SCHEDULE 2

Section 33.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS RELATING TO MATERNITY

PART I

UNFAIR DISMISSAL

Introductory

1 References in this Part to provisions of this Act relating to unfair dismissal are references to those provisions as they apply by virtue of section 56.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

Adaptation of unfair dismissal provisions

- 2 (1) Section 57 shall have effect as if for subsection (3) there were substituted the following subsection:—

“(3) Where the employer has fulfilled the requirements of subsection (1), then, [F11subject to sections 59 to 61, and to sections 152, 153 and 238 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (provisions as to dismissal on ground of trade union membership or activities or in connection with industrial action),] the determination of the question whether the dismissal was fair or unfair, having regard to the reason shown by the employer, shall depend on whether [F12in the circumstances (including the size and administrative resources of the employer’s undertaking) the employer would have been acting reasonably or unreasonably in treating it as a sufficient reason for dismissing the employee if she had not been absent from work; and that question shall be determined in accordance with equity and substantial merits of the case.”]

- (2) If in the circumstances described in section 45(3) no offer is made of such alternative employment as is referred to in that subsection, then the dismissal which by virtue of section 56 is treated as taking place shall, notwithstanding anything in section 57 F13 . . . , be treated as an unfair dismissal for the purposes of Part V of this Act.
- (3) The following references shall be construed as references to the notified day of return, that is to say—
- (a) references in Part V of this Act to the effective date of termination;
 - (b) references in sections 69 and 70 to the date of termination of employment.
- (4) The following provisions of this Act shall not apply, that is to say, sections 55, F13 . . . , 64(1), 65, 66, 73(5) and (6), 141(2), 142(1), [F14and 144(2)], paragraph 11(1) of Schedule 13, paragraphs 7(1)(f) to (i) and (2) and 8(3) of Schedule 14 and paragraph 10 of Schedule 15.
- (5) For the purposes of Part II of Schedule 14 as it applies for the calculation of a week’s pay for the purposes of section 71 or 73, the calculation date is the last day on which the employee worked under the original contract of employment.

PART II

REDUNDANCY PAYMENTS

Introductory

- 3 References in this Part to provisions of this Act relating to redundancy are references to those provisions as they apply by virtue of section 86.

Adaptation of redundancy payments provisions

- 4 (1) References in Part VI of this Act shall be adapted as follows, that is to say—
- (a) references to the relevant date, wherever they occur, shall be construed, except where the context otherwise requires, as references to the notified day of return;
 - (b) references in sections 82(4) and 84(1) to a renewal or re-engagement taking effect immediately on the ending of employment under the previous contract or after an interval of not more than four weeks thereafter, shall be construed as references to a renewal or re-engagement taking effect on the notified day of return or not more than four weeks after that day; and
 - (c) references in section 84(3) to the provisions of the previous contract shall be construed as references to the provisions of the original contract of employment.
- (2) Nothing in section 86 shall prevent an employee from being treated, by reason of the operation of section 84(1), as not having been dismissed for the purposes of Part VI of this Act.
- (3) The following provisions of this Act shall not apply, that is to say, sections 81(1)(b), 82(1) and (2), 83(1) and (2), 85, 87 to 89, 90(3), 92, 93, 96, 110, 144(2), ^{F15}and 150, paragraph 4 of Schedule 4, Schedule 12 and paragraphs 7(1)(j) and (k) and 8(4) of Schedule 14.
- (4) For the purposes of Part II of Schedule 14 as it applies for the calculation of a week's pay for the purposes of Schedule 4, the calculation date is the last day on which the employee worked under the original contract of employment.

Textual Amendments

F15 Words repealed by Employment Act 1982 \(c. 46, SIF 43:5\), s. 4(2)(b), Sch. 4 with saving in S.I. 1982/1656, Sch. 2

Prior redundancy

- 5 If, in proceedings arising out of a failure to permit an employee to return to work, the employer shows—
- (a) that the reason for the failure is that the employee is redundant; and

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) that the employee was dismissed or, had she continued to be employed by him, would have been dismissed, by reason of redundancy during her absence on a day earlier than the notified day of return and falling after the beginning of the eleventh week before the expected week of confinement, then, for the purposes of Part VI of this Act the employee—
- (i) shall not be treated as having been dismissed with effect from the notified day of return; but
 - (ii) shall, if she would not otherwise be so treated, be treated as having been continuously employed until that earlier day and as having been dismissed by reason of redundancy with effect from that day.

PART III

GENERAL

Dismissal during period of absence

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies to the dismissal of an employee who is under this Act entitled to return to work and whose contract of employment continues to subsist during the period of her absence but who is dismissed by her employer during that period after the beginning of the eleventh week before the expected week of confinement.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), an employee shall not be taken to be dismissed during the period of her absence if the dismissal occurs in the course of the employee's attempting to return to work in accordance with her contract in circumstances in which section 48 applies.
- (3) In the application of Part V of this Act to a dismissal to which this paragraph applies, the following provisions shall not apply, that is to say, sections ^{F16} . . . , 64, 65, 66, 141(2), [^{F17} and 144(2)].
- (4) Any such dismissal shall not affect the employee's right to return to work, but—
- (a) compensation in any unfair dismissal proceedings arising out of that dismissal shall be assessed without regard to the employee's right to return; and
 - (b) that right shall be exercisable only on her repaying any redundancy payment or compensation for unfair dismissal paid in respect of that dismissal, if the employer requests such repayment.

Textual Amendments

F16 Words in Sch. 1 Pt. III para. 6(3) repealed (16.10.1992) by Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (c. 52), ss. 300(1), 302, Sch.1 (with savings in Sch. 3 para. 2).

F17 Words substituted by Dock Work Act 1989 (c. 13, SIF 43:1), s. 7(4)(b)

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

Power to amend or modify

- 7 (1) The Secretary of State may by order amend the provisions of this Schedule and section 48 or modify the application of those provisions to any description of case.
- (2) No order under this paragraph shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

SCHEDULE 3

Section 50.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEE IN PERIOD OF NOTICE

Preliminary

- 1 In this Schedule the “period of notice” means the period of notice required by section 49(1) or, as the case may be, section 49(2).

Employments for which there are normal working hours

- 2 (1) If an employee has normal working hours under the contract of employment in force during the period of notice, and if during any part of those normal working hours—
- (a) the employee is ready and willing to work but no work is provided for him by his employer; or
 - (b) the employee is incapable of work because of sickness or injury; or
 - (c) the employee is absent from work in accordance with the terms of his employment relating to holidays.

then the employer shall be liable to pay the employee for the part of normal working hours covered by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) a sum not less than the amount of remuneration for that part of normal working hours calculated at the average hourly rate of remuneration produced by dividing a week’s pay by the number of normal working hours.

