

County Courts Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 28

PART I

CONSTITUTION AND ADMINISTRATION

County courts and districts

1 County courts to be held for districts.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, England and Wales shall be divided into districts, and a court shall be held under this Act for each district at one or more places in it; and throughout the whole of each district the court so held for the district shall have such jurisdiction and powers as are conferred by this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force.
- (2) Every court so held shall be called a county court and shall be a court of record and shall have a seal.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 42 of the ^{M1}Courts Act 1971 (City of London).

M1 1971 c. 23.

2 County court districts etc.

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may by order specify places at which county courts are to be held and the name by which the court held at any place so specified is to be known.
- (2) Any order under this section shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be laid before Parliament after being made.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The districts for which county courts are to be held shall be determined in accordance with directions given by or on behalf of the Lord Chancellor.
- (4) Subject to any alterations made by virtue of this section, county courts shall continue to be held for the districts and at the places and by the names appointed at the commencement of this Act.

Places and times of sittings of courts

3 Places and times of sittings.

- (1) In any district the places at which the court sits, and the days and times when the court sits at any place, shall be determined in accordance with directions given by or on behalf of the Lord Chancellor.
- (2) A judge may from time to time adjourn any court held by him, and a registrar may from time to time adjourn—
 - (a) any court held by him, or
 - (b) in the absence of the judge, any court to be held by the judge.
- (3) With the consent of the parties to proceedings (whether heard by the judge or a registrar), the proceedings, or any question arising in the proceedings, may be heard and determined at any place either within or without the district.
- (4) References in this Act to sittings of the court shall include references to sittings by any registrar in pursuance of any provision contained in, or made under, this Act.

4 Use of public buildings for courts.

- (1) Where, in any place in which a county court is held, there is a building, being a town hall, court-house or other public building belonging to any local or other public authority, that building shall, with all necessary rooms, furniture and fittings in it, be used for the purpose of holding the court, without any charge for rent or other payment, except the reasonable and necessary charges for lighting, heating and cleaning the building when used for that purpose.
- (2) Where any such building is used for the purpose of holding any court, the sittings of the court shall be so arranged as not to interfere with the business of the local or other public authority usually transacted in the building or with any purpose for which the building may be used by virtue of any local Act.
- (3) This section shall not apply to any place in which a building was erected before 1st January 1889 for the purpose of holding and carrying on the business of a county court.

Judges

5 Judges of county courts.

- (1) Every Circuit judge shall, by virtue of his office, be capable of sitting as a judge for any county court district in England and Wales, and the Lord Chancellor shall assign one or more Circuit judges to each district and may from time to time vary the assignment of Circuit judges among the districts.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Subject to any directions given by or on behalf of the Lord Chancellor, in any case where more than one Circuit judge is assigned to a district under subsection (1), any function conferred by or under this Act on the judge for a district may be exercised by any of the Circuit judges for the time being assigned to that district.
- (3) The following, that is—
 - every judge of the Court of Appeal,
 - every judge of the High Court,
 - every Recorder,shall, by virtue of his office, be capable of sitting as a judge for any county court district in England and Wales and, if he consents to do so, shall sit as such a judge at such times and on such occasions as the Lord Chancellor considers desirable.
- (4) Notwithstanding that he is not for the time being assigned to a particular district, a Circuit judge—
 - (a) shall sit as a judge of that district at such times and on such occasions as the Lord Chancellor may direct; and
 - (b) may sit as a judge of that district in any case where it appears to him that the judge of that district is not, or none of the judges of that district is, available to deal with the case.

PART II

JURISDICTION AND TRANSFER OF PROCEEDINGS

Actions of contract and tort

15 General jurisdiction in actions of contract and tort.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action founded on contract or tort where the debt, demand or damage claimed does not exceed the county court limit whether on balance of account or otherwise.
- (2) A county court shall not, except as in this Act provided, have jurisdiction to hear and determine—
 - (a) any action for the recovery of land; or
 - (b) any action in which the title to any hereditament or to any toll, fair, market or franchise is in question; or
 - (c) any action for libel of slander.
- (3) A county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action where the debt or demand claimed consists of a balance not exceeding the county court limit after a set-off of any debt or demand claimed or recoverable by the defendant from the plaintiff, being a set-off admitted by the plaintiff in the particulars of his claim or demand.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C7 S. 15 excluded by Legal Aid Act 1988 \(c. 34, SIF 77:1\), s. 39(4)

16 Money recoverable by statute.

A county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine an action for the recovery of a sum recoverable by virtue of any enactment for the time being in force, if—

- (a) it is not provided by that or any other enactment that such sums shall only be recoverable in the High Court or shall only be recoverable summarily; and
- (b) the amount claimed in the action does not exceed the county court limit.

17 Abandonment of part of claim to give court jurisdiction.

- (1) Where a plaintiff has a cause of action for more than the county court limit in which, if it were not for more than the county court limit, a county court would have jurisdiction, the plaintiff may abandon the excess, and thereupon a county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the action, but the plaintiff shall not recover in the action an amount exceeding the county court limit.
- (2) Where the court has jurisdiction to hear and determine an action by virtue of this section, the judgment of the court in the action shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of the cause of action, and entry of the judgment shall be made accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

18 Jurisdiction by agreement in certain actions.

If the parties to any action, other than an action which, if commenced in the High Court, would have been assigned to the Chancery Division or to the Family Division or have involved the exercise of the High Court's Admiralty jurisdiction, agree, by a memorandum signed by them or by their respective [^{F13}solicitors][^{F13}legal representatives], that a county court specified in the memorandum shall have jurisdiction in the action, that court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the action accordingly.

Textual Amendments

F13 Words “legal representatives” substituted (1.4.1991) for “solicitors” by Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 \(c. 41, SIF 37\), s. 125\(3\), Sch. 18 para. 49\(3\)

19 Limitation of recoverable costs of actions of contract or tort commenced in High Court which could have been commenced in county court.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) and section 29, where an action founded on contract or tort is commenced in the High Court which could have been commenced in the county court the costs (if any) of the proceedings in the High Court to which the plaintiff is entitled shall be determined in accordance with section 20.
- (2) Neither this section nor section 20 affects any question as to costs if it appears to the High Court that there was reasonable ground for supposing the amount recoverable in respect of the plaintiff's claim to be in excess of the amount recoverable in an action commenced in the county court.
- (3) The High Court, if satisfied—
 - (a) that there was sufficient reason for bringing the action in the High Court; or
 - (b) that the defendant or one of the defendants objected to the transfer of the action to a county court;may make an order allowing the costs or any part of the costs on the High Court scale or on such one of the county court scales as it may direct.
- (4) Neither this section nor section 20 applies in the case of proceedings by the Crown.

20 Rules for limitation of recoverable costs.

- (1) If the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of goods to which this section applies recovers an aggregate amount less than the higher limit, he shall not be entitled to recover any more costs of the action than those to which he would have been entitled if the action had been brought in the county court.
- (2) If the plaintiff in an action to which this section applies, other than one for the recovery of goods, recovers a sum less than the higher limit, he shall not be entitled to recover any more costs of the action than those to which he would have been entitled if the action had been brought in the county court.
- (3) Where a plaintiff is entitled to costs on a county court scale only, the taxing master shall have the same power of directing on what county court scale costs are to be allowed, and of allowing any item of costs, as the judge would have had if the action had been brought in a county court.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (4) If the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of goods to which this section applies recovers an aggregate amount less than the lower limit, he shall not be entitled to recover any costs of the action.
- (5) If the plaintiff in an action to which this section applies, other than one for the recovery of goods, recovers a sum less than the lower limit, he shall not be entitled to recover any costs of the action.
- (6) For the purposes of this section a plaintiff shall be treated as recovering the full amount recoverable in respect of his claim without regard to any deduction made in respect of contributory negligence on his part or otherwise in respect of matters not falling to be taken into account in determining whether the action could have been commenced in the county court.
- (7) In this section “action for the recovery of goods” means an action brought to enforce a right to recover possession of goods or to enforce such a right and to claim payment of a debt or demands or damages.
- (8) The aggregate amount mentioned in subsections (1) and (4) includes the value—
 - (a) of any goods ordered in the action to be delivered to the plaintiff; and
 - (b) of any goods so ordered to be delivered of which the value is in the alternative ordered to be paid to him.
- (9) In this section—
 - “the higher limit” means, subject to section 145, £3,000;
 - “the lower limit” means, subject to section 145, £600.

Recovery of land and cases where title in question

21 Actions for recovery of land and actions where title is in question.

- (1) A county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action for the recovery of land where the net annual value for rating of the land does not exceed the county court limit.
- (2) A county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any action in which the title to any hereditament comes in question, being an action which would otherwise be within the jurisdiction of the court,—
 - (a) in the case of an easement or licence, if the net annual value for rating of the hereditament in respect of which the easement or licence is claimed, or on, through, over or under which the easement or licence is claimed, does not exceed the county court limit; or
 - (b) in any other case, if the net annual value for rating of the hereditament in question does not exceed the county court limit.
- (3) Where a mortgage of land consists of or includes a dwelling-house and no part of the land is situated in Greater London then, subject to subsection (4), if a county court has jurisdiction by virtue of this section to hear and determine an action in which the mortgagee under that mortgage claims possession of the mortgaged property, no court other than a county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine that action.
- (4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to an action for foreclosure or sale in which a claim for possession of the mortgaged property is also made.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) If an action in which the mortgagee under a mortgage of land claims possession of the mortgaged property would, by virtue of this section, be within the jurisdiction of a county court had that claim been the only claim made in the action, a county court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the action notwithstanding that a claim is also made in the action for payment by the mortgagor of the amount owing in respect of the mortgage or for payment of that amount by any person who guaranteed the debt secured by the mortgage and that by reason of the amount claimed the last mentioned claim is not within the jurisdiction of a county court.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) shall be taken as empowering a county court to hear and determine an action for foreclosure or sale which is not within the jurisdiction of a county court.
- (7) In this section—
 - “dwelling-house” includes any building or part of a building which is used as a dwelling;
 - “mortgage” includes a charge and “mortgagor” and “mortgagee” shall be construed accordingly;
 - “mortgagor” and “mortgagee” includes any person deriving title under the original mortgagor or mortgagee.
- (8) The fact that part of the premises comprised in a dwelling-house is used as a shop or office or for business, trade or professional purposes shall not prevent the dwelling-house from being a dwelling-house for the purposes of this section.

