

Isle of Man Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 58

1 Common duties.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, in this Act “common duties” means—
- (a) customs duties chargeable on goods imported into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man;
 - (b) excise duties chargeable on goods^{F1} . . . imported into or produced in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man;
 - (c) pool betting duty chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man;
 - [^{F2}(ca) lottery duty chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man;]
 - (d) value added tax chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man except tax chargeable in accordance with [^{F3}23 of the Value Added Tax Act 1994] (gaming machines);
 - (e) ^{F4}
- (2) The Treasury may by order amend subsection (1) above by adding or deleting any duty or tax which is under the care and management of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise (in this Act referred to as “the Commissioners”) or any corresponding duty or tax chargeable under the law of the Isle of Man; and any such order may apply to a duty or tax generally or in such cases or subject to such restrictions as may be specified in the order.
- (3) The power to make orders under subsection (2) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.

2 Isle of Man share of common duties.

- (1) Of the moneys standing to the credit of the General Account of the Commissioners an amount ascertained for each financial year in accordance with subsection (2) below shall be paid by the Commissioners, at such times and in such manner as they may determine, to the Treasurer of the Isle of Man.
- (2) There shall be calculated in such manner as the Treasury may direct—
 - (a) the amount of common duties, whether collected in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, which is attributable to goods consumed or used in the Island, to services supplied in the Island or (as respects pool betting duty) to bets placed by persons in the Island;
 - (b) the cost incurred by the Commissioners in collecting the amount so attributable together with the amount of any drawback or repayment referable to that amount;

and the amount arrived at by deducting from the amount calculated under paragraph (a) above the amount calculated under paragraph (b) above shall be known as the net Isle of Man share of common duties; and the amount mentioned in subsection (1) above shall be the excess of the net Isle of Man share of common duties over the common duties collected in the Island.
- (3) For the purposes of this section the amount of common duties collected in the Isle of Man and the United Kingdom, or in the Isle of Man, shall be calculated by reference to the amount so collected in respect of such duties after giving effect to any addition or deduction provided for under section 1 of the ^{M1}Excise Duties (Surcharges or Rebates) Act 1979 or any Isle of Man equivalent.
- (4) The Commissioners shall for each financial year prepare, in such form and manner as the Treasury may direct, an account showing the payments made by them under this section and shall send it, not later than the end of November in the following financial year, to the Comptroller and Auditor General, who shall examine and certify the account.
- (5) The Comptroller and Auditor General shall send every account examined and certified by him under this section and his report thereon to the Treasury and a copy of every such account and report to the Treasurer of the Isle of Man; and the Treasury shall lay copies of the account and report before Parliament.

3 Recovery of common duties chargeable in Isle of Man.

- (1) Any liability to pay an amount on account of a common duty chargeable under the law of the Isle of Man shall, to the extent to which it has not been discharged or enforced there, be enforceable in the United Kingdom as if it were a liability to pay an amount on account of the corresponding common duty chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Isle of Man Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Any amount recoverable by the Commissioners from any person under subsection (1) above may be set off against any amount recoverable by him from the Commissioners on account of a common duty chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom.

4 Enforcement of Isle of Man judgments for common duties.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the provisions of sections 2 to 5 of the ^{M2}Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act 1933 shall have effect in relation to any judgment or order given or made by the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man under which an amount is payable on account of—
- (a) a common duty chargeable under the law of the Island; or
 - (b) a fine or penalty imposed in connection with such a duty,
- as if the judgment or order were a judgment to which Part I of that Act applied.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply to a judgment or order given or made on appeal from a lower court but, except when given or made in criminal proceedings, applies notwithstanding that it is subject to appeal or that an appeal against it is pending.
- (3) In their application by virtue of subsection (1) above the provisions there mentioned shall have effect—
- (a) with the omission of so much of section 2(1) as imposes a time-limit for applications for registration;
 - (b) with the omission of section 4(1)(a)(v) and (vi); and
 - (c) as if the Commissioners were the judgment creditor and any criminal proceedings in which the judgment or order was given or made were an action.
- (4) The reference in subsection (1) above to sections 2 to 5 of the said Act of 1933 includes a reference to so much of sections 11 to 13 of that Act as is relevant to those sections and the definition of “appeal” in section 11 shall apply for the purposes of subsection (2) above.
- (5) The reference in subsection (1) above to the High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man includes a reference to the Court of General Gaol Delivery.