- (2) Any payments made to the employee by his employer in respect of the relevant part of the period of notice whether by way of sick pay [^{F18}statutory sick pay], holiday pay or otherwise, shall go towards meeting the employer’s liability under this paragraph.
- (3) Where notice was given by the employee, the employer’s liability under this paragraph shall not arise unless and until the employee leaves the service of the employer in pursuance of the notice.

Textual Amendments

F18 Words inserted by Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982 \(c. 24, SIF 113:1\), Sch. 2 para. 13

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

Employments for which there are no normal working hours

- (1) If an employee does not have normal working hours under the contract of employment in force in the period of notice the employer shall be liable to pay the employee for each week of the period of notice a sum not less than a week's pay.
 - (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), the employer's obligation under this paragraph shall be conditional on the employee being ready and willing to do work of a reasonable nature and amount to earn a week's pay.
 - (3) Sub-paragraph (2) shall not apply—
 - (a) in respect of any period during which the employee is incapable of work because of sickness or injury, or
 - (b) in respect of any period during which the employee is absent from work in accordance with the terms of his employment relating to holidays,and any payment made to an employee by his employer in respect of such a period, whether by way of sick pay [^{F19}statutory sick pay], holiday pay or otherwise, shall be taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph as if it were remuneration paid by the employer in respect of that period.
 - (4) Where the notice was given by the employee, the employer's liability under this paragraph shall not arise unless and until the employee leaves the service of the employer in pursuance of the notice.

Textual Amendments

F19 Words inserted by Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982 \(c. 24, SIF 113:1\), Sch. 2 para. 13

Sickness or industrial injury benefit

- (1) The following provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where the arrangements in force relating to the employment are such that—
 - (a) payments by way of sick pay are made by the employer to employees to whom the arrangements apply, in cases where any such employees are incapable of work because of sickness or injury, and
 - (b) in calculating any payment so made to any such employee an amount representing, or treated as representing, sickness benefit or industrial injury benefit is taken into account, whether by way of deduction or by way of calculating the payment as a supplement to that amount.
 - (2) If during any part of the period of notice the employee is incapable of work because of sickness or injury, and—
 - (a) one or more payments, by way of sick pay are made to him by the employer in respect of that part of the period of notice, and
 - (b) in calculating any such payment such an amount as is referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) is taken into account as therein mentioned,then for the purposes of this Schedule the amount so taken into account shall be treated as having been paid by the employer to the employee by way of sick pay in respect of that part of that period, and shall go towards meeting the liability of the employer under paragraph 2 or paragraph 3 accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

Absence on leave granted at request of employee

- 5 The employer shall not be liable under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to make any payment in respect of a period during which the employee is absent from work with the leave of the employer granted at the request of the employee (including any period of time off taken in accordance with [F20 section 29, 31 or 31A of this Act or section 168 or 170 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992].

Notice given before a strike

- 6 No payment shall be due under this Schedule in consequence of a notice to terminate a contract given by an employee if, after the notice is given and on or before the termination of the contract, the employee takes part in a strike of employees of the employer.
 In this paragraph “strike” has the meaning given by paragraph 24 of Schedule 13.

Termination of employment during period of notice

- 7 (1) If, during the period of notice, the employer breaks the contract of employment, payments received under this Schedule in respect of the part of the period after the breach shall go towards mitigating the damages recoverable by the employee for loss of earnings in that part of the period of notice.
- (2) If, during the period of notice, the employee breaks the contract and the employer rightfully treats the breach as terminating the contract, no payment shall be due to the employee under this Schedule in respect of the part of the period of notice falling after the termination of the contract.

- 1 The amount of a redundancy payment to which an employee is entitled in any case shall, subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, be calculated by reference to the period, ending with the relevant date, during which he has been continuously employed.
- 2 Subject to paragraphs 3 and 4, the amount of the redundancy payment shall be calculated by reference to the period specified in paragraph 1 by starting at the end of that period and reckoning backwards the number of years of employment falling within that period, and allowing—
- (a) one and a half weeks' pay for each such year of employment ^{F21}in which the employee was not below the age of forty-one;
 - (b) one week's pay for each such year of employment (not falling within the preceding sub-paragraph) ^{F21}in which the employee was not below the age of twenty-two; and
 - (c) half a week's pay for each such year of employment not falling within either of the preceding sub-paragraphs.

Section 106.

CALCULATION OF PAYMENTS TO EMPLOYEES OUT OF REDUNDANCY FUND

- 1 (1) Where the employer's payment is a redundancy payment, the sum referred to in section 106(2) is a sum equal to the amount of that payment.
- (2) Where, in a case falling within [^{F30}section 106(1B)], the employer's payment is part of a redundancy payment, the sum referred to in section 106(2) is a sum equal to the amount of that part of the payment.

Textual Amendments

F30 "section 106(1B)" substituted by Employment Act 1989 \(c. 38, SIF 43:1\), s. 29(3)(6), Sch. 6 para. 25(2), Sch. 9 para. 4\(1\)

- [^{F312} (1) Where the employer's payment is not a redundancy payment or part of a redundancy payment, the sum referred to in section 106(2) is a sum equal to—
- (a) the amount of the employers' payment, or
 - (b) the amount of the relevant redundancy payment, whichever is less.
- (2) The reference in sub-paragraph (1)(b) to the amount of the relevant redundancy payment is a reference to the amount of the redundancy payment which the employer would have been liable to pay to the employee if—
- (a) the order in force in respect of the agreement as mentioned in section 106(1A)(b) had not been made;
 - (b) the circumstances in which the employer's payment is payable had been such that the employer was liable to pay a redundancy payment to the employee in those circumstances;
 - (c) the relevant date, in relation to any such redundancy payment, had been the date on which the termination of the employee's contract of employment is treated for the purposes of the agreement as having taken effect; and
 - (d) in so far as the provisions of the agreement which relate to the following matters, that is to say—
 - (i) the circumstances in which the continuity of an employee's period of employment is to be treated as broken, and
 - (ii) the weeks which are to count in computing a period of employment, are inconsistent with the provisions of Schedule 13 as to those matters, those provisions of the agreement were substituted for those provisions of that Schedule.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2) "the agreement" means the agreement falling within section 106(1A)(b) by reference to which the employer's payment is payable.]

