1980 CHAPTER 44

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Employment

123 Work experience in last year of compulsory schooling.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the enactments relating to the prohibition or regulation of the employment of children shall not apply to the employment of a child [<sup>F1</sup>to whom this subsection applies] where the employment is in pursuance of arrangements made or approved by the education authority <sup>F2</sup>... with a view to providing him with work experience as part of his education.
- (2) Subsection (1) above shall not be taken to permit the employment of any person in any way contrary to—
  - (a) an enactment which in terms applies to persons of less than, or not over, a specified age expressed as a number of years; or
  - (b) section 1(2) of the <sup>M1</sup>Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act 1920 or [<sup>F3</sup>section 55(1) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995] (prohibition of employment of children in ships).
- (3) No arrangements shall be made under subsection (1) above for a child to be employed in any way which would be contrary to an enactment prohibiting or regulating the employment of young persons if he were a young person (within the meaning of that enactment) and not a child; and where a child is employed in pursuance of arrangements so made, then so much of any enactment as regulates the employment of young persons (whether by excluding them from any description of work, or prescribing the conditions under which they may be permitted to do it, or otherwise howsoever) and would apply in relation to him if he were of an age to be treated as a young person for the purposes of that enactment shall apply in relation to him, in and in respect of the employment arranged for him, in all respects as if he were of an age to be so treated.

Savings and exceptions

130 Saving as to persons in the service of the Crown.

No power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act on the Secretary of State, on education authorities, on parents or on young persons shall be construed as relating to any child or young person who is employed by or under the Crown in any service or capacity with respect to which the Secretary of State certifies that, by reason of the arrangements made for the education of children and young persons employed therein, the exercise and performance of those powers and duties with respect to such children and young persons is unnecessary.

131 Saving as to persons suffering from mental disorder and persons detained by order.

- (1) Unless the context otherwise requires, no power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act on the Secretary of State, on education authorities or on parents or young persons shall be construed as relating to any person to whom this section applies:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent an education authority from providing or securing the provision of education for any such person if he is in their opinion capable of deriving benefit therefrom.

- (2) The persons to whom this section applies are—
- (a) any person who is detained in pursuance of an order made by any court<sup>F14</sup>(other than an order so made under the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 13)) ] or of an order of recall made by the Secretary of State;
  - (b) any child subject to a <sup>F15</sup>compulsory supervision order] requiring him to reside in a residential establishment where education is provided.

“compulsory supervision order” has the meaning given by section 83 of the Children’s Hearings (Scotland) Act 2011 (asp 1),

“residential establishment” has the meaning given by paragraph (a) of the definition of that expression in section 202(1) of that Act.]
