- (1) Without prejudice to any powers conferred on them by any other enactment, the National Bus Company (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the Bus Company”) shall have power to provide for the disposal, in such manner as they think fit, of—
  - (a) any shares in or other securities of one of their subsidiaries which are held by the Company or by another of their subsidiaries; or
  - (b) the whole or any part of the undertaking of, or any property, rights or liabilities of, any of their subsidiaries.
- (2) The Bus Company shall not exercise their powers under subsection (1)(a) above except with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (3) In exercising their powers under subsection (1)(a) above the Bus Company may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, provide for employees' share schemes to be established in respect of any of their subsidiaries; and any such scheme may provide for the transfer of shares without consideration.
- (4) In this section “employees' share scheme” means a scheme for encouraging or facilitating the holding of shares or debentures in a company by or for the benefit of—
  - (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of the company or of a subsidiary of the company; or
  - (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers or children or step-children under the age of eighteen of such employees or former employees.]

- (1) For the purpose of facilitating the eventual disposal under section 1(1) of this Act of—
  - (a) any part of the undertaking of or any property, rights or liabilities of, the Bus Company, or the Company may exercise their powers to establish subsidiaries and to transfer property, rights and liabilities to subsidiaries, notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment which may be taken to limit the purposes for which those powers may be exercised.
  - (b) the whole or any part of the undertaking of, or any property, rights or liabilities of, any of their subsidiaries;

- (2) The Bus Company may also, for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1) above, make schemes for the transfer, between the Company and a wholly owned subsidiary of theirs or between one such subsidiary and another, of—
  - (a) any specified property, rights or liabilities; or
  - (b) all property, rights and liabilities comprised in a specified part of the transferor's undertaking; and a scheme under this subsection may contain such supplementary, incidental and consequential provisions as may appear to the Company to be necessary or expedient.

- (3) Before making a scheme under subsection (2) above which provides for the transfer of rights and liabilities under contracts of employment, the Bus Company shall consult with persons appearing to them to represent the employees concerned.
- (4) A scheme under subsection (2) above shall not come into force until it has been approved by the Secretary of State or until such date as the Secretary of State may, in giving his approval, specify; and the Secretary of State may approve a scheme either without modifications or with such modifications as, after consultation with the Bus Company, he thinks fit.
- (5) On the coming into force of a scheme under subsection (2) above the property, rights and liabilities in question shall, subject to subsection (6) below, be transferred and vest in accordance with the scheme.
- (6) Schedule 4 to the <sup>M1</sup>Transport Act 1968 (supplementary provisions as to certain transfers of property, rights and liabilities) shall apply to any transfer under subsection (5) above subject to—
  - (a) any reference in that Schedule to a transfer by or a vesting by virtue of that Act being construed as a reference to a transfer by or a vesting by virtue of the scheme in question; and
  - (b) the reference in paragraph 13(5) of that Schedule to the relevant provisions of that Act being construed as a reference to the relevant provisions of this Act;

and that subsection shall have effect subject to the provisions of that Schedule.]

- (1) The Secretary of State may give directions to the Bus Company requiring them to exercise their powers under sections 1 and 2 of this Act (including the powers extended by section 2(1) of this Act) for such purposes and in such manner as may be specified in the directions.
- (2) Before giving a direction under this section the Secretary of State shall consult with—
  - (a) the Bus Company; and
  - (b) in the case of a direction requiring the Bus Company to exercise their powers under section 1 of this Act in relation to any of their subsidiaries, every county council in whose area that subsidiary provides bus services.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Bus Company (notwithstanding any duty imposed on them by section 24(2) or (3) of the <sup>M2</sup>Transport Act 1968) to give effect to any directions given under this section.
- (4) In section 27(8) of the <sup>M3</sup>Transport Act 1962 (duty to make an annual report) after the words “this Act” there shall be inserted the words “or section 3 of the Transport Act 1982”.
- (5) In this section—

“bus services” has the same meaning as in the Transport Act 1968;
“county council” includes the Greater London Council.]