27 Admiralty jurisdiction.

- (1) Subject to the limitations of amount specified in subsection (2), an Admiralty county court shall have the following Admiralty jurisdiction, that is to say, jurisdiction to hear and determine—
 - (a) any claim for damage received by a ship;
 - (b) any claim for damage done by a ship;
 - (c) any claim for loss of life or personal injury sustained in consequence of any defect in a ship or in her apparel or equipment, or in consequence of the wrongful act neglect or default of—
 - (i) the owners, charterers or persons in possession or control of a ship; or
 - (ii) the master or crew of a ship, or any other person for whose wrongful acts, neglects or defaults the owners, charterers or persons in possession or control of a ship are responsible, being an act, neglect or default in the navigation or management of the ship, in the loading, carriage or discharge of goods on, in or from the ship, or in the embarkation, carriage or disembarkation of persons on, in or from the ship;
 - (d) any claim for loss of or damage to goods carried in a ship;
 - (e) any claim arising out of any agreement relating to the carriage of goods in a ship or to the use or hire of a ship;
 - (f) any claim in the nature of salvage (including any claim arising by virtue of the application, by or under section 87 of the ^{M12}Civil Aviation Act 1982, of the law relating to salvage of aircraft and their apparel and cargo);
 - (g) any claim in the nature of towage in respect of a ship or an aircraft;
 - (h) any claim in the nature of pilotage in respect of a ship or an aircraft;
 - (j) any claim in respect of goods or materials supplied to a ship for her operation or maintenance;
 - (k) any claim in respect of the construction, repair or equipment of a ship or dock charges or dues;
 - (l) any claim by a master or member of the crew of a ship for wages (including any sum allotted out of wages or adjudged by a superintendent to be due by way of wages);

- (2) The limitations of amount referred to in subsection (1) are that the court shall not have jurisdiction to hear and determine—
 - (a) a claim in the nature of salvage where the value of the property saved exceeds £15,000; or
 - (b) any other claim mentioned in that subsection for an amount exceeding £5,000.
- (3) References in this section to claims in the nature of salvage include references to such claims for services rendered in saving life from a ship or an aircraft or in preserving cargo, apparel or wreck as, under sections 544 to 546 of the ^{M13}Merchant Shipping Act 1894, or any Order in Council made under section 87 of the Civil Aviation Act 1982, are authorised to be made in connection with a ship or an aircraft.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), subsections (1) to (3) apply—
 - (a) in relation to all ships or aircraft whether British or not and whether registered or not and wherever the residence or domicile of their owners may be, and
 - (b) in relation to all claims, wheresoever arising (including, in the case of cargo or wreck salvage, claims in respect of cargo or wreck found on land).
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) shall be construed as extending the cases in which money or property is recoverable under any of the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts 1894 to 1983.
- (6) If, as regards any proceedings as to any such claim as is mentioned in subsection (1), the parties agree, by a memorandum signed by them or by their respective [^{F15}solicitors][^{F15}legal representatives] or agents, that a particular county court specified in the memorandum shall have jurisdiction in the proceedings, that court shall, notwithstanding anything in subsection (2) or in county court rules for prescribing the courts in which proceedings shall be brought, have jurisdiction to hear and determine the proceedings accordingly.
- (7) Nothing in this section shall be taken to affect the jurisdiction of any county court to hear and determine any proceedings in which it has jurisdiction by virtue of section 15 or 17.
- (8) Nothing in this section, or in section 26 or in any order made under that section, shall be taken to confer on a county court the jurisdiction of a prize court within the meaning of the Naval Prize Acts 1864 to 1916.
- (9) No county court shall have jurisdiction to determine any claim or question certified by the Secretary of State to be a claim or question which, under the Rhine Navigation Convention, falls to be determined in accordance with the provisions of that Convention; and any proceedings to enforce such a claim which are commenced in a county court shall be set aside.
- (10) In subsection (9) “the Rhine Navigation Convention” means the Convention of the 7th October 1868 as revised by any subsequent Convention.
- (11) Section 555 of the ^{M14}Merchant Shipping Act 1894 shall have effect as if there were inserted after the word “agreement” the words “or by a county court in England or Wales”.

28 Mode of exercise of Admiralty jurisdiction.

- (1) The following provisions of this section shall apply to cases within the Admiralty jurisdiction of a county court.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this Part of this Act, an action in personam may be brought in all such cases.
- (3) In any case in which there is a maritime lien or other charge on any ship, aircraft or other property for the amount claimed, an action in rem may be brought in a county court against that ship, aircraft or property.
- (4) In the case of any such claim as is mentioned in paragraphs (b) to (m) of section 27(1), where—
 - (a) the claim arises in connection with a ship; and
 - (b) the person who would be liable on the claim in an action in personam (“the relevant person”) was, when the cause of action arose, the owner or charterer of, or in possession of or in control of, the ship, an action in rem may (whether or not the claim gives rise to a maritime lien on that ship) be brought in a county court against—
 - (i) that ship if at the time when the action is brought the relevant person is either the beneficial owner of that ship as respects all the shares in it or the charterer of it under a charter by demise; or
 - (ii) any other ship of which, at the time when the action is brought, the relevant person is the beneficial owner as respects all the shares in it.
- (5) In the case of a claim in the nature of towage or pilotage in respect of an aircraft, an action in rem may be brought in a county court against that aircraft if, at the time when the action is brought, it is beneficially owned by the person who would be liable on the claim in an action in personam.
- (6) Where, in the exercise of its Admiralty jurisdiction, a county court orders any ship, aircraft or other property to be sold, the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any question arising as to the title to the proceeds of sale.
- (7) In determining for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5) whether a person would be liable on a claim in an action in personam it shall be assumed that he has his habitual residence or a place of business within England or Wales.
- (8) Where, as regards any such claim as is mentioned in section 27(1)(b) to (m), a ship has been served with a summons or arrested in an action in rem brought to enforce that claim, no other ship may be served with a summons or arrested in that or any other action in rem brought to enforce that claim; but this subsection does not prevent the issue, in respect of any one such claim, of a summons naming more than one ship or of two or more summonses each naming a different ship.

- (9) A county court may issue a warrant for the arrest and detention of any vessel, aircraft or property to which an action in rem brought in the court relates unless or until bail to the amount of the claim made in the action and the reasonable costs of the plaintiff in the action be entered into and perfected by or on behalf of the defendant.
- (10) Except as provided by subsection (9), no vessel, aircraft or property shall be arrested or detained in Admiralty proceedings in a county court otherwise than in execution.
- (11) Where—
- (a) a vessel, aircraft or other property would or might be sold under an execution to enforce a judgment or order given or made by a county court in Admiralty proceedings; and
 - (b) the owner of the vessel, aircraft or property desires that the sale should be conducted in the High Court instead of in the county court,
- he shall be entitled, on giving security for costs, and subject to such other provisions as may be prescribed, to obtain an order of the county court for transfer of the proceedings for sale, with or without (as the judge of the county court thinks fit) the transfer of any subsequent proceedings to the High Court.
- (12) On an appeal by a party to any Admiralty proceedings, the Court of Appeal, if it appears to it expedient that any sale ordered to be made of the vessel, aircraft or other property to which the proceedings relate should be conducted in the High Court instead of in the county court, may direct the transfer of the proceedings for sale, with or without the transfer of the subsequent proceedings, to the High Court.
- (13) Where an action is transferred to a county court under section 40, any vessel, aircraft or other property which has been arrested in the action before the transfer shall, notwithstanding the transfer, remain in the custody of the Admiralty Marshal who shall, subject to any directions of the High Court, comply with any orders, made by the county court with respect to that vessel, aircraft or property.

29 Costs of certain Admiralty proceedings commenced in High Court which could have been commenced in county court.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), subsections (2) and (3) have effect in relation to any action in the High Court in which there is made—
- (a) a claim arising out of an agreement relating to the use or hire of a ship;
 - (b) a claim for salvage services;
 - (c) a claim relating to the carriage of goods in a ship; or
 - (d) a claim in tort in respect of goods carried in a ship,
- unless it is certified by the court that there was sufficient reason for bringing the proceedings in the High Court.
- (2) If the plaintiff recovers less than £5,000, he shall not be entitled to recover any more costs of the action than those to which he would have been entitled if the action had been brought in the county court.
- (3) If the plaintiff recovers less than £350, he shall not be entitled to recover any costs of the action.

shall not affect any question as to costs in any case where it appears to the High Court that there was reasonable ground for supposing the amount recoverable in respect of the plaintiff's claim to be in excess of the amount recoverable in proceedings commenced in a county court.