SCHEDULE 9

INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNALS

Regulations as to tribunal procedure

- 1 (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations (in this Schedule referred to as “the regulations”) make such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient with respect to proceedings before industrial tribunals.
- (2) The regulations may in particular include provision—
- (a) for determining by which tribunal any appeal, question [^{F34}application] or complaint is to be determined;
 - (b) for enabling an industrial tribunal to hear and determine proceedings brought by virtue of section 131 concurrently with proceedings brought before the tribunal otherwise than by virtue of that section;
 - (c) for treating the Secretary of State (either generally or in such circumstances as may be prescribed by the regulations) as a party to any proceedings before an industrial tribunal, where he would not otherwise be a party to them, and entitling him to appear and to be heard accordingly;
 - (d) for requiring persons to attend to give evidence and produce documents, and for authorising the administration of oaths to witnesses;
 - [^{F35}(e) for enabling an industrial tribunal, on the application of any party to proceedings before it or of its own motion, to order—
 - (i) in England and Wales, such discovery or inspection of documents, or the furnishing of such further particulars, as might be ordered by a county court on an application by a party to proceedings before it, or
 - (ii) in Scotland, such recovery or inspection of documents as might be ordered by the sheriff;]
 - (f) for prescribing the procedure to be followed on any appeal, reference or complaint or other proceedings before an industrial tribunal, including provisions as to the persons entitled to appear and to be heard on behalf of parties to such proceedings, and provisions for enabling an industrial tribunal to review its decisions, and revoke or vary its orders and awards, in such circumstances as may be determined in accordance with the regulations;
 - (g) for the appointment of one or more assessors for the purposes of any proceedings before an industrial tribunal, where the proceedings are brought under an enactment which provides for one or more assessors to be appointed;
 - [^{F36}(ga) for authorising an industrial tribunal to require persons to furnish information and produce documents to a person required for the purposes of section 2A(1)(b) of the ^{M3}Equal Pay Act 1970 to prepare a report;]

- (i) for taxing or otherwise settling any such costs or expenses (and, in particular, in England and Wales, for enabling such costs to be taxed in the county court); and
 - (j) for the registration and proof of decisions, orders and awards of industrial tribunals.
- (3) In relation to proceedings on complaints under section 67 or any other enactment in relation to which there is provision for conciliation, the regulations shall include provision—
- (a) for requiring a copy of any such complaint, and a copy of any notice relating to it which is lodged by or on behalf of the employer against whom the complaint is made, to be sent to a conciliation officer;
 - (b) for securing that the complainant and the employer against whom the complaint is made are notified that the services of a conciliation officer are available to them; and
 - (c) for postponing the hearing of any such complaint for such period as may be determined in accordance with the regulations for the purpose of giving an opportunity for the complaint to be settled by way of conciliation and withdrawn.
- (4) In relation to proceedings under section 67—
- (a) where the employee has expressed a wish to be reinstated or re-engaged which has been communicated to the employer at least seven days before the hearing of the complaint; or
 - (b) where the proceedings arise out of the employer's failure to permit the employee to return to work after an absence due to pregnancy or confinement,
- regulations shall include provision for requiring the employer to pay the costs or expenses of any postponement or adjournment of the hearing caused by his failure, without a special reason, to adduce reasonable evidence as to the availability of the job from which the complainant was dismissed, or, as the case may be, which she held before her absence, or of comparable or suitable employment.
- (5) Without prejudice to paragraph 2, the regulations may enable an industrial tribunal to sit in private for the purpose of hearing evidence which in the opinion of the tribunal relates to matters of such a nature that it would be against the interests of national security to allow the evidence to be given in public or of hearing evidence from any person which in the opinion of the tribunal is likely to consist of—
- (a) information which he could not disclose without contravening a prohibition imposed by or under any enactment; or
 - (b) any information which has been communicated to him in confidence, or which he has otherwise obtained in consequence of the confidence reposed in him by another person; or
 - (c) information the disclosure of which would, for reasons other than its effect on negotiations with respect to any of the matters mentioned in section 29(1) of the ^{M4}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974 (matters to which trade disputes relate) cause substantial injury to any undertaking of his or in which he works.
- (6) The regulations may include provision authorising or requiring an industrial tribunal, in circumstances specified in the regulations, to send notice or a copy of any document so specified relating to any proceedings before the tribunal, or of any

Section 135.

EMPLOYMENT APPEAL TRIBUNAL

PART I

PROVISIONS AS TO MEMBERSHIP, SITTINGS, PROCEEDINGS AND POWERS

Tenure of office of appointed members of Appeal Tribunal

- 1 Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, a member of the Appeal Tribunal appointed by Her Majesty under section 135(2)(c) (in this Schedule referred to as an “appointed member”) shall hold and vacate office as such a member in accordance with the terms of his appointment.
- 2 An appointed member may at any time resign his membership by notice in writing addressed to the Lord Chancellor and the Secretary of State.
- 3 (1) If the Lord Chancellor, after consultation with the Secretary of State, is satisfied that an appointed member—
- (a) has been absent from sittings of the Appeal Tribunal for a period longer than six consecutive months without the permission of the President of the Tribunal; or
 - (b) has become bankrupt or made an arrangement with his creditors; or
 - (c) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness; or
 - (d) is otherwise unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a member;
- the Lord Chancellor may declare his office as a member to be vacant and shall notify the declaration in such manner as the Lord Chancellor thinks fit; and thereupon the office shall become vacant.
- (2) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland for the references in sub-paragraph (1) (b) to a member’s having become bankrupt and to a member’s having made an arrangement with his creditors there shall be substituted respectively references to a member’s estate having been sequestrated and to a member’s having made a trust deed for behoof of his creditors or a composition contract.

Temporary membership of Appeal Tribunal

- 4 At any time when the office of President of the Appeal Tribunal is vacant, or the person holding that office is temporarily absent or otherwise unable to act as President of the Tribunal, the Lord Chancellor may nominate another judge nominated under section 135(2)(a) to act temporarily in his place.
- 5 At any time when a judge of the Appeal Tribunal nominated by the Lord Chancellor is temporarily absent or otherwise unable to act as a judge of that Tribunal, the Lord

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Chancellor may nominate another person who is qualified to be nominated under section 135(2)(a) to act temporarily in his place.

- 6 At any time when a judge of the Appeal Tribunal nominated by the Lord President of the Court of Session is temporarily absent or otherwise unable to act as a judge of the Appeal Tribunal, the Lord President may nominate another judge of the Court of Session to act temporarily in his place.
- 7 At any time when an appointed member is temporarily absent or otherwise unable to act as a member of the Appeal Tribunal, the Lord Chancellor and the Secretary of State may jointly appoint a person appearing to them to have the qualifications for appointment as such a member to act temporarily in his place.
- 8 (1) At any time when it appears to the Lord Chancellor that it is expedient to do so in order to facilitate in England and Wales the disposal of business in the Appeal Tribunal, he may appoint a qualified person to be a temporary additional judge of the Tribunal during such period or on such occasions as the Lord Chancellor thinks fit.
- (2) In this paragraph “qualified person” means a person qualified for appointment as a puisne judge of the High Court under section [F52]10 of the M29Supreme Court Act 1981] or any person who has held office as a judge of the Court of Appeal or of the High Court.

