SCHEDULE 4

Sections 21(1), 24(1) and 26.

GAMING MACHINE LICENCE DUTY

PART I

EXEMPTIONS FROM REQUIREMENT OF EXCISE LICENCE

Charitable entertainments, etc.

- 1 (1) A gaming machine licence shall not be required in order to authorise the provision of a gaming machine at an entertainment (whether limited to one day or extending over two or more days), being a bazaar, sale of work, fête, dinner, dance, sporting or athletic event or other entertainment of a similar character, where the conditions of this paragraph are complied with in relation to the entertainment.
- (2) The conditions of this paragraph are that—
- (a) the whole proceeds of the entertainment (including the proceeds of gaming by means of any machine) after deducting the expenses of the entertainment, including any expenses incurred in connection with the provision of gaming machines and of prizes to successful players of the machines will be devoted to purposes other than private gain; and
 - (b) the opportunity to win prizes by playing the machine (or that machine and any other provided for gaming at the entertainment) does not constitute the only, or the only substantial, inducement for persons to attend the entertainment.
- [^{F1}(3) In construing sub-paragraph (2)(a) above, proceeds of an entertainment promoted on behalf of a society falling within this sub-paragraph which are applied for any purpose calculated to benefit the society as a whole shall not be held to be applied for purposes of private gain by reason only that their application for that purpose results in benefit to any person as an individual.
- (4) A society falls within sub-paragraph (3) above if it is established and conducted either—
- (a) wholly for purposes other than purposes of any commercial undertaking, or
 - (b) wholly or mainly for the purpose of participation in or support of athletic sports or athletic games;
- and in this paragraph “society” includes any club, institution, organisation or association of persons, by whatever name called, and any separate branch or section of such a club, institution, organisation or association.]

Pleasure fairs

- 2 (1) A gaming machine licence shall not be required in order to authorise the provision of a gaming machine at a pleasure fair, consisting wholly or mainly of amusements provided by travelling showmen, which is held on any day of a year on premises not previously used in that year for more than twenty-seven days for the holding of such a pleasure fair, where the conditions of this paragraph are complied with in relation to the machine.
- (2) The conditions of this paragraph are that—
- (a) the amount payable to play the machine once does not exceed 10p;
 - (b) a person playing the machine once and successfully does not receive anything other than one of the following prizes or combinations of prizes:—
 - (i) a money prize not exceeding £1 or a token which is, or two or more tokens which in the aggregate are, exchangeable only for such a money prize;
 - (ii) a non-monetary prize or prizes of a value or aggregate value not exceeding £2 or a token exchangeable only for such a non-monetary prize or such non-monetary prizes;
 - (iii) a money prize not exceeding £1 together with a non-monetary prize of a value which does not exceed £2 less the amount of the money prize;
 - (iv) one or more tokens which can be exchanged for a non-monetary prize or non-monetary prizes at the appropriate rate; and
 - (c) the opportunity to play the machine (or that machine and any other provided for gaming at the fair) does not constitute the only, or the only substantial, inducement for persons to attend the fair.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2)(b) above, “non-monetary prize”, in relation to a machine, means a prize which does not consist of or include any money and does not consist of or include any token which can be exchanged for money or money’s worth or be used for playing the machine; and, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(b)(iv), a token or tokens shall be taken to be exchanged for a non-monetary prize or prizes at the appropriate rate if either—
- (a) the value or aggregate value of the prize or prizes does not exceed £2 and the token or tokens exchanged represent the maximum number of tokens which can be won by playing the machine once, or
 - (b) in any other case, the value or aggregate value of the prize or prizes does not exceed £2 and bears to £2 a proportion not exceeding that which the number of tokens exchanged bears to the maximum number of tokens which can be won by playing the machine once.
- (4) The condition specified in sub-paragraph (2)(b) above shall not, in relation to a machine, be taken to be contravened by reason only that a successful player of the machine receives an opportunity to play again (once or more often) without paying,

PART II

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

General administration

- 5 The duty on gaming machine licences shall be under the care and management of the Commissioners, who may (without prejudice to any other provision of this Schedule) make regulations providing for any matter for which provision appears to them to be necessary for the administration or enforcement of the duty, or for the protection of the revenue in respect thereof; and in this Schedule—
- (a) “regulations” means regulations of the Commissioners made thereunder; and
 - (b) “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations.

Applications for and duration of licence

- 6 An application for a licence . . . ^{F5}shall, subject to paragraph 7(2) below, be made to the Commissioners not later than fourteen days before the date on which the licence is to be in force.

Textual Amendments

- F5 Words repealed by Finance Act 1984 \(c. 43, SIF 12:2\), ss. 7\(1\)\(2\), 128\(6\), Sch. 3 Pt. I para. 7\(2\), Sch. 23 Pt. II Note

- 7 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, a licence shall be expressed to take effect—
- (a) on the first day of the period for which it is granted, or
 - (b) on the fourteenth day after the date of the application,
- whichever is the later.
- (2) Where a licence would otherwise, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(b) above, be expressed to take effect on the fourteenth day after the date of the application it may, if the Commissioners think fit, be expressed to take effect earlier than that day, but in no case earlier than the day following that date.
- [^{F6}(3) A gaming machine licence shall expire at the end of the period for which it is granted.]

[^{F7} Payment of duty by instalments]

Textual Amendments

F7 Crossheading inserted (1.5.1995) by 1995 c. 4, s. 14, Sch. 3 para. 11(5).

- ^{F8}7A (1) The Commissioners may make and publish arrangements setting out the circumstances in which, and the conditions subject to which, a person to whom an amusement machine licence is granted for a period of twelve months may, at his request and if the Commissioners think fit, be permitted to pay the duty on that licence by regular instalments during the period of the licence, instead of at the time when it is granted.
- (2) Arrangements under this paragraph shall provide for the amount of each instalment to be such that the aggregate amount of all the instalments to be paid in respect of any licence is an amount equal to 105 per cent. of what would have been the duty on that licence apart from this paragraph.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) below applies if a person who has been permitted, in accordance with arrangements under this paragraph, to pay the duty on any amusement machine licence by instalments—
- (a) fails to pay any instalment at the time when it becomes due in accordance with the arrangements; and
 - (b) does not make good that failure within seven days of being required to do so by notice given by the Commissioners.
- (4) Where this sub-paragraph applies—
- (a) the licence shall be treated as having ceased to be in force as from the time when the instalment became due;
 - (b) the person to whom the licence was granted shall become liable to any unpaid duty to which he would have been liable under paragraph 11(1C) below if he had surrendered the licence at that time; and
 - (c) any amusement machines found on the premises to which the licence related shall be liable to forfeiture.
- (5) Sections 14 to 16 of the ^{M1}Finance Act 1994 (review and appeals) shall have effect in relation to any decision of the Commissioners refusing an application for permission to pay duty by instalments in accordance with arrangements under this paragraph as if that decision were a decision of a description specified in Schedule 5 to that Act.]

Transfer of licence

- 8 (1) The proper officer may, in such manner as the Commissioners may direct, and without any additional payment,
- [^{F9}(a) transfer an ordinary licence in respect of any premises to a successor in title to the interest in those premises of the person to whom the licence was granted; and
- (b) where—
- (i) a person holding special licences so requests; and
- (ii) the proper officer is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so and will not result in any person holding any number of special licences less than ten,
- transfer such number of special licences to such other person, as may be specified in the request.]
- (2) Where the holder of a gaming machine licence . . . ^{F10}dies, the proper officer may transfer the licence, in such manner as the Commissioners may direct and without any additional payment, to some other person for the remainder of the period for which the licence was granted.