(5) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a plaintiff shall be treated as recovering the full amount recoverable in respect of his claim without regard to any deduction made in respect of contributory negligence on his part or otherwise in respect of matters not falling to be taken into account in determining whether the action could have been commenced in the county court.

30 Restrictions on entertainment of actions in personam in collision and other similar cases.

(1) The claims to which this section applies are claims for damage, loss of life or personal injury arising—

- (a) out of a collision between ships;
- (b) out of the carrying out of or omission to carry out a manoeuvre in the case of one or more of two or more ships; or
- (c) out of the non-compliance, on the part of one or more of two or more ships,—
 - (i) with regulations for the prevention of collisions made under section 21 of the ^{M15}Merchant Shipping Act 1979; or
 - (ii) with any such rules as are mentioned in subsection (1) of section 421 of the ^{M16}Merchant Shipping Act 1894 or any rules made under subsection (2) of that section.

(2) No county court shall entertain an action in personam to enforce a claim to which this section applies unless—

- (a) the defendant has his habitual residence or a place of business within England and Wales; or
- (b) the cause of action arose within inland waters of England and Wales or within the limits of a port of England and Wales; or
- (c) an action arising out of the same incident or series of incidents is proceeding in the court or has been heard and determined in the court.

(3) In subsection (2)—

“inland waters” includes any part of the sea adjacent to the coast of the United Kingdom certified by the Secretary of State to be waters falling by international law to be treated as within the territorial sovereignty of Her Majesty apart from the operation of that law in relation to territorial waters; and

“port” means any port, harbour, river, estuary, haven, dock, canal or other place so long as a person or body of persons is empowered by or under an Act to make charges in respect of ships entering it or using the facilities in it, and “limits of a port” means the limits thereof as fixed by or under the Act in question or, as the case may be, by the relevant charter or custom;

“charges” means any charges with the exception of light dues, local light dues and any other charges in respect of lighthouses, buoys or beacons and of charges in respect of pilotage.

- (4) No county court shall entertain an action in personam to enforce a claim to which this section applies until any proceedings previously brought by the plaintiff in any court outside England and Wales against the same defendant in respect of the same incident or series of incidents have been discontinued or otherwise come to an end.
- (5) Subsections (1) to (4) shall apply to counterclaims (except counterclaims in proceedings arising out of the same incident or series of incidents) as they apply to actions in personam, but as if the references to the plaintiff and the defendant were respectively references to the plaintiff on the counterclaim and the defendant to the counterclaim.
- (6) Subsections (1) to (5) shall not apply to any action or counterclaim if the defendant submits or has agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the court.
- (7) Nothing in this section shall prevent an action or counterclaim which is brought in accordance with the provisions of this section in a county court being transferred, in accordance with the enactments in that behalf, to some other court (whether a county court or not).
- (8) This section applies in relation to the jurisdiction of any county court not being Admiralty jurisdiction, as well as in relation to its Admiralty jurisdiction, if any.

31 Admiralty—interpretation.

- (1) In the provisions of this Part of this Act relating to Admiralty proceedings, unless the context otherwise requires,—
 - “goods” includes baggage;
 - “master” has the same meaning as in the ^{M17}Merchant Shipping Act 1894, and accordingly includes every person (except a pilot) having command or charge of a ship;
 - “towage” and “pilotage”, in relation to an aircraft, mean towage and pilotage while the aircraft is waterborne.
- (2) Nothing in those provisions shall—
 - (a) be construed as limiting the jurisdiction of a county court to refuse to entertain an action for wages by the master or a member of the crew of a ship, not being a British ship;
 - (b) affect section 552 of the ^{M18}Merchant Shipping Act 1894 (power of receiver of wreck to detain a ship in respect of a salvage claim);

Miscellaneous provisions as to jurisdiction

34 Proceedings beyond jurisdiction.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where any proceedings are commenced in a county court in which a county court has no jurisdiction, the court shall, unless it is given jurisdiction by a jurisdiction agreement, order that the proceedings be transferred to the High Court.
- (2) Where, on the application of any defendant, it appears to the court that the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs knew or ought to have known that the court had no jurisdiction in the proceedings, the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of ordering that the proceedings be transferred, order that they be struck out.
- (3) In this section “jurisdiction agreement” means an agreement under section 18, 24 or 27(6).

35 Division of causes of action.

It shall not be lawful for any plaintiff to divide any cause of action for the purpose of bringing two or more actions in one or more of the county courts.

36 No action on judgment of High Court.

No action shall be brought in a county court on any judgment of the High Court.

Exercise of jurisdiction and ancillary jurisdiction

37 Persons who may exercise jurisdiction of court.

- (1) Any jurisdiction and powers conferred by this or any other Act—
 - (a) on a county court; or
 - (b) on the judge of a county court,may be exercised by any judge of the court.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to jurisdiction and powers conferred on all county courts or judges of county courts or on any particular county court or the judge of any particular county court.

38 General ancillary jurisdiction.

- (1) Every county court, as regards any cause of action for the time being within its jurisdiction,—

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (a) shall grant such relief, redress or remedy or combination of remedies, either absolute or conditional; and
- (b) shall give such and the like effect to every ground of defence or counterclaim equitable or legal, as ought to be granted or given in the like case by the High Court and in as full and ample a manner.

- (2) For the purposes of this section it shall be assumed (notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary) that any proceedings which can be commenced in a county court could be commenced in the High Court.

39 Ancillary powers of judge.

A judge shall have jurisdiction in any pending proceedings to make any order or exercise any authority or jurisdiction which, if it related to an action or proceeding pending in the High court, might be made or exercised by a judge of the High Court in chambers.

Transfer of proceedings

40 Transfer of proceedings to county court.

- (1) At any stage in any proceedings to which this section applies, the High Court may, in accordance with rules of the Supreme Court, either of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings, order the transfer of the whole or any part of the proceedings to a county court if—

- (a) the parties consent to the transfer; or
- (b) the High Court is satisfied—
 - (i) that, after allowance has been made for any payment, set-off or other amount admitted to be due, the amount remaining in dispute in respect of the claim is within the monetary limit of the jurisdiction of the county court; or
 - (ii) that the amount recoverable in respect of the claim is likely to be within the monetary limit of the jurisdiction of the county court; or
 - (iii) in the case of proceedings not involving an unliquidated claim, that the subject matter of the proceedings is or is likely to be within the limits of the jurisdiction of the county court;
- (c) where only a counterclaim remains in dispute, the High Court considers that the amount recoverable in respect of the counterclaim is likely to be within the monetary limit of the jurisdiction of the county court; or
- (d) the High Court considers that the proceedings are not likely to raise any important question of law or fact and are suitable for determination by a county court.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), this section applies to all proceedings commenced in the High Court which a county court would, apart from any limitation by reason of amount or value or annual value, have jurisdiction to hear and determine if commenced in that court.

[^{F19}(3) This section does not apply to proceedings which are family proceedings within the meaning of Part V of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984.]

- (4) This section applies to all proceedings transferred to the High court under section 41 or 42.
- (5) An order for the transfer to a county court of any proceedings by or against the Crown in the High Court shall not be made without the consent of the Crown.
- (6) Proceedings transferred under this section shall be transferred to such county court as the High Court considers to be convenient to the parties.
- (7) Where proceedings are ordered to be transferred from the High Court to a county court—
 - (a) any party may lodge with the registrar of the county court named in the order, or cause to be lodged with him, the order and the writ, or copies of them, and such other documents (if any) as the High Court may direct; and
 - (b) the proper officer of the Supreme Court shall, on the application of that party and on the production of the order and the filing of a copy of it, send by post to the registrar of the county court all pleadings, affidavits and other documents filed in the High court relating to the proceedings.
- (8) Subject to subsection (9), on the documents mentioned in subsection (7) being so lodged or sent, the proceedings shall be transferred to the county court.
- (9) The transfer shall not affect any right of appeal from the order directing the transfer, or the right to enforce in the High Court any judgment signed, or order made, in that court before the transfer.
- (10) Where proceedings are transferred to a county court under this section, the county court shall have jurisdiction—
 - (a) to hear and determine those proceedings; and
 - (b) to award any relief, including any amount of damages, which could have been awarded by the High Court.

42 Transfer to High Court by order of county court.

- (1) At any stage in any proceedings to which this section applies, the county court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings, order the transfer of the whole or any part of the proceedings to the High court if—
 - (a) the court considers that some important question of law or fact is likely to arise; or
 - (b) the court considers that one or other of the parties is likely to be entitled in respect of a claim or counterclaim to an amount exceeding the amount recoverable in the county court; or
 - (c) any counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim of a defendant involves matters beyond the jurisdiction of the county court.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) the county court has ordered that the proceedings on a counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim be transferred to the High court, but the proceedings on the plaintiff's claim and the defence other than any set-off are heard and determined in the county court; and
 - (b) judgment on the claim is given for the plaintiff, execution of the judgment shall, unless the High Court at any time otherwise orders, be stayed until the proceedings transferred to the High court have been concluded.
- (3) This section applies to all proceedings commenced in a county court which the High Court would have jurisdiction to hear and determine if they were commenced in it, other than [^{F21}proceedings which are family proceedings within the meaning of Part V of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984.]