- 9 A person appointed to act temporarily in place of the President or any other member of the Appeal Tribunal shall, when so acting, have all the functions of the person in whose place he acts.
- 10 A person appointed to be a temporary additional judge of the Appeal Tribunal shall have all the functions of a judge nominated under section 135(2)(a).
- 11 No judge shall be nominated under paragraph 5 or 6 except with his consent.

Organisation and sittings of Appeal Tribunal

- 12 The Appeal Tribunal shall be a superior court of record and shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- 13 The Appeal Tribunal shall have a central office in London.
- 14 The Appeal Tribunal may sit at any time and in any place in Great Britain.
- 15 The Appeal Tribunal may sit, in accordance with directions given by the President of the Tribunal, either as a single tribunal or in two or more divisions concurrently.
- 16 With the consent of the parties to any proceedings before the Appeal Tribunal, the proceedings may be heard by a judge and one appointed member, but, in default of such consent, any proceedings before the Tribunal shall be heard by a judge and either two or four appointed members, so that in either case there are equal numbers of persons whose experience is as representatives of employers and whose experience is as representatives of workers.

Rules

- 17 (1) The Lord Chancellor, after consultation with the Lord President of the Court of Session, shall make rules with respect to proceedings before the Appeal Tribunal.
- (2) Subject to those rules, the Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure.
- 18 Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 17 the rules may include provision—
- (a) with respect to the manner in which an appeal may be brought and the time within which it may be brought;
- [^{F53}(aa) with respect to the manner in which an application to the Appeal Tribunal under [^{F54}section 67 or 176 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992] may be made;]
- (b) for requiring persons to attend to give evidence and produce documents, and for authorising the administration of oaths to witnesses;
- (c) enabling the Appeal Tribunal to sit in private for the purpose of hearing evidence to hear which an industrial tribunal may sit in private by virtue of paragraph 1 of Schedule 9.
- [^{F55}(d) for the registration and proof of any award made on an application to the Appeal Tribunal under [^{F54}section 67 or 176 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992].]

(b) a person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(6) In relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members “director”, in sub-paragraph (5), means a member of the body corporate.

(7) In this paragraph—

“identifying matter”, in relation to a person, means any matter likely to lead members of the public to identify him as a person affected by, or as the person making, the allegation;

“restricted reporting order” means an order prohibiting the publication in Great Britain of identifying matter in a written publication available to the public or its inclusion in a relevant programme for reception in Great Britain;

“sexual misconduct” means the commission of a sexual offence, sexual harassment or other adverse conduct (of whatever nature) related to sex, and conduct is related to sex whether the relationship with sex lies in the character of the conduct or in its having reference to the sex or sexual orientation of the person at whom the conduct is directed;

“sexual offence” means any offence to which section 141A(2) of the ^{M30}Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1975, section 4 of the ^{M31}Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act 1976 or the ^{M32}Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act 1992 applies (offences under the ^{M33}Sexual Offences Act 1956, the ^{M34}Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 1976 and certain other enactments); and “written publication” and “relevant programme” have the same meaning as in that Act of 1992.]

PART I

GENERAL

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule “the relevant provisions” means Part I (so far as it relates to itemised pay statements), section 53 and Parts II, III, V, VI and VII of this Act and this Schedule.

Institution or continuance of tribunal proceedings

- 2 Where an employee or employer has died, tribunal proceedings arising under any of the relevant provisions may be instituted or continued by a personal representative of the deceased employee or, as the case may be, defended by a personal representative of the deceased employer.

- 3 (1) If there is no personal representative of a deceased employee, tribunal proceedings arising under any of the relevant provisions (or proceedings to enforce a tribunal award made in any such proceedings) may be instituted or continued on behalf of the estate of the deceased employee by such other person as the industrial tribunal may appoint being either—

- (a) a person authorised by the employee to act in connection with the proceedings before the employee’s death; or
- (b) the widower, widow, child, father, mother, brother or sister of the deceased employee, and references in this Schedule to a personal representative shall be construed as including such a person.

- (2) In such a case any award made by the industrial tribunal shall be in such terms and shall be enforceable in such manner as may be provided by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

- 4 (1) Subject to any specific provision of this Schedule to the contrary, in relation to an employee or employer who has died—

- (a) any reference in the relevant provisions to the doing of anything by or in relation to an employee or employer shall be construed as including a reference to the doing of that thing by or in relation to any personal representative of the deceased employee or employer; and
- (b) any reference in the said provisions to a thing required or authorised to be done by or in relation to an employee or employer shall be construed as including a reference to any thing which, in accordance with any such provision as modified by this Schedule (including sub-paragraph (a)), is required or authorised to be done by or in relation to any personal representative of the deceased employee or employer.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent references in the relevant provisions to a successor of an employer from including a personal representative of a deceased employer.

Rights and liabilities accruing after death

- 5 Any right arising under any of the relevant provisions as modified by this Schedule shall, if it had not accrued before the death of the employee in question, nevertheless devolve as if it had so accrued.
- 6 Where by virtue of any of the relevant provisions as modified by this Schedule a personal representative of a deceased employer is liable to pay any amount and that liability had not accrued before the death of the employer, it shall be treated for all purposes as if it were a liability of the deceased employer which had accrued immediately before the death.

PART II

UNFAIR DISMISSAL

Introductory

- 7 In this Part of this Schedule “the unfair dismissal provisions” means Part V of this Act and this Schedule.

Death during notice period

- 8 Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment and before that termination the employee or the employer dies, the unfair dismissal provisions shall apply as if the contract had been duly terminated by the employer by notice expiring on the date of the death.

- [^{F679} Where—
- (a) the employee’s contract of employment has been terminated; and
 - (b) by virtue of subsection (5) or (6) of section 55 a date later than the effective date of termination as defined in subsection (4) of that section is to be treated as the effective date of termination for the purposes of certain of the unfair dismissal provisions; and
 - (c) before that later date the employer or the employee dies;
- subsection (5) or, as the case may be, (6) shall have effect as if the notice referred to in that section as required by section 49 would have expired on the date of the death.]

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

Remedies for unfair dismissal

- 10 Where an employee has died, then, unless an order for reinstatement or re-engagement has already been made, section 69 shall not apply; and accordingly if the industrial tribunal finds that the grounds of the complaint are well-founded the case shall be treated as falling within section 68(2) as a case in which no order is made under section 69.
- 11 If an order for reinstatement or re-engagement has been made and the employee dies before the order is complied with—
- (a) if the employer has before the death refused to reinstate or re-engage the employee in accordance with the order, section 71(2) and (3) shall apply and an award shall be made under section 71(2)(b) unless the employer satisfies the tribunal that it was not practicable at the time of the refusal to comply with the order;
 - (b) if there has been no such refusal, section 71(1) shall apply if the employer fails to comply with any ancillary terms of the order which remain capable of fulfilment after the employee's death as it would apply to such a failure to comply fully with the terms of an order where the employee had been reinstated or re-engaged.

