SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Section 1(3)

CONSTITUTION AND PROCEEDINGS OF LONDON REGIONAL TRANSPORT

Preliminary

- 1 References below in this Schedule to the Corporation are references to London Regional Transport.

Constitution

- 2 (1) The Corporation shall consist of—
- (a) a chairman appointed by the Secretary of State; and
 - (b) not less than four nor more than eleven other members appointed by the Secretary of State after consultation with the chairman of the Corporation.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, after consultation with the chairman of the Corporation, appoint a member of the Corporation to be deputy chairman of the Corporation.

Status

- 3 The Corporation shall not be regarded as the servant or agent of the Crown, or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown, or (subject to any express provision of this Act) as exempt from any tax, duty, rate, levy or other charge whatsoever, whether general or local; and the Corporation's property shall not be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

Members

- 4 (1) The chairman and other members of the Corporation shall be appointed by the Secretary of State from among persons who appear to him to have had wide experience of, and shown capability in, transport, industrial, commercial or financial matters, administration, applied science, or the organisation of workers.
- (2) A member of the Corporation shall hold and vacate his office in accordance with the terms of his appointment and shall, on ceasing to be a member, be eligible for re-appointment.
- (3) A member may at any time by notice in writing to the Secretary of State resign his office.
- 5 (1) Before appointing a person to be a member of the Corporation the Secretary of State shall satisfy himself that that person will have no such financial or other interest as is likely to affect prejudicially the exercise and performance by him of his functions as a member of the Corporation, and the Secretary of State shall also satisfy himself from time to time with respect to every member of the Corporation that he has no such interest; and a person who is, or whom the Secretary of State proposes to appoint to

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

be, a member of the Corporation shall, whenever requested by the Secretary of State so to do, furnish to him such information as the Secretary of State considers necessary for the performance by the Secretary of State of his duties under this paragraph.

- (2) A member of the Corporation who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract made or proposed to be made by the Corporation, or in a contract made or proposed to be made by a subsidiary of the Corporation which is brought up for consideration by the Corporation, shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Corporation; and the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the Corporation, and the member shall not take any part in any deliberation or decision of the Corporation with respect to that contract.
 - (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) above, a general notice given at a meeting of the Corporation by a member of the Corporation to the effect that he is a member of a specified company or firm and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may, after the date of the notice, be made with the company or firm shall be regarded as a sufficient disclosure of his interest in relation to any contract so made or proposed to be so made.
 - (4) A member of the Corporation need not attend in person at a meeting of the Corporation in order to make a disclosure which he is required to make under this paragraph if he takes reasonable steps to secure that the disclosure is made by a notice which is brought up and read at the meeting.
- 6 (1) The Corporation—
- (a) shall pay to the members of the Corporation such salaries or fees, and such allowances, as the Secretary of State may determine; and
 - (b) as regards any member in whose case the Secretary of State may so determine, shall pay such pension, allowance or gratuity to or in respect of him or make such payments towards the provision of such a pension, allowance or gratuity as may be so determined;
- and, if a person ceases to be a member of the Corporation and it appears to the Secretary of State that there are special circumstances which make it right that that person should receive compensation, the Secretary of State may require the Corporation to pay to that person a sum of such amount as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) The Secretary of State may not make a determination or impose a requirement under this paragraph without the approval of the Treasury.
 - (3) So much of sub-paragraph (1) above as requires that the pensions (if any) which are to be paid in the case of members of London Regional Transport are to be determined by the Secretary of State shall not apply in relation to any pension payable apart from the provisions of that sub-paragraph.
- 7 (1) If the Secretary of State is satisfied that a member of the Corporation—
- (a) has been absent from meetings of the Corporation for a period longer than three consecutive months without the permission of the Corporation; or
 - (b) has become bankrupt or made an arrangement with his creditors; or
 - (c) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness; or
 - (d) is otherwise unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a member;
- he may remove that member from office.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The terms of appointment of a member of the Corporation may provide for his removal from office (without assigning cause) on notice from the Secretary of State of such length as may be specified in those terms, subject (if those terms so provide) to compensation from the Corporation; and in any such case the Secretary of State may remove that member from office in accordance with those terms.
- (3) Where a member whose terms of appointment provide for compensation on his removal from office in pursuance of sub-paragraph (2) above is removed from office in pursuance of that sub-paragraph, the Corporation shall pay to him compensation of such amount, and on such terms, as the Secretary of State may with the approval of the Treasury determine.
- (4) The Secretary of State shall remove a member of the Corporation from office in pursuance of this paragraph by declaring his office as a member of the Corporation to be vacant and notifying that fact in such manner as the Secretary of State thinks fit; and thereupon the office shall become vacant.
- 8 Part II of Schedule 1 to the ^{M1}House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (which specifies certain commissions, tribunals and other bodies all members of which are disqualified under that Act) shall be amended by inserting the words “London Regional Transport” at the appropriate place in alphabetical order.

Proceedings

- 9 The validity of any proceedings of the Corporation shall not be affected by a vacancy amongst the members of the Corporation or by a defect in the appointment of a member.
- 10 The quorum of the Corporation shall be three; and, while a member is disqualified from taking part in a decision or deliberation of the Corporation with respect to a matter, he shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Corporation for deciding, or deliberating on, that matter.
- 11 Subject to the preceding provisions of this Schedule, the Corporation shall have power to regulate their own procedure.

