5 Bingo duty and gaming machine licence duty. U.K.

- (1) In paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 to the <sup>M3</sup>Betting and Gaming Duties Act 1981 (exemption limits for smallscale bingo) after subparagraph (1) there shall be inserted the following subparagraph—

“(1A) Where the total value of the card money taken in the bingo in question played at any premises exceeds during, or on any day in, a relevant week the total value of the prizes won in that bingo during that week or, as the case may be, on that day, any reference in subparagraph (1) above to the total value of the prizes so won shall be read as a reference to the total of the card money so taken.

In this subparagraph

“card money” means money taken by or on behalf of the promoter of the bingo as payment by players for their cards (within the meaning of section 17(3) of this Act)”

- (2) In Schedule 4 to the Act of 1981, in paragraph 1, for subparagraph (3) (meaning of private gain in relation to exemption from gaming machine licence duty for charitable entertainments etc.) there shall be substituted the following—

“(3) In construing subparagraph (2)(a) above, proceeds of an entertainment promoted on behalf of a society falling within this subparagraph which are applied for any purpose calculated to benefit the society as a whole shall not be held to be applied for purposes of private gain by reason only that their application for that purpose results in benefit to any person as an individual.

- (4) A society falls within subparagraph (3) above if it is established and conducted either—

(a) wholly for purposes other than purposes of any commercial undertaking, or

6 Deferred payment of excise duty on goods. U.K.

The following section shall be inserted in Part X of the <sup>M4</sup>Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (duties and drawbacks: general provisions), after section 127—

“Deferred payment of excise duty on goods

127A Deferred payment of excise duty on goods.

- (1) The Commissioners may by regulations make provision for the payment of any excise duty on goods of a prescribed kind to be deferred, in prescribed cases, subject to such conditions or requirements as may be imposed—
  - (a) by the regulations; or
  - (b) where the regulations so provide, by the Commissioners.
- (2) Any duty payment of which is deferred under the regulations shall be treated, for prescribed purposes, as if it had been paid.
- (3) Where—
  - (a) any excise duty to which an application for deferment of duty made under the regulations relates is payable on goods on their removal from an excise warehouse; and
  - (b) the Commissioners are not satisfied—
    - (i) that the conditions imposed under section 92(1) above in relation to the warehouse have been complied with by the occupier of the warehouse; or
    - (ii) that the warehousing regulations made by virtue of section 93(2)(g) above have been complied with by the occupier or by the proprietor of the goods;
 the Commissioners may, notwithstanding any provision of the regulations, refuse the application or refuse it in so far as it relates to those goods.

Nothing in this subsection shall be taken to prejudice the power of the Commissioners to prescribe the cases in which excise duty may be deferred.
- (4) Regulations under this section may make different provision for goods of different descriptions or for goods of the same description in different circumstances.
- (5) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made under this section.”

36 Increased oil allowance for certain new fields. U.K.

- (1) For all the relevant new fields, as defined in subsection (2) below, section 8 of the principal Act (the oil allowance) shall have effect subject to the following modifications:—
- (a) in subsection (2) (the amount of the allowance for each chargeable period) for “250,000 metric tonnes” there shall be substituted “ 500,000 metric tonnes ”; and
- (b) in subsection (6) (the total allowance for a field) for “5 million metric tonnes” there shall be substituted “ 10 million metric tonnes ”.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, in this section “relevant new field” means an oil field—
- (a) no part of which lies in a landward area, within the meaning of the <sup>M12</sup>Petroleum (Production) Regulations 1982 or in an area to the East of the United Kingdom and between latitudes 52°and 55°North; and
- (b) for no part of which consent for development has been granted to the licensee by the Secretary of State before 1st April 1982; and
- (c) for no part of which a programme of development had been served on the licensee or approved by the Secretary of State before that date.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1983. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In determining, in accordance with subsection (2) above, whether an oil field (in this subsection referred to as “the new field”) is a relevant new field, no account shall be taken of a consent for development granted before 1st April 1982 or a programme of development served on the licensee or approved by the Secretary of State before that date if—
- (a) in whole or in part that consent or programme related to another oil field for which a determination under Schedule 1 to the principal Act was made before the determination under that Schedule for the new field; and
  - (b) on or after 1st April 1982, a consent for development is or was granted or a programme of development is or was served on the licensee or approved by the Secretary of State and that consent or programme relates, in whole or in part, to the new field.
- (4) In subsections (2) and (3) above “development” means—
- (a) the erection or carrying out of permanent works for the purpose of getting oil from the field or for the purpose of conveying oil won from the field to a place on land; or
  - (b) winning oil from the field otherwise than in the course of searching for oil or drilling wells;
- and consent for development does not include consent which is limited to the purpose of testing the characteristics of an oil-bearing area and does not relate to the erection or carrying out of permanent works.
- (5) In subsection (4) above “permanent works” means any structures or other works whatsoever which are intended by the licensee to be permanent and are neither designed to be moved from place to place without major dismantling nor intended by the licensee to be used only for searching for oil.

