6 Licensing of knackers' yards.

- (1) A person carrying on the business of slaughterman or knacker shall not use any premises as a knacker's yard without a licence from the local authority; and if he does he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F5</sup>level 1 on the standard scale] and the fact that animals (other than asses or mules) have been taken into unlicensed premises shall be prima facie evidence that an offence under this section has been committed.
- (2) A licence under this section shall expire on such day in every year as the local authority fix and when a licence is first granted shall expire on the day so fixed which secondly occurs after the grant of the licence; and a fee not exceeding twenty-five pence may be charged for the licence or any renewal thereof.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1999.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Slaughter of Animals (Scotland) Act 1980. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Not less than twenty-one days before a new licence for any premises is granted under this section, notice of the intention to apply for it shall be advertised as provided in section 32(2) of the <sup>M3</sup>Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897 by the local authority in whose area the premises are situated; and any person interested may show cause against the grant or renewal of the licence.
- (4) An objection shall not be entertained to the renewal of a licence under this section unless seven days previous notice of the objection has been served on the applicant: Provided that, on an objection being made of which notice has not been given, the local authority may, if they think it just to do so, direct notice thereof to be served on the applicant, adjourn the question of the renewal to a future date, require the attendance of the applicant on that day, then hear the case and consider the objection as if the said notice had been duly given.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a licence shall be deemed to be renewed where a further licence is granted in immediate succession to a prior licence for the same premises.
- (6) Where any person has been refused a renewal of a licence under this section, such person may appeal to the Secretary of State against such refusal; and the decision of the Secretary of State shall be final.

7 Further provisions in relation to registration in respect of slaughterhouses and to licensing of knackers' yards.

- (1) In relation to the use of any premises for or in connection with the slaughter of horses—
  - (a) a licence granted under section 6 of this Act;
  - <sup>F6</sup>(b) .....shall be of no effect unless expressly authorising the use of the premises for that purpose.
- (2) Where any premises used or to be used for the confinement of animals awaiting slaughter in a <sup>F7</sup> . . . knacker's yard are situated outside the curtilage of the premises used or to be used for the slaughter—
  - (a) separate licences may be granted under the said section 6; <sup>F7</sup> . . .
  - <sup>F6</sup>(b) .....authorising the use of those premises for those purposes respectively.
- (3) A licence under the said section 6 shall not be granted in respect of any premises unless the local authority are satisfied that the requirements of any regulations in force <sup>F8</sup> . . . with respect to the construction, lay-out and equipment of premises are complied with or will be complied with before the date on which the licence or renewed licence comes into force in respect of those premises; but nothing in this subsection shall be taken as affecting so much of the said section 6 as confers a right of appeal on a person aggrieved by the refusal of a local authority to renew a licence under that section.

9 Securing humane conditions in slaughterhouses and knackers' yards.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make such regulations as appear to him to be expedient for securing humane conditions and practices in connection with the slaughter of animals at slaughterhouses and knackers' yards and for securing the proper management of such premises for those purposes; and such regulations may in particular prescribe—
  - (a) requirements as to the construction, lay-out and equipment of premises used as slaughterhouses or knackers' yards;
  - (b) conditions to be observed in connection with the confinement and treatment of animals while awaiting slaughter in such premises, and in connection with the slaughter of animals therein.
- (2) Regulations made under this section may make different provision in relation to different kinds of animals and in relation to premises used for different purposes in connection with the slaughter of animals and may, so far as they are made for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above, be made to apply subject to exceptions or modifications in relation to premises constructed or adapted for use before the date on which the regulations come into force.
- (3) Regulations made under this section may prescribe penalties for offences against the regulations, not exceeding [<sup>F10</sup>a fine of level 3 on the standard scale or imprisonment for a term of six months or both], and may impose on the occupiers of premises to which the regulations apply responsibility for compliance with any of the provisions of the regulations.

[<sup>F11</sup>(4) Where a person convicted of an offence against regulations made under this section is—the holder of a licence granted under section 6, of this Act, the court may, where such <sup>F13</sup> . . . licence relates to premises where the offence was committed, in addition to any other penalty cancel the <sup>F13</sup> . . . licence <sup>F13</sup> . . .]

