PART III

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR INDUSTRY

7 Selective financial assistance for industry in assisted areas.

- (1) For the purposes set out in the following provisions of this section the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, provide financial assistance where, in his opinion—
  - (a) the financial assistance is likely to provide, maintain or safeguard employment in any part of the assisted areas; and
  - (b) the undertakings for which the assistance is provided are or will be wholly or mainly in the assisted areas.
- (2) The purposes mentioned in subsection (1) above are—
  - (a) to promote the development or modernisation of an industry;
  - (b) to promote the efficiency of an industry;
  - (c) to create, expand or sustain productive capacity in an industry, or in undertakings in an industry;
  - (d) to promote the reconstruction, reorganisation or conversion of an industry or of undertakings in an industry;
  - (e) to encourage the growth of, or the proper distribution of undertakings in, an industry;
  - (f) to encourage arrangements for ensuring that any contraction of an industry proceeds in an orderly way.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, financial assistance under this section may be given on any terms or conditions, and by any description of investment or lending or guarantee, or by making grants, and may, in particular, be—
  - (a) investment by acquisition of loan or share capital in any company, including an acquisition effected by the Secretary of State through another company, being a company formed for the purpose of giving financial assistance under this Part of this Act or Part II of the <sup>M1</sup>Industry Act 1972,
  - (b) investment by the acquisition of any undertaking or of any assets,
  - (c) a loan, whether secured or unsecured, and whether or not carrying interest, or interest at a commercial rate,
  - (d) any form of insurance or guarantee to meet any contingency, and in particular to meet default on payment of a loan, or of interest on a loan, or non-fulfilment of a contract.
- (4) Financial assistance shall not be given under this section in the way described in subsection (3)(a) above unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that it cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so given in any other way; and the Secretary of State, in giving financial assistance in the way so described, shall not acquire any shares or stock in a company without the consent of that company.
- (5) In this section “industry”, unless the context otherwise requires, includes any description of commercial activity, and references to an industry include references to any section of an industry.
- (6) In this section “the assisted areas” means the development areas, the intermediate areas and Northern Ireland.

8 Selective financial assistance: general powers.

- (1) For the purposes set out in subsection (2) of section 7 above the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, provide financial assistance where, in his opinion—
- the financial assistance is likely to benefit the economy of the United Kingdom, or of any part or area of the United Kingdom; and
  - it is in the national interest that the financial assistance should be provided on the scale, and in the form and manner, proposed; and
  - the financial assistance cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so provided otherwise than by the Secretary of State.
- (2) Financial assistance under this section may, subject to the following provisions of this section, be given in any of the ways set out in subsection (3) of section 7 above; but the Secretary of State shall not under this section use any money for the acquisition or assistance of banks or insurance companies.
- (3) Financial assistance shall not be given under this section in the way described in subsection (3)(a) of section 7 above unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that it cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so given in any other way; and the Secretary of State, in giving financial assistance in the way so described, shall not acquire any shares or stock in a company without the consent of that company.
- (4) The aggregate of—
- the sums paid by the Secretary of State under this section or section 8 of the <sup>M2</sup>Industry Act 1972, other than sums paid in respect of foreign currency guarantees, and
  - the liabilities of the Secretary of State under any guarantees given by him under this section or that section, (exclusive of any liability in respect of interest on a principal sum so guaranteed and of any liability under a foreign currency guarantee),
- less any sum received by the Secretary of State by way of repayment of loans under this section or that section, or repayment of principal sums paid to meet a guarantee under this section or that section (other than a foreign currency guarantee), shall not at any time exceed the limit specified in subsection (5) below.
- [<sup>F9</sup>(5) The limit shall be £ 3,700 million, but the Secretary of State may, on not more than four occasions, by order made with the consent of the Treasury increase or further increase that limit by a sum specified in the order, being a sum not exceeding £ 600 million.]
- (6) Subject to section 9 below, the aggregate of—

