DIRECT LABOUR ORGANISATIONS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. III (ss. 5-23): power to apply conferred (1.9.1997) by 1997 c. 50, s. 44(1), Sch. 4 para. (d)(i); S.I. 1997/1930, art. 3(2)(m)
- C2 Pt. III (ss. 5-23) extended (E.W.) (19.9.1995) by 1995 c. 25, ss. 65(7), 125(2), Sch. 8 para. 8(1) (with ss. 7(6), 115, 117, Sch. 8 para. 7)

Works Contracts

5 Meaning of "works contract".

(1) Subject to subsection (2) below, in this Part of this Act "works contract" means a contract which is or comprises—

(a) an agreement (in this Part of this Act referred to as a "maintenance agreement") under—

(i) section 5(3)(c) of the ^{M1}London Government Act 1963 (agreements between . . . ^{F1} London authorities for the carrying out of works of maintenance by one party in connection with land or buildings for the maintenance of which another party is responsible), or

(ii) section 1 of the ^{M2}Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970 (in this Part of this Act referred to as "the 1970 Act") (which provides for the carrying out by a local authority of such works of maintenance as are referred to in subsection (1)(d) of that section); or

(b) ^{F2}

Status: Point in time view as at 11/09/1998.

Changes to legislation: Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) an agreement made by virtue of any other enactment (including a provision of a local Act) which provides for the carrying out by a local authority of any construction or maintenance work; and in this section “works authority”, in relation to a works contract, means the local authority or, if there is more than one, each of the local authorities, by whom construction or maintenance work is or is to be undertaken in pursuance of the contract.

- (2) A contract is not a works contract by reason only that it is or comprises an agreement under which the functions of a Minister of the Crown or of any public body, within the meaning of the 1970 Act, fall to be discharged by a local authority, notwithstanding that, in the exercise of the functions, the local authority undertake construction or maintenance work.
- (3) If and so far as the provision by a works authority of goods, materials, services, vehicles, plant or other equipment which is incidental to construction or maintenance work undertaken by that authority in pursuance of a works contract is the subject of a separate agreement, that agreement shall be treated as part of the works contract for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

6 Regulation of works contracts.

- (1) Except in so far as section 7 below otherwise provides, a local authority may enter into a works contract in such circumstances and on such terms, having regard to the duty imposed on them by section 16 below, as they consider appropriate.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the 1970 Act or in any other enactment relating to such an agreement as is mentioned in section 5(1)(c) above, a body which is a public body within the meaning of the 1970 Act may not (whether as the works authority or as the body for whom any works are to be carried out) enter into a contract which in any respect contravenes any limitation imposed by section 7 below.
- (3) In any case where—
- before the appointed day, and whether before or after the passing of this Act, a local authority entered into a maintenance agreement, and
 - the circumstances in which or the terms on which the maintenance agreement was entered into are such that, having regard to section 7 below and to any regulations made under that section, it would not be lawful for them to enter into a similar agreement immediately after the appointed day,
- then, at the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning on the appointed day, it shall cease to be lawful for the maintenance agreement to be carried out.
- (4) Accordingly, if the maintenance agreement is governed by English Law and the parties to it do not make other provision before the expiry of that period of twelve months,

Status: Point in time view as at 11/09/1998.

Changes to legislation: Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. 7 Limitations on power to enter into works contracts.

(1) A local authority may not—

- (a) enter into a works contract [^{F3}under which they are to carry out work] whose value exceeds the prescribed amount unless they do so as the result of acceptance of a tender, or
- (b) enter into a works contract [^{F3}under which they are to carry our work] whose value is equal to or less than the prescribed amount unless they have complied with such conditions as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

[^{F4}(1A) A local authority may not enter into a works contract under which they are to carry out work unless the competition condition is fulfilled, that is, the other party to the contract, in entering into it and doing anything else in connection with it before entering into it, did not act in a manner having the effect or intended or likely to have the effect or restricting, distorting or preventing competition.

(1B) Subsection (1A) above shall prevent the local authority from entering into the contract [^{F5}unless the local authority have become aware, before entering into the contract,] of the failure to fulfill the competition condition]

(2) In this section “the prescribed amount ” means an amount specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(3) For the purposes of this Part of this Act an authority enter into a contract as the result of acceptance of a tender if—

- (a) the contract was made by acceptance of an offer on their part to carry out the work in question; and
- (b) they made the offer in response to an invitation to submit such offers; and
- (c) the invitation was extended to at least three other persons [^{F6}who are not, or include at least three persons who are not, local authorities or development bodies].

(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations—

- (a) direct the manner in which the value of a contract is to be determined for the purposes of this section; and
- (b) specify descriptions of contract to which subsection (1) above is not to apply; and
- (c) specify for the purposes of subsection (3)(c) above a number of persons different from three.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (4) above, regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a) of that subsection may direct that a number of contracts shall be treated as if they were one contract for the purpose of determining whether the prescribed amount is exceeded.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/09/1998.