[<sup>F6</sup>5] Pensions for employees of related companies.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make such orders under section 74 of the <sup>M4</sup>Transport Act 1962 (power to make provision about pensions in the nationalised transport industry) in relation to related companies as he could make if those companies were subsidiaries of the Bus Company.
- (2) In exercising with respect to any pension scheme the powers conferred by this section, the Secretary of State shall take into account any representations made by the persons administering the scheme.
- (3) Except on the application of a related company which is not a subsidiary of the Bus Company, no order shall be made by virtue of this section which has the effect of placing the related company or any of its subsidiaries in any worse position; but for this purpose a related company or a subsidiary shall not be regarded as being placed in a worse position because an order provides that any changes in a pension scheme are not to be effected without the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (4) An order such as is mentioned in subsection (3) above which is made without the application of the related company shall not be invalid because it does not have the effect of securing that the related company and its subsidiaries are not placed in any worse position, but except in so far as the related company approves the effect of the order the Secretary of State shall as soon as may be make the necessary amending order.
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) above have effect only in relation to orders made after such day as may be appointed for the purposes of this section by order made by the Secretary of State, and different days may be so appointed in relation to different related companies.
- (6) Where an order (the “first order”) applying to a related company has been made under section 74 and at the time when it was made the related company was a subsidiary of the Bus Company, the order shall not apply to the related company when it ceases to be such a subsidiary except where an order made (at any time) by virtue of this section provides for the first order to continue to apply to the related company.
- (7) An order made by virtue of this section may, in particular, authorise the Bus Company or any subsidiary of the Company—
  - (a) to transfer liabilities and obligations under a pension scheme in relation to some (but not all) of the participants in that scheme to another pension scheme (the “other scheme”); and
  - (b) to divide or apportion a pension fund held for the purposes of the scheme between that scheme and the other scheme.
- (8) In this section “participant”, in relation to a scheme, means—
  - (a) in relation to a scheme under which benefits are or will be receivable as of right, a person who has pension rights under the scheme (whether he has contributed or not); and
  - (b) in relation to a scheme under which benefits are not or will not be receivable as of right, a person who (whether he is referred to in the scheme as a member,

- (1) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable under section 47 of the <sup>M5</sup>Finance Act 1973 in respect of—
- (a) the formation of a subsidiary of the Bus Company; or
  - (b) any increase in the capital of such a subsidiary;
- if the transaction concerned is certified by the Treasury as satisfying the requirements of subsections (2) and (3) below.
- (2) A transaction satisfies the requirements of this subsection if it is effected solely for the purpose—
- (a) of facilitating such an eventual disposal as is mentioned in section 2(1) of this Act; or
  - (b) of complying with a direction given by the Secretary of State under section 3(1) of this Act.
- (3) A transaction satisfies the requirements of this subsection if it is entered into solely in connection with a transfer to be effected under section 2 of this Act, takes place on or before the transfer date and does not give rise to an excess of capital.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) above a transaction gives rise to an excess of capital if—
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1)(a) above the total issued capital of the subsidiary exceeds, on the transfer date, the total value of the assets less liabilities transferred; or
  - (b) in a case falling within subsection (1)(b) above, the aggregate amount of the increase of issued capital of the subsidiary exceeds, on that date, that total value;
- and in this subsection “issued capital” means issued share capital or loan capital.]

PART II

TESTING, MARKING AND APPROVAL OF VEHICLES

PROSPECTIVE

Provision for private-sector plating and testing

8 Private-sector vehicle testing.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the Secretary of State may authorise any person to conduct a business (referred to below in this Part of this Act as a vehicle testing business) which consists of or includes the exercise by any person in the course of that business of any of the functions specified in section 9 of this Act (which are concerned with the testing of goods vehicles and other vehicles and related matters, and are accordingly referred to below in this Part of this Act as the testing and surveillance functions).
- (2) The Secretary of State may not under subsection (1) above authorise any person who is for the time being either—
  - (a) the holder of a goods vehicle operator’s licence granted under Part V of the <sup>M6</sup>Transport Act 1968 [F10]or the Goods Vehicles (Licensing Operators) Act 1995]; or
  - (b) the holder of a PSV operator’s licence granted under Part II of the 1981 Act; to carry on a vehicle testing business; and any authorisation granted to any person under that subsection shall cease if that person subsequently becomes the holder of any such licence.
- (3) Any person authorised under subsection (1) above is referred to below in this Part of this Act as an approved testing authority.
- (4) The Secretary of State may authorise any individual to exercise all or any of the testing and surveillance functions in the course of a vehicle testing business; and any individual so authorised is referred to below in this Part of this Act as an authorised inspector.
- (5) The Secretary of State may authorise any individual to act under the direction of an authorised inspector for the purposes of or in connection with the exercise by that inspector in the course of a vehicle testing business of any of the testing and surveillance functions; and any individual so authorised is referred to below in this section as an approved assistant.