Status: Point in time view as at 22/07/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the liabilities of the Secretary of State under foreign currency guarantees (exclusive of any liability in respect of interest on a principal sum guaranteed by him under this section or section 8 of the <sup>M3</sup>Industry Act 1972), and
- (b) any sums paid by the Secretary of State in respect of foreign currency guarantees,
- less any sums received by the Secretary of State by way of repayment of principal sums paid to meet foreign currency guarantees, shall not at any time exceed the limit specified in subsection (7) below.
- (7) The said limit shall be 1,000 million special drawing rights, but the Secretary of State may, on not more than four occasions, by order made with the consent of the Treasury increase or further increase that limit by an amount specified in the order, being an amount not exceeding 500 million special drawing rights.
- (8) Subject to subsection (9) below, the sums which the Secretary of State pays or undertakes to pay by way of financial assistance under this section in respect of any one project, excluding sums paid or to be paid in respect of foreign currency guarantees, shall not exceed £10 million, except so far as any excess over the said sum of £10 million has been authorised by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.
- (9) Subsection (8) above shall not apply where the Secretary of State is satisfied that the payment or undertaking is urgently needed at a time when it is impracticable to obtain the approval of the Commons House of Parliament; and in that case the Secretary of State shall lay a statement concerning the financial assistance before each House of Parliament.
- (10) An order under subsection (5) or (7) above shall be contained in a statutory instrument; and such an order shall not be made unless a draft of the order has been approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.
- (11) In this section—
- “foreign currency” means any currency other than sterling, including special drawing rights;
- “foreign currency guarantee” means a guarantee given under that section or section 8 of the <sup>M4</sup>Industry Act 1972 by the Secretary of State under which his liability is measured in a foreign currency, whether or not it is to be discharged in a foreign currency, and for this purpose—
- (a) a liability measured in sterling but expressed to be subject to a limit in a foreign currency shall be taken to be measured in foreign currency, and
- (b) a liability measured in foreign currency but expressed to be subject to a limit in sterling shall be taken to be measured in sterling;
- “guarantee” includes any form of insurance.

9 Limit on foreign currency liabilities: supplementary provisions.

- (1) The amount to be taken into account under section 8(6) above at any time in respect of a liability of the Secretary of State shall, if the amount of the liability is not expressed in special drawing rights, be the equivalent at that time in special drawing rights of the amount of the liability.
- (2) The equivalent in special drawing rights of the amount of a liability shall be determined by the Secretary of State—
  - (a) by reference to the day on which the guarantee is given, and
  - (b) by reference to the last day of each quarter at the end of which the guarantee remains in force, and shall be so determined having regard to what appears to him to be the appropriate rate of exchange.
- (3) A determination made under subsection (2)(a) above shall take effect as from the day by reference to which it is made and (unless it ceases to be required at an earlier date) shall remain in force until the end of the quarter in which the guarantee is given.
- (4) A determination made by reference to the last day of the quarter under subsection (2)(b) above shall take effect as from the end of that quarter and (unless it ceases to be required at an earlier date) shall remain in force throughout the next succeeding quarter.
- (5) The amount to be taken into account under section 8(6) above in respect of a sum paid or received by the Secretary of State otherwise than in special drawing rights shall be an amount determined by him, by reference to the day of payment or receipt and having regard to what appears to him to be the appropriate rate of exchange, as being the equivalent in special drawing rights of that sum.
- (6) The limit imposed by section 8(6) above may be exceeded if the excess is attributable only to, or to a combination of—
  - (a) a quarterly revaluation;
  - (b) the Secretary of State's liability under a guarantee given in pursuance of a previous undertaking of his, so far as the amount to be taken into account for the purposes of the limit in respect of the liability exceeds what it would have been if determined by reference to the day on which the undertaking was given;
  - (c) a payment made by the Secretary of State under a guarantee, so far as the amount to be taken into account for the purposes of the limit in respect of the payment exceeds what it would have been if determined by reference to the day on which the guarantee was given.

12 Powers to promote careers in industry etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make such grants or loans to any body as he considers appropriate for the purpose of assisting in—
- (a) the promotion of the practice of engineering;
  - (b) the encouragement and improvement of links between industry, or any part of industry, and bodies or individuals concerned with education;
  - (c) the encouragement of young persons and others to take up careers in industry, or in any part of industry, and to pursue appropriate educational courses.
- (2) Any grants under this section may be made on such conditions, and any loans under this section may be made at such rates of interest, as the Secretary of State may with the approval of the Treasury determine.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not determine a rate of interest in respect of a loan under this section which is lower than the lowest rate for the time being determined by the Treasury under section 5 of the <sup>M5</sup>National Loans Act 1968 in respect of comparable loans out of the National Loans Fund.
- (4) The Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, guarantee obligations (arising out of loans) incurred by any body which falls within subsection (5) below and which in his opinion is concerned with promoting the practice of engineering.
- (5) A body falls within this subsection if—
- (a) it is established by Royal Charter; and
  - (b) its members are for the time being appointed by the Secretary of State.