PART III

REDUNDANCY PAYMENTS: DEATH OF EMPLOYER

Introductory

- 12 The provisions of this Part shall have effect in relation to an employee where his employer (in this Part referred to as “the deceased employer”) dies.
- 13 Section 94 shall not apply to any change whereby the ownership of the business, for the purposes of which the employee was employed by the deceased employer, passes to a personal representative of the deceased employer.

Dismissal

- 14 Where by virtue of subsection (1) of section 93 the death of the deceased employer is to be treated for the purposes of Part VI of this Act as a termination by him of

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

the contract of employment, section 84 shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—

(a) for subsection (1) there shall be substituted the following subsection—

“(1) If an employee’s contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment, by a personal representative of the deceased employer and the renewal or re-engagement takes effect not later than eight weeks after the death of the deceased employer, then, subject to subsections (3) and (6), the employee shall not be regarded as having been dismissed by reason of the ending of his employment under the previous contract.”

(b) in subsection (2), paragraph (a) shall be omitted and in paragraph (b) for the words “four weeks” there shall be substituted the words “eight weeks”;

(c) in subsections (5) and (6), references to the employer shall be construed as references to the personal representative of the deceased employer.

15 Where by reason of the death of the deceased employer the employee is treated for the purpose of Part VI of this Act as having been dismissed by him, section 82 shall have effect subject to the following modifications—

(a) for subsections (3) there shall be substituted the following subsection—

“(3) If a personal representative of the deceased employer makes an employee an offer (whether in writing or not) to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract of employment, so that the renewal or re-engagement would take effect not later than eight weeks after the death of the deceased employer the provisions of subsections (5) and (6) shall have effect.”

(b) in subsection (4), paragraph (a) shall be omitted and in paragraph (b) for the words “four weeks” there shall be substituted the words “eight weeks”;

(c) in subsection (5), the references to the employer shall be construed as a reference to the personal representative of the deceased employer.

16 For the purposes of section 82 as modified by paragraph 15—

(a) an offer shall not be treated as one whereby the provisions of the contract as renewed, or of the new contract, as the case may be, would differ from the corresponding provisions of the contract as in force immediately before the death of the deceased employer by reason only that the personal representative would be substituted as the employer for the deceased employer, and

(b) no account shall be taken of that substitution in determining whether the refusal of the offer was unreasonable, or, as the case may be, whether the employee acted reasonably in terminating the renewed, or new, employment during the trial period referred to in section 84.

Lay-off and short-time

17 Where the employee has before the death of the deceased employer been laid off or kept on short-time for one or more weeks, but has not given to the deceased

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

- employer notice of intention to claim, then if after the death of the deceased employer—
- (a) his contract of employment is renewed, or he is re-engaged under a new contract by a personal representative of the deceased employer, and
 - (b) after the renewal or re-engagement, he is laid off or kept on short-time for one or more weeks by the personal representative of the deceased employer,
- the provisions of sections 88 and 89 shall apply as if the week in which the deceased employer died and the first week of the employee's employment by the personal representative were consecutive weeks, and any reference in those sections to four weeks or thirteen weeks shall be construed accordingly.
- 18 The provisions of paragraph 19 or (as the case may be) paragraph 20 shall have effect where the employee has given to the deceased employer notice of intention to claim, and—
- (a) the deceased employer has died before the end of the next four weeks after the service of that notice, and
 - (b) the employee has not terminated the contract of employment by notice expiring before the death of the deceased employer.
- 19 If in the circumstances specified in paragraph 18 the employee's contract of employment is not renewed by a personal representative of the deceased employer before the end of the next four weeks after the service of the notice of intention to claim, and he is not re-engaged under a new contract by such a personal representative before the end of those four weeks, section 88(1) and (2) and (in relation to subsection (1) of that section) section 89(2) and (3) shall apply as if—
- (a) the deceased employer had not died, and
 - (b) the employee had terminated the contract of employment by a week's notice (or, if under the contract he is required to give more than a week's notice to terminate the contract, he had terminated it by the minimum notice which he is so required to give) expiring at the end of those four weeks,
- but sections 88(3) and (4) and 89(1) and (4) shall not apply.
- 20 (1) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where, in the circumstances specified in paragraph 18, the employee's contract of employment is renewed by a personal representative of the deceased employer before the end of the next four weeks after the service of the notice of intention to claim, or he is re-engaged under a new contract by such a personal representative before the end of those four weeks, and—
- (a) he was laid off or kept on short-time by the deceased employer for one or more of those weeks, and
 - (b) he is laid off or kept on short-time by the personal representative for the week, or for the next two or more weeks, following the renewal or re-engagement.
- (2) Where the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (1) are fulfilled, sections 88 and 89 shall apply as if—

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) all the weeks for which the employee was laid off or kept on short-time as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) were consecutive weeks during which he was employed (but laid off or kept on short-time) by the same employer, and
- (b) each of the periods specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (5) of section 89 were extended by any week or weeks any part of which was after the death of the deceased employer and before the date on which the renewal or re-engagement took effect.

Continuity of period of employment

- 21 For the purposes of the application, in accordance with section 100(1), of any provisions of Part VI of this Act in relation to an employee who was employed as a domestic servant in a private household, any reference to a personal representative in—
- (a) this Part of this Schedule, or
 - (b) paragraph 17 of Schedule 13,
- shall be construed as including a reference to any person to whom, otherwise than in pursuance of a sale or other disposition for valuable consideration, the management of the household has passed in consequence of the death of the deceased employer.

PART IV

REDUNDANCY PAYMENTS: DEATH OF EMPLOYEE

- 22 (1) Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment, and before that notice expires the employee dies, the provisions of Part VI of this Act shall apply as if the contract had been duly terminated by the employer by notice expiring on the date of the employee's death.
- (2) Where the employee's contract of employment has been terminated by the employer and by virtue of section 90(3) a date later than the relevant date as defined by subsection (1) of that section is to be treated as the relevant date for the purposes of certain provisions of Part VI of this Act, and before that later date the employee dies, section 90(3) shall have effect as if the notice referred to in that subsection as required to be given by an employer would have expired on the employee's death.
- 23 (1) Where an employer has given notice to an employee to terminate his contract of employment, and has offered to renew his contract of employment, or to re-engage him under a new contract, then if—
- (a) the employee dies without having either accepted or refused the offer, and
 - (b) the offer has not been withdrawn before his death,
- section 82 shall apply as if for the words "the employee unreasonably refuses" there were substituted the words "it would have been unreasonable on the part of the employee to refuse".
- (2) Where an employee's contract of employment has been renewed, or he has been re-engaged under a new contract of employment, and during the trial period the

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details) employee dies without having terminated or having given notice to terminate the contract, subsection (6) of that section shall apply as if for the words from “and during the trial period” to “terminated” there were substituted the words “and it would have been unreasonable for the employee, during the trial period referred to in section 84, to terminate or give notice to terminate the contract”.

