PART I

PROVISION OF EDUCATION BY EDUCATION AUTHORITIES

School education and further education

1 Duty of education authorities to secure provision of education.

(1) Subject to [^{F1}subsections [^{F2}(1A)] and (2A)] below, it shall be the duty of every education authority to secure that there is made for their area adequate and efficient provision of school education and further education.

[^{F3}(1A) The duty imposed on education authorities by subsection (1) above shall, in relation to children who are under school age, be exercisable only as respects children of such description or descriptions as may be prescribed by order.

(1B) Where an order is made under subsection (1A) above, the amount of school education with which children of a description prescribed in that order are to be provided shall also be prescribed in the order.

(1C) An education authority shall have power in relation to pre-school children to secure for their area the provision of such school education, other than that which they are required by subsection (1) above to secure, as they think fit.]

Status: Point in time view as at 20/01/2009.

Changes to legislation: Education (Scotland) Act 1980 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. ^{F4}(2)

[^{F5}(2A) The duty imposed on an education authority by subsection (1) above shall not include the provision of further education within the meaning of Part I of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992, but an education authority shall have power to provide such further education for their area.]

(3) Every education authority [^{F6}shall for the purposes of their duty under subsection (1) above—

(a)] have power to secure for their area, and

(b) ^{F7} . . . be under a duty to secure for pupils in attendance at schools in their area, the provision of adequate facilities for social, cultural and recreative activities and for physical education and training.

(4) The facilities for further education that may be provided by an education authority shall include facilities for vocational and industrial training.

[^{F8}(4A) The power to make an order under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Scottish Parliament.

(4B) In this section “pre-school children” means—

(a) children who are under school age and have not commenced attendance at a primary school (other than a nursery class in such a school); and

(b) children who have attained school age but have not commenced attendance at such a school.]

(5) In this Act—

(a) “school education” means progressive education appropriate to the requirements of pupils ^{F9} . . . , regard being had to the age, ability and aptitude of such pupils, and includes—

(i) activities in schools and classes ([^{F10}such schools and classes being] in this Act called “nursery schools” and “nursery classes”), being activities of a kind suitable in the ordinary case for pupils who are under school age;

^{F11}(ii)

(iii) the teaching of Gaelic in Gaelic-speaking areas;

(b) further education includes—

(i)

(ii) voluntary part-time and full-time courses of instruction for persons over school age;

(iii) social, cultural and recreative activities and physical education and training, either as [^{F13}voluntary organised activities designed to promote the educational development of persons taking part therein or as] part of a course of instruction ^{F7} . . . ;

(iv) the teaching of Gaelic in Gaelic-speaking areas;

Discontinuance and moves of educational establishments

22 Discontinuance and moves of educational establishments.

- (1) Subject to any special conditions attaching thereto . . . ^{F89}, an education authority may—
- (a) sell, ^{F90} . . . excamb or let any land vested in them; and
 - (b) ^{F89}

- (2) Where an education authority propose to discontinue any educational establishment under their management, or to discontinue the use, in connection with such an educational establishment, of any part of that establishment, or of any building or part of a building ancillary to the establishment, and land forming the site, or part of the site, of that establishment or of that part of the establishment or of that building or part of a building, as the case may be, is subject to—

- (a) the third proviso to section 2 of the ^{M5}School Sites Act 1841 (which provides that, if any land granted in accordance with the provisions of that section ceases to be used for the purposes mentioned in that Act, that land shall revert to the grantor), or
- (b) any condition of a similar nature in any Act, deed or other instrument, the Secretary of State, on the application in that behalf of the education authority, may by order direct that the said proviso or condition shall not have effect in relation to that land:

Provided that such a direction shall not be given in relation to any land unless the Secretary of State is satisfied either—

- (i) that the person to whom the land would revert in accordance with the said proviso or condition cannot after due inquiry be found, or
- (ii) that, if that person can be found, he has consented to relinquish his rights in relation to the land under the said proviso or condition, and that, if he has consented to do so in consideration of the payment of a sum of money to him, adequate provision can be made for the payment to him of that sum.

- (3) A direction given by the Secretary of State under subsection (2) above in relation to any land may make provision for the payment out of the proceeds of any sale of that land of any sum which is payable to any person in consideration of the relinquishment of his rights in relation to the land under the said proviso or condition.

- (4) If at any time after the expiry of ten years from the transfer of a school under section 16 of this Act, or from the provision of a new school under section 17(2) of this Act, the education authority by whom the school is maintained are of opinion that the school is no longer required, or that, having regard to the religious belief of the parents of the children attending the school, the conditions prescribed in subsections (1) to (4) of section 21 of this Act or in the said subsections so far as applicable and having effect by virtue of subsection (5) of that section, as the case may be, ought no longer to apply thereto, . . . ^{F89} it shall [^{F91}subject to sections 22A, 22B, 22C and 22D of this Act] be lawful for the education authority thereafter to discontinue the school, or, as the case 22B Consent for certain changes in educational matters.

- (1) An education authority shall submit to the Secretary of State for his consent any proposal of theirs of a prescribed kind and shall not implement such a proposal without his consent.
- (2) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed for the purposes of this section by the Secretary of State by regulations and the Secretary of State may prescribe different kinds of proposals in relation to different education authorities.

22C Consent for certain changes affecting denominational schools.