- (6) Any authorisation granted under this section shall be subject to such conditions or limitations in any individual case as the Secretary of State may notify in writing to the person authorised on granting the authorisation or from time to time afterwards.
- (7) Without prejudice to subsection (6) above—
- (a) the Secretary of State may by regulations impose conditions to be complied with by approved testing authorities and approved assistants; and
  - (b) regulations made under any enactment relating to any of the testing and surveillance functions may impose conditions to be complied with by authorised inspectors in exercising any of those functions under the regulations.
- (8) The Secretary of State may not without the consent of the person authorised withdraw any authorisation granted under this section except—
- (a) for breach of any condition attached to the authorisation (whether under subsection (6) above or by regulations made under or by virtue of subsection (7) above); or
  - (b) in the case of an authorised inspector or approved assistant, for misconduct or incompetence or other reasonable cause.
- (9) The Secretary of State may not—
- (a) authorise any person under subsection (1) above to carry on a vehicle testing business; or
  - (b) give to an approved testing authority any notification under subsection (6) above which has the effect of extending the testing and surveillance functions which may be exercised in the course of the business carried on by that authority;
- unless a document giving the required notice of his proposal to do so has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (10) The notice required by subsection (9) above is—
- (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of that subsection, a notice indicating that the Secretary of State proposes to authorise the person in question to carry on a vehicle testing business and specifying the testing and surveillance functions within the proposed terms of the authorisation;
  - (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, a notice indicating that the Secretary of State proposes to extend the testing and surveillance functions which may be exercised in the course of the business carried on by the approved testing authority in question, and specifying the additional functions.
- (11) The addition of any new functions to the testing and surveillance functions which may be exercised in the course of a vehicle testing business carried on by an approved testing authority is an extension of those functions for the purposes of this section (notwithstanding that other functions may be excluded from exercise in the course of that business at the same time as the new ones are added).

“(2A) Regulations may make provision—

- (a) for any report or notice required under subsection (1) or (2) above to be made or given to the Secretary of State or to the prescribed testing authority;
- (b) for requiring a public service vehicle to be submitted for examination in the event of any such failure or damage as is mentioned in subsection (1) above or any such alteration as is mentioned in subsection (2) above; and
- (c) for the examinations to be carried out under the regulations and, in particular, for authorising any such examination to be carried out by or under the direction of a [<sup>F25</sup>an examiner appointed under section 66A of the Road Traffic Act 1988] or an authorised inspector.”

(10) References in any regulations made under any enactment relating to any of the testing and surveillance functions before this section comes into operation to a [<sup>F26</sup>vehicle examiner] shall be read as including an authorised inspector authorised to exercise the function in question.

(11) Subject to the qualification mentioned below, regulations made under—

- [<sup>F27</sup>(a) section 45, section 49 or section 61 of the 1988 Act; or]
- (b) section 6(1A), 10(4) or 20(2A) of the 1981 Act;

may include provision for the purpose of securing that private-sector examinations are properly carried out in accordance with the regulations, including (but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provision) provision for the supervision or review of private-sector examinations by persons authorised for the purpose by or under the regulations.

No person other than an officer of the Secretary of State may be authorised by or under regulations so made to supervise or review an examination carried out in the course of a vehicle testing business carried on by a person other than his own employer.

In this subsection “private-sector examination” means, in relation to an examination under regulations so made, an examination carried out by or under the direction of an authorised inspector.