- 24 Where an employee’s contract of employment has been renewed, or he has been re-engaged under a new contract of employment, and during the trial period he gives notice to terminate the contract but dies before the expiry of that notice, sections 82(6) and 84(6)(a) shall have effect as if the notice had expired and the contract had thereby been terminated on the date of the employee’s death.
- 25 (1) Where, in the circumstances specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 85, the employee dies before the notice given by him under paragraph (b) of that subsection is due to expire and before the employer has given him notice under subsection (3) of that section, subsection (4) of that section shall apply as if the employer had given him such notice and he had not complied with it.
- (2) Where, in the said circumstances, the employee dies before his notice given under section 85(1)(b) is due to expire but after the employer has given him notice under subsection (3) of section 85, subsections (3) and (4) of that section shall apply as if the circumstances were that the employee had not died, but did not comply with the last-mentioned notice.
- 26 (1) Where an employee has given notice of intention to claim and dies before he has given notice to terminate his contract of employment and before the period allowed for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) of section 88 has expired, the said subsection (2) (a) shall not apply.
- (2) Where an employee, who has given notice of intention to claim, dies within seven days after the service of that notice, and before the employer has given a counter-notice, the provisions of sections 88 and 89 shall apply as if the employer had given a counter-notice within those seven days.
- (3) In this paragraph “counter-notice” has the same meaning as in section 89(1).
- 27 (1) In relation to the making of a claim by a personal representative of a deceased employee who dies before the end of the period of six months beginning with the relevant date, subsection (1) of section 101 shall apply with the substitution for the words “six months”, of the words “one year”.
- (2) In relation to the making of a claim by a personal representative of a deceased employee who dies after the end of the period of six months beginning with the relevant date and before the end of the following period of six months, subsection (2) of section 101 shall apply with the substitution for the words “six months”, of the words “one year”.
- 28 In relation to any case where, under any provision contained in Part VI of this Act as modified by this Schedule, an industrial tribunal has power to determine that an employer shall be liable to pay to a personal representative of a deceased employee either—

- (a) the whole of a redundancy payment to which he would have been entitled apart from another provision therein mentioned, or
- (b) such part of such a redundancy payment as the tribunal thinks fit, any reference in paragraph 5 to a right shall be construed as including a reference to any right to receive the whole or part of a redundancy payment if the tribunal determines that the employer shall be liable to pay it.

Normal working weeks

- 3 Any week in which the employee is employed for sixteen hours or more shall count in computing a period of employment.

Employment governed by contract

- 4 Any week during the whole or part of which the employee's relations with the employer are governed by a contract of employment which normally involves employment for sixteen hours or more weekly shall count in computing a period of employment.

- 5 (1) If the employee's relations with his employer cease to be governed by a contract which normally involves work for sixteen hours or more weekly and become governed by a contract which normally involves employment for eight hours or more, but less than sixteen hours, weekly and, but for that change, the later weeks would count in computing a period of employment, or would not break the continuity of a period of employment, then those later weeks shall count in computing a period of employment or, as the case may be, shall not break the continuity of a period of employment, notwithstanding that change.

- (2) Not more than twenty-six weeks shall count under this paragraph between any two periods falling under paragraph 4, and in computing the said figure of twenty-six weeks no account shall be taken of any week which counts in computing a period of employment, or does not break the continuity of a period of employment, otherwise than by virtue of this paragraph.

- 6 (1) An employee whose relations with his employer are governed, or have been from time to time governed, by a contract of employment which normally involves employment for eight hours or more, but less than sixteen hours, weekly shall nevertheless, if he satisfies the condition referred to in sub-paragraph (2), be treated for the purposes of this Schedule (apart from this paragraph) as if his contract normally involved employment for sixteen hours or more weekly, and had at all times at which there was a contract during the period of employment of five years or more referred to in sub-paragraph (2) normally involved employment for sixteen hours or more weekly.

- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) shall apply if the employee, on the date by reference to which the length of any period of employment falls to be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, has been continuously employed within the meaning of sub-paragraph (3) for a period of five years or more.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In computing for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) an employee's period of employment, the provisions of this Schedule (apart from this paragraph) shall apply but as if, in paragraphs 3 and 4, for the words "sixteen hours" wherever they occur, there were substituted the words "eight hours".
- 7 (1) If an employee has, at any time during the relevant period of employment, been continuously employed for a period which qualifies him for any right which requires a qualifying period of continuous employment computed in accordance with this Schedule, then he shall be regarded for the purposes of qualifying for that right as continuing to satisfy that requirement until the condition referred to in sub-paragraph (3) occurs.
- (2) In this paragraph the relevant period of employment means the period of employment ending on the date by reference to which the length of any period of employment falls to be ascertained which would be continuous (in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule) if at all relevant times the employee's relations with the employer had been governed by a contract of employment which normally involved employment for sixteen hours or more weekly.
- (3) The condition which defeats the operation of sub-paragraph (1) is that in a week subsequent to the time at which the employee qualified as referred to in that sub-paragraph—
- (a) his relations with his employer are governed by a contract of employment which normally involves employment for less than eight hours weekly; and
 - (b) he is employed in that week for less than sixteen hours.
- (4) If, in a case in which an employee is entitled to any right by virtue of sub-paragraph (1), it is necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of his entitlement to determine for what period he has been continuously employed, he shall be regarded for that purpose as having been continuously employed throughout the relevant period.

Power to amend paragraphs 3 to 7 by order

- [^{F69}8 (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) amend paragraphs 3 to 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to sixteen hours a reference to such other number of hours less than sixteen as may be specified in the order; and
 - (b) amend paragraphs 6 and 7 so as to substitute for each of the references to eight hours a reference to such other number of hours less than eight as may be specified in the order.
- (2) No order under this paragraph shall be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (3) The provisions of any order under this paragraph shall apply to periods before the order takes effect as they apply to later periods.]

Periods in which there is no contract of employment

- 9 (1) If in any week the employee is, for the whole or part of the week—
- (a) incapable of work in consequence of sickness or injury, or
 - (b) absent from work on account of a temporary cessation of work, or
 - (c) absent from work in circumstances such that, by arrangement or custom, he is regarded as continuing in the employment of his employer for all or any purposes, or
 - (d) absent from work wholly or partly because of pregnancy or confinement,
- that week shall, notwithstanding that it does not fall under paragraph 3, 4 or 5, count as a period of employment.
- (2) Not more than twenty-six weeks shall count under paragraph (a) or, subject to paragraph 10, under paragraph (d) of sub-paragraph (1) between any periods falling under paragraph 3, 4 or 5.