- (1) An education authority shall submit to the Secretary of State for his consent any proposal of theirs to which this section applies and shall not implement such a proposal without his consent.
- (2) A proposal to which this section applies is one which—
 - (a) relates to a school transferred to an education authority under section 16(1) or provided by them under section 17(2) of this Act; and
 - (b) will, if implemented, have the effect that all or some of the pupils who attend the school will no longer receive school education in a school of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) above or that all or some of the children who would, but for the implementation of the proposal, have been likely to attend it will not be likely to receive such education in a school of that kind.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not grant consent under this section unless he is satisfied that adequate arrangements have been made for the religious instruction of pupils and children who would, as a result of implementation of the proposal, no longer receive or be likely to receive school education in a school of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) above.
- (4) In granting consent under this section the Secretary of State may impose such conditions as he thinks fit with regard to the religious instruction of the pupils and children referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) above and to related matters and conditions imposed by the Secretary of State under this section may be revoked or amended by him at any time.
- (5) Any question which may arise—
 - (a) whether a proposal is one to which this section applies;
 - (b) as to the implementation of a proposal to which the Secretary of State has consented under this section;
 - (c) as to the fulfilment or observation of any conditions upon his consent imposed under subsection (4) above shall be determined by the Secretary of State and the education authority shall perform their duties under this Act in accordance with any such determination.

- (1) An education authority shall submit to the Secretary of State for his consent any proposal of theirs to which this section applies and shall not implement such a proposal without his consent.

- (2) A proposal to which this section applies is one—

- (a) which relates to a school transferred to [F95an] education authority under section 16(1) or provided by them under section 17(2) of this Act;

- (b) to—

- (i) discontinue the school or a part of it;
- (ii) amalgamate the school or a part of it with another school;
- (iii) change the site of the school;
- (iv) change the arrangements for admission to the school; or
- (v) disapply to the school the conditions prescribed in subsections (1) to (4) of section 21 of this Act or in the said subsections so far as applicable and having effect by virtue of subsection (5) of that section; and

- (c) in relation to which the Secretary of State, having consulted [F96any education authority affected by it], is satisfied, upon written representations made, in the case of any church or denominational body in whose interest the school is conducted other than the Roman Catholic Church, by a person authorised for that purpose by that church or denominational body and, in the case of the Roman Catholic Church, by the Scottish Hierarchy of that Church, that—

- (i) if implemented, it will have [F97any of the results] specified in subsection (3) below; and
- (ii) the education authority [F98submitting the proposal under subsection (1) above]and the church, denominational body or Hierarchy, as the case may be, have, after discussion, failed to reach agreement that it should be implemented.

- [F99(3) The results referred to in subsection (2)(c)(i) above are—

- (a) a significant deterioration for pupils belonging to the area of the education authority submitting the proposal under subsection (1) above; or
- (b) a significant deterioration for pupils belonging to the area of any other education authority; or
- (c) where neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) above applies, such a deterioration for pupils as mentioned in the said paragraph (a) and pupils belonging to the area of another education authority as, taken together, amounts to a significant deterioration, and any such payment may be made either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as may be agreed between the parties.

(2) Where—

- (a) it is agreed between an education authority and the managers of any educational establishment, as a condition of the making of payments under subsection (1) above, that the authority shall have representation or additional representation on the governing body of that establishment, but
- (b) the provisions of any trust deed or other instrument relating to the establishment will not, unless they are modified, permit provision to be made for such representation or additional representation as aforesaid, the Secretary of State may, on being requested to do so by the managers of the establishment, by order make such modifications in the provisions of that trust deed or other instrument as may be necessary to enable provision to be made for such representation or additional representation, as the case may be, as aforesaid, and any such trust deed or other instrument shall, so long as the said payments continue to be made, have effect subject to any modifications so made.

Promotion of educational developments

25 Educational research.

An education authority may make such provision for conducting or assisting the conduct of research as appears to the authority to be desirable for the purpose of improving the education provided for their area.

26 Educational conferences.

An education authority may arrange or organise, or participate in the arrangement or organisation of, conferences or meetings for the discussion of questions relating to education, and may expend such sums as may be reasonable in paying or contributing towards any expenditure incurred in connection with conferences or meetings for the discussion of such questions, including the expenses of any person authorised by them to attend any such conference or meeting.

27 Provision of museums by education authorities.

(1) An education authority may provide and maintain museums within their area, and shall have power—

- (a) to acquire any objects which, in their opinion, it is desirable to include in a collection contained in a museum maintained by them under this section;
- (b) to lend any object vested in them and comprised in any such collection, on such terms and conditions as they think fit, to any person for any purpose;
- (c) subject to subsection (3) below, to transfer any object vested in them and comprised in any such collection to the governing body of a museum maintained by a person other than the education authority, for the purpose of being included in a collection contained in that museum;
- (d) subject to subsection (3) below, to sell, exchange, give away or otherwise dispose of any object vested in them and comprised in a collection contained in a museum maintained by them under this section, if for any reason that object is not, in their opinion, required for retention in any such collection;

- (e) to co-operate with any other education authority or any other body;
 - (f) generally to do all such things as they may consider necessary or expedient for or in connection with the provision and maintenance of museums under this section.
- (2) An education authority may, if they think fit, make such charge as they consider reasonable for admission to a museum maintained by them under this section, and in determining whether, and in what manner, to exercise their powers under this subsection in relation to any museum, an authority shall take into account the need to secure that the museum plays its full part in the promotion of education in their area, and shall have particular regard to the interests of children and students.
- (3) Where an object has become vested in an education authority subject to any trust or condition—
- (a) that object shall, on being transferred under subsection (1)(c) above, be subject to the like trust or condition in the hands of the transferee;
 - (b) the powers conferred by subsection (1) (d) above shall not be exercisable in relation to that object in a manner inconsistent with that trust or condition.

PART II

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARENTS AND FUNCTIONS OF EDUCATION AUTHORITIES IN RELATION TO INDIVIDUAL PUPILS

General principle

28 Pupils to be educated in accordance with the wishes of their parents.

- (1) In the exercise and performance of their powers and duties under this Act, the Secretary of State and education authorities shall have regard to the general principle that, so far as is compatible with the provision of suitable instruction and training and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure, pupils are to be educated in accordance with the wishes of their parents.

^{F118} Duty to comply with parents' requests as to schools.

