2 What a traffic regulation order may provide.

- (1) [^{F22}A traffic regulation order may make] any provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road, or of any part of the width of a road, by vehicular traffic, or by vehicular traffic of any class specified in the order,—
- (a) either generally or subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the order or determined in a manner provided for by it, and
 - (b) subject to such exceptions as may be so specified or determined, either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified.
- (2) [^{F23}The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order] includes any provision—
- (a) requiring vehicular traffic, or vehicular traffic of any class specified in the order, to proceed in a specified direction or prohibiting its so proceeding;
 - (b) specifying the part of the carriageway to be used by such traffic proceeding in a specified direction;
 - (c) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading and unloading of vehicles;
 - (d) prohibiting the use of roads by through traffic; or
 - (e) prohibiting or restricting overtaking.
- (3) The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order also includes provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road, or of any part of the width of a road, by, or by any specified class of, pedestrians—
- (a) either generally or subject to exceptions specified in the order, and
 - (b) either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified.
- (4) [^{F24}A local traffic authority may include] in a traffic regulation order any such provision—
- (a) specifying through routes for heavy commercial vehicles, or
 - (b) prohibiting or restricting the use of heavy commercial vehicles (except in such cases, if any, as may be specified in the order) in such zones or on such roads as may be so specified,
- as they consider expedient for preserving or improving the amenities of their area or of some part or parts of their area.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) above shall be construed as limiting the scope of any power or duty to control vehicles conferred or imposed on any local authority [^{F25}, a strategic highways company] or the Secretary of State otherwise than by virtue of that subsection.

Status: Point in time view as at 27/04/2017.

Experimental traffic schemes

9 Experimental traffic orders.

^{F44}[(1) The traffic authority for a road may, for the purposes of carrying out an experimental scheme of traffic control, make an order under this section (referred to in this Act as an “experimental traffic order”) making any such provision—

(a) as respects a road outside Greater London, as may be made by a traffic regulation order;

(b) as respects a road in Greater London, as may be made by an order under section 6, 45, 46, 49, ^{F45}or 83(2) or by virtue of section 84(1)(a)] of this Act.

^{F46}[(2) An experimental traffic order made by a local traffic authority outside Greater London may, with the consent of the Secretary of State [^{F47}or a strategic highways company], extend to a road in relation to which he [^{F48}or it] is the traffic authority if the order forms part of a scheme of general traffic control relating to roads of which at least one has a junction with the length of road in question.

(2A) In the case of a road in Greater London for which the Secretary of State [^{F49}or a strategic highways company] is the traffic authority, the power to make an order under this section is also exercisable, with his [^{F50}or its] consent, by the local traffic authority.]

(3) An experimental traffic order shall not continue in force for longer than 18 months.

Status: Point in time view as at 27/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to Parts I to III of Schedule 9 of this Act, where—
- (a) an experimental traffic order has been made for a period of less than 18 months, and
 - (b) the order has not ceased to be in force,
- the authority by whom the order was made may from time to time by order direct that it shall continue in force for a further period ending not later than 18 months after it first came into force.
- (5) Where an experimental traffic order made by [^{F51}a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London] has not ceased to be in force, and the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) an order which [^{F51}the council] propose to make under any of the provisions of this Act specified in subsection (1)(b) above has the sole effect of reproducing and continuing in force indefinitely the provisions of the experimental traffic order (whether or not that order has been varied, or has been modified or suspended under section 10(2) of this Act), and
 - (b) in consequence of [^{F51}the council] causing a public inquiry to be held into the order so proposed to be made, they would be unable to make it so that it would come into operation before the experimental traffic order ceases to be in force,
- the Secretary of State may, at the request of [^{F51}the council], from time to time direct that the experimental traffic order shall continue in force for a further period not exceeding 6 months from the date when it would otherwise cease to be in force.
- ^{F52}[(5A) So much of section 4(1) or 7(1) of this Act as provides for a presumption that a traffic sign is lawfully placed shall apply for the purposes of an order under this section making any such provision as is referred to in that subsection.]
- (6) In this section and section 10 of this Act “road ”, in relation to Greater London, includes any street as defined by section 6(6) of this Act.
