

Stock Transfer Act 1982

1982 CHAPTER 41

U.K.

An Act to amend the law relating to the transfer, registration and redemption of securities, and for purposes connected therewith. [30th July, 1982]

1 Transfer of certain securities through a computerised system. U.K.

- (1) In the exercise of the appropriate power (as defined in subsection (3) below) provision may be made permitting a transfer in certain cases of specified securities to which the power extends through the medium of a computer-based system to be established by the Bank of England and The Stock Exchange.
- (2) A transfer which (pursuant to any provision made under the appropriate power) is effected as mentioned in subsection (1) above is in this Act referred to as an “exempt transfer” and, notwithstanding anything in any enactment or in any prospectus or other document relating to the terms of issue, holding or transfer of specified securities, an exempt transfer shall be effective without the need for an instrument in writing.
- (3) In this section “the appropriate power” means the power to make regulations or orders under—
 - (a) section 47 of the ^{M1}Finance Act 1942 (Government stock) or section 11(1) (c) of the ^{M2}Exchequer and Financial Provisions Act (Northern Ireland) 1950 (Northern Ireland Exchequer stock); or
 - (b) [^{F1}paragraph 4 of Schedule 13 to the ^{M3}Local Government Act 1972][^{F1}section 43 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (borrowing powers)], paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to the ^{M4}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975 or section 70 of the ^{M5}Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1972 (local authority stocks); or
 - (c) ^{F2}Article 20 of the ^{M6}Electricity Supply (Northern Ireland) Order 1972 (electricity stock); or
 - ^{F3}(d) section 21(2) of the ^{M7}Gas Act 1972 (British Gas Stock); or
 - (e) subsection (4) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: Stock Transfer Act 1982 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 October 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, with respect to any specified securities to which none of the provisions referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (3) above applies, the Treasury may by regulations under this subsection make the provision referred to in subsection (1) above; and any such regulations shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (5) No provision shall be made, in the exercise of the appropriate power, for the application of the procedure of an exempt transfer to any securities or securities of any class except with the agreement of the person issuing the securities or, as the case may be, securities of that class or, if the liability for those securities or securities of that class has vested in another person, of that other person.

2 Specified securities. U.K.

- (1) In this Act “specified securities” means, subject to subsection (2) below, securities for the time being specified in the list in Schedule 1 to this Act.
- (2) Notwithstanding that a security may at any time be specified as mentioned in subsection (1) above, it is not at that time a specified security for the purposes of this Act if, on a transfer of it at that time effected by a written instrument, that instrument would be liable to stamp duty.
- (3) The Treasury may from time to time, after consultation with the Bank of England, by order—
- add a security or class of securities to the list in Schedule 1 to this Act; or
 - remove a security or class of securities from that list (whether the security or class of securities was included in the list as originally enacted or was added by virtue of this subsection).
- (4) The power to make an order under subsection (3) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be laid before Parliament after being made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

3 Regulations and amendments relating to the computerised system and exempt transfers. U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations made by statutory instrument make provision in connection with the operation of the system referred to in section 1(1) above.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, but subject to any express provision made by or by virtue of any amendment contained in Schedule 2 to this Act, regulations under subsection (1) above may provide—
 - (a) that, for the purposes of any provision made by or under any enactment or contained in any prospectus or other document and requiring or relating to the lodging or deposit of any instrument of transfer, notification of an exempt transfer in the manner required by the regulations is to be regarded as lodging or depositing an instrument of the transfer concerned; and
 - (b) that, in such circumstances as may be specified in the regulations, certificates or other documents of or evidencing title to specified securities are or are not to be issued to persons who (by virtue of their participation in the system referred to in section 1(1) above) are or have been able to transfer such securities by exempt transfers.
- (3) The amendments specified in Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect in consequence of the preceding provisions of this Act.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument repeal or amend any provision of—
 - (a) any local Act passed before or in the same session as this Act (including an Act confirming a provisional order), or
 - (b) any order or other instrument made under an Act so passed,if it appears to him that the provision has become unnecessary or requires alteration in consequence of any of the preceding provisions of this Act.
- (5) A statutory instrument made in the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (1) or subsection (4) above shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
