall be made under subsection (5) above unless a draft of it has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House, and the power to make such an order—