28A

- (1) Where the parent of a [^{F119}qualifying child] makes a written request to an education authority to place his child in the school specified in the request, being a school [^{F120}(other than a nursery school or a nursery class in a school)] under their management, it shall be the duty of the authority, subject to subsections (2) [^{F121}, (3) [^{F122}, (3A) and (3F)]] below, to place the child accordingly.

Such a request so made is referred to in this Act as a “placing request” and the school specified in it is referred to in this Act as the “specified school”.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/01/2009.

Changes to legislation: Education (Scotland) Act 1980 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [The education authorities shall—
- ^{F123}(1A) (a) in carrying out the duty imposed on them by subsection (1) above; and
 (b) in deciding when that duty does not apply, have regard to such guidance as the Scottish Ministers may give in that respect.]
- (2) Where a placing request relates to two or more schools under the management of the education authority to whom it was made, the duty imposed by subsection (1) above shall apply in relation to the first mentioned such school, which shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as the specified school.
- (3) The duty imposed by subsection (1) above does not apply—
- (a) if placing the child in the specified school would—
- (i) make it necessary for the authority to take an additional teacher into employment;
 - (ii) give rise to significant expenditure on extending or otherwise altering the accommodation at or facilities provided in connection with the school;
 - (iii) be seriously detrimental to the continuity of the child's education;
 [be likely to be seriously detrimental to order and discipline in the
 - ^{F124}(iv) school; ^{F125} ...
 - (v) be likely to be seriously detrimental to the educational well-being of pupils attending the school;]
 [assuming that pupil numbers remain constant, make it necessary, at
 - ^{F126}(vi) the commencement of a future stage of the child's primary education, for the authority to elect either to create an additional class (or an additional composite class) in the specified school or to take an additional teacher into employment at that school;]^{F127} or
 - (vii) though neither of the tests set out in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) above is satisfied, have the consequence that the capacity of the school would be exceeded in terms of pupil numbers;]
- (b) if the education normally provided at the specified school is not suited to the age, ability or aptitude of the child;
- (c) if the education authority have already required the child to discontinue his attendance at the specified school;
- (d) if, where the specified school is a special school, the child does not have [^{F128}additional support needs] requiring the education or special facilities normally provided at that school; or
- (e) if the specified school is a single sex school (within the meaning given to that expression by section 26 of the ^{M6}Sex Discrimination Act 1975) and the child is not of the sex admitted or taken (under that section) to be admitted to the school, but an education authority may place a child in the specified school notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (e) above.

- ^{F129} [^{F131} ... the duty imposed by subsection (1) above does not apply where the acceptance
- ^{F130}(3A) of a placing request in respect of a child who is resident outwith the catchment area of the specified school would prevent the education authority from retaining reserved places at the specified school or in relation to any particular stage of education at the school; but nothing in this subsection shall prevent an education authority from placing a child in the specified school.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/01/2009.

Changes to legislation: Education (Scotland) Act 1980 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3C) In subsection (3A) above, “reserved places” means such number of places (not exceeding such number or, as the case may be, such percentage of places at the school or relating to the particular stage of education as may be prescribed by regulations) as are in the opinion of the education authority reasonably required to accommodate pupils likely to become resident in the catchment area of the school in the period from the time of consideration of the placing request up to and during the year from 1 August to which the placing request relates; and different numbers or, as the case may be, percentages may be prescribed under this subsection for the purpose of different cases or circumstances.

(3D) In subsections (3A) and (3C) above, “catchment area” means the area from which pupils resident therein will be admitted to the school in terms of any priority based on residence in accordance with the guidelines formulated by the authority under section 28B(1)(c) of this Act.

^{F130} [Where an education authority are carrying out the duty imposed on them by subsection (1) above in respect of a child such as is mentioned in subsection (6)(c) below, they shall place the child in the specified school—

- (a) on the date (being the date fixed for that school under section 32(1) and (2) of this Act) next following the making of the placing request; or
- (b) where that date has passed, as soon after that date as is reasonably practicable.]

(4) An education authority shall inform a parent in writing of their decision on his placing request and, where they decide to refuse it, shall give him written reasons for their decision and inform him of his right to refer it under section 28C of this Act to an appeal committee.

(5) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, make provision for deeming an education authority to have refused a placing request in the event of their not having informed the parent in writing of their decision on it in accordance with subsection (4) above within such period or before such date as may be prescribed in the regulations and different periods or dates may be so prescribed for different purposes.

^{F133} [In this section—

- (6) “primary school” does not include a nursery school or a nursery class; and “qualifying child” means—
 - (a) a child of school age;
 - (b) a child who has commenced attendance at a primary school but is not of school age; or
 - (c) a child who is not of school age and who, on the date (being the date fixed under subsections (1) and (2) of section 32 of this Act for the purposes of subsection (6) of that section) next following the making of the request under subsection (1) above, will be eligible under this Act to commence attendance at a primary school.]]

32 Dates for commencement of school attendance.

- (1) Subject to subsection (7) below, an education authority shall fix a date or dates (any such fixed date being hereinafter referred to as a “school commencement date”) for the commencement of attendance at primary schools in their area; and any such date may be either a calendar date or fixed by reference to the occurrence of a particular annual event.
- (2) Subject to subsection (7) below, an education authority may, under subsection (1) above—
 - (a) fix different school commencement dates for different primary schools in their area;
 - (b) at any time fix a different school commencement date in substitution for any date previously fixed by them under the said subsection (1).
- (3) A child who does not attain the age of five years on a school commencement date shall, for the purposes of section 31 of this Act, be deemed not to have attained that age until the school commencement date next following the fifth anniversary of his birth.
- (4) Subject to subsection (7) below, an education authority shall, in respect of each school commencement date fixed by them under subsection (1) above and applicable to a public primary school, fix the latest following date (any such fixed date being hereinafter referred to as an “appropriate latest date”) on or before which a child must attain the age of five years in order to come within the category of children whom the authority consider of sufficient age to commence attendance at a public primary school at that school commencement date.
- (5) Subject to subsection (7) below, an education authority may, under subsection (4) above—
 - (a) where a school commencement date is applicable to more than one public primary school in their area, fix in respect of that school commencement date different appropriate latest dates for those different schools;
 - (b) at any time fix a different appropriate latest date in substitution for any date previously fixed by them under the said subsection (4).
- (6) The education authority shall carry out their duty under section 1 of this Act as if a child who is under school age on a school commencement date, but who will attain the age of five years on or before the next following appropriate latest date fixed in respect of the school commencement date, has attained the age of five years on the school commencement date; but nothing in this subsection or in subsection (4) above shall, in respect of a child under school age,— 34 Exemption from school attendance.

