SCHEDULE 3

WOMEN’S SERVICES

PART I

STATUTORY ASSIMILATION

Existing enactments

- 1 (1) Every enactment which refers to the armed forces or the naval, military or air forces of the Crown shall have effect as if the reference included a reference to the women’s services of those forces administered by the Defence Council and any enactment containing the words “men”, “soldiers”, “seamen”, “airmen” or other word importing a reference to persons of the male sex only as, or as having been, or as capable of being, members of the naval, military or air forces of the Crown shall have effect as if for such word there had been substituted therein words having a like meaning in other respects but importing a reference to persons of either sex.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above applies for the interpretation of references to the reserve or auxiliary forces as it applies for the interpretation of references to the regular forces of the Crown.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not apply in a case where, or to the extent to which, the enactment refers to the Royal Navy.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/10/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Armed Forces Act 1981. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not apply in a case where, or to the extent to which, the enactment refers to the naval, military or air forces of the Crown raised outside the United Kingdom; but nothing in this sub-paragraph affects the meaning of “visiting force” in the ^{M1}Visiting Forces (British Commonwealth) Act 1933 or Part I of the ^{M2}Visiting Forces Act 1952.
- (5) This paragraph has effect in place of subsection (1) of section 3 of the ^{M3}Army and Air Force (Women’s Service) Act 1948 (which makes corresponding provision in relation to the military and air forces) and of so much of any other enactment as explains, in relation to the women’s services, particular statutory references to the armed forces of the Crown; but the power to make Orders in Council under subsection (2) of that section shall include power to make the like provision in consequence of the preceding provisions of this paragraph so far as those provisions relate to the naval forces of the Crown.

Postponement of discharge in event of war, etc.

- [^{F7}12 Section 4 (postponement of discharge or transfer to the reserve) shall have effect in relation to ratings of Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service as if it provided—“Postponement of discharge—QARNNS.

- 4 (1) This section applies to a rating if, on the relevant date, a call-out order under section 52, 54 or 56 of the Reserve Forces Act 1996 is in force authorising the call out for permanent service of members of the Royal Fleet Reserve.

For the purposes of this section, “the relevant date”, in relation to a rating, means the date on which he would, apart from this section, be entitled to be discharged.

- (2) A rating to whom this section applies may be retained in service in Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service after the relevant date in accordance with this section for such period as the competent authority may order, and his service may be prolonged accordingly.
- (3) A rating may not be retained in Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service after the relevant date for longer than twelve months.
- (4) A rating who is so retained is (if not discharged sooner) entitled to be discharged at the end of those twelve months.
- (5) If, while a person is being retained in service in Queen Alexandra's Royal Naval Nursing Service by virtue of this section, it appears to the competent authority that his service can be dispensed with, he shall be entitled to be discharged.

(6) Where, at the time at which under subsections (1) to (5) above a person is entitled to be discharged, a state of war exists between Her Majesty and a foreign power—

- (a) he may, by declaration made before his commanding officer in a form prescribed by regulations of the Defence Council, agree to continue in service in Queen Alexandra’s Royal Naval Nursing Service while such a state of war exists, and
- (b) if the competent authority approve, he may continue accordingly as if the period for which his term of service could be prolonged under subsections (1) to (5) above were a period continuing so long as a state of war exists;

but this is subject to subsection (7) below.

(7) If it is so specified in the declaration, he shall be entitled to be discharged at the end of three months’ notice given by him to his commanding officer.”]