44 Transfer of interpleader proceedings from High Court to county court.

If it appears to the High Court that any proceedings in the High Court by way of interpleader, in which the amount or value of the matter in dispute does not exceed the county court limit, may be more conveniently heard and determined in a county court, the High Court may at any time order that the proceedings be transferred to any county court in which proceedings might have been brought by any party to the interpleader against any other party to it if there had been a trust to be executed concerning the matter in question.

45 Costs in transferred cases.

(1) Where an action, counterclaim or matter is ordered to be transferred—

- (a) from the High Court to a county court; or
- (b) from a county court to the High Court; or
- (c) from one county court to another county court,

the costs of the whole proceedings both before and after the transfer shall, subject to any order of the court which ordered the transfer, be in the discretion of the court to which the proceedings are transferred; and that court shall have power to make orders with respect to the costs [^{F22}and as to the scales on which the costs of the several parts of the proceedings are to be taxed], and the costs of the whole proceedings shall be taxed in that court.

[^{F23}(2) The costs of so much of the proceedings in any action transferred from the High Court to a county court as takes place in the High Court before the transfer shall be subject to section 19, and the powers of the High Court under section 19(3) to make an order allowing costs on the High Court scale or on any county court scale shall, subject to any order of the High Court, be exercisable by the county court.]

PART III

PROCEDURE

Parties

46 Proceedings by the Crown

- (1) Subject to the provisions of any enactment limiting the jurisdiction of a county court, whether by reference to the subject matter of the proceedings to be brought or the amount sought to be recovered in the proceedings or otherwise, proceedings by the Crown may be instituted in a county court.
- (2) Subject to section 40(5), all rules of law and enactments regulating the removal or transfer of proceedings from a county court to the High Court and the transfer of proceedings in the High Court to a county court shall apply respectively to the removal or transfer of proceedings by the Crown in a county court and to the transfer of proceedings by the Crown in the High Court.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall apply to proceedings affecting Her Majesty in Her private capacity.

47 Minors.

A minor may prosecute any action in a county court for any sum of money not exceeding the county court limit which may be due to him for wages or piece work, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age.

48 Persons jointly liable.

- (1) Where a plaintiff has a demand recoverable under this Act against two or more persons jointly liable, it shall be sufficient to serve any of those persons with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against any person so served, notwithstanding that others jointly liable may not have been served or sued or may not be within the jurisdiction of the court.
- (2) Where judgment is so obtained against any person by virtue of subsection (1) and is satisfied by that person, he shall be entitled to recover in the court contribution from any other person jointly liable with him.

49 Bankruptcy of plaintiff.

- (1) The bankruptcy of the plaintiff in any action in a county court which the trustee might maintain for the benefit of the creditors shall not cause the action to abate if, within such reasonable time as the court orders, the trustee elects to continue the action and to give security for the costs of the action.
- (2) The hearing of the action may be adjourned until such an election is made.
- (3) Where the trustee does not elect to continue the action and to give such security as is mentioned in subsection (1) within the time limited by the order, the defendant may avail himself of the bankruptcy as a defence to the action.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Interim payments in pending proceedings

50 Orders for interim payment.

- (1) Provision may be made by county court rules for enabling the court, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to make an order requiring a party to the proceedings to make an interim payment of such amount as may be specified in the order, with provision for the payment to be made to such other party to the proceedings as may be so specified or, if the order so provides, by paying it into court.
- (2) Any county court rules which make provision in accordance with subsection (1) may include provision for enabling a party to any proceedings who, in pursuance of such an order, has made an interim payment to recover the whole or part of the amount of the payment in such circumstances, and from such other party to the proceedings, as may be determined in accordance with the rules.
- (3) Any rules made by virtue of this section may include such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the rule committee may consider necessary or expedient.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the exercise of any power relating to costs, including any power to make county court rules relating to costs.
- (5) In this section “interim payment”, in relation to a party to any proceedings, means a payment on account of any damages, debt or other sum (excluding any costs) which that party may be held liable to pay to or for the benefit of another party to the proceedings if a final judgment or order of the court in the proceedings is given or made in favour of that other party; and any reference to a party to any proceedings includes a reference to any person who for the purposes of the proceedings acts as next friend or guardian of a party to the proceedings.

Provisional damages for personal injuries

51 Orders for provisional damages for personal injuries.

- (1) This section applies to an action for damages for personal injuries in which there is proved or admitted to be a chance that at some definite or indefinite time in the future the injured person will, as a result of the act or omission which gave rise to the cause of action, develop some serious disease or suffer some serious deterioration in his physical or mental condition.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4), as regards any action for damages to which this section applies in which a judgment is given in the county court, provision may be made by county court rules for enabling the court, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, to award the injured person—
 - (a) damages assessed on the assumption that the injured person will not develop the disease or suffer the deterioration in his condition; and
 - (b) further damages at a future date if he develops the disease or suffers the deterioration.
- (3) Any rules made by virtue of this section may include such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the rule committee may consider necessary or expedient.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed—
- (a) as affecting the exercise of any power relating to costs, including any power to make county court rules relating to costs; or
 - (b) as prejudicing any duty of the court under any enactment or rule of law to reduce or limit the total damages which would have been recoverable apart from any such duty.
- (5) In this section “personal injuries” includes any disease and any impairment of a person’s physical or mental condition.

Discovery and related procedures

52 Powers of court exercisable before commencement of action.

- (1) On the application of any person in accordance with county court rules, a county court shall, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, have power to make an order providing for any one or more of the following matters, that is to say—
- (a) the inspection, photographing, preservation, custody and detention of property which appears to the court to be property which may become the subject-matter of subsequent proceedings in the court, or as to which any question may arise in any such proceedings; and
 - (b) the taking of samples of any such property as is mentioned in paragraph (a), and the carrying out of any experiment on or with any such property.
- (2) On the application, in accordance with county court rules, of a person who appears to a county court to be likely to be a party to subsequent proceedings in that court in which a claim in respect of personal injuries to a person, or in respect of a person’s death, is likely to be made, the county court shall, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, have power to order a person who appears to the court to be likely to be a party to the proceedings and to be likely to have or to have had in his possession, custody or power any documents which are relevant to an issue arising or likely to arise out of that claim—
- (a) to disclose whether those documents are in his possession, custody or power; and
 - (b) to produce such of those documents as are in his possession, custody or power to the applicant or, on such conditions as may be specified in the order,—
 - (i) to the applicant’s legal advisers; or
 - (ii) to the applicant’s legal advisers and any medical or other professional adviser of the applicant; or
 - (iii) if the applicant has no legal adviser, to any medical or other professional adviser of the applicant.

53 Power of court to order disclosure of documents, inspection of property etc. in proceedings for personal injuries or death.

- (1) This section applies to any proceedings in a county court in which a claim is made in respect of personal injuries to a person, or in respect of a person's death.
- (2) On the application, in accordance with county court rules, of a party to any proceedings to which this section applies, a county court shall, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, have power to order a person who is not a party to the proceedings and who appears to the court to be likely to have in his possession, custody or power any documents which are relevant to an issue arising out of the said claim—
 - (a) to disclose whether those documents are in his possession, custody or power; and
 - (b) to produce such of those documents as are in his possession, custody or power to the applicant or, on such conditions as may be specified in the order,—
 - (i) to the applicant's legal advisers; or
 - (ii) to the applicant's legal advisers and any medical or other professional adviser of the applicant; or
 - (iii) if the applicant has no legal adviser, to any medical or other professional adviser of the applicant.
- (3) On the application, in accordance with county court rules, of a party to any proceedings to which this section applies, a county court shall, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, have power to make an order providing for any one or more of the following matters, that is to say—
 - (a) the inspection, photographing, preservation, custody and detention of property which is not the property of, or in the possession of, any party to the proceedings but which is the subject-matter of the proceedings or as to which any question arises in the proceedings;
 - (b) the taking of samples of any such property as is mentioned in paragraph (a) and the carrying out of any experiment on or with any such property.
- (4) The preceding provisions of this section are without prejudice to the exercise by a county court of any power to make orders which is exercisable apart from those provisions.

- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), county court rules shall be made for the purpose of ensuring that the costs of and incidental to proceedings for an order under section 52(2) or 53 incurred by the person against whom the order is sought shall be awarded to that person unless the court otherwise directs.
- (4) Sections 52(2) and 53 and this section bind the Crown; and section 52(1) binds the Crown so far as it relates to property as to which it appears to the court that it may become the subject-matter of subsequent proceedings involving a claim in respect of personal injuries to a person or in respect of a person's death.

In this subsection references to the Crown do not include references to Her Majesty in Her private capacity or to Her Majesty in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster or to the Duke of Cornwall.

- (5) In sections 52 and 53 and this section—
“property” includes any land, chattel or other corporeal property of any description;
“personal injuries” includes any disease and any impairment of a person's physical or mental condition.

56 Examination of witnesses abroad.

The High Court shall have the same power to issue a commission, request or order to examine witnesses abroad for the purpose of proceedings in a county court as it has for the purpose of an action or matter in the High Court.

57 Evidence of prisoners.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in any proceedings pending before a county court, the judge may, if he thinks fit, upon application on affidavit by any party, issue an order under his hand for bringing up before the court any person (in this section referred to as a “prisoner”) confined in any place under any sentence or under committal for trial or otherwise, to be examined as a witness in the proceedings.
- (2) No such order shall be made with respect to a person confined under process in any civil action or matter.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the prisoner mentioned in any such order shall be brought before the court under the same custody, and shall be dealt with in the same manner in all respects, as a prisoner required by a writ of habeas corpus to be brought before the High Court and examined there as a witness.
- (4) The person having the custody of the prisoner shall not be bound to obey the order unless there is tendered to him a reasonable sum for the conveyance and maintenance of a proper officer or officers and of the prisoner in going to, remaining at, and returning from, the court.