- (1) Where after due inquiry an education authority are satisfied that by reason of any circumstances existing at his home it would cause exceptional hardship to require a child over fourteen years of age to attend school, they may grant exemption from the obligation to attend school to enable the said child to give assistance at home upon such conditions, if any, as to the amount and manner of further attendance at school until the child reaches the upper limit of the school age as the authority think fit.
- (2) No exemption granted under subsection (1) above shall extend beyond the date for commencing school attendance next following the date upon which the exemption was granted.

Provided that the authority may if they think fit renew an exemption, so however that the provisions of this section shall apply to such renewal in like manner as they apply to the original grant.
- (3) An exemption granted under this section shall exempt the parent of the child concerned from any prosecution or other proceeding under this Act for neglecting to provide for the education of the said child.
- (4) The education authority shall keep a register of exemptions granted under this section wherein shall be entered the name of each child so exempted and a statement of the circumstances in which and the conditions upon which such exemption was granted.

Failure of parents to provide education for their children

35 Failure by parent to secure regular attendance by his child at a public school.

- (1) Where a child of school age who has attended a public school on one or more occasions fails without reasonable excuse to attend regularly at the said school, then, unless the education authority have consented to the withdrawal of the child from the school (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), his parent shall be guilty of an offence against this section.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a child who has been required to discontinue for any period his attendance at a school on account of his parent's refusal or failure to comply with the rules, regulations or disciplinary requirements of the school, shall, unless the court otherwise determines, be deemed to have failed without reasonable excuse to attend regularly at the school.

39 Amendment and revocation of attendance orders.

- (1) An education authority who have made an attendance order in respect of any child may at any time while the order is in force serve upon the parent of the said child a notice of their intention to amend the order by substituting the name of another school for that named in the order.
- (2) Where a child in respect of whom an attendance order is in force moves his residence, the education authority of the area to which the child has moved may serve upon the parent of the said child a notice of their intention to amend that order by substituting for the name of the school appearing in the order the name of a school attended by children residing in the same neighbourhood as the child.
- (3) The parent may within fourteen days of the service of a notice under subsection (1) or (2) above intimate in writing to the authority any objections he may have to the proposed amendment. After the expiry of the said period of fourteen days and after considering any objections made by the parent, the authority may amend the attendance order, and subsections (2), (4) and (5) of section 38 of this Act shall apply in the case of the amended attendance order as they apply in the case of an attendance order.
- (4) If at any time while an attendance order is in force with respect to any child the parent of the child makes application to the authority by whom the order was made or amended requesting—
 - (a) that another school be substituted for that named in the order, or
 - (b) that the order be revoked on the ground that arrangements have been made for the child to receive efficient education suitable to his age, ability and aptitude at a school other than that named in the order or elsewhere than at school, the authority shall amend or revoke the order in compliance with the request unless they are of opinion that the proposed change of school is unreasonable or inexpedient in the interests of the child, or that the arrangements made for the education of the child at a school other than that named in the order or elsewhere than at school are not satisfactory, as the case may be; and, if a parent is aggrieved by a failure of the authority to reach a decision upon his application within one month after the date thereof or by refusal of the authority to comply with any such request, he may appeal to the sheriff, who shall give such direction as he thinks fit.

40 Period of operation of attendance orders.

An attendance order made in respect of any child shall, subject to any amendment thereof made by an education authority or variation made by the sheriff, and unless revoked by an authority or annulled by the sheriff, continue in force so long as the child is of school age:

42 Reasonable excuses.

- (1) For the purposes of sections 35, 36, 37, 41 and 44 of this Act, there shall [^{F157}, subject to subsection (1A) below,] be deemed to be a reasonable excuse if—
- (a) there is within walking distance of the child's home measured by the nearest available route no public or other school the managers of which are willing to receive the child and to provide him with free education, and either—
 - (i) no arrangements have been made by the education authority under section 50 or 51 of this Act with regard to the child; or
 - (ii) any arrangements so made are such as to require the child to walk more than walking distance in the course of any journey between his home and school; or
 - (b) the child has been prevented by sickness from attending school or receiving education as the case may be; or
 - (c) there are other circumstances which in the opinion of the education authority or the court afford a reasonable excuse.

[^{F158}(1A) Subsection (1) above shall not apply in a case where—

- (a) the education authority have, in accordance with their arrangements as published or otherwise made available under section 28B(1)(a) of this Act, proposed to place the child in a particular school or in one of a number of schools named by them and, where the particular or named school is more than walking distance from the pupil's home measured by the nearest available route, they have offered to make for him suitable arrangements of the kind referred to in section 50 or 51 of this Act under which he would not require to walk more than walking distance, so measured, in the course of any journey between his home and the school; but
 - (b) in consequence of a placing request, the child has been placed by them in a school other than a school referred to in paragraph (a) above,
- and in such a case, for the purposes of sections 35, 36, 37, 41 and 44 of this Act, there shall be deemed to be a reasonable excuse if—
- (i) the child has been prevented by sickness from attending school or receiving education as the case may be; or
 - (ii) there are other circumstances which in the opinion of the education authority or the court afford a reasonable excuse.]
- (2) The fact that an application to an education authority, or an appeal to the sheriff, has been made under section 39(4) of this Act in relation to an attendance order in respect of a child shall not be deemed to be a reasonable excuse for failure to cause the child to attend regularly at the school named in the order.