5 Offences relating to common duties etc.

- (1) Any summons or other process requiring a person in the Isle of Man to appear before a court in the United Kingdom—
- (a) to answer a charge that he has committed an offence relating to a common duty chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom or to the importation or exportation of anything into or from the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) to give evidence or to produce any document or thing in proceedings for any such offence,
- may be served by being sent to him by registered post or the recorded delivery service.
- (2) In relation to proceedings for any such offence as is mentioned in subsection (1) above—

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Isle of Man Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) section 77 of the ^{M3}Magistrates' Courts Act 1952 (summons to witness and warrant for his arrest) shall have effect as if the reference in subsection (1) of that section to a person in England and Wales included a reference to a person in the Isle of Man;
 - (b) in Scotland a warrant for the citation of accused persons and witnesses shall include a warrant to cite accused persons and witnesses in the Isle of Man.
- (3) In relation to proceedings for any such offence as is mentioned in subsection (1) above—
- (a) sections 2 and 9 of the ^{M4}Criminal Justice Act 1967 (admission of written statements) shall apply also to written statements made in the Isle of Man but with the omission of subsections (2)(b) and (3A) of section 2 and subsections (2)(b) and (3A) of section 9;
 - (b) section 1 of the ^{M5}Criminal Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 1968 and section 3 of the ^{M6}Criminal Procedure (Committal for Trial) Act (Northern Ireland) 1968 (which contain corresponding provisions) shall apply also to written statements made in the Isle of Man but with the omission of subsection (2)(b) of section 1 and subsection (2)(c) of section 3.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, a warrant issued in the Isle of Man for the arrest of—
- (a) a person charged with an offence relating to a common duty chargeable under the law of the Isle of Man or to the importation or exportation of anything into or from the Island; or
 - (b) a person required to give evidence or to produce any document or thing in proceedings for any such offence,
- may be executed in England and Wales by any constable acting within his police area, in Scotland by any officer of law as defined in [^{F5}section 307(1) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995] and in Northern Ireland by any member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary or the Royal Ulster Constabulary Reserve.
- (5) A warrant, other than one for the arrest of a person charged with an offence punishable with at least two years' imprisonment, shall not be executed under subsection (4) above unless it has been endorsed for execution under that subsection by a justice of the peace in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland, as the case may be; and any warrant which purports to have been issued as mentioned in that subsection may be so endorsed without further proof.
- (6) A warrant for the arrest of a person charged with an offence may be executed by a constable under subsection (4) above notwithstanding that it is not in his possession at the time; but the warrant shall, on demand of that person, be shown to him as soon as practicable.
- (7) Subsections (1) and (4) above are without prejudice to any other enactment enabling any process to be served or executed otherwise than as provided in those subsections.
- (8) References in this section to a warrant for the arrest of any person include references to any process for that purpose available under the law of the Isle of Man; and references to an offence relating to a common duty or to importation or exportation include references to any offence which relates to any of those matters whether or not it is an offence under a provision dealing specifically with that matter.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