58 Persons who may take affidavits for use in county courts.

- (1) An affidavit to be used in a county court may be sworn before—
 - (a) the judge or registrar of any court; or
 - (b) any justice of the peace; or
 - (c) an officer of any court appointed by the judge of that court for the purpose, as well as before [^{F28}a commissioner for oaths or any other person] authorised to take affidavits under the Commissioners for Oaths Acts 1889 and 1891 . . . ^{F29}.
- (2) An affidavit sworn before a judge or registrar or before any such officer may be sworn without the payment of any fee.

67 Impanelling and swearing of jury.

At any county court where proceedings are to be tried with a jury, eight jurymen shall be impanelled and sworn as occasion requires to give their verdicts in the proceedings brought before them, and being once sworn need not be re-sworn in each trial.

68 Duty of judge to determine foreign law in jury trials.

Where, for the purpose of disposing of any proceedings which are being tried in a county court by the judge with a jury, it is necessary to ascertain the law of any other country which is applicable to the facts of the case, any question as to the effect of the evidence given with respect to that law shall, instead of being submitted to the jury, be decided by the judge alone.

Interest on debts and damages

69 Power to award interest on debts and damages.

- (1) Subject to county court rules, in proceedings (whenever instituted) before a county court for the recovery of a debt or damages there may be included in any sum for which judgment is given simple interest, at such rate as the court thinks fit or as may be prescribed, on all or any part of the debt or damages in respect of which judgment is given, or payment is made before judgment, for all or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and—
 - (a) in the case of any sum paid before judgment, the date of the payment; and
 - (b) in the case of the sum for which judgment is given, the date of the judgment.
- (2) In relation to a judgment given for damages for personal injuries or death which exceed £200 subsection (1) shall have effect—
 - (a) with the substitution of “shall be included” for “may be included”; and
 - (b) with the addition of “unless the court is satisfied that there are special reasons to the contrary” after “given”, where first occurring.
- (3) Subject to county court rules, where—
 - (a) there are proceedings (whenever instituted) before a county court for the recovery of a debt; and
 - (b) the defendant pays the whole debt to the plaintiff (otherwise than in pursuance of a judgment in the proceedings),the defendant shall be liable to pay the plaintiff simple interest, at such rate as the court thinks fit or as may be prescribed, on all or any part of the debt for all or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the payment.
- (4) Interest in respect of a debt shall not be awarded under this section for a period during which, for whatever reason, interest on the debt already runs.
- (5) Interest under this section may be calculated at different rates in respect of different periods.
- (6) In this section “plaintiff” means the person seeking the debt or damages and “defendant” means the person from whom the plaintiff seeks the debt or damages and “personal injuries” includes any disease and any impairment of a person’s physical or mental condition.

Judgments and orders.

70 Finality of judgments and orders.

Every judgment and order of a county court shall, except as provided by this or any other Act or as may be prescribed, be final and conclusive between the parties.

71 Satisfaction of judgments and orders for payment of money.

(1) Where a judgment is given or an order is made by a county court under which a sum of money of any amount is payable, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, the court may, as it thinks fit, order the money to be paid either—

- (a) in one sum, whether forthwith or within such period as the court may fix; or
- (b) by such instalments payable at such times as the court may fix.

(2) If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the court that any party to any proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recovered against him (whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise) or any instalment of such a sum, the court may, in its discretion, suspend or stay any judgment or order given or made in the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the court thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

72 Set-off in cases of cross judgments in county courts and High Court.

(1) Where one person has obtained a judgment or order in a county court against another person, and that other person has obtained a judgment or order against the first-mentioned person in the same or in another county court or in the High Court, either such person may, in accordance with rules of court, give notice in writing to the court or the several courts as the case may be, and may apply to the court or any of the said

- (a) prescribe circumstances in which judgments [^{F47}or orders] are to be exempt from registration or in which the registration of any judgment [^{F48}or order] is to be cancelled;
- (b) provide for any specified class of judgments [^{F49}or orders] to be exempt from registration.]

(4) Regulations under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

[^{F50}(5) The Lord Chancellor may, with the concurrence of the Treasury, fix the fees to be paid in respect of—

- (a) the making of any information contained in an entry in the register available for inspection in visible and legible form;
- (b) the carrying out of any official search of the register;
- (c) the supply of a certified copy of any information contained in an entry in the register.]

(6) The proceeds of the fees shall be applied in such manner as the Treasury may direct in paying the expenses incurred in maintaining the register, and any surplus, after providing for the payment of those expenses, shall be paid to the credit of the Consolidated Fund.

F53 S. 74A and crossheading inserted (27.4.1997) by 1997 c. 12, s. 5(2); S.I. 1997/841, art. 3(a)

General rules of procedure

75 County court rules.

- (1) The rule committee may make county court rules regulating the practice of the courts and forms of proceedings in them and prescribing scales of costs to be paid to counsel and solicitors.
- (2) The power to make county court rules shall extend to all matters of procedure or practice, or matters relating to or concerning the effect or operation in law of any procedure or practice, in any case within the cognisance of county courts as to which rules of the Supreme Court have been or might lawfully be made for cases within the cognisance of the High Court.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsections (1) and (2), the power to make county court rules shall extend to—
 - (a) prescribing the court in which proceedings are to be commenced and the procedure to be adopted where proceedings are commenced in one court which should under the rules have been commenced in another court;
 - (b) prescribing the circumstances in which proceedings may be transferred from one court to another and the procedure consequent on any such transfer;
 - (c) prescribing the circumstances in which a warrant for the arrest and detention of any vessel, aircraft or property to which an action in rem relates may be transferred from one court to another and the procedure consequent on any such transfer;
 - ^{F54}(d) prescribing cases in which—
 - (i) any jurisdiction of a county court is to be exercised by a district judge of a county court or by some other officer of the court;
 - (ii) any functions of a judge of a county court are to be discharged by a district judge of a county court or some other officer of the court;

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) any functions of a district judge of a county court are to be discharged by some other officer of the court;
 - (iv) any such jurisdiction may be so exercised or any such functions may be so discharged; or]
 - (e) authorising directions to be given as follows, where the same judge is the judge for two or more districts, that is to say—
 - (i) authorising the judge to direct that the hearing in proceedings pending in the court for one of those districts, being proceedings which are to be heard and determined by the judge, shall take place in the court for another of those districts, or
 - (ii) authorising the registrar for one of those districts to direct that the hearing in proceedings pending in the court for the district for which he is the registrar, being proceedings which are to be heard and determined by the judge, shall take place in the court for another of those districts; and
 - (f) making, with respect to proceedings in county courts, any provision regarding solicitors which could be made by rules of court with respect to proceedings in the High Court.
- (4) County court rules may regulate or provide for any matters which were regulated or provided for by county court rules which were made at any time before 1st January 1982.
- (5) Rules made under subsection (3)(a) and (b) may make different provision as respects different kinds of proceedings and may make special provision as respects—
 - (a) proceedings in courts for districts in or adjacent to the area comprising the Inner London boroughs and the City of London; and
 - (b) proceedings by or against judges or officers of the courts.
- (6) The foregoing provisions of this section authorise the making of rules providing for orders being made at any stage of any proceedings directing that specified facts may be proved at the trial by affidavit with or without the attendance of the deponent for cross-examination, notwithstanding that a party desires his attendance for cross-examination and that he can be produced for that purpose.

[^{F55}(6A) County court rules may—

- (a) to any extent (and with or without modification) apply any rules of court, or other provision—
 - (i) made by or under any enactment; and
 - (ii) relating to the practice or procedure of any other court, to the practice or procedure of county courts; and
- (b) amend or repeal any statutory provision relating to the practice or procedure of county courts so far as may be necessary in consequence of any provision made by the rules.

Rules made by virtue of this subsection applying any provisions may apply them as amended from time to time.]

[^{F56}(7) The rule committee shall consist of the following persons appointed by the Lord Chancellor—

- (a) five judges of county courts;
- (b) two district judges;

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (c) two persons who have a Supreme Court qualification (within the meaning of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990); and
 - (d) two persons who have been granted by an authorised body, under Part II of that Act, the right to conduct litigation in relation to all proceedings in the Supreme Court.]
- (8) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time fill up any vacancies among the members of the rule committee.
- (9) Any rules made by the rule committee shall be certified under the hands of the members of the committee, or any three or more of them, and submitted to the Lord Chancellor, who may allow or disallow or alter them.
- (10) Any rules so made, as allowed or altered by the Lord Chancellor, shall—
- (a) come into operation on such day as the Lord Chancellor may direct;
 - (b) be embodied in a statutory instrument to which the ^{M26}Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply as if it embodied rules made by a Minister of the Crown.

- (c) of his decision on any such question and of his determination of the proceedings.
- (2) Where such a note has been taken, the judge shall (whether notice of appeal has been served or not), on the application of any party to the proceedings, and on payment by that party of such fee as may be prescribed by the fees orders, furnish him with a copy of the note, and shall sign the copy, and the copy so signed shall be used at the hearing of the appeal.