Maternity

Payment of previous redundancy payment or equivalent payment

- 12 (1) Where the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a) or (2)(b) are fulfilled in relation to a person, then in determining, for the purposes of section 81(1) or Schedule 4, whether at any subsequent time he has been continuously employed for the requisite period, or for what period he has been continuously employed, the continuity of the period of employment shall be treated as having been broken—
- (a) in so far as the employment was under a contract of employment, at the date which was the relevant date in relation to the payment mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a) or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (2)(b); or
 - (b) in so far as the employment was otherwise than under a contract of employment, at the date which would have been the relevant date in relation to that payment had the employment been under a contract of employment, and accordingly no account shall be taken of any time before that date.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) has effect—
- (a) where—
 - (i) a redundancy payment is paid to an employee, whether in respect of dismissal or in respect of lay-off or short-time; and
 - (ii) the contract of employment under which he was employed (in this section referred to as “the previous contract”) is renewed, whether by the same or another employer, or he is re-engaged under a new contract of employment, whether by the same or another employer; and
 - (iii) the circumstances of the renewal of re-engagement are such that, in determining for the purposes of section 81(1) or Schedule 4 whether at any subsequent time he has been continuously employed for the requisite period, or for what period he has been continuously employed, the continuity of his period of employment would, apart from this paragraph, be treated as not having been broken by the termination of the previous contract and the renewal or re-engagement; or

 - (ii) he commences new, or renewed, employment; and
 - (iii) the circumstances of the commencement of the new, or renewed, employment are such that, in determining for the purposes of section 81(1) or Schedule 4 whether at any subsequent time he has been continuously employed for the requisite period, or for what period he has been continuously employed, the continuity of his period of employment would, apart from this paragraph, be treated as not having been broken by the termination of the previous employment and the commencement of the new, or renewed, employment.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph, a redundancy payment shall be treated as having been paid if—
- (a) the whole of the payment has been paid to the employee by the employer, or, in a case where a tribunal has determined that the employer is liable to pay part (but not the whole) of the redundancy payment, that part of the redundancy payment has been paid in full to the employee by the employer, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State has paid a sum to the employee in respect of the redundancy payment under section 106.

- “lock-out” means the closing of a place of employment, or the suspension of work, or the refusal by an employer to continue to employ any number of persons employed by him in consequence of a dispute, done with a view to compelling those persons, or to aid another employer in compelling persons employed by him, to accept terms or conditions of or affecting employment;
- “strike” means the cessation of work by a body of persons employed acting in combination, or a concerted refusal or a refusal under a common understanding of any number of persons employed to continue to work for an employer in consequence of a dispute, done as a means of compelling their employer or any person or body of persons employed, or to aid other employees in compelling their employer or any person or body of persons employed, to accept or not to accept terms or conditions of or affecting employment;
- “week” means a week ending with Saturday.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule the hours of employment of an employee who is required by the terms of his employment to live on the premises where he works shall be the hours during which he is on duty or during which his services may be required.

- 2 If in such a case—
- (a) the contract of employment fixes the number, or the minimum number, of hours of employment in the said week or other period (whether or not it also provides for the reduction of that number or minimum in certain circumstances), and
 - (b) that number or minimum number of hours exceeds the number of hours without overtime.
- that number or minimum number of hours (and not the number of hours without overtime) shall be the normal working hours.

PART II

A WEEK'S PAY

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C17 Sch. 14 Pt. II (paras. 3–12) modified by S.I. 1986/151, arts. 2, 5, S.I. 1986/379, art. 3, S.I. 1989/1139, reg. 5 and Education Reform Act 1988 (c. 40, SIF 41:1), ss. 178(2)(b), 231(7), 235(6)

Employments for which there are normal working hours

- 3 (1) This paragraph and paragraph 4 shall apply if there are normal working hours for an employee when employed under the contract of employment in force on the calculation date.
- (2) Subject to paragraph 4, if an employee's remuneration for employment in normal working hours, whether by the hour or week or other period, does not vary with the amount of work done in the period, the amount of a week's pay shall be the amount which is payable by the employer under the contract of employment in force on the calculation date if the employee works throughout his normal working hours in a week.
- (3) Subject to paragraph 4, if sub-paragraph (2) does not apply, the amount of a week's pay shall be the amount of remuneration for the number of normal working hours in a week calculated at the average hourly rate of remuneration payable by the employer to the employee in respect of the period of twelve weeks—
- (a) where the calculation date is the last day of a week, ending with that week;
 - (b) in any other case, ending with the last complete week before the calculation date.
- (4) References in this paragraph to remuneration varying with the amount of work done include references to remuneration which may include any commission or similar payment which varies in amount.
- 4 (1) This paragraph shall apply if there are normal working hours for an employee when employed under the contract of employment in force on the calculation date, and he is required under that contract to work during those hours on days of the week or at times of the day which differ from week to week or over a longer period so that

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details) the remuneration payable for, or apportionable to, any week varies according to the incidence of the said days or times.

- (2) The amount of a week's pay shall be the amount of remuneration for the average weekly number of normal working hours (calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (3)) at the average hourly rate of remuneration (calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (4)).
 - (3) The average number of weekly hours shall be calculated by dividing by twelve the total number of the employee's normal working hours during the period of twelve weeks—
 - (a) where the calculation date is the last day of a week, ending with that week;
 - (b) in any other case, ending with the last complete week before the calculation date.
 - (4) The average hourly rate of remuneration shall be the average hourly rate of remuneration payable by the employer to the employee in respect of the period of twelve weeks—
 - (a) where the calculation date is the last day of a week, ending with that week;
 - (b) in any other case, ending with the last complete week before the calculation date.
- 5
- (1) For the purpose of paragraphs 3 and 4, in arriving at the average hourly rate of remuneration only the hours when the employee was working, and only the remuneration payable for, or apportionable to, those hours of work, shall be brought in; and if for any of the twelve weeks mentioned in either of those paragraphs no such remuneration was payable by the employer to the employee, account shall be taken of remuneration in earlier weeks so as to bring the number of weeks of which account is taken up to twelve.
 - (2) Where, in arriving at the said hourly rate of remuneration, account has to be taken of remuneration payable for, or apportionable to, work done in hours other than normal working hours, and the amount of that remuneration was greater than it would have been if the work had been done in normal working hours, account shall be taken of that remuneration as if—
 - (a) the work had been done in normal working hours; and
 - (b) the amount of that remuneration had been reduced accordingly.
 - (3) For the purpose of the application of sub-paragraph (2) to a case falling within paragraph 2, sub-paragraph (2) shall be construed as if for the words "had been done in normal working hours", in each place where those words occur, there were substituted the words "had been done in normal working hours falling within the number of hours without overtime".

