

Belize Act 1981

1981 CHAPTER 52

An Act to make provision for, and in connection with, the attainment by Belize of independence within the Commonwealth. [28th July 1981]

1 Fully responsible status of Belize.

- (1) On and after Independence Day Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom shall have no responsibility for the government of Belize.
- (2) No Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom passed on or after Independence Day shall extend, or be deemed to extend, to Belize as part of its law; and on and after that day the provisions of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the legislative powers of Belize.

2 Power to provide new constitution for Belize.

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council made before Independence Day provide a constitution for Belize to come into effect on that day.
- (2) An Order in Council under this section (in this section referred to as a "Constitution Order") may include provision as to the manner in which the legislature of Belize may alter any provisions of that Order, or may alter any law which alters any of those provisions; and a constitution provided by a Constitution Order may include provision as to the manner in which the legislature of Belize may alter that constitution or any provisions of that constitution or may alter any law which alters that constitution or any provisions thereof.
- (3) In this section references to altering a constitution or to altering any provision or law include references—
 - (a) to revoking it, with or without re-enactment thereof or the making of different provision in lieu thereof;
 - (b) to modifying it, whether by omitting or amending any of its provisions or inserting additional provisions in it or otherwise; and
 - (c) to suspending its operation for any period, or terminating any such suspension.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/2003.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Belize Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A Constitution Order may contain such transitional or other incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient.
- (5) Any Constitution Order shall be laid before Parliament after being made.

3 Operation of existing law.

- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, all law to which this section applies, whether being a rule of law or a provision of an Act of Parliament or of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever, which is in force on Independence Day, or, having been passed or made before that day, comes into force thereafter, shall, unless and until provision to the contrary is made by Parliament or some other authority having power in that behalf, have the same operation in relation to Belize and persons and things belonging to or connected with Belize as it would have had apart from this subsection if there had been no change in the status of Belize.
- (2) This section applies to the law of, or of any part of, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man and, in relation only to any enactment of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or any Order in Council made by virtue of any such enactment whereby any such enactment applies in relation to Belize, to law of any other country or territory to which that enactment or Order extends.
- (3) Subsection (1) above shall not apply in relation to the British Nationality Act 1981.
- (4) On and after Independence Day the enactments specified in Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect subject to the amendments there specified.
- (5) Subsection (4) above and that Schedule shall not extend to Belize as part of its law.

4 Consequential modifications of the British Nationality Acts.

- (1) F1
- (2) Except as provided by section 5 below, any person who immediately before Independence Day is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies shall on that day cease to be such a citizen if he becomes on that day a citizen of Belize.
- (3) Except as provided by section 5 below, a person in relation to whom the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—
 - (a) immediately before Independence Day, he is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies; and
 - (b) one of his grandparents—
 - (i) was born in Belize, or
 - (ii) was naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies by virtue of a certificate of naturalisation granted in Belize, or
 - (iii) was registered in Belize as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies; and
 - (c) on Independence Day, he does not become a citizen of Belize;
 shall on Independence Day cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies if he is then a citizen of some other country.
- (4) Section 6(2) of the 1948 Act (registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies of women who have been married to such citizens) shall not apply to a 5 Retention of citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies in certain cases.

- (1) A person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 4(2) or (3) above if he, his father or his father’s father—
 - (a) was born in the United Kingdom or a relevant territory; or
 - (b) is or was a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies by virtue of a certificate of naturalisation granted in the United Kingdom or a relevant territory; or
 - (c) was, in the United Kingdom or a relevant territory, registered as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies, or was so registered by a High Commissioner exercising functions under section 8(2) or 12(7) of the 1948 Act; or
 - (d) became a British subject by reason of the annexation of any territory included in a relevant territory,or if his father or his father’s father would, if living immediately before the commencement of the 1948 Act, have become a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 32(6) of that Act (previous local naturalisation in a colony or protectorate) by virtue of having enjoyed the privileges of naturalisation in a relevant territory.
- (2) In subsection (1) above “relevant territory” means any territory which on Independence Day is a colony ^{F3}. . . other than a territory which on that day is not a colony for the purposes of the 1948 Act as then in force (and accordingly does not include Belize).
- (3) Subsection (1) above does not apply to a woman by virtue of her registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies if that registration was effected under section 6(2) of the 1948 Act (registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies of women who have been married to such citizens).
- (4) A person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 4(2) or (3) above if, immediately before Independence Day, he has the right of abode in the United Kingdom under the ^{M1}Immigration Act 1971.
- (5) A woman who is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies and is the wife of such a citizen shall not herself cease to be such a citizen under section 4(2) or (3) above unless her husband does so.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/2003.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Belize Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Part III of the 1948 Act (supplementary provisions) as in force from time to time, except section 23 (legitimated children), shall have effect for the purposes of this section as if this section were included in that Act.
- (7) A person born out of wedlock and legitimated (within the meaning of section 23(2) of the 1948 Act) by the subsequent marriage of his parents shall be treated, for the purpose of determining whether he has by virtue of this Act ceased to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies, as if he had been born legitimate.