13 Improvement of basic services.

- (1) Where it appears to the Minister in charge of any government department that adequate provision has not been made for the needs of any development area or intermediate area in respect of a basic service for which the department is responsible, and that it is expedient with a view to contributing to the development of industry in that area that the service should be improved, he may with the consent of the Treasury make grants or loans towards the cost of improving it to such persons and in such manner as appear to him appropriate.
- (2) In this section “basic service” means the provision of facilities for transport (whether by road, rail, water or air) or of power, lighting, heating, water, or sewerage, and sewage disposal facilities, or any other service or facility on which the development of the area in question, and in particular of industrial undertakings therein, depends.

14 Provision of premises and sites.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall have power, in order to provide or facilitate the provision of premises in any development area or intermediate area for occupation by undertakings carried on or to be carried on there or for otherwise meeting the requirements of such undertakings (including requirements arising from the needs of persons employed or to be employed therein)—
  - (a) to acquire land by agreement or, if so authorised, compulsorily;
  - (b) to erect buildings and carry out works on land belonging to the Secretary of State;
  - (c) by agreement with the persons interested in any other land, to erect buildings and carry out works on the land on such terms (including terms as to repayment of expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State) as may be specified in the agreement.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall not acquire under subsection (1) above any buildings other than industrial buildings (as defined in <sup>F11</sup>section 14A of this Act]) except for redevelopment or as part of a larger property which in the opinion of the Secretary of State would be incomplete without them.
- (3) The Secretary of State may modernise, adapt or reconstruct any buildings or other works on land acquired by him under this section or the <sup>M6</sup>Local Employment Act 1972 and, where the execution of that work will interrupt the use of the buildings or works by any undertaking, acquire other land by agreement, and erect buildings and carry out works on that other land, or on land previously acquired by the Secretary of State as aforesaid, for the purpose of providing premises for the occupation of that undertaking or of otherwise meeting its requirements.

- (4) Where land acquired by the Secretary of State under this section or the <sup>M7</sup>Local Employment Act 1972 is situated in a locality which is not a development area or intermediate area, the Secretary of State may exercise in relation to the land the following powers, that is to say—
- (a) power to preserve and maintain the land and any buildings or works on it, and to erect buildings and carry out works on it;
  - (b) where there are buildings on the land, power to acquire by agreement other land contiguous or adjacent to it for the purpose of erecting thereon extensions to those buildings or of erecting thereon other buildings to be used with the first-mentioned buildings as part of a single undertaking;
  - (c) power to provide means of access, services and other facilities for meeting the requirements of undertakings carried on, or to be carried on, on the land (including requirements arising from the needs of persons employed or to be employed therein).
- (5) The <sup>M8</sup>Acquisition of Land Act 1981 shall apply in relation to the compulsory purchase of land by the Secretary of State under this section; but, notwithstanding anything in this section, where at the time of publication in accordance with the provisions of that Act of notice of the preparation of a draft of a compulsory purchase order—
- (a) land is in use for the purposes of any undertaking, and
  - (b) that undertaking provides employment which is substantial having regard to the extent of the land used for its purposes and the nature of the undertaking,
- the Secretary of State shall not be authorised to acquire compulsorily the interest of the person carrying on the undertaking.
- (6) Any person duly authorised in writing by the Secretary of State may, at any reasonable time, enter any land for the purpose of surveying it in connection with the exercise of the Secretary of State’s powers under this section to acquire land; and [<sup>F12</sup>subsection (8) of section 324 and subsections (1) to (6), (8) and (9) of section 325 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990] (which contain supplemental provision with respect to powers of entry) shall apply in relation to this subsection as they apply in relation to [<sup>F12</sup>the said section 324].

- (1) In section 14(2) of this Act “industrial building” means a building which is used or designed for use for carrying on, in the course of a trade or business, a process for or incidental to any of the following purposes—

Status: Point in time view as at 22/07/2004.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the making of any article or part of any article,
  - (b) the altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, cleaning, washing, freezing, packing or canning, or adapting for sale, or breaking up or demolition, of any article, or
  - (c) the getting, dressing or preparation for sale of minerals or the extraction or preparation for sale of oil or brine,
- or which is used or designed for use for carrying on, in the course of a trade or business, scientific research.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) premises which—
- (a) are used or designed for use for providing services or facilities ancillary to the use of other premises for the carrying on of any such process or research as is mentioned in that subsection, and
  - (b) are or are to be comprised in the same building or the same curtilage as those other premises,
- shall themselves be treated as used or designed for use for the carrying on of such a process or, as the case may be, of such research.
- (3) In this section—
- “article” means an article of any description, including a ship or vessel;