56A Food and drink: nutritional requirements

- (1) Where subsection (2) applies in relation to food or drink provided for pupils in attendance at public schools, an education authority must ensure that the food or, as the case may be, drink complies with nutritional requirements specified by the Scottish Ministers by regulations.
- (2) This subsection applies where—
 - (a) food or drink is provided under section 53(1)(a), or
 - (b) food or drink provided on the premises of a public school or on the premises of a hostel provided and maintained by the education authority for pupils—
 - (i) is not provided under section 53(1)(a), and
 - (ii) does not fall within subsection (3).
- (3) Food or drink falls within this subsection if it is—
 - (a) brought onto the premises of the school or hostel by a pupil, or
 - (b) provided as part of a social, cultural or recreative activity (whether or not the activity is organised by an education authority).
- (4) It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (1) whether food or drink is provided by—
 - (a) the education authority, or
 - (b) another person in pursuance of an agreement or other arrangement with the authority.

56B Regulations under section 56A: further provision

- (1) Regulations such as are mentioned in section 56A(1) may, in particular, include provision for or in connection with—
 - (a) specifying particular foods or drinks which satisfy, or fail to satisfy, nutritional requirements specified in the regulations,
 - (b) specifying circumstances where food or drink may be provided to a pupil even if it does not satisfy nutritional requirements specified in the regulations,
 - (c) requiring that drinking water be made available for every pupil, free of charge, on the premises of—
 - (i) a public school, or
 - (ii) a hostel provided and maintained by an education authority for pupils.
- (2) Regulations under section 56A(1) may make different provision for different purposes and for different descriptions of pupil.

58 Power to ensure cleanliness.

- (1) An education authority may, by directions in writing issued with respect to all schools, ^{F221} and other educational establishments under their management or with respect to any of such schools, ^{F222} or establishments named in the directions ^{F223} ... authorise a medical officer of the appropriate Health Board to cause examinations to be made of the bodies and clothing of all or any of the pupils in attendance at such schools ^{F223} ... and young persons in attendance at such ^{F221} establishments whenever in his opinion such examinations are necessary in the interests of cleanliness.
- (2) Any such examination as aforesaid shall be made by such medical officer or by a person authorised in writing by him to make such examinations (in this section referred to as an “authorised person”), and, if the body or clothing of any pupil or young person is found upon such an examination to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition, the authority ^{F224} ... may serve upon the parent of such pupil or upon the young person a notice requiring the parent to cause the body and clothing of the pupil to be cleansed or the young person to cause himself and his clothing to be cleansed as the case may be.
- (3) A notice served under subsection (2) above shall inform the person upon whom it is served that, unless within the period limited by the notice, not being more than twenty-four hours after the service thereof, the body and clothing of the pupil or young person to whom the notice relates are cleansed to the satisfaction of the medical officer or an authorised person as may be specified in the notice, the cleansing thereof will be carried out under arrangements made by the education authority ^{F225} ...; and, if at the expiration of that period the medical officer or an authorised person is not satisfied that the body and clothing of the pupil or young person have been properly cleansed, the medical officer or an authorised person may issue an order directing that the body and clothing of the pupil or young person be cleansed under such arrangements. The order shall be sufficient to authorise any officer of the authority ^{F225} ... to cause the body and clothing of the pupil or young person named in the order to be cleansed in accordance with such arrangements, and for that purpose to convey him to the premises where the cleansing is to be carried out and to detain him there until such time as the cleansing has been completed.
- (4) It shall be the duty of the education authority ^{F226} ... to make arrangements for securing that any cleansing under this section, whether at the request of a parent or young person or in pursuance of an order issued under this section, may be carried out in suitable premises by suitable persons and with suitable appliances.
- (5) If after the cleansing of the body or clothing of any pupil or young person has been carried out under this section his body or clothing is again found to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition at any time while he is in attendance at such school, ^{F221} or other educational establishment, and it is proved that the condition of his body or clothing is due to neglect on the part of his parent, or, in the case of a young person in attendance at [^{F227} an] educational establishment, to his own neglect, the parent or the young person, as the case may be, shall be liable on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction in the case of a first conviction to a fine not exceeding £1, in the case of a second conviction to a fine not exceeding £5, and in the case of a third or subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding £10 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one month or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

- (6) Where such a medical officer or authorised person has reason to believe that the body or clothing of any pupil or young person in attendance at such school, ^{F221} or other educational establishment is infested with vermin or in a foul condition, but action for the examination or cleansing thereof cannot immediately be taken, he shall so advise the authority ^{F228} ..., who may, if they consider it necessary so to do in the interests either of the pupil or young person or of other children or young persons in attendance at the school, ^{F222} or other educational establishment, direct that the pupil or young person be excluded from the school, ^{F222} or other educational establishment until such action has been taken; and such a direction shall be a defence to any proceedings under this Act in respect of the failure of the pupil or young person to attend school or to comply with the requirements of an attendance notice, as the case may be, on any day on which he is excluded in pursuance of the direction, unless it is proved that the issue of the direction was necessitated by the wilful default of the parent or of the young person.
- (7) No female shall be examined or cleansed under the powers conferred by this section except by a registered medical practitioner or by a woman authorised for that purpose by a medical officer of a Health Board.
- (8) In this section “the appropriate Health Board” has the same meaning as in section 57 of this Act.