(12) Without prejudice to any existing power of the Secretary of State to determine the premises at which examinations under [<sup>F28</sup>sections 45 or 49 of the 1988 Act] may be carried out—

13 Investment by the Secretary of State in Government-controlled company interested in former Government testing stations.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the Secretary of State may at any time, with the consent of the Treasury, incur expenditure for or in connection with—
  - (a) making loans to any company with a present or prospective interest in Government testing station assets on such terms and conditions as he may with the consent of the Treasury determine; or
  - (b) acquiring shares in or other securities of any such company.
- (2) The company must be a company [<sup>F29</sup>as defined in section 1(1) of the Companies Act 2006] in which the Secretary of State holds a controlling interest.
- (3) The Secretary of State may not dispose of any shares or other securities acquired by virtue of this section without the consent of the Treasury.
- (4) The Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, remit in whole or in part the liability of any company in respect of loans made to the company by virtue of this section.
- (5) So long as the Secretary of State holds a controlling interest in any such company as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above—
  - (a) he shall, as soon as practicable after any annual accounts of that company are laid before the company in general meeting, lay copies of those accounts and of any documents annexed or attached to those accounts before each House of Parliament; and
  - (b) he shall secure that the Comptroller and Auditor General is accorded any facilities he may from time to time require for inspecting any accounts or accounting records of that company.
- (6) Any expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in consequence of the provisions of this section shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament.
- (7) Any sums received by the Secretary of State as interest on or in repayment of loans made to any company by virtue of this section or in right of, or on the disposal of, any shares or other securities acquired by virtue of this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (8) In this section “annual accounts” means, in relation to any company, accounts prepared in respect of any accounting reference period of the company under [<sup>F30</sup>Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006] ; and for the purposes of this section a company—
  - (a) shall be taken to have a present or prospective interest in Government testing station assets if it holds any estate or interest in or right over former testing station land or owns any former testing station property, or if the Secretary of State proposes to transfer or grant to the company any estate or interest in or right over testing station land or (as the case may be) to transfer to the company any testing station property; and
  - (b) is one in which the Secretary of State holds a controlling interest if more than one-half of its voting shares are owned by the Secretary of State or by nominees on his behalf.
- (9) In subsection (8) above—
  - (a) in paragraph (a) “testing station land” means land held by the Secretary of State as or as part of a goods vehicle testing station provided by the Secretary of State under [<sup>F31</sup>section 52(2) of the 1988 Act], and “testing station property”

18 Alteration of plated weights for goods vehicles without examination.

The following section shall be inserted after section 51 of the 1972 Act—

“51A Alteration of plated weights for goods vehicles without examination

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
- (a) for the determination, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, of the plated weights (or any of the plated weights) for goods vehicles of any prescribed class otherwise than on examination under regulations made under section 45 or 50 of this Act; and
  - (b) for the amendment of any approval certificate in force in respect of a vehicle of any such class so as to specify the weights determined for that vehicle under the regulations in place of any weights superseded by those weights or the cancellation of any such certificate and the issue in place of it of a different certificate specifying the weights so determined in place of any weights so superseded.
- (2) Any person aggrieved by a determination of plated weights for a goods vehicle under regulations made under this section may appeal to the Secretary of State and on the appeal the Secretary of State shall cause the vehicle to be examined by an officer of the Secretary of State appointed by him for the purpose and shall make such determination on the basis of the examination as he thinks fit.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, regulations under this section—
- (a) may provide for the determination of any plated weights for a goods vehicle under the regulations to be made by the Secretary of State or by the prescribed testing authority;
  - (b) may contain the like provisions with respect to any appeal brought by virtue of subsection (2) above and any examination on any such appeal as may be contained in any regulations made by virtue of paragraphs (c), (g) and (h) of section 45(6) of this Act in relation to an appeal under subsection (3) of that section and any examination on any such appeal;
  - (c) may specify the manner in which, and the time before or within which, applications may be made for the determination of plated weights of vehicles under the regulations, and the information to be supplied and documents to be produced on any such application;
  - (d) may make provision as to fees to be paid on any such application;
