- (2) In this Schedule such a notice is referred to as a “default notice”.
- (3) The notice shall state that one or more amusement machines appear to have been provided for play on specified premises (“relevant premises”) during a specified period (the “alleged default period”)—
- (a) the first day of which falls not more than three years before the date of the notice, and
 - (b) the last day of which falls on or before the date of the notice.
- (4) The notice shall request the production to the Commissioners on or before a specified date (the “due date”) of every relevant amusement machine licence.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) above an amusement machine licence is a relevant licence if, at any time during the alleged default period, it was in force in relation to an amusement machine provided for play on the relevant premises at that time.
- (6) A single default notice may relate to—
- (a) different alleged default periods, or
 - (b) different relevant premises.
- (7) A default notice shall be deemed to have been given if it is—
- (a) left at, or posted to, the relevant premises, or
 - (b) given to, or posted to or left at the proper address of one or more persons falling within sub-paragraph (8) below.
- (8) Those persons are—the Commissioners may grant, in accordance with this paragraph, one or more licences in relation to each of the machines.

- (2) In this Schedule—
- “default licence” means a licence granted by the Commissioners under sub-paragraph (1) above;
 - “unlicensed machine” means a machine in relation to which a default licence is granted by the Commissioners.
- (3) The Commissioners may grant a separate default licence for each period of consecutive days—
- (a) which falls within the alleged default period, and
 - (b) for which no amusement machine licence in force in relation to the unlicensed machine was produced.
- (4) The Commissioners may grant a default licence in relation to an unlicensed machine even though the period of that licence would include a day or days when the unlicensed machine was provided for play in contravention of section 21(1) or 24(3) or (4) of this Act on premises other than the relevant premises specified in the applicable default notice.
- (5) In a case where the Commissioners grant a default licence in accordance with sub-paragraph (4) above, references in this Schedule to the relevant premises shall be construed in relation to any particular time as references to the premises on which the machine was provided for play at that time.
- (6) The Commissioners may grant a default licence even though no application has been made for it.
- (7) A default licence may be granted for a period of any length (whether or not a licence under Schedule 4 to this Act could be granted for a period of that length).

Assessment of amount equivalent to duty

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where a default licence is granted in relation to an unlicensed machine.
- (2) The Commissioners may, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, assess to the best of their judgement the amount which would have been payable under this Act as amusement machine licence duty if the default licence had been an amusement machine licence granted under Schedule 4 to this Act.
- (3) The Commissioners shall make the assessment using the rates of amusement machine licence duty which apply in relation to amusement machine licences granted in consequence of applications received by the Commissioners on the due date.
- (4) If the period of the licence is 12 months or less, the assessment shall be made as if an amusement machine licence had been granted in relation to the unlicensed machine for that period.
- (5) If the period of the licence is longer than 12 months, the assessment shall be made as if—

 - (b) the part of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (5)(b) above, is not a period of complete months.
- (7) Any period of less than a month comprised in the period or the part of the period shall be treated as a complete month; and accordingly the period or the part of the period in question shall be treated as if it consisted of a complete month or, as the case may be, complete months.
- (8) The amusement machine licence treated as granted for such a period, or for such a part of a period, shall be treated as having been—
 - (a) granted for that period, or that part of the period, as extended in accordance with sub-paragraph (7) above, and
 - (b) surrendered at the end of the last day of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) above or, as the case may be, of the part of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (5)(b) above.

 - (b) shall be due from the responsible person, and
 - (c) may be recovered accordingly unless, or except to the extent that, the assessment has subsequently been withdrawn or reduced.
- (2) The responsible persons to whom an assessment may be notified are any one or more of the persons who are or appear to be, or at any time during the period to which the assessment relates were or appear to have been, responsible persons in relation to the unlicensed machine or the relevant premises.