81 Powers of Court of Appeal on appeal from county court.

- (1) On the hearing of an appeal, the Court of Appeal may draw any inference of fact and either—
 - (a) order a new trial on such terms as the court thinks just; or
 - (b) order judgment to be entered for any party; or
 - (c) make a final or other order on such terms as the court thinks proper to ensure the determination on the merits of the real question in controversy between the parties.
- (2) Subject to any rules of the Supreme Court, on any appeal from a county court the Court of Appeal may reverse or vary, in favour of a party seeking to support the judgment or order of the county court in whole or in part, any determinations made in the county court on questions of fact, notwithstanding that the appeal is an appeal on a point of law only, or any such determinations on points of law, notwithstanding that the appeal is an appeal on a question of fact only.
- (3) Subsection (2) shall not enable the Court of Appeal to reverse or vary any determination, unless the party dissatisfied with the determination would have been entitled to appeal in respect of it if aggrieved by the judgment or order.

82 Decision of Court of Appeal on probate appeals to be final.

No appeal shall lie from the decision of the Court of Appeal on any appeal from a county court in any probate proceedings.

Certiorari and prohibition

83 Stay of proceedings in case of certiorari or prohibition.

- (1) The grant by the High Court of leave to make an application for an order of certiorari or prohibition to a county court shall, if the High Court so directs, operate as a stay of the proceedings in question until the determination of the application, or until the High Court otherwise orders.
- (2) Where any proceedings are so stayed, the judge of the county court shall from time to time adjourn the hearing of the proceedings to such day as he thinks fit.

84 Prohibition.

- (1) Where an application is made to the High Court for an order of prohibition addressed to any county court, the matter shall be finally disposed of by order.

Execution against goods

85 Execution of judgments or orders for payment of money.

- (1) Any sum of money payable under a judgment or order of a county court may be recovered, in case of default or failure of payment, forthwith or at the time or times and in the manner thereby directed, by execution against the goods of the party against whom the judgment or order was obtained.
- (2) The registrar, on the application of the party prosecuting any such judgment or order, shall issue a warrant of execution in the nature of a writ of fieri facias whereby the registrar shall be empowered to levy or cause to be levied by distress and sale of the goods, wherever they may be found within the district of the court, the money payable under the judgment or order and the costs of the execution.
- (3) The precise time of the making of the application to the registrar to issue such a warrant shall be entered by him in the record prescribed for the purpose under section 12 and on the warrant.
- (4) It shall be the duty of every constable within his jurisdiction to assist in the execution of every such warrant.

86 Execution of orders for payment by instalments.

- (1) Where the court has made an order for payment of any sum of money by instalments, execution on the order shall not be issued until after default in payment of some instalment according to the order.
- (2) County court rules may prescribe the cases in which execution is to issue if there is any such default and limit the amounts for which and the times at which execution may issue.

- (3) Except so far as may be otherwise provided by county court rules made for those purposes, execution or successive executions may issue if there is any such default for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid or for such part as the court may order either at the time of the original order or at any subsequent time; but except so far as may be otherwise provided by such rules, no execution shall issue unless at the time when it issues the whole or some part of an instalment which has already become due remains unpaid.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C17 S. 86 restricted (1.9.1993) by S.I. 1993/2073, art.6.

87 Execution to be superseded on payment.

- (1) In or upon every warrant of execution issued from a county court against the goods of any person, the registrar shall cause to be inserted or indorsed the total amount to be levied, inclusive of the fee for issuing the warrant but exclusive of the fees for its execution.
- (2) If the person against whom the execution is issued, before the actual sale of the goods, pays or causes to be paid or tendered to the registrar of the court from which the warrant is issued, or to the bailiff holding the warrant, the amount inserted in, or indorsed upon, the warrant under subsection (1), or such part as the person entitled agrees to accept in full satisfaction, together with the amount stated by the officer of the court to whom the payment or tender is made to be the amount of the fees for the execution of the warrant, the execution shall be superseded, and the goods shall be discharged and set at liberty.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C18 S. 87 applied (1.9.1993) by S.I. 1993/2073, art.4(1).

88 Power to stay execution.

If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the court that any party to any proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recovered against him (whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise), or any instalment of such a sum, the court may, in its discretion, stay any execution issued in the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the court thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause of inability has ceased.

97 Sales under executions to be public unless otherwise ordered.

- (1) Where any goods are to be sold under execution for a sum exceeding £20 (including legal incidental expenses), the sale shall, unless the court form which the warrant of execution issued otherwise orders, be made by public auction and not by bill of sale or private contract, and shall be publicly advertised by the registrar on, and during 3 days next preceding, the day of sale.
- (2) Where any goods are seized in execution and the registrar has notice of another execution or other executions, the court shall not consider an application for leave to sell privately until the prescribed notice has been given to the other execution creditor or creditors, who may appear before the court and be heard upon the application.

C27 Ss. 96-99 applied (1.9.1993) by S.I. 1993/2073, art.4(1).

^{F66}98 Protection of registrar selling goods under execution without notice of claim by third party.

- (1) Where any goods in the possession of an execution debtor at the time of seizure by a registrar or other officer charged with the enforcement of a warrant or other process of execution issued from a county court are sold by that registrar or other officer without any claims having been made to them—
 - (a) the purchaser of the goods so sold shall acquire a good title to those goods; and
 - (b) no person shall be entitled to recover against the registrar or other officer, or anyone lawfully acting under his authority,—
 - (i) for any sale of the goods, or
 - (ii) for paying over the proceeds prior to the receipt of a claim to the goods,unless it is proved that the person from whom recovery is sought had notice, or might by making reasonable inquiry have ascertained, that the goods were not the property of the execution debtor.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any claimant, who may prove that at the time of sale he had a title to any goods so seized and sold, to any remedy to which he may be entitled against any person other than the registrar or other officer.

[^{F67}(3) The provisions of this section have effect subject to those of sections 183, 184 and 346 of the Insolvency Act 1986]

- (a) to subsection (2); and
 - (b) to section 103(2),
- a warrant of execution against goods issued from a county court shall bind the property in the goods of the execution debtor as from the time at which application for the warrant was made to the registrar of the county court.
- (2) Such a warrant shall not prejudice the title to any goods of the execution debtor acquired by a person in good faith and for valuable consideration unless he had at the time when he acquired his title—
- (a) notice that an application for the issue of a warrant of execution against the goods of the execution debtor had been made to the registrar of a county court and that the warrant issued on the application either—
 - (i) remained unexecuted in the hands of the registrar of the court from which it was issued; or
 - (ii) had been sent for execution to, and received by, the registrar of another county court, and remained unexecuted in the hands of the registrar of that court; or
 - (b) notice that a writ of fieri facias or other writ of execution by virtue of which the goods of the execution debtor might be seized or attached had been delivered to and remained unexecuted in the hands of the sheriff.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the registrar (without fee) on application for a warrant of execution being made to him to endorse on its back the hour, day, month and year when he received the application.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “property” means the general property in goods, and not merely a special property;
 - (b) “sheriff” includes any officer charged with the enforcement of a writ of execution; and
 - (c) a thing shall be treated as done in good faith if it is in fact done honestly whether it is done negligently or not.

100 Sale of goods to which claim is made.

- (1) Where a claim is made to or in respect of any goods seized in execution under process of a county court, the claimant may—
- (a) deposit with the bailiff either—
 - (i) the amount of the value of the goods claimed; or
 - (ii) the sum which the bailiff is allowed to charge as costs for keeping possession of the goods until the decision of the judge can be obtained on the claim; or
 - (b) give the bailiff in the prescribed manner security for the value of the goods claimed.

C29 S. 100 restricted (1.9.1993) by S.I. 1993/2073, art.16.

101 Interpleader by registrar.

- (1) If a claim is made to or in respect of any goods seized in execution under process of a county court, or in respect of the proceeds or value of any such goods, the registrar may, as well before as after any action brought against him, issue a summons calling before the court the party at whose instance the process issued and the party making the claim.
- (2) Upon the issue of the summons, any action brought in any county court or other court in respect of the claim or of any damage arising out of the execution of the warrant shall be stayed.
- (3) On the hearing of the summons, the judge shall adjudicate upon the claim, and shall also adjudicate between the parties or either of them and the registrar upon any claim to damages arising or capable of arising out of the execution of the warrant by the registrar, and shall make such order in respect of any such claim and the costs of the proceedings as he thinks fit.

- (3) Where such a claim is made, the bailiff or officer making the levy shall in addition distrain for the rent so claimed and the cost of the distress, and shall not, within 5 days next after the distress, sell any part of the goods seized, unless—
 - (a) the goods are of a perishable nature; or
 - (b) the person whose goods have been seized so requests in writing.
- (4) The bailiff shall afterwards sell under the execution and distress such of the goods as will satisfy—
 - (a) first, the costs of and incidental to the sale;
 - (b) next, the claim of the landlord not exceeding—
 - (i) in a case where the tenement is let by the week, 4 weeks' rent;
 - (ii) in a case where the tenement is let for any other term less than a year, the rent of two terms of payment;
 - (iii) in any other case, one year's rent; and
 - (c) lastly, the amount for which the warrant of execution issued.
- (5) If any replevin is made of the goods seized, the bailiff shall nevertheless sell such portion of them as will satisfy the costs of and incidental to the sale under the execution and the amount for which the warrant of execution issued.
- (6) In any event the surplus of the sale, if any, and the residue of the goods shall be returned to the execution debtor.
- (7) The fees of the registrar and broker for keeping possession, appraisalment and sale under any such distress shall be the same as would have been payable if the distress had been an execution of the court, and no other fees shall be demanded or taken in respect thereof.