37 Reliefs for exploration and appraisal expenditure etc. U.K.

- (1) The section set out in Part I of Schedule 8 to this Act shall be inserted in the principal Act after section 5 for the purpose of setting up a new allowance by virtue of which a participator in an oil field may obtain relief for certain expenditure which is incurred otherwise than in connection with that field.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1983. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) For the purpose of giving effect to, and in consequence of, the new allowance, the enactments specified in Part II of Schedule 8 to this Act shall have effect subject to the amendments there specified.
- (3) Part III of Schedule 8 to this Act shall have effect with respect to sums received after 15th March 1983 and falling to be set off against expenditure which would otherwise be allowable under section 5 of the principal Act or under the new section set out in Part I of that Schedule.
- (4) In paragraph 1 of Schedule 7 to the principal Act (claims for certain allowances)—
- (a) in sub-paragraph (1) the words from “but may not” to the end of the sub-paragraph (which impose a time limit on claims) shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, omitted; and
  - (b) in sub-paragraph (2) the words “within the time allowed for making the original claim” shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, omitted;
- and, accordingly, any claim which, immediately before the passing of this Act, could not have been made by virtue of the time bar may be made thereafter.

39 Exclusion of oil appropriated for production purposes in other fields. U.K.

- (1) In section 12(1) of the principal Act (interpretation of Part I) in the definition of “relevantly appropriated” (which, among other matters, excludes oil appropriated for production purposes) after the word “purposes” there shall be added the words “ in relation to that or any other oil field ”.
- (2) This section has effect, and shall be deemed to have had effect, for chargeable periods ending after 31st December 1977.

40 Variation of decisions on claims for allowable expenditure. U.K.

- (1) At the end of Schedule 5 to the principal Act (allowance of expenditure under section 3 or 4 of that Act) there shall be inserted the following paragraph—
- “9 (1) If, within the period of three years commencing with the date on which notice of a decision of the Board under paragraph 3 above was given to the responsible person for an oil field, it appears to the Board that the relevant amount was incorrectly stated in the notice, the Board may before the expiry of that period serve on the responsible person a notice stating what appears to the Board to be the correct amount (referred to below as “the notice of variation”).

- (2) In this paragraph “the relevant amount”, in relation to a notice of a decision on a claim under paragraph 3 above, means any one or more of the following—
  - (a) the amount of expenditure allowed on the claim;
  - (b) the amount of that expenditure allowed as qualifying for supplement under section 2(9)(b)(ii) of this Act;
  - (c) where different percentages were stated in that notice to apply to different parts of that expenditure for the purpose of calculating the supplement, each of those parts of that expenditure.
- (3) The responsible person may, by notice in writing given to the Board not more than thirty days after the notice of variation was served on him, appeal to the Special Commissioners against the notice of the variation.
- (4) A notice of appeal under sub-paragraph (3) shall state the grounds on which the appeal is brought.
- (5) An appeal under this paragraph may at any time be abandoned by notice in writing given to the Board by the responsible person.
- (6) A notice of variation may be withdrawn at any time before it becomes effective.
- (7) In any case where—
  - (a) the responsible person gives notice of appeal against a notice of variation, and
  - (b) before the appeal is determined by the Special Commissioners, the Board and the responsible person agree as to what the relevant amount ought to be,the notice of variation shall have effect subject to such modifications as may be necessary to give effect to that agreement; and thereupon the appeal shall be treated as having been abandoned.
- (8) On an appeal against a notice of variation the Special Commissioners may vary the notice, quash the notice or dismiss the appeal; and the notice may be varied whether or not the variation is to the advantage of all or any of the participators in the oil field in question.
- (9) Where a notice of variation relating to a decision on a claim becomes effective, the relevant amount shall be taken for the purposes of this Part of this Act as having been reduced or increased, as the case may require, on the date on which notice of the decision was given, by such amount as may be necessary to give effect to that notice, and the Board may make such computations under section 2 of this Act and such assessments or determinations or such amendments of assessments or determinations as may be necessary in consequence of that reduction or increase.
- (10) A notice of variation becomes effective for the purposes of this paragraph either—
  - (a) on the expiry of the period during which notice of appeal against the notice of variation may be given to the Special Commissioners under sub-paragraph (3) above without such notice of appeal being given; or