Employments for which there are no normal working hours

- (1) This paragraph shall apply if there are no normal working hours for an employee when employed under the contract of employment in force on the calculation date.
 - (2) The amount of a week's pay shall be the amount of the employee's average weekly remuneration in the period of twelve weeks—

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) where the calculation date is the last day of a week, ending with that week;
 - (b) in any other case, ending with the last complete week before the calculation date.
- (3) In arriving at the said average weekly rate of remuneration no account shall be taken of a week in which no remuneration was payable by the employer to the employee and remuneration in earlier weeks shall be brought in so as to bring the number of weeks of which account is taken up to twelve.

The calculation date

- 7 (1) For the purposes of this Part, the calculation date is,—
- (a) where the calculation is for the purpose of section 14, the day in respect of which the guarantee payment is payable, or, where an employee's contract has been varied, or a new contract entered into, in connection with a period of short-time working, the last day on which the original contract was in force;
 - (b) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 21, the day before that on which the suspension referred to in section 19(1) begins;
 - (c) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 31, the day on which the employer's notice was given;
 - [^{F85}(cc) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 31A, the day of the appointment concerned;]
 - (d) ^{F86}
 - (e) where the calculation is for the purposes of Schedule 3, the day immediately preceding the first day of the period of notice required by section 49(1) or, as the case may be, section 49(2);
 - (f) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 53 or 71(2)(b) and the dismissal was with notice, the date on which the employer's notice was given;
 - (g) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 53 or 71(2)(b) but sub-paragraph (f) does not apply, the effective date of termination;
 - (h) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 73 and by virtue of section 55(5) [^{F87}or, as the case may be, (6)] a date is to be treated as the effective date of termination for the purposes of section 73(3) which is later than the effective date of termination as defined by section 55(4), the effective date of termination as defined by section 55(4);
 - (i) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 73 but [^{F88}neither subsection (5) nor subsection (6) of section 55 applies] in relation to the date of termination, the date on which notice would have been given had the conditions referred to in sub-paragraph (2) been fulfilled (whether those conditions were in fact fulfilled or not);
 - (j) where the calculation is for the purposes of section 87(2), the day immediately preceding the first of the four or, as the case may be, the six weeks referred to in section 88(1);
 - (k) where the calculation is for the purposes of Schedule 4 and by virtue of section 90(3) a date is to be treated as the relevant date for the purposes of certain provisions of this Act which is later than the relevant date as defined by section 90(1), the relevant date as defined by section 90(1);

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- (l) where the calculation is for the purposes of Schedule 4 but sub-paragraph (k) does not apply, the date on which notice would have been given had the conditions referred to in sub-paragraph (2) been fulfilled (whether those conditions were in fact fulfilled or not).
- (2) The conditions referred to in sub-paragraphs (1)(i) and (l) are that the contract was terminable by notice and was terminated by the employer giving such notice as is required to terminate that contract by section 49 and that the notice expired on the effective date of termination or on the relevant date, as the case may be.

Maximum amount of week's pay for certain purposes

- 8 (1) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Schedule, the amount of a week's pay for the purpose of calculating—
 - (a) an additional award of compensation (within the meaning of section 71(2)(b)), shall not exceed [^{F89}£205.00];
 - (b) a basic award of compensation (within the meaning of section 72) shall not exceed [^{F89}£205.00];
 - (c) a redundancy payment shall not exceed [^{F89}£205.00].
- (2) The Secretary of State may after a review under section 148 vary the limit referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b) or (c) by an order made in accordance with that section.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of the power to make transitional provision in an order under section 148, such an order may provide that it shall apply in the case of a dismissal in relation to which the effective date of termination for the purposes of this sub-paragraph, as defined by section 55(5) [^{F90}or, as the case may be, (6)], falls after the order comes into operation, notwithstanding that the effective date of termination, as defined by section 55(4), for the purposes of other provisions of this Act falls before the order comes into operation.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of the power to make transitional provision in an order under section 148, such an order may provide that it shall apply in the case of a dismissal in relation to which the relevant date for the purposes of this sub-paragraph falls after the order comes into operation, notwithstanding that the relevant date for the purposes of other provisions of this Act falls before the order comes into operation.

Supplemental

9 In any case in which an employee has not been employed for a sufficient period to enable a calculation to be made under any of the foregoing provisions of this Part, the amount of a week's pay shall be an amount which fairly represents a week's pay; and in determining that amount the tribunal shall apply as nearly as may be such of the foregoing provisions of this Part as it considers appropriate, and may have regard to such of the following considerations as it thinks fit, that is to say—

- (a) any remuneration received by the employee in respect of the employment in question;
- (b) the amount offered to the employee as remuneration in respect of the employment in question;
- (c) the remuneration received by other persons engaged in relevant comparable employment with the same employer;
- (d) the remuneration received by other persons engaged in relevant comparable employment with other employers;

10 In arriving at an average hourly rate or average weekly rate of remuneration under this Part account shall be taken of work for a former employer within the period for which the average is to be taken if, by virtue of Schedule 13, a period of employment with the former employer counts as part of the employee's continuous period of employment with the later employer.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C19 Para. 10 modified by Civil Aviation Act 1982 (c. 16, SIF 9), Sch. 3 para. 6(3)(5)(6)

11 Where under this Part account is to be taken of remuneration or other payments for a period which does not coincide with the periods for which the remuneration or other payments are calculated, then the remuneration or other payments shall be apportioned in such manner as may be just.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/10/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978. (See end of Document for details)

- 12 The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that in prescribed cases the amount of a week's pay shall be calculated in such manner as the regulations may prescribe.

SCHEDULE 15

Section 159.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS

General

- 1 So far as anything done or treated as done under or for the purposes of any enactment repealed by this Act could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act it shall not be invalidated by the repeal but shall have effect as if done under or for the purposes of that provision.
- 2 Where any period of time specified in an enactment repealed by this Act is current immediately before the corresponding provision of this Act comes into force, this Act shall have effect as if the corresponding provision had been in force when that period began to run.
- 3 Nothing in this Act shall affect the enactments repealed by this Act in their operation in relation to offences committed before the commencement of this Act.
- 4 Any reference in an enactment or document, whether express or implied, to—
- (a) an enactment which is re-enacted in a corresponding provision of this Act;
 - (b) an enactment replaced or amended by a provision of the ^{M45}Employment Protection Act 1975 which is re-enacted in a corresponding provision of this Act;
 - (c) an enactment in the ^{M46}Industrial Relations Act 1971 which was re-enacted with or without amendment in a corresponding provision in Schedule 1 to the ^{M47}Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1974 and that corresponding provision is re-enacted by a corresponding provision of this Act;
- shall, except so far as the context otherwise requires, be construed as, or as including, a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act.