*Execution in county court of judgments and orders of,
 or enforceable as judgments and orders of, High Court*

105 Execution in county court of judgments and orders of High Court.

- (1) A judgment or order of the High Court for the payment of money to a person, and any judgment, order, decree or award (however called) of any court or arbitrator (including any foreign court or foreign arbitrator) being a judgment, order, decree or award for the payment of money to a person which is or has become enforceable (whether wholly or to a limited extent) as if it were a judgment or order of the High Court shall be enforceable in the county court as if it were a judgment of that court.
- (2) Where an application is made to the High Court—
 - (a) for the attachment of a debt not exceeding the county court limit to answer a judgment or order; or
 - (b) for leave to issue execution for a debt not exceeding the county court limit against a person as being a member of a firm against which a judgment or order has been obtained, the High Court may make an order either—
 - (i) transferring the matter to; or
 - (ii) directing that any issue necessary for determining the matter shall be tried in, such county court to be named in the order as the court may deem the most convenient to the parties.
- (3) Where an order is made under subsection (2) directing an issue to be tried in a county court, the order shall define the issue to be tried, and any party may lodge or cause to be lodged the order, together with the affidavits (if any) filed in the matter, and such other documents (if any) as the High Court may direct, with the registrar of the county court named in the order.
- (4) On the documents being lodged the issue shall, subject to county court rules, be tried in the county court so named, and after the issue has been tried the judge shall certify the result of the trial and send the certificate to the High Court together with the documents and any report which he may think fit to make as to costs or otherwise.

Enforcement in High Court of judgments and orders of county courts

106 Transfer of judgments and orders to High Court.

- (1) If—
 - (a) a judgment or order for the payment of a sum of money has been given or made by a county court; and
 - (b) an amount in respect of that sum exceeding the amount for the time being specified for the purposes of this section by an order under subsection (3) has become recoverable by execution, the judgment or order may, subject to rules of court, be transferred to the High Court.
- (2) A judgment or order transferred to the High Court under subsection (1) may be enforced in the High Court as if it were a judgment or order of that court and shall be treated as a judgment or order of the High Court for all purposes except—

Miscellaneous provisions as to enforcement of judgments and orders

110 Penalty for non-attendance on judgment summons.

- (1) If a debtor summoned to attend a county court by a judgment summons fails to attend on the day and at the time fixed for any hearing of the summons, the judge may adjourn or further adjourn the summons to a specified time on a specified day and order the debtor to attend at that time on that day.
- (2) If—
- (a) a debtor, having been ordered under subsection (1) to attend at a specified time on a specified day, fails to do so; or
 - (b) a debtor who attends for the hearing of a judgment summons refuses to be sworn or to give evidence;
- the judge may make an order committing him to prison for a period not exceeding 14 days in respect of the failure or refusal.
- (3) In any case where the judge has power to make an order of committal under subsection (2) for failure to attend, he may in lieu of or in addition to making that order, order the debtor to be arrested and brought before the court either forthwith or at such time as the judge may direct.

- (4) A debtor shall not be committed to prison under subsection (2) for having failed to attend as required by an order under subsection (1) unless there was paid to him at the time of the service of the judgment summons, or paid or tendered to him at the time of the service of the order, such sum in respect of his expenses as may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.
- (5) The judge may at any time revoke an order committing a person to prison under this section and, if he is already in custody, order his discharge.

111 Provisions as to warrants of possession.

- (1) For the purpose of executing a warrant to give possession of any premises, it shall not be necessary to remove any goods from those premises.
- (2) The duration of any warrant of possession issued by a county court to enforce a judgment or order for the recovery of land or for the delivery of possession of land shall be such as may be fixed by or in accordance with county court rules.

PART VI

ADMINISTRATION ORDERS

112 Power to make administration order.

- (1) Where a debtor—
 - (a) is unable to pay forthwith the amount of a judgment obtained against him; and
 - (b) alleges that his whole indebtedness amounts to a sum not exceeding the county court limit, inclusive of the debt for which the judgment was obtained; a county court may make an order providing for the administration of his estate.
- (2) In this Part of this Act—

“administration order” means an order under this section; and

“the appropriate court”, in relation to an administration order, means the court which has the power to make the order.
- (3) Before an administration order is made, the appropriate court shall, in accordance with county court rules, send to every person whose name the debtor has notified to the appropriate court as being a creditor of his, a notice that that person’s name has been so notified.
- (4) So long as an administration order is in force, a creditor whose name is included in the schedule to the order shall not, without the leave of the appropriate court, be entitled to present, or join in, a bankruptcy petition against the debtor unless—
 - (a) his name was so notified; and
 - (b) the debt by virtue of which he presents, or joins in, the petition, exceeds [^{F76}£1500]; and
 - (c) the notice given under subsection (3) was received by the creditor within 28 days immediately preceding the day on which the petition is presented.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) An administration order shall not be invalid by reason only that the total amount of the debts is found at any time to exceed the county court limit, but in that case the court may, if it thinks fit, set aside the order.
- (6) An administration order may provide for the payment of the debts of the debtor by instalments or otherwise, and either in full or to such extent as appears practicable to the court under the circumstances of the case, and subject to any conditions as to his future earnings or income which the court may think just.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations increase or reduce the sum for the time being specified in subsection (4)(b); but no such increase in the sum so specified shall affect any case in which the bankruptcy petition was presented before the coming into force of the increase.
- (8) The power to make regulations under subsection (7) shall be exercisable by statutory instrument; and no such regulations shall be made unless a draft of them has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

113 Notice of order and proof of debts.

Where an administration order has been made—

- (a) notice of the order—
 - (i) ^{F77}
 - (ii) shall be posted in the office of the county court for the district in which the debtor resides, and
 - (iii) shall be sent to every person whose name the debtor has notified to the appropriate court as being a creditor of his or who has proved;
- (b) any creditor of the debtor, on proof of his debt before the registrar, shall be entitled to be scheduled as a creditor of the debtor for the amount of his proof;
- (c) any creditor may object in the prescribed manner to any debt scheduled, or to the manner in which payment is directed to be made by instalments;
- (d) any person who, after the date of the order, becomes a creditor of the debtor shall, on proof of his debt before the registrar, be scheduled as a creditor of the debtor for the amount of his proof, but shall not be entitled to any dividend under the order until the creditors who are scheduled as having been creditors before the date of the order have been paid to the extent provided by the order.

114 Effect of administration order.

- (1) Subject to sections 115 and 116, when an administration order is made, no creditor shall have any remedy against the person or property of the debtor in respect of any debt—

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: County Courts Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) of which the debtor notified the appropriate court before the administration order was made; or
 - (b) which has been scheduled to the order,
- except with the leave of the appropriate court, and on such terms as that court may impose.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), any county court in which proceedings are pending against the debtor in respect of any debt so notified or scheduled, shall, on receiving notice of the administration order, stay the proceedings, but may allow costs already incurred by the creditor, and such costs may, on application, be added to the debt.
- (3) The requirement to stay proceedings shall not operate as a requirement that a county court in which proceedings in bankruptcy against the debtor are pending shall stay those proceedings.

115 Execution by registrar.

- (1) Where it appears to the registrar of the appropriate court at any time while an administration order is in force that property of the debtor exceeds in value [^{F78}the minimum amount], he shall, at the request of any creditor, and without fee, issue execution against the debtor's goods.
- [^{F79}(1A) In subsection (1) above “the minimum amount” means £50 or such other amount as the Lord Chancellor may by order specify instead of that amount or the amount for the time being specified in such an order; and an order under this subsection shall be made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]
- (2) Section 89 applies on an execution under this section as it applies on an execution under Part V.

- (a) first in satisfaction of the costs of administration (which shall not exceed 10 pence in the pound on the total amount of the debts); and
 - (b) then in liquidation of debts in accordance with the order.
- (2) Where the amount received is sufficient to pay—
- (a) each creditor scheduled to the order to the extent provided by the order;
 - (b) the costs of the plaintiff in the action in respect of which the order was made; and
 - (c) the cost of the administration,
- the order shall be superseded, and the debtor shall be discharged from his debts to the scheduled creditors.

PART VII

COMMITTALS

118 Power to commit for contempt.

- (1) If any person—
- (a) wilfully insults the judge of a county court, or any juror or witness, or any officer of the court during his sitting or attendance in court, or in going to or returning from the court; or
 - (b) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of a county court or otherwise misbehaves in court;
- any officer of the court, with or without the assistance of any other person, may, by order of the judge, take the offender into custody and detain him until the rising of the court, and the judge may, if he thinks fit,—
- (i) make an order committing the offender for a specified period not exceeding one month to . . . ^{F80}prison . . . ^{F80}; or
 - (ii) impose upon the offender, for every offence, a fine of an amount not exceeding £1,000, or may both make such an order and impose such a fine.
- (2) The judge may at any time revoke an order committing a person to prison under this section and, if he is already in custody, order his discharge.
- [^{F81}(3) A district judge, assistant district judge, or deputy district judge shall have the same powers under this section in relation to proceedings before him as a judge.]

- (2) It shall be the duty of every constable within his jurisdiction to assist in the execution of every such order or warrant.
- (3) The governor of the prison mentioned in any such order or warrant shall be bound to receive and keep the person mentioned in it until he is lawfully discharged.

120 Prisons to which committals may be made.

Any person committed to prison by the judge of any county court, in pursuance of this or any other Act or of county court rules, shall be committed to such prison as may from time to time be directed in the case of that court by order of the Secretary of State.