[^{F242}66B Duty of Her Majesty's Inspectors to make reference to Scottish Ministers

- (1) This section applies where, after an inspection under subsection (1) or (1AA) of section 66 of this Act of—
- (a) a public school; or
 - (b) a grant-aided school,
- Her Majesty's Inspectors identify that a relevant person requires to take action to secure improvement in a matter relating to the school or the school education provided in it.
- (2) If it appears to Her Majesty's Inspectors that—
- (a) having been given sufficient opportunity to secure improvement in a matter identified under subsection (1) above, the relevant person is failing or has failed to take satisfactory action to do so; and
 - (b) having regard to the seriousness of that failure, an enforcement direction is justified,
- they shall make a reference to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) A reference under subsection (2) above shall—
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) specify the failure mentioned in subsection (2)(a) above; and
 - (c) include recommendations as to the action which, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Inspectors, the relevant person requires to take to remedy or prevent the recurrence of that failure.

- (b) if the Secretary of State, where he is satisfied that it is reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to that pupil, decides that he should continue to hold that place for a further period during which he receives secondary education, at the end of that period.]

^{F275} [In this section references to a participating school are references to any grant-aided (2) or independent school providing secondary education which the Secretary of State has determined, prior to the coming into force of this subsection, to be a participating school for the purposes of the scheme.]

- (3) A determination under subsection (2) above—
 - (a) shall state the maximum annual amount allocated by the Secretary of State to the school under the scheme including the maximum annual amount so allocated for the purposes of section 75B of this Act; and
 - (b) may contain such conditions as the Secretary of State thinks fit in addition to those prescribed under subsection (9) below.

^{F276} [The Secretary of State may alter—

- (4) (a) the maximum annual amount referred to in subsection (3)(a) above; or
 - (b) the conditions referred to in subsection (3)(b) above,
- by written notification to the school concerned.]

- (5) A participating school shall comply with any conditions contained in a determination under subsection (2) above and with any condition or obligation prescribed under subsection (9) below.

^{F277} (6)

- (7) The fees in relation to which the scheme is to have effect shall be—
 - (a) tuition and other fees the payment of which is a condition of attendance at a participating school but excluding—
 - (i) boarding fees; and
 - (ii) such other charges, if any, as may be prescribed by regulations; and
 - (b) entrance fees for public examinations paid by a participating school in respect of candidates from the school.

- (8) If the Secretary of State is of the opinion that any fee which falls to be remitted in whole or in part under a scheme established and operated under this section is excessive, he may substitute for such fee such other amount as he considers appropriate.

- (9) The Secretary of State shall by regulations prescribe—

^{F278} (a)

^{F278} (b)

- (c) the conditions subject to which, the extent to which, and the arrangements in accordance with which, fees are to be remitted by participating schools;
- (d) the time and manner in which participating schools are to claim and receive reimbursements from the Secretary of State;
- (e) conditions to be complied with by participating schools with respect to ^{F279} . . . the fees to be charged, the keeping and auditing of accounts and the furnishing of information to the Secretary of State; and
- (f) such other matters as appear to him to be requisite for the purposes of the scheme.

100 Determination of complaints.

[^{F317}(1) This section applies—

- (a) in a case where—
 - (i) a notice of complaint has been served under section 99(1) of this Act;
 - (ii) no appeal under section 99(3) of this Act has been made or such an appeal has been made and refused;
 - (iii) the period specified in the notice has expired; and
 - (iv) the Scottish Ministers are not satisfied that the proprietor of the school on whom the notice is served has taken satisfactory action to remedy the matter complained of;
- (b) in a case where—
 - (i) such a notice has been served;
 - (ii) such an appeal has been made but not determined; and
 - (iii) pending such determination, the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that there is a serious risk of harm to a pupil attending the school; or
- (c) where, by virtue of section 99(1B) of this Act, no such notice has been served.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may—

- (a) make an order directing the Registrar to remove the school from the register;
- (b) if satisfied that the school premises are or any part of them is unsuitable for use as a school, make an order disqualifying those premises or any part of them from being so used;
- (c) if satisfied that any accommodation provided at the school premises is inadequate or unsuitable, having regard to the number, ages and sex of the pupils attending the school, make an order disqualifying that accommodation from being used as such or from being used as such for pupils—
 - (i) exceeding such number; or
 - (ii) of such age or sex,
 as the Scottish Ministers may specify;
- (d) make an order—
 - (i) imposing such conditions on the carrying on of the school; or
 - (ii) varying any such conditions imposed by virtue of this Part of this Act, as the Scottish Ministers think fit; or
- (e) if satisfied that—
 - (i) the proprietor is not a proper person to be the proprietor of an independent school; or
 - (ii) a teacher in the school is not a proper person to be a teacher in any school, 105 Schemes for reorganisation of educational endowments.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, [^{F335}an education authority, whether upon an application made to them or not, may, if they think fit,] prepare draft schemes for the future government and management of educational endowments, which schemes may provide—
- (a) for altering the purposes to which such endowments are applied or applicable and the conditions and provisions regarding such application;
 - (b) for the application of the capital or income of such endowments to such educational purposes, mental or physical, moral or social, as the [^{F336}education authority think] fit having regard to the public interest and to existing conditions, social and educational: Provided always that the capital of any such endowment shall not be expended except on a purpose to which capital may properly be devoted;
 - (c) for grouping, amalgamating, combining or dividing any such endowments;
 - (d) for altering the constitution of the governing body of any such endowment, or uniting two or more existing governing bodies or establishing new governing bodies with such powers as shall seem necessary, and for incorporating any governing body, whether old or new, and for dissolving any governing body whose endowment is transferred to another governing body; and
 - (e) for altering the powers as to the investment of the funds of any such endowment.

[^{F337}Provided that in considering whether to exercise, in relation to any endowment, the power conferred upon them by this subsection an education authority may have regard to whether the exercise of the power would prejudice the proper discharge by them of their functions under this Act apart from this section or their functions as local authority under any enactment.]

