- (a) vary any condition for the time being in force in respect of a home by virtue of this Part of this Schedule; or
 - (b) impose an additional condition,
- either on the application of a person registered in respect of it or without such an application.
- (5) If any condition for the time being in force in respect of a home by virtue of this part of this Schedule is not complied with, any person registered in respect of the home shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.
- (6) The certificate of registration issued in respect of any home shall be kept affixed in a conspicuous place in the home; and if default is made in complying with this subparagraph, any person registered in respect of the home shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale and to a further fine not exceeding £5 for each day on which the offence continues after conviction.

Death of only person registered in respect of home

- 8 Where—
- (a) one person only is registered in respect of a residential care home; and
 - (b) that person dies,
- his personal representatives or his widow or any other relative of his may for a period not exceeding 4 weeks from his death, or such longer period as the registration authority may sanction, carry on the home without being registered in respect of it.

Inspection of registers

- 9 The registers kept by a registration authority for the purpose of this Part of this Schedule shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times, and any person inspecting any such register shall be entitled to make copies of entries in the register on payment of such reasonable fee as the registration authority may determine.

Annual fee for registration

- 10 The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) require persons registered in respect of residential care homes to pay an annual fee of such amount as the regulations may specify; and
 - (b) Specify when the fee is to be paid.

Refusal of registration

- 11 The registration authority may refuse to register an applicant for registration in respect of a residential care home if they are satisfied—
- (a) that he or any other person concerned or intended to be concerned in carrying on the home is not a fit person to be concerned in carrying on a residential care home;
 - (b) that for reasons, connected with their situation, construction, state of repair, accommodation, staffing or equipment, the premises used or intended to be used for the purposes of the home, or any other premises used or intended to be used in connection with it, are not fit to be so used; or the Secretary of State shall give him written notice of his proposal and of the conditions subject to which he proposes to grant his application.

- (2) The Secretary of State shall give an applicant notice of a proposal to refuse his application.
- (3) Except where he makes an application under section 8A above, the Secretary of State shall give any person registered in respect of a nursing home or mental nursing home notice of a proposal—
 - (a) to cancel the registration;
 - (b) to vary any condition for the time being in force in respect of the home by virtue of this Act; or
 - (c) to impose any additional condition.
- (4) A notice under this section shall give the Secretary of State's reasons for his proposal.

Right to make representations.

- (1) A notice under section 8B above shall state that within 14 days of service of the notice any person on whom it is served may in writing require the Secretary of State to give him an opportunity to make representations to him concerning any matter which that person wishes to dispute.
- (2) Where a notice has been served under section 8B above, the Secretary of State shall not determine any matter in dispute until either—
 - (a) any person on whom the notice was served has made representations to him concerning the matter; or
 - (b) the period during which any such person could have required the Secretary of State to give him an opportunity to make representations has elapsed without the Secretary of State being required to give such an opportunity; or
 - (c) the conditions specified in subsection (3) below are satisfied.
- (3) The conditions mentioned in subsection (2) above are—
 - (a) that a person on whom the notice was served has required the Secretary of State to give him an opportunity to make representations to him concerning the matter;
 - (b) that the Secretary of State has allowed him a reasonable period to make his representations; and
 - (c) that he has failed to make them within that period.
- (4) the representations may be made, at the option of the person making them, either in writing or orally.
- (5) If he informs the Secretary of State that he desires to make oral representations, the Secretary of State shall give him an opportunity of appearing before and of being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State.