121 Power of judge to order discharge.

- (1) If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of a judge of a county court that any debtor arrested or confined in prison by order of the court is unable from any cause to pay any sum recovered against him (whether by way of satisfaction of a claim or counterclaim or by way of costs or otherwise), or any instalment thereof, and ought to be discharged, the judge may order his discharge upon such terms (including liability to re-arrest if the terms are not complied with) as the judge thinks fit.

122 Execution of committal orders out of jurisdiction of court.

- (1) Where any order or warrant for the committal of any person to prison has been made or issued (whether in pursuance of this or any other Act or of county court rules) by a county court (hereafter in this section referred to as a “home court”) and that person is out of the jurisdiction of that court, the registrar may send the order or warrant to the registrar of any other county court within the jurisdiction of which that person is or is believed to be, with a warrant endorsed on it or annexed to it requiring execution of the original order or warrant.
- (2) On receipt of the warrant, the registrar of the other county court shall act in all respects as if the original order or warrant had been issued by the court of which he is registrar and shall within the prescribed time—
 - (a) report to the registrar of the home court what he has done in the execution of the order or warrant; and
 - (b) pay over all moneys received in pursuance of the order or warrant.
- (3) Where a person is apprehended under the order or warrant, he shall be forthwith conveyed, in custody of the officer apprehending him, to the prison of the court within the jurisdiction of which he was apprehended and kept there, unless sooner discharged by law, until the expiration of the period mentioned in the order or warrant.
- (4) It shall be the duty of every constable within his jurisdiction to assist in the execution of every such order or warrant.
- (5) Where an order of committal—
 - (a) under the ^{M37}Debtors Act 1869; or
 - (b) under section 110,

is sent by the registrar of a home court to the registrar of another court for execution under this section, the judge of that other court shall have the same powers to order the debtor’s discharge as the judge of the home court would have under section 110 or 121.

126 Actions against bailiffs acting under warrants.

- (1) No action shall be commenced against any bailiff for anything done in obedience to a warrant issued by the registrar, unless—
 - (a) a demand for inspection of the warrant and for a copy of it is made or left at the office of the bailiff by the party intending to bring the action, or his [^{F82}solicitor][^{F82}legal representative] or agent; and
 - (b) the bailiff refuses or neglects to comply with the demand within six days after it is made.
- (2) The demand must be in writing and signed by the person making it.
- (3) If an action is commenced against a bailiff in a case where such a demand has been made and not complied with, judgment shall be given for the bailiff if the warrant is produced or proved at the trial, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction or other irregularity in the warrant; but the registrar who issued the warrant may be joined as a defendant in the action, and if the registrar is so joined and judgment is given against him, the cost to be recovered by the plaintiff against the registrar shall include such costs as the plaintiff is liable to pay to the bailiff.
- (4) In this section (except in paragraph (a) of subsection (1)) “bailiff” includes any person acting by the order and in aid of a bailiff.

PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Financial Provisions

128 Fees.

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time, with the concurrence of the Treasury, make by statutory instrument orders as to the fees to be paid on any proceedings which are for the time being authorised to be taken in a county court.
- (2) Every such order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.
- (3) A copy of the fees orders for the time being in force shall be posted in some conspicuous place in every court-house and registrar's office.
- (4) In default of the payment of any fees as provided by the fees orders for the time being in force, payment of such fees shall be enforced, by order of the court, in like manner as payment of any debt adjudged by the court to be paid.

129 Enforcement of fines.

Payment of any fine imposed by any court under this Act may be enforced upon the order of the judge in like manner—

- (a) as payment of a debt adjudged by the court to be paid may be enforced under this Act; or
- (b) as payment of a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction of a magistrates' court may be enforced under the ^{M38}Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (disregarding section 81(1) of that Act).

131 Appointment of auditors and other officers.

The Lord Chancellor may, subject to the consent of the Treasury as to numbers and salaries, appoint as officers in his department such auditors and other officers as he may consider necessary for the purpose of controlling the accounts of county courts.

132 Payment of salaries and expenses.

There shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament—

- (a) all salaries, remuneration and other sums payable under Part I of this Act or under section 131.
- (b) the expenses of supplying the courts and officers with law and office books and stationery and postage stamps;
- (c) expenses incurred in conveying to prison persons committed by the courts; and
- (d) all other expenses arising out of any jurisdiction for the time being conferred on the courts or any officer of the courts.

Summonses and other documents

133 Proof of service of summonses etc.

- (1) Where any summons or other process issued from a county court is served by an officer of a court, the service may be proved by a certificate in a prescribed form under the hand of that officer showing the fact and mode of the service.
- (2) Any officer of a court wilfully and corruptly giving a false certificate under subsection (1) in respect of the service of a summons or other process shall be guilty of an offence and, on conviction thereof, shall be removed from office and shall be liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding 2 years; or
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both such imprisonment and fine.

134 Summonses and other process to be under seal.

- (1) All summonses issuing out of a county court, and all such other documents so issuing as may be prescribed, shall be sealed or stamped with the seal of the court.
- (2) All such summonses and other documents purporting to be so sealed shall, in England and Wales, be received in evidence without further proof.

135 Penalty for falsely pretending to act under authority of court.

Any person who—

- (a) delivers or causes to be delivered to any other person any paper falsely purporting to be a copy of any summons or other process of a county court, knowing it to be false; or
- (b) acts or professes to act under any false colour or pretence of the process or authority of a county court; shall be guilty of an offence and shall for each offence be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years.

136 Penalty for falsely representing document to have been issued from county court.

- (1) It shall not be lawful to deliver or cause to be delivered to any person any document which was not issued under the authority of a county court but which, by reason of its form or contents or both, has the appearance of having been issued under such authority.
- (2) If any person contravenes this section, he shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine of an amount not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice section 135.

137 Lessee to give notice of summons for recovery of land.

- (1) Every lessee to whom there is delivered any summons issued from a county court for the recovery of land demised to or held by him, or to whose knowledge any such summons comes, shall forthwith give notice of the summons to his lessor or his bailiff or receiver.
- (2) If a lessee fails to give notice as required by subsection (1), he shall be liable to forfeit to the person of whom he holds the land an amount equal to the value of 3 years' improved or rack rent of the land to be recovered by action in any county court or other court having jurisdiction in respect of claims for such an amount.

Forfeiture for non-payment of rent

138 Provisions as to forfeiture for non-payment of rent.

- (1) This section has effect where a lessor is proceeding by action in a county court (being an action in which the county court has jurisdiction) to enforce against a lessee a right of re-entry or forfeiture in respect of any land for non-payment of rent.
- (2) If the lessee pays into court [^{F83}or to the lessor] not less than 5 clear days before the return day all the rent in arrear and the costs of the action, the action shall cease, and the lessee shall hold the land according to the lease without any new lease.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the action does not cease under subsection (2); and
 - (b) the court at the trial is satisfied that the lessor is entitled to enforce the right of re-entry or forfeiture, the court shall order possession of the land to be given to the lessor at the expiration of such period, not being less than 4 weeks from the date of the order, as the court thinks

- fit, unless within that period the lessee pays into court [^{F83}or to the lessor]all the rent in arrear and the costs of the action.
- (4) The court may extend the period specified under subsection (3) at any time before possession of the land is recovered in pursuance of the order under that subsection.
- (5) ^{F83}
- (6) Subsection (2) shall not apply where the lessor is proceeding in the same action to enforce a right of re-entry or forfeiture on any other ground as well as for non-payment of rent, or to enforce any other claim as well as the right of re-entry or forfeiture and the claim for arrears of rent.
- (7) If the lessee does not—
- (a) within the period specified in the order; or
 - (b) within that period as extended under subsection (4),
- pay into court [^{F83}or to the lessor]—
- (i) all the rent in arrear; and
 - (ii) the costs of the action,
- the order shall be [^{F84}enforceable]in the prescribed manner and so long as the order remains unreversed the lessee shall [^{F85}, subject to subsection (8) and (9A)],be barred from all relief.
- (8) The extension under subsection (4) of a period fixed by a court shall not be treated as relief from which the lessee is barred by subsection (7) if he fails to pay into court [^{F83}or to the lessor]all the rent in arrear and the costs of the action within that period.
- (9) Where the court extends a period under subsection (4) at a time when—
- (a) that period has expired; and
 - (b) a warrant has been issued for the possession of the land,
- the court shall suspend the warrant for the extended period; and, if, before the expiration of the extended period, the lessee pays into court [^{F83}or to the lessor]all the rent in arrear and all the costs of the action, the court shall cancel the warrant.
- [^{F86}(9A) Where the lessor recovers possession of the land at any time after the making of the order under subsection (3) (whether as a result of the enforcement of the order or otherwise) the lessee may, at any time within six months from the date on which the lessor recovers possession, apply to the court for relief; and on any such application the court may, if it thinks fit, grant to the lessee such relief, subject to such terms and conditions, as it thinks fit.
- (9B) Where the lessee is granted relief on an application under subsection (9A) he shall hold the land according to the lease without any new lease.
- (9C) An application under subsection (9A) may be made by a person with an interest under a lease of the land derived (whether immediately or otherwise) from the lessee's interest therein in like manner as if he were the lessee; and on any such application the court may make an order which (subject to such terms and conditions as the court thinks fit) vests the land in such a person, as lessee of the lessor, for the remainder of the term of the lease under which he has any such interest as aforesaid, or for any lesser term.
- In this subsection any reference to the land includes a reference to a part of the land.]