- (2) It shall be the duty of the [^{F338}education authority] in reorganising any endowment in pursuance of the powers conferred by this Part of this Act to have special regard—
- (a) to the spirit of the intention of the founders as embodied either—
 - (i) in the original deed constituting the endowment where it is still the governing instrument, or
 - (ii) in the scheme approved under any Act, or in any provisional order affecting the endowment;
 - (b) to the interest of the locality to which the endowment belongs;
 - (c) to the possibility of effecting economy in administration by the grouping, amalgamation or combination of any two or more endowments; and
 - (d) to the need for continuing the provision from endowments of competitive bursaries at universities, central institutions, colleges of education or other educational institutions of a similar character.
- (3) In every scheme which abolishes or modifies any privileges or educational advantages to which a particular class of persons is entitled, whether as inhabitants of a particular area or as belonging to a particular class in life or otherwise, the [^{F338}education authority] shall have regard to the educational interests of such class of persons:

Provided always that, where the governing instrument of any educational endowment has expressly provided for the education of children belonging to the poorer classes, either generally or within a particular area, or otherwise for their benefit, such endowment for such education or otherwise for their benefit shall continue, so far as requisite, to be applied for the benefit of such children.

- (a) to a university endowment, or
 - (b) to the Carnegie Trust, or
 - (c) to a theological endowment, or
 - (d) to a new endowment; [^{F339}, or
 - (e) to an endowment which relates in whole or in part to an educational establishment not managed by the education authority who would, but for this paragraph, be empowered under this section to exercise in relation to that endowment the functions conferred by this section, or
 - (f) to an educational endowment having no limitation either as to the area in which any educational establishment to which it relates is situated or as to the area in which any of its beneficiaries are required under its governing instrument to reside or with which they are so required to have some other connection.]

[^{F340}Provided that tis subsection shall not apply to an endowment which falls within paragraph (e) above solely by reason of the inclusion among its purposes of the award of prizes, bursaries or similar benefits to persons who attend or have attended educational establishments or other institutions not managed by an education authority.]

- [^{F341}(4A) The Court of Session shall have power, on the petition of—
- (a) the governing body of any endowment to which subsection (4) above applies or, in the case of the Carnegie Trust, the Trustees;

or part thereof and for the application of the proceeds of sale in accordance with the provisions of the scheme, but that such provision cannot be made by reason of the third proviso to section 2 of the ^{M20}School Sites Act 1841 (which provides that if any land granted in accordance with the provisions of that section ceases to be used for the purposes mentioned in that Act, the land shall revert to the grantor), or by reason of any condition of a similar nature relating to the land in any Act, deed or other instrument, [^{F345}the Court may order] that the said proviso or condition shall not have effect in relation to the land:

Provided that no such [^{F346}order shall be made] in relation to any land unless the [^{F347}Court] is satisfied either—

- (a) that the person to whom the land would revert in accordance with the said proviso or condition cannot after due inquiry be found; or
 - (b) that, if that person can be found, he has consented to relinquish his rights in relation to the land under the said proviso or condition, and that, if he has consented so to do in consideration of the payment of a sum of money to him, adequate provision can be made for the payment to him of that sum out of the proceeds of the sale of the land.
- (2) A scheme under this Part of this Act relating to any endowment which includes land in respect of which an order has been made under subsection (1) above may make provision for the payment out of the proceeds of the sale of the land of any sum which is payable to any person in consideration of the relinquishment of his rights in relation to the land under the said proviso or condition.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, any land conveyed under section 2 of the ^{M21}School Sites Act 1841, or held under a condition of the nature referred to in subsection (1) above, other than land forming the site or part of the site of an educational establishment under the management of an education authority or of any building ancillary to such an educational establishment, shall be deemed to be an educational endowment or part thereof notwithstanding anything in the third proviso to that section or in the said condition.

F391 If no petition or appeal is presented to the Court of Session in accordance with the following provisions of this section, the scheme shall come into operation on the date specified in the notice under subsection (4)(c) above.

(5A) If a petition or appeal is presented to the Court of Session in accordance with the following provisions of this section and is refused by the Court, the Court shall make such order as it thinks fit as respects the commencement of the scheme.]

(6) F392

F393 If within the period of one month from the date of the notice given under subsection (4) above a petition or appeal is presented to the Court of Session by any of the persons mentioned below, the scheme referred to in that notice shall thereby be suspended and the Court may amend the scheme and make it as so amended or may make a new scheme and for those purposes the Court—

- (a) shall have the like powers as are conferred by this Part of this Act on an education authority regarding schemes for the future government and management of educational endowments, and
- (b) may make such orders as it thinks fit as respects notification and commencement of the amended or new scheme.

The persons referred to above are—

- (i) the governing body of the endowment to which the scheme relates,
- (ii) the council of any district directly affected by the scheme,
- (iii) any education authority directly affected by the scheme,
- (iv) any ratepayers (not being less than twenty) of any district or place directly affected by the scheme,
- (v) any person having a vested interest in the said endowment or any part of it.]

(8) If within the said period an appeal is presented to the Court of Session by—

- (a) the governing body of the endowment to which the scheme refers, or any other person directly affected by the scheme, on the ground that the scheme is not within the scope of, or is not made in conformity with, this Part of this Act, or
- (b) any person holding any office, place or employment, or receiving any pension, compensation, allowance, bursary or emolument, under or arising out of the endowment to which the scheme relates, on the ground that the scheme does not comply with the provisions of this Part of this Act as to saving or making due compensation for his vested interests, and the Court of Session decides that the scheme is contrary to law on any of the grounds mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, the [F394 education authority shall rescind their decision to make the scheme but may, if they think fit, make an amended scheme in such form as they think] expedient, and the provisions of subsections (4) to (7) above, and of this subsection, shall apply in relation to an amended scheme [F395 made] under this subsection as they apply to a scheme [F395 made] under subsection (3) above.