[<sup>F14</sup>(4) Regulations under this section may require occupiers of premises used as slaughterhouses or knackers' yards to secure that the provisions of regulations under this section are complied with on the premises.]

[<sup>F29</sup>19A Codes of practice.

- (1) The Secretary of State may from time to time, after consultation with such organisations as appear to him to represent the interests concerned—
  - (a) prepare and issue codes of practice for the purpose of providing practical guidance in respect of any provision of—
    - (i) [<sup>F30</sup>sections 9][<sup>F31</sup> and 14] of this Act; or
    - (ii) regulations made under [<sup>F31</sup>section 9 of this Act]; and
  - (b) revise any such code by revoking, varying, amending or adding to the provisions of the code.
- (2) A code prepared in pursuance of this section and any alterations proposed to be made on a revision of such a code shall be laid before [<sup>F32</sup>the Scottish Parliament], and the Secretary of State shall not issue the code or revised code, as the case may be, until after the end of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the code or the proposed alterations were so laid.
- (3) If, within the period mentioned in subsection (2) above, [<sup>F32</sup>the Scottish Parliament] resolves that the code be not issued or the proposed alterations be not made, the Secretary of State shall not issue the code or revised code (without prejudice to his power under that subsection to lay further codes or proposed alterations before [<sup>F32</sup>the Scottish Parliament]).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) above—
  - <sup>F33</sup>(a) .....
  - (b) in reckoning any period of 40 days, no account shall be taken of any time during which [<sup>F32</sup>the Scottish Parliament] is dissolved or [<sup>F34</sup>is in recess] for more than four days.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall cause any code issued or revised under this section to be printed and distributed, and may make such arrangements as he thinks fit for its distribution, including causing copies of it to be put on sale to the public at such reasonable price as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (6) A failure on the part of any person to follow any guidance contained in a code issued under this section shall not of itself render that person liable to proceedings of any kind.
- (7) If, in proceedings against any person for an offence consisting of the contravention of any provision of—
  - (a) [<sup>F30</sup>sections 9][<sup>F35</sup> and 14] of this Act; or
  - (b) regulations made under [<sup>F35</sup>section 9 of this Act];

SCHEDULE 2

Section 24(1).

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS.

- 1 (1) Without prejudice to section 8(4) of this Act and subject to paragraph 4 of this Schedule, in so far as anything done or having effect as if done under or in pursuance of any of the enactments repealed by this Act (in this Schedule referred to as “the repealed enactments”) could have been done under or in pursuance of a corresponding provision of this Act, it shall not be invalidated by reason only of the repeal but shall have effect as if done under or in pursuance of that provision; and anything begun under any of the repealed enactments may be continued under the corresponding provision of this Act as if begun under that provision.
- (2) Subparagraph (1) above applies in particular to any regulation, byelaw, determination, decision, authorisation, application, licence, renewal, suspension, revocation, notice, purchase, disposal, charge, certificate, prohibition, registration, refusal, cancellation, variation, appeal, objection, advertisement, specification, condition or penalty prescribed, responsibility imposed or warrant granted.
- 2 Without prejudice to any express amendment made by this Act, where any enactment or document refers, either expressly or by implication, to any of the repealed enactments, the reference shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed as, or as including, a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act.
- 3 Where any period of time specified in any of the repealed enactments is current at the commencement of this Act, this Act shall have effect as if the corresponding provision of this Act had been in force when that period began to run.
- 4 (1) Nothing in this Act shall affect the repealed enactments in their operation in relation to offences committed before the commencement of this Act.
- (2) Where an offence, for the continuance of which a penalty was provided, has been committed under any of the repealed enactments proceedings may, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed under the corresponding provision of this Act, be taken under this Act in respect of the continuance, after the commencement of this Act, of the offence.
- 5 Without prejudice to paragraph 1 or 4 above, any reference in this Act (whether express or implied) to a thing done or required or authorised to be done, or omitted to be done, or to any event which has occurred, under or for the purposes of or by reference to or in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed as including a reference to the corresponding thing done or required or authorised to be done, or omitted, or to the corresponding event which occurred as the case may be, under or for the purposes of or by reference to or in contravention of the corresponding provisions of the repealed enactments and of the enactments repealed by those enactments.