44 Rates of interest for government lending. U.K.

- (1) Section 5 of the <sup>M15</sup>National Loans Act 1968 (which, as set out in section 153 of the <sup>M16</sup>Finance Act 1982, provides for the determination of rates of interest for government lending) shall be amended in accordance with this section.
- (2) In subsection (5) (withdrawal of determination or approval of rate of interest which no longer fulfils the requirements of the section)—
- (a) for the words from “approved for” to “not yet made” there shall be substituted the words “ approved for a class of loans ”; and
  - (b) for the words from “withdrawn” to the end of the subsection there shall be substituted the words “ withdrawn at the earliest convenient time, and, subject to subsection (5A) below, from that or such later time as may be convenient another rate determined or approved in accordance with subsection (3) or, as the case may be, subsection (4) above shall come into force for further loans of that class ”.
- (3) After subsection (5) there shall be inserted the following subsections:—
- “(5A) If, in the case of a loan of any class,—
- (a) an undertaking was given to the person to whom the loan was to be made that the rate of interest which would apply to that loan would be that which, at a time specified in or determined in accordance with the undertaking, was or would be in force for loans of that class, and
  - (b) before the loan was in fact made, the determination or approval of that rate of interest was withdrawn by virtue of subsection (5) above or otherwise ceased to be effective,
- the rate of interest which applies to that loan shall be that which was in force for loans of that class at the time specified in, or as the case may be determined in accordance with, the undertaking.

45 Suspension of certain payments into National Loans Fund in respect of new towns. U.K.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) below, the Treasury may, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, by order specify any new town development loan as a loan the repayment of which to the Secretary of State (and subsequently into the National Loans Fund) is to be suspended by virtue of this section.
- (2) Where a loan is specified by an order under subsection (1) above—
  - (a) the terms of the loan shall have effect as if any payment by way of repayment of or interest on the loan which (apart from this section) would fall due at any time within the unexpired period for repayment of the loan fell due instead at the corresponding time within the period of the same duration beginning with 1st October 1986; and
  - (b) no interest shall accrue in respect of the loan during the period beginning with the coming into force of the order and ending with 30th September 1986.
- (3) In this section, “new town development loan” means any sum—
  - (a) falling within section 60(a) of the <sup>M17</sup>New Towns Act 1981 (sums advanced by Secretary of State to development corporations in England and Wales for the purpose of enabling them to meet expenditure properly chargeable to capital account or to make good to revenue account sums applied in meeting liabilities so chargeable); <sup>F13</sup> . . .
  - (b) . . . . .

and “the unexpired period for repayment of the loan”, in relation to any loan specified by an order under subsection (1) above, means the period beginning with the coming into force of the order and ending with the date which (apart from this section) would be the last date on which any payment by way of repayment of or interest on the loan would fall due under the terms of the loan.
- (4) The aggregate amount of new town development loans specified by order under subsection (1) above shall not exceed £1,250 million.
- (5) The power to make an order under subsection (1) above shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.

RELIEFS FOR EXPLORATION AND APPRAISAL EXPENDITURE ETC

PART I U.K.

SECTION TO BE INSERTED AFTER SECTION 5 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C9 The text of Sch. 8 Pt. I is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991

Allowance of exploration and appraisal expenditure.

