

Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 44

PART V

UNFAIR DISMISSAL

Amount of compensation

[<sup>F1</sup>72 Compensation for unfair dismissal.

[ Where a tribunal makes an award of compensation for unfair dismissal under <sup>F2</sup>(1)] section 68(2) or 71(2)(a) the award shall consist of—

- (a) a basic award calculated in accordance with section 73, and
- (b) a compensatory award calculated in accordance with section 74.

[ Where the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal or, in a <sup>F2</sup>(2) redundancy case, for selecting the employee for dismissal, was an inadmissible reason, then, unless—

- (a) the complainant does not request the tribunal to make an order under section 69, or
- (b) the case falls within section 73(2),

the award shall include a special award calculated in accordance with section 75A.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) a reason is “inadmissible” if it is one of those specified in section 57A(1)(a) and (b).]]

F3 S. 72A (which was inserted by Employment Act 1982 (c. 46), s. 6 (with savings in S.I. 1982/1656, Sch. 2)) repealed (16.10.1992) by Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (c. 52), ss. 300(1), 302, Sch.1 (with savings in Sch. 3 para. 2) and expressed to be repealed (22.8.1996) by 1996 c. 18, ss. 242, 243, Sch. 3 Pt. 1 (with ss. 191-195, 202)

73 Calculation of basic award.

- (1) The amount of the basic award shall be the amount calculated in accordance with subsections (3) to [<sup>F4</sup>(6A)], subject to—
- (a) subsection (2) of this section (which provides for an award of two weeks' pay in certain redundancy cases);
  - (b) [<sup>F5F6</sup>(ba) subsection (7A) (which provides for the amount of the award to be reduced where the employee has unreasonably refused an offer of reinstatement);
  - (bb) subsection (7B) (which provides for the amount of the award to be reduced because of the employee's conduct);]
  - (c) [<sup>F7</sup>(d) subsection (9) (which provides for the amount of the award to be reduced where the employee received a payment in respect of redundancy); and
  - (e) section 76 (which prohibits compensation being awarded under this Part and under the <sup>M1</sup>Sex Discrimination Act 1975 or the <sup>M2</sup>Race Relations Act 1976 in respect of the same matter).
- (2) The amount of the basic award shall be two weeks' pay where the tribunal finds that the reason or principal reason for the dismissal of the employee was that he was redundant and the employee—
- (a) by virtue of section 82(5) or (6) is not, or if he were otherwise entitled would not be, entitled to a redundancy payment; or
  - (b) by virtue of the operation of section 84(1) is not treated as dismissed for the purposes of Part VI.
- (3) The amount of the basic award shall be calculated by reference to the period, ending with the effective date of termination, during which the employee has been continuously employed, by starting at the end of that period and reckoning backwards the numbers of years of employment falling within that period, and allowing—
- (a) one and a half weeks' pay for each such year of employment <sup>F8</sup>in which the employee was not below the age of forty-one;
  - [<sup>F9</sup>(b) one week's pay for each year of employment not falling within paragraph (a) <sup>F8</sup>in which the employee was not below the age of twenty-two; and
  - (c) half a week's pay for each such year of employment not falling within either of paragraphs (a) and (b).]

Status: Point in time view as at 03/07/1994.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Amount of compensation. (See end of Document for details)

(4) Where, in reckoning the number of years of employment in accordance with subsection (3), twenty years of employment have been reckoned no account shall be taken of any year of employment earlier than those twenty years.

(4A) <sup>F10</sup> .....

(4B) <sup>F10</sup> .....

(5) Where in the case of an employee the effective date of termination is after the specified anniversary the amount of the basic award calculated in accordance with subsections (3) and (4) shall be reduced by the appropriate fraction.

(6) In subsection (5) [<sup>F11</sup>“the specified anniversary” in relation to an employee means the sixty-fourth anniversary of the day of his birth], and “the appropriate fraction” means the fraction of which—

(a) the numerator is the number of whole months reckoned from the specified anniversary in the period beginning with that anniversary and ending with the effective date of termination; and

(b) the denominator is twelve.

[<sup>F12</sup>(6A) Where the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for the dismissal or, in a redundancy case, for selecting the employee for dismissal, was an inadmissible reason the amount of the basic award (before any reduction under the following provisions of this section) shall not be less than £2,700.

(6B) For the purposes of this section a reason is “inadmissible” if it is one of those specified in section 57A(1)(a) and (b).

(6C) The Secretary of State may by order increase the sum specified in subsection (6A).

(6D) No order shall be made under subsection (6C) unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.]

[<sup>F13F14</sup>(7A) Where the tribunal finds that the complainant has unreasonably refused an offer by the employer which if accepted would have the effect of reinstating the complainant in his employment in all respects as if he had not been dismissed, the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce the amount of the basic award to such an extent as it considers just and equitable having regard to that finding.

(7B) Where the tribunal considers that any conduct of the complainant before the dismissal (or, where the dismissal was with notice, before the notice was given), <sup>F15</sup>, was such that it would be just and equitable to reduce or further reduce that amount of the basic award to any extent, the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce the amount accordingly.]

