40 Refusal and cancellation of contracting out certificates.

In the ^{M1}Social Security Pensions Act 1975 the following section is inserted after section 51—

“51A Refusal and cancellation of contracting out certificates.

- (1) This subsection applies in any case where—
 - (a) a contracting-out certificate (the “first certificate”) has been surrendered by an employer or cancelled by the Occupational Pensions Board ; and
 - (b) at any time before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the surrender or cancellation, that or any connected employer, with a view to the issue of a further contracting-out certificate, makes an election in respect of any employment which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate.
- (2) This subsection applies in any case where—
 - (a) a contracting-out certificate (the “first certificate”) has been surrendered by an employer or cancelled by the Board ;
 - (b) a further contracting-out certificate has been issued, after the surrender or cancellation of the first certificate but before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the surrender or cancellation, in respect of any employment which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate ; and
 - (c) the Board have formed the opinion that had they been aware of all the circumstances of the case at the time when the further contracting-out certificate was issued they would have been prevented by subsection (4) below from issuing it.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) above apply whether or not the occupational pension scheme by reference to which the employment concerned was contracted-out employment by virtue of the first certificate is the same as the scheme by reference to which the employment—
 - (a) would be contracted-out employment if the further contracting-out certificate were issued ; or
 - (b) is contracted-out employment by virtue of the further contracting-out certificate.
- (4) In a case to which subsection (1) above applies, the Board shall not give effect to the election referred to in that subsection by issuing a further contracting-out certificate unless they consider that, in all the circumstances of the case, it would be reasonable to do so.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In a case to which subsection (2) above applies, the Board may, before the expiry of the period of twelve months beginning with the date on which the further contracting-out certificate was issued, cancel the further contracting-out certificate.
- (6) Where a contracting-out certificate is cancelled under subsection (5) above the provisions of this Act and of any regulations and orders made under it shall have effect as if the certificate had never been issued.
- (7) This section does not apply in any case where the surrender or cancellation of the first certificate occurred before 22nd July 1981.
- (8) Where the further contracting-out certificate referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) above was issued before the commencement of this section, then—
- (a) paragraph (c) of that subsection shall have effect as if this section had been in force at the time when the further contracting-out certificate was issued ; and
 - (b) subsection (5) above shall have effect as if the reference to the date of issue of that certificate were a reference to the commencement of this section.
- (9) Regulations may make such supplemental provision in relation to cases falling within subsection (1) or (2) above as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient.
- (10) Without prejudice to subsection (9) above, regulations may make provision, in relation to any case in which the Board have cancelled a contracting-out certificate under subsection (5) above, preventing the recovery by the employer concerned (whether by deduction from the emoluments or otherwise) of such arrears which he is required to pay to the Secretary of State in respect of an earner's liability under section 4(3) of the principal Act as may be prescribed.
- (11) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above an employment (the "second employment") in respect of which—
- (a) an election of the kind referred to in subsection (1)(b) above has been made ; or
 - (b) a further contracting-out certificate of the kind referred to in subsection (2)(b) above has been issued ;
- and an employment (the "first employment") which was specified by virtue of section 31(1)(a) of this Act in the first certificate shall be treated as one employment if, in the opinion of the Board,—
- (i) they are substantially the same, however described ; or
 - (ii) the first employment falls wholly or partly within the description of the second employment of the second employment falls wholly or partly within the description of the first employment.
- (12) Regulations shall prescribe the case in which employers are to be treated as connected for the purposes of this section.
- (13) Where the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations under subsection (10) above, section 10(1) of the Social Security Act 1980 (duty of Secretary of State to refer proposed regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee) shall apply in relation to those proposals.”.

43 War pensions.

- (1) In section 6 of the ^{M5}Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 (setting aside of Tribunal’s decision and rehearing of appeal), after the words “Minister’s decision” in subsection (2A) there are inserted the words “ (the “original decision”) ” and after subsection (2B) there are inserted the following subsections—

“(2C) Where a direction for a rehearing is given under subsection (2A) above, the Minister may, before the expiry of the period of two months beginning with the date of the direction, review the original decision.

(2D) If, on any such review, the Minister is of the opinion that there are grounds for revising the original decision he shall—

- (a) notify the appellant of his opinion and of the revision which he proposes to make ; and
 - (b) if the appellant withdraws his appeal against the original decision, revise it accordingly.”.
- (2) In any case where, before the commencement of this section, an award has been made in respect of a claim for a war pension, the validity of that award shall not be called into question on the ground that it was made—
- (a) in consequence of the review of a decision made in respect of the claim (whether or not following an appeal against that decision); and
 - (b) at a time when there was no provision in force authorising that review.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for determining the date from which any award made before the commencement of this section in respect of a claim for a war pension is to be taken to have had effect in a case where—
- (a) at the time when the award was made there was no provision in force for determining that date; or
 - (b) the award was made following—
 - (i) an appeal to the High Court, Court of Session or Court of Appeal; or
 - (ii) the rehearing of any appeal;

and the date from which payment under the award was first made was later than the date from which payment was, by virtue of any provision in force at the time when the award was made, required to be first made.

- (4) An order under subsection (3) above may provide that in any case where the date from which an award is, by virtue of the order, to be taken to have had effect is earlier than the date from which payment under the award was first made, any arrears due to a person in respect of the award shall be limited to those payable in respect of a specified period of not more than six years.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/1992.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

^{F34}(2)

(3) The following provisions come into force on the passing of this Act—

- (a) sections 7, 26, 40, 42 and 44 to 47;
- (b) paragraphs 1 to 4, 7, 11, 14(1) and (3), 16, 21, 23 to 25, 30 to 34, 37 and 38 of Schedule 4; and
- (c) subsections (1) to (4) and (7) of this section and subsection (5) of this section so far as it relates to the provisions mentioned in paragraph (b) above:

and the other provisions of this Act come into force on such day as the Secretary of State may appoint by order made by statutory instrument; and different days may be appointed for different provisions, different purposes or different areas.

(4) An order under subsection (3) above may make such transitional provision as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in connection with the provisions thereby brought into force.

(5) The enactments mentioned in Part I of Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect subject to the minor and consequential amendments specified in that Part; and the transitional provisions in Part II of that Schedule shall have effect.

(6) The enactments mentioned in Schedule 5 to this Act (which include some that are spent) are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule.

(7) This Act, except sections 42(2), 43 and 45 and this section and paragraphs 2 and 30, 32 and 33 of Schedule 4, does not extend to Northern Ireland.