- “5A (1) The exploration and appraisal expenditure which, subject to the provisions of this section and Schedule 7 to this Act, is allowable in the case of a person who is a participator in an oil field is any expenditure (whether or not of a capital nature) which—
- (a) is incurred after 15th March 1983 by that person or, if that person is a company, by that company or a company associated with it in respect of the expenditure; and
  - (b) is so incurred wholly and exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in subsection (2) below; and
  - (c) at the time it is so incurred, does not relate to a field for which a development decision has previously been made.
- (2) The purposes referred to in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) the purpose of searching for oil in the United Kingdom, the territorial sea thereof or a designated area;
  - (b) the purpose of ascertaining the extent or characteristics of any oil-bearing area in the United Kingdom, the territorial sea thereof or a designated area;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1983. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the purpose of ascertaining what are the reserves of oil of any such oil-bearing area; and
  - (d) subject to subsection (3) below, the purpose of making to the Secretary of State any payment under or for the purpose of obtaining a licence (not being a payment by way of royalty or other periodic payment).
- (3) Expenditure incurred for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2)(d) above is not allowable under this section unless, at the time the allowance is claimed,—
- (a) the licence to which the expenditure related has expired or has been determined or revoked; or
  - (b) part of the licensed area has been surrendered;
- and where paragraph (b) above applies only that proportion of the expenditure which corresponds to the proportion of the licensed area which has been surrendered is expenditure falling within subsection (1) above.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, subsections (2) and (4) to (8) of section 5 of this Act apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of that section.
- (5) In the application for the purposes of this section of the provisions of section 5 of this Act referred to in subsection (4) above,—
- (a) any reference in subsection (2) of section 5 to the purpose mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of that section shall be construed as a reference to any of the purposes specified in subsection (2) of this section;
  - (b) the reference in subsection (2)(a) of section 5 to subsection (1) of that section shall be construed as a reference to subsection (1) of this section; and
  - (c) the reference in subsection (6) of section 5 to a sum received does not include a reference—
    - (i) to a sum received from the disposal of oil won in the course of operations carried out for any of the purposes in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2) of this section; or
    - (ii) to a sum received for the assignment of any of the rights conferred by a licence or of any interest in a licensed area.
- (6) Expenditure is not allowable under this section in connection with an oil field if, or to the extent that, it has been allowed under Schedule 5, Schedule 6 or Schedule 7 to this Act in connection with any oil field.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c) above, a development decision is made when—
- (a) consent for development is granted to a licensee by the Secretary of State in respect of the whole or part of an oil field; or
  - (b) a programme of development is served on a licensee or approved by the Secretary of State for the whole or part of an oil field;
- and subsections (4) and (5) of section 36 of the Finance Act 1983 (meaning of development etc.) apply in relation to this subsection as they apply in relation to subsections (2) and (3) of that section.
- (8) If, at the time when it is incurred, expenditure relates to an area—
- (a) which is not then an oil field, but
  - (b) in respect of which notice of a proposed determination has previously been given under paragraph 2(a) of Schedule 1 to this Act,

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1983. (See end of Document for details)

that area shall be treated for the purposes of this section as having become an oil field at the time the notice was given unless, when the actual determination is made, the area is not included in an oil field.”

PART II U.K.

AMENDMENTS RELATING TO THE NEW ALLOWANCE

The principal Act

- 1 In section 2(9) of the principal Act (amounts to be taken into account in respect of expenditure) at the end of paragraph (e) there shall be added “and
- (f) any exploration and appraisal expenditure allowable in the case of the participator under section 5A of this Act which, on a claim made by him under Schedule 7 to this Act, has been allowed under that Schedule before the Board have made an assessment to tax or a determination on or in relation to him for the period in respect of the field, so far as that expenditure has not been taken into account in any previous assessment to tax or determination.”

PART III U.K.

RECEIPTS TO BE SET AGAINST ALLOWABLE EXPENDITURE

- 10 In this Part of this Schedule—
“allowable expenditure” means expenditure which, in accordance with section 5 or section 5A of the principal Act, is allowable on a claim made by a participator under Schedule 7 to that Act; and “qualifying receipt” means a sum the amount of which falls, by virtue of subsection (6) of section 5 of the principal Act, to be applied by way of reduction in the amount of expenditure which would otherwise be allowable expenditure.
- 11 (1) A return made by a participator for a chargeable period under paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the principal Act shall give details of any qualifying receipt (whether received by him or by a person connected with him) of which details have not been given in a return made by him for an earlier chargeable period.
- (2) Section [F46839 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988] (connected persons) applies for the purposes of this paragraph.

Textual Amendments

- F46 Words substituted by Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (c. 1, SIF 63:1), Sch. 29 para. 32

- 12 (1) This paragraph applies where—
(a) a claim for allowable expenditure has been made by a participator under Schedule 7 to the principal Act; and
(b) as a result of the receipt (whether before or after the making of the claim) of a qualifying receipt, the amount allowed by way of allowable expenditure on the claim exceeds what it should have been.