[<sup>F16</sup>(7C) Subsection (7B) does not apply [<sup>F17</sup>in a redundancy case unless the reason for selecting the employee for dismissal was an inadmissible reason; and, in that event, subsection (7B) shall apply only to so much of the basic award as is payable because of subsection (6A)].]

(8)

<sup>F18</sup>(9) The amount of the basic award shall be reduced or, as the case may be, be further reduced, by the amount of any redundancy payment awarded by the tribunal under

Status: Point in time view as at 03/07/1994.

74 Calculation of compensatory award.

- (1) Subject to [F19 subsection (8) and section 76], the amount of the compensatory award shall be such amount as the tribunal considers just and equitable in all the circumstances having regard to the loss sustained by the complainant in consequence of the dismissal in so far as that loss is attributable to action taken by the employer.
- (2) The said loss shall be taken to include—
  - (a) any expenses reasonably incurred by the complainant in consequence of the dismissal, and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978, Cross Heading: Amount of compensation. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) subject to subsection (3), loss of any benefit which he might reasonably be expected to have had but for the dismissal.
- (3) The said loss, in respect of any loss of any entitlement or potential entitlement to, or expectation of, a payment on account of dismissal by reason of redundancy, whether in pursuance of Part VI or otherwise, shall include only the loss referable to the amount, if any, by which the amount of that payment would have exceeded the amount of a basic award (apart from any reduction under [F<sup>20</sup>section 73(7A) to (9)]) in respect of the same dismissal.
- (4) In ascertaining the said loss the tribunal shall apply the same rule concerning the duty of a person to mitigate his loss as applies to damages recoverable under the common law of England and Wales or of Scotland, as the case may be.
- (5) In determining, for the purposes of subsection (1), how far any loss sustained by the complainant was attributable to action taken by the employer no account shall be taken of any pressure which, by calling, organising, procuring or financing a strike or other industrial action, or threatening to do so, was exercised on the employer to dismiss the employee, and that question shall be determined as if no such pressure had been exercised.
- (6) Where the tribunal finds that the dismissal was to any extent caused or contributed to by any action of the complainant it shall reduce the amount of the compensatory award by such proportion as it considers just and equitable having regard to that finding.
- (7) If the amount of any payment made by the employer to the employee on the ground that the dismissal was by reason of redundancy, whether in pursuance of Part VI or otherwise, exceeds the amount of the basic award which would be payable but for section 73(9) that excess shall go to reduce the amount of the compensatory award.
- [F<sup>21</sup>(8) Subsection (1) is subject also to section 75 except that, in the case of an award of compensation under section 71(2)(a) where an additional award falls to be made, the limit imposed by section 75 may be exceeded to the extent necessary to enable the award fully to reflect the amount specified as payable under section 69(2)(a) or (4)(d), as the case may be, if that limit would otherwise reduce the amount of the compensatory award when added to the additional award.]

75 Limit on compensation.

- (1) The amount of compensation awarded to a person under section 71(1) or of a compensatory award to a person calculated in accordance with section 74 shall [F<sup>22</sup>(save where the exception in section 71(1A) or 74(8) applies)] not exceed [F<sup>23</sup>£11,000].
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order increase the said limit of £5,200 or that limit as from time to time increased under this subsection, but no such order shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

- (3) It is hereby declared for the avoidance of doubt that the limit imposed by this section applies to the amount which the industrial tribunal would, apart from this section, otherwise award in respect of the subject matter of the complaint after taking into account any payment made by the respondent to the complainant in respect of that matter and any reduction in the amount of the award required by any enactment or rule of law.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the amount of the special award shall be—
- (a) one week's pay multiplied by 104, or
  - (b) £13,400,
- whichever is the greater, but shall not exceed £26,800.
- (2) Where the award of compensation is made under section 71(2)(a) then, unless the employer satisfies the tribunal that it was not practicable to comply with the preceding order under section 69, the amount of the special award shall be increased to—
- (a) one week's pay multiplied by 156, or
  - (b) £20,100,
- whichever is the greater, but subject to the following provisions of this section.
- (3) In a case where the amount of the basic award is reduced under section 73(5), the amount of the special award shall be reduced by the same fraction.
- (4) Where the tribunal considers that any conduct of the complainant before the dismissal (or, where the dismissal was with notice, before the notice was given) was such that it would be just and equitable to reduce or further reduce the amount of the special award to any extent, the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce that amount accordingly.
- (5) Where the tribunal finds that the complainant has unreasonably—
- (a) prevented an order under section 69 from being complied with, or
  - (b) refused an offer by the employer (made otherwise than in compliance with such an order) which if accepted would have the effect of reinstating the complainant in his employment in all respects as if he had not been dismissed,
- the tribunal shall reduce or further reduce the amount of the special award to such extent as it considers just and equitable having regard to that finding.
- (6) Where the employer has engaged a permanent replacement for the complainant, the tribunal shall not take that fact into account in determining for the purposes of