(9) Where [F396 an education authority cause] a draft scheme or a scheme to be [F397 publicised] under this section, [F398 they] shall cause to be prefixed to that draft scheme or scheme a memorandum setting out—

- (a) the reasons why, in [F398 their] view, the reorganisation of the endowment to which the draft scheme or scheme relates is necessary;
- (b) the respects in which the draft scheme or scheme involves any substantial alteration of the purposes to which the said endowment is applied or applicable; and
- (c) the reasons for any such alteration;

and for the purposes of the provisions of this section relating to publication, that memorandum shall be deemed to be part of the draft scheme or scheme, as the case may be.

122 Interpretation of Part VI.

- (1) In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act of 1878” means the Endowed Institutions (Scotland) Act 1878;

“Carnegie Trust” means the property vested in the Carnegie Trustees for the Universities of Scotland;

[^{F419}“charitable purposes” has the same meaning as in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 10);]

“educational endowment” means any endowment which has been applied or is applicable in whole or in part, whether by the declared intention of the founder, or by the consent of the governing body, or in pursuance of any scheme approved under any Act or of any provisional order or by custom or otherwise, to educational purposes;

“educational purposes” includes—

- (i) payments towards the cost of professional training and apprenticeship fees,
- (ii) the provision of maintenance, clothing and other benefits, and
- (iii) the payment of grants for travel;

“endowment” means any property, heritable or moveable, dedicated to charitable purposes, but shall not, except with the consent of the governing body, include the funds, whether capital or revenue, of any incorporation or society contributed or paid by the members of such incorporation or society by way of entry moneys or other fixed or stated payments, nor burgess or guildry fines paid to any such incorporation or society, nor funds bequeathed or given to any such incorporation or society for the benefit solely of members or widows or families of members of such incorporation or society;

“governing body” means the managers, governors or trustees of any endowment or other person having the administration of the revenue thereof;

“governing instrument” means, with regard to any endowment, the scheme approved under any Act or any provisional order [^{F420}or made under section 17 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994,] in accordance with which the endowment is governed and managed or, where there is no such scheme or provisional order, the deed constituting the endowment;

“provisional order” means provisional order confirmed by Act of Parliament and provisional order made under the Act of 1878;

Status: Point in time view as at 20/01/2009.

Changes to legislation: Education (Scotland) Act 1980 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“theological endowment” means an endowment solely or mainly applicable or applied for the purposes of theological instruction or belonging to any theological institution;

“university endowment” means an endowment vested in, or administered by, or in the gift of any of the universities of Scotland or any of the colleges of such universities.

(2) An educational endowment shall be deemed to be a “new endowment” until the expiry of twenty years from the date when the deed creating the endowment comes into operation, so, however, that where part of an endowment has been given at one time and another part has been given at a later time and the two portions cannot in the opinion of the [^{F421}Court of Session] be conveniently separated from each other, the date of the older part of the endowment shall be held to be the date of the endowment.

(3) Any reference in this Act to the endowment to which a scheme under this Part of this Act relates shall, in the case of a scheme relating to more than one endowment, be construed as a reference to every endowment, or (as the context may require) to any endowment, to which the scheme relates.

[^{F422}(4) This Part, apart from section 104, does not apply in relation to any endowment the governing body of which is a charity within the meaning of section 106 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 10).]

Savings and exceptions

130 Saving as to persons in the service of the Crown.

No power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act on the Secretary of State, on education authorities, on parents or on young persons shall be construed as relating to any child or young person who is employed by or under the Crown in any service or capacity with respect to which the Secretary of State certifies that, by reason of the arrangements made for the education of children and young persons employed therein, the exercise and performance of those powers and duties with respect to such children and young persons is unnecessary.

131 Saving as to persons suffering from mental disorder and persons detained by order.

(1) Unless the context otherwise requires, no power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act on the Secretary of State, on education authorities or on parents or young persons shall be construed as relating to any person to whom this section applies:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent an education authority from providing or securing the provision of education for any such person if he is in their opinion capable of deriving benefit therefrom.

(2) The persons to whom this section applies are—

- (a) any person who is detained in pursuance of an order made by any court [^{F436}(other than an order so made under the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13))] or of an order of recall made by the Secretary of State;
- (b) any child subject to a supervision requirement requiring him to reside in a residential establishment where education is provided.

F491 Sch. A2 repealed (14.11.2005) by Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 4), s. 35(1), sch. 3 para. 3(14); S.S.I. 2005/564, art. 2

SCHEDULE 1

Section 67.

LOCAL INQUIRIES

- 1 The Secretary of State shall appoint a person to hold the inquiry and to report thereon to him.
 - 2 The person appointed shall notify the bodies and persons appearing to him to be interested of the time when and the place where the inquiry is to be held.
 - 3 The person appointed may by notice in writing require any person—
 - (a) to attend at the time and place set forth in the notice to give evidence or to produce any books or documents in his custody or under his control which relate to any matter in question at the inquiry; or
 - (b) to furnish within such reasonable period as is specified in the notice such information relating to any matter in question at the inquiry as the person appointed may think fit and as the person so required is able to furnish:
- Provided that—
- (i) no person shall be required in obedience to such a notice to attend at any place which is more than ten miles from the place where he resides unless the necessary expenses are paid or tendered to him; and
 - (ii) nothing in this paragraph shall empower the person appointed to hold the inquiry to require any person to produce any book or document or to answer any question which he would be entitled, on the ground of privilege or confidentiality, to refuse to produce or to answer if the inquiry were a proceeding in a court of law.
- 4 The person appointed to hold the inquiry may administer oaths and examine witnesses on oath and may accept, in lieu of evidence on oath by any person, a statement in writing by that person supported by a declaration of the truth thereof in such form as the person appointed may require.
 - 5 The inquiry shall unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs be held in public.
 - 6 Any person who refuses or wilfully neglects to attend in obedience to a notice issued under paragraph 3 above, or who wilfully alters, suppresses, conceals, destroys or refuses to produce any book or document which he may be required to produce by any such notice, or who refuses or wilfully neglects to comply with any requirement of the person appointed to hold the inquiry under paragraph 3 above, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £20 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.
