1980 CHAPTER 47

PART II

APPEAL TO HOUSE OF LORDS [^{F1}FROM COURT OF APPEAL]

Textual Amendments

- F1 Words in Pt. 2 heading substituted (N.I.) (18.4.2005) by The Criminal Justice \(Northern Ireland\) Order 2004 \(S.I. 2004/1500 \(N.I. 9\)\), art. 27\(2\); S.R. 2005/243, art. 2

The appeal

31 Right of appeal to House of Lords.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, an appeal lies to the House of Lords, at the instance of the defendant or the prosecutor, from any decision of the Court of Appeal on an appeal to that Court under Part I of this Act [^{F2}or Article 8 (preparatory hearings) of the Criminal Justice (Serious Fraud) (Northern Ireland) Order 1988 [^{F3}or Part IV of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2004 (prosecution appeals)].

(1A) ^{F4}

- (2) No appeal lies under this Part of this Act except with the leave of the Court or of the House of Lords; and such leave shall not be granted unless it is certified by the Court that a point of law of general public importance is involved in the decision and it appears to the Court or to the House of Lords (as the case may be) that the point is one which ought to be considered by that House.

[^{F5}(3) In this Part of this Act “the defendant”—

32 Application for leave to appeal.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, an application to the Court of Appeal for leave to appeal under this Part of this Act shall be made within the period of [^{F7}28] days beginning with the [^{F8}relevant date] ; and an application to the House of Lords for such leave shall be made within the period of [^{F7}28] days beginning with the date on which the application is refused by the Court.

[^{F9}(1A) In subsection (1), “the relevant date” means—

- (a) the date of the Court of Appeal’s decision, or
 - (b) if later, the date on which the Court gives reasons for its decision.]
- (2) The House of Lords or the Court may, upon application made at any time by the defendant, extend the time within which an application may be made by him to that House or the Court under subsection (1) above.
- (3) An appeal under this Part of this Act shall be treated as pending until any application for leave to appeal is disposed of and, if leave to appeal is granted, until the appeal is disposed of; and for the purposes of this Part of this Act an application for leave to appeal shall be treated as disposed of at the expiration of the time within which it may be made, if it is not made within that time.

Reference of point of law

34 Further reference to House of Lords of point of law following acquittal on indictment.

- (1) Where the Court of Appeal has given its opinion on a point referred to the Court under section 15 of this Act the Court may, of its own motion or in pursuance of an application in that behalf, refer the point to the House of Lords if it appears to the Court that the point ought to be considered by that House.
- (2) If a point is referred to the House of Lords under subsection (1) of this section, the House shall consider the point and give the House's opinion on it accordingly; and section 33(1) of this Act shall apply also in relation to any proceedings of the House under this section.
- (3) Where on a point being referred to the House of Lords under this section the acquitted person appears by counsel for the purpose of presenting any argument to the House, he shall be entitled to his costs, that is to say to the payment out of money provided by Parliament of such sums as are reasonably sufficient to compensate him for his expenses properly incurred for the purpose of being represented on the reference; and any amount recoverable under this subsection shall be ascertained as soon as practicable by such officer as may be prescribed by order of the House of Lords.
- (4) A reference under this section shall not affect the trial in relation to which the reference is made or any acquittal in that trial.

36 Detention of defendant pending appeal by Crown.

- (1) Where the defendant in any proceedings from which an appeal lies to the House of Lords under this Part of this Act would, but for the decision of the Court of Appeal, be liable to be detained and immediately after that decision the prosecutor is granted, or gives notice that he intends to apply for, leave to appeal, the Court [^{F12} shall make—
- (a) an order providing for his detention, or directing that he shall not be released except on bail (which may be granted by the Court as under section 35 above), so long as the appeal is pending, or
 - (b) an order that he be released without bail.]
- [^{F13}(1A) The Court may make an order under subsection (1)(b) only if it thinks that it is in the interests of justice that the defendant should not be liable to be detained as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court on the appeal.]
- (2) An order under [^{F14}subsection (1)(a)] above shall (unless the appeal has previously been disposed of) cease to have effect at the expiration of the period for which the defendant would have been liable to be detained but for the decision of the Court.
- (3) When an order is made under [^{F15}subsection (1)(a)] in the case of a defendant who, but for the decision of the Court, would be liable to be detained in pursuance of an order or direction under the Mental Health [^{F16}Order (otherwise than under Article 42, 43 or 45 of that Order)], the order under [^{F15}subsection (1)(a)] shall be one authorising his continued detention in pursuance of the order or direction, and the provisions of [^{F16}that Order] with respect to persons so liable (including provisions as to the renewal of authority for detention and the removal or discharge of patients) shall apply accordingly.
- [^{F17}(3A) Where an order is made under [^{F18}subsection (1)(a)] in the case of a defendant who, but for the decision of the Court, would be liable to be detained in pursuance of a remand under Article 43 of the Mental Health Order or an interim hospital order under Article 45 of that Order, the order may, if the Court thinks fit, be one authorising his continued detention in a hospital and in that event—
- (a) subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to the order;
 - (b) Part III of the Mental Health Order shall apply to him as if he had been ordered under this section to be detained in custody so long as an appeal to the House of Lords is pending and were detained in pursuance of a transfer direction together with a restriction direction; and
 - (c) if the defendant, having been subject to an interim hospital order, is detained by virtue of this subsection and the appeal by the prosecutor succeeds, paragraph (2) of the said Article 45 (power of court to make hospital order in the absence of an offender who is subject to an interim hospital order) shall apply as if the defendant were still subject to an interim hospital order.]

[^{F19}(4) The defendant shall not be liable to be detained again as a result of the decision of the Supreme Court on the appeal if—

- (a) the Court of Appeal has made an order under subsection (1)(b), or
- (b) the Court has made an order under subsection (1)(a) but the order has ceased to have effect by virtue of subsection (2) or the defendant has been released or discharged by virtue of subsection (3) or (3A).]

41 Costs.

- (1) Where the Court of Appeal or the House of Lords dismisses an application for leave to appeal under this Part of this Act, the Court or the House may, if it thinks fit,—
 - (a) where the application was made by the prosecutor, order the payment by the Secretary of State to the defendant of such sums as appear to the Court or the House reasonably sufficient to compensate the defendant for any expenses properly incurred by him in resisting the application; or
 - (b) where the application was made by the defendant, order him to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the application.
- (2) Where an appeal to the House of Lords from the Court under this Part of this Act is determined in favour of the defendant, the House of Lords may, if it thinks fit, order the payment by the Secretary of State of such sums as appear to the House reasonably sufficient to compensate the defendant for any expenses properly incurred by him—
 - (a) in the appeal to the House of Lords or in the proceedings before the Court, as the case may be (including the cost of any application for leave to appeal); or
 - (b) in carrying on his defence before the Crown Court, at the preliminary investigation or preliminary enquiry and before any other court before which proceedings for the offence in respect of which he was committed for trial were begun but not concluded.
- (3) Where in any proceedings on an appeal or application for leave to appeal to the House of Lords under this Part of this Act, an interpreter is required because of a defendant's lack of English, the expenses properly incurred on his employment shall be defrayed by the Secretary of State up to an amount allowed by the House of Lords.