Changes to legislation: Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Regulations under this section may make different provision in relation to different contracts and descriptions of contracts.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below, a local authority or development body may not credit and DLO revenue account in respect of the cost of carrying out any functional work with a sum in excess of the appropriate amount.
- (2) Where they have prepared a written statement in accordance with section 9(2)(a) above, the appropriate amount is the amount specified in that statement.
- (3) Where they have prepared a written statement in accordance with section 9(2)(b) above, the appropriate amount is an amount calculated in accordance with method in that statement.
- (4) Where the statement allowed for a variation in the appropriate amount in the event of changed circumstances, then if the circumstances arise (but not otherwise) the local authority or development body may credit the account with such sum as the statement allowed for in those circumstances.
- (5) Subject to subsections (1) and (4) above, the Secretary of State may give directions—
- (a) as to items which are to be included in accounts kept under section 10 above;
 - (b) as to the method of determining the amount of any item to be included in such accounts;
 - (c) as to the method of determining the cost undertaking any construction or maintenance work; and
 - (d) as to the extent to which the cost of providing professional, technical and administrative services for the purposes of or in connection with construction or maintenance work of any description is to be treated as part of the cost of undertaking such work of that description.

by any enactment to carry on a dock or harbour undertaking if that work is undertaken for the purposes of or in connection with that undertaking.

[^{F63}(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) above, in this Act “construction or maintenance work ” does not include work undertaken by a local authority or a development body pursuant to an agreement made (or having effect as if made) with the Secretary of State on or after 1st April 1982—

- (a) which is made by virtue of any provision of the Employment and Training Act 1973;
- (b) which specifies the work to be undertaken by the authority or body; and
- (c) under which the whole or part of the cost of the work so specified is to be paid by the Secretary of State]

[^{F64}(5) If a local authority or development body undertake work which (apart from this subsection) would not fall within construction or maintenance work, and which in their opinion cannot be undertaken efficiently separately from construction or maintenance work, the work shall (if they so decide) be treated as falling within construction or maintenance work.

(6) In section 10(3)(c) above and subsection (1) above, in paragraph (c) of the definition of “construction or maintenance work ”, “street ” (except in relation to Scotland) has the meaning given by section 329(1) of the ^{M11}Highways Act 1980 and (in relation to Scotland) means a road as defined in section 25(3) of the ^{M12}Local Government and Planning (Scotland) Act 1982.

(7) Nothing in sections 19A and 19B above shall prejudice any remedy available to a person (apart from those sections) in respect of failure to observe a provision of this Part of this Act.]

21 Exemption of small direct labour organisations from requirements of Part III.

- (1) This Part of this Act does not apply to a local authority or development body in any year if they did not in the previous year at any one time employ more than thirty persons, other than persons excluded by subsection (2) below, who were engaged (whether wholly or partly) in carrying out construction or maintenance work.
- (2) The persons excluded by this subsection are persons engaged wholly or mainly upon the design, development or control of construction or maintenance work.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order specify for the purposes of subsection (1) above a number of persons less than thirty.
- (4) The power to make an order conferred by subsection (3) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing any such order shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) The Secretary of State may direct that this Part of this Act shall not apply to a local authority or development body in any year if he is satisfied that the only reason why it would apply to that authority or body is that at some time in the previous year the number of their employees engaged in construction or maintenance work exceeded the relevant number because it was necessary to exceed that number in order to carry out urgent construction or maintenance work whose necessity could not reasonably have been foreseen by the authority or body.

Textual Amendments

F65 S. 21(8) added by Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 (c. 30, SIF 81:1), s. 47, Sch. 6 para. 8(1)

22 Consequential repeal or amendment of local statutory provisions.

- (1) the Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) repeal any provision of a local Act passed before or in the same session as this Act or of an order or other instrument made under or confirmed by any Act so passed if it appears to him that the provision is inconsistent with or has become unnecessary in consequence of any provision of this Part of this Act ; and
 - (b) amend any provision of such a local Act, order or instrument if it appears to him that the provision requires amendment in consequence of any provision contained in this Part of this Act or any repeal made by virtue of paragraph (a) above.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) above may contain such incidental or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in connection with the order.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, before he makes an order under subsection (1) above repealing or amending any provision of a local Act, to consult each local authority which he considers would be affected by the repeal or amendment of that provision.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (1) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

23 Part III—supplementary

- (1) Any power to make regulations or give directions conferred by this Part of this Act [^{F66}and the power under section 16(1) above to specify a financial objective for local authorities and development bodies,] includes power to make different provision in relation to local authorities or development bodies in England, in Wales and in Scotland.
- (2) Any power to make regulations conferred by this Part of this Act shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (3) This Part of this Act, except this section, shall come into operation on such day as the Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument appoint, and different days may be so appointed for different provisions and for different purposes ; and any reference in any provision of this Part of this Act to the appointed day is a reference to the day appointed under this section for the coming into operation of that provision or, if different days are so appointed for different purposes of that provision, the first day so appointed.