6 Value added tax.

- (1) For the purpose of giving effect to any Agreement between the government of the United Kingdom and the government of the Isle of Man whereby both countries are to be treated as a single area for the purposes of value added tax charged under the Value Added Tax Act [^{F6}1994] and value added tax charged under the corresponding Act of Tynwald, Her Majesty may by Order in Council make provision for securing that tax is charged under the Act of [^{F6}1994] as if all or any of the references in it to the United Kingdom included both the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man but so that tax is not charged under both Acts in respect of the same transaction.
- (2) An Order in Council under this section may make provision—
 - (a) for determining, or enabling the Commissioners to determine, under which Act a person is to be registered and for transferring a person registered under one Act to the register kept under the other;
 - (b) for treating a person who is a taxable person for the purposes of the Act of Tynwald as a taxable person for all or any of the purposes of [^{F7}the Act of [^{F6}1994]];
 - (c) for extending any reference in [^{F7}the Act of [^{F6}1994]] to tax under that Act so as to include tax under the Act of Tynwald;
 - (d) for treating any requirement imposed by or under either Act as a requirement imposed by or under the other;
 - (e) for treating any permission, direction, notice, determination or other thing given, made or done under the Act of Tynwald by the Isle of Man authority corresponding to the Commissioners as given, made or done by the Commissioners under [^{F7}the Act of [^{F6}1994]];
 - (f) for enabling the Commissioners to determine for the purposes of [^{F7}section [^{F8}43]] of [^{F7}the Act of [^{F6}1994]] (groups of companies) which member of a group is to be the representative member in cases where supplies are made both in the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man;
 - (g) for modifying or excluding, as respects goods removed from the Isle of Man to the United Kingdom or from the United Kingdom to the Isle of Man, any provision relating to importation or exportation contained in [^{F7}the Act of [^{F6}1994]] or in the customs and excise Acts as applied by that Act;
 - (h) for any supplementary, incidental or transitional matter.
- (3) An Order in Council under this section may make such modifications of any provision contained in or having effect under any Act of Parliament relating to value added tax as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Order.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Isle of Man Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) While an Order in Council under this section is in force and without prejudice to the powers conferred by the foregoing provisions—
- (a) [F9section [F1030(10)]] of [F9The Act of [F61994]] (forfeiture of zero-rated goods) shall have effect as if the reference to goods zero-rated under the regulations there mentioned included a reference to goods zero-rated under any corresponding regulations made under the Act of Tynwald;
 - (b) [F9paragraph 10(3) of [F11Schedule 11]to] of [F9The Act of [F61994]] (search of premises where offence is suspected) shall have effect as if the references to an offence in connection with the tax included references to an offence in connection with the tax charged under the Act of Tynwald;
 - (c) [F9section [F1272(8)]] of [F9The Act of [F61994]] (course of conduct involving offences) shall have effect as if the reference to offences under the provisions there mentioned included a reference to offences under the corresponding provisions of the Act of Tynwald.
- (5) Provision may be made by or under an Act of Tynwald for purposes corresponding to those of this section and of any Order in Council made under it.

8 Removal of goods from Isle of Man to United Kingdom.

- (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) below, goods removed to the United Kingdom from the Isle of Man shall be deemed for the purposes of the customs and excise Acts not to be imported into the United Kingdom.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply to—
- (a) goods imported into or produced in the Isle of Man which are of a class or description chargeable with customs or excise duty under the law of the United Kingdom and which have not borne a corresponding duty under the law of the Isle of Man;

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Isle of Man Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) goods which were imported into the Isle of Man in contravention of any prohibition or restriction and which are of a class or description the importation of which into the United Kingdom is for the time being subject to a corresponding prohibition or restriction; ^{F14}...
 - (c) any explosives within the meaning of the ^{M7}Explosives Act 1875 on the unloading or landing of which any restriction is for the time being in force under or by virtue of that Act [^{F15}or]^{F15}
 - ^{F16}(d) any explosives the importation of which into the United Kingdom is prohibited by regulation 24 of the Manufacture and Storage of Explosives Regulations 2005.]
- ^{F16}(3) The goods referred to in subsection (2)(a) above do not include goods which have been wholly or partly exempted from duty under any Isle of Man equivalent to section 48 of the ^{M8}Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (relief for goods temporarily imported) or section 13 of the ^{M9}Customs and Excise Duties (General Reliefs) Act 1979 (personal reliefs for imported goods) [^{F17}or under any [^{F18}EU] instrument] but where—
- (a) any such exemption was subject to conditions required to be complied with after importation of the goods into the Isle of Man; and
 - (b) the goods are removed to the United Kingdom,
- the customs and excise Acts shall apply to the goods as if they had been imported into the United Kingdom when they were imported into the Isle of Man and as if corresponding conditions had then been imposed under the said section 48 or 13 [^{F19}or under the [^{F18}EU] instrument in question].
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a) above goods of any class or description shall be treated as having borne a corresponding duty under the law of the Isle of Man if they have borne duty under that law at a rate not less than that at which duty was then chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom in respect of goods of that class or description; and where goods have borne duty under the law of the Isle of Man at a lower rate, the duty charged on their importation into the United Kingdom shall be reduced by an amount equal to the duty borne under that law.

10 Exchange of information.

No obligation as to secrecy or other restriction on the disclosure of information imposed by statute or otherwise shall prevent the Commissioners or any officer of the Commissioners from disclosing information to the Isle of Man customs and excise service for the purpose of facilitating the proper administration of common duties and the enforcement of prohibitions or restrictions on importation or exportation into or from the Isle of Man or the United Kingdom.

11 Transfer of functions to Isle of Man authorities.

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such modifications in any provision contained in or having effect under any Act of Parliament extending to the Isle of Man as appear to Her Majesty to be appropriate for the purpose of transferring to any authority or person constituted by or having functions under the law of the Island—
- (a) any functions under that provision of the Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Man (whether referred to by that title or otherwise) or of a deputy governor of the Island;
 - (b) any functions under that provision, so far as exercisable in relation to the Island, of the Commissioners or an officer of the Commissioners.
- (2) Any statutory instrument made by virtue of this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

12 Proof of Acts of Tynwald etc.

- (1) Without prejudice to the ^{M11}Evidence (Colonial Statutes) Act 1907, any Act of Tynwald or other instrument forming part of the law of the Isle of Man may, in any proceedings in the United Kingdom relating to a common duty or to importation or exportation into or from the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, be proved by producing a copy of the Act or instrument authenticated by a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Attorney General for the Island.
- (2) Any provision contained in or having effect under an Act of Tynwald which—
- (a) prescribes the mode or burden of proof with respect to any matter in proceedings relating to a common duty chargeable under the law of the Isle of Man; and
 - (b) corresponds to a provision of United Kingdom law for similar purposes,
- shall apply to any proceedings in the United Kingdom relating to that duty.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/07/2012.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Isle of Man Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) For the purposes of any proceedings in the United Kingdom relating to a common duty an order may be made under the ^{M12}Bankers' Books Evidence Act 1879 in respect of books and persons in the Isle of Man.

Editorial Information

X1 The text of ss. 13, 14(5), Sch. 1 paras 2-8, 12-24, 26-35, Sch. 2 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

14 Short title, interpretation, repeals, commencement and extent.

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Isle of Man Act 1979.
- (2) In this Act—
 - “the Commissioners” means the Commissioners of Customs and Excise;
 - “common duties” has the meaning given in section 1 above and “common duty” shall be construed accordingly;
 - “customs duty” includes any levy or other charge which is treated as a customs duty by section 6 of the ^{M13}European Communities Act 1972.
- (3) Any other expression used in this Act which is also used in the ^{M14}Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 has the same meaning as in that Act.
- (4) Without prejudice to section 2(3) above,—
 - (a) any addition to an excise duty by virtue of section 1 of the ^{M15}Excise Duties (Surcharges or Rebates) Act 1979 or any Isle of Man equivalent; and
 - (b) any sum recoverable as a debt due to the Crown under [^{F25}paragraph 5(3) of Schedule 11 to the Value Added Tax Act 1994] (sums shown in invoices as value added tax) or any Isle of Man equivalent, shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as an amount of excise duty or value added tax chargeable under the law of the United Kingdom or, as the case may be, the Isle of Man.

^{X2}(5) The enactments mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Act (which include spent provisions) are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.