Staff

- 12 The Corporation shall appoint a secretary of the Corporation and may appoint such other employees as they may determine.

Application of seal and proof of instruments

- 13 The application of the seal of the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of the secretary of the Corporation or of some other person authorised, either generally or specially, by the Corporation to act for that purpose.
- 14 A certificate signed by the secretary of the Corporation that an instrument purporting to be made or issued by or on behalf of the Corporation was so made or issued shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- 15 Every document purporting to be an instrument made or issued by or on behalf of the Corporation and to be duly executed under the seal of the Corporation, or to be signed or executed by the secretary of the Corporation or a person authorised by the Corporation to act in that behalf shall be received in evidence and be treated, without further proof, as being so made or issued unless the contrary is shown.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 3(9).

OPERATING POWERS OF LONDON REGIONAL TRANSPORT

Carriage and storage

- 1 (1) London Regional Transport may carry passengers by any form of land or water transport (including in either case hovercraft) within, to or from Greater London.
- (2) London Regional Transport may carry passengers as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above between places outside Greater London, in so far as they consider it requisite to do so—
- (a) in connection with the exercise of their powers under that sub-paragraph; or
 - (b) in order to avoid an interruption of services provided by the Executive before the appointed day in exercise of their powers under section 6(1)(b)(ii) of the 1969 Act (provision of services outside Greater London to avoid interruption of services formerly provided by the London Board).
- (3) London Regional Transport may also carry luggage and other goods, but only in any vehicle or vessel used for the carriage of passengers in pursuance of sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above or in another vehicle drawn by or with, or propelled with, any vehicle so used.
- 2 (1) London Regional Transport may enter into arrangements with any person providing passenger transport services by air for the provision of such services between places in Greater London or between such places and places outside Greater London.
- (2) Without prejudice to their powers under section 3 of this Act, London Regional Transport may enter into arrangements with any person operating a business of providing passenger vehicles for hire (whether with or without the services of a driver, and whether under private hire arrangements or by way of plying for public hire), for that person to make passenger vehicles operated by him available for hire, or for use in accordance with the arrangements, on such terms and in such manner as may be provided for by the arrangements, in or between places in Greater London or between such places and places outside Greater London.
- (3) Any arrangements under this paragraph may include provision for the making of payments by London Regional Transport to the other party to the arrangements.
- 3 London Regional Transport may store within Greater London or in any premises of theirs outside Greater London goods which have been or are to be carried by London Regional Transport or a subsidiary of theirs and, so far as any premises provided for the purposes of that or any other part of their business are not required for those purposes, may use those premises to provide facilities for the storage of other goods.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Incidental amenities and facilities

- 4 London Regional Transport may provide amenities or facilities, and construct works, for the purpose of making those amenities, facilities or works available for the use of any other person in pursuance of any agreement under section 3(6) or (7) of this Act.
- 5
- (1) In places where those using the services and facilities provided by London Regional Transport or any of their subsidiaries may require them, London Regional Transport may provide both for them and for other persons facilities for the purchase and consumption of food and drink, places for refreshment and such other amenities and facilities as appear to London Regional Transport appropriate.
 - (2) Without prejudice to their powers under sub-paragraph (1) above, London Regional Transport may provide car parks and amenities or facilities for persons using them at any place convenient for prospective users of—
 - (a) any services or facilities provided at another place by them, by any of their subsidiaries, or by any other person in pursuance of any agreement entered into by London Regional Transport by virtue of section 3(2) of this Act; or
 - (b) any other London passenger services or London connecting services.
 - (3) London Regional Transport may provide facilities for the parking or keeping of any public service vehicles used in the provision of any London passenger service or London connecting service at any place convenient for persons providing any such service.
 - (4) In this paragraph—

“London passenger service” means any service for the carriage of passengers within, to or from Greater London (whether or not provided by London Regional Transport, by any subsidiary of theirs, or by any such other person as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a) above); and “London connecting service” means any service for the carriage of passengers to or from any place outside Greater London but convenient for prospective users of London passenger services or for persons seeking to transfer from London passenger services to services for the carriage of passengers to destinations further afield (including destinations outside the United Kingdom).

- (1) Where by virtue of any provision of paragraph 4 or 5 above London Regional Transport have power to provide any amenities or facilities (including any amenities or facilities of a particular description specifically mentioned in any such provision), they may enter into arrangements for the provision (including the management or operation) or (as the case may be) for the management or operation of any such amenities or facilities by any other person.
 - (2) Any arrangements under this paragraph may include provision for the making of payments by London Regional Transport to, or, with the consent of the Secretary of State, for the giving of guarantees or any other financial assistance by London Regional Transport for the benefit of, the other party to the arrangements.
 - (3) References in this Act to amenities or facilities provided by London Regional Transport include amenities or facilities provided, or managed or operated, by any other person in pursuance of arrangements under this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

Charges for services and facilities

- 7 (1) London Regional Transport may make (or waive) such charges for their services and facilities, and make the use of those services and facilities subject to such terms and conditions, as they think fit.
- (2) London Regional Transport's power under sub-paragraph (1) above is subject only to the provisions of this Act and to any local enactment so far as that local enactment expressly provides for freedom from charges or otherwise prohibits the making of any charge (as distinct from limiting the discretion of persons carrying on any particular undertaking as to the charges of any description to be made by them).
- (3) Neither London Regional Transport nor any subsidiary of theirs shall be regarded as a common carrier by rail or inland waterway.
- (4) No local enactment passed or made with respect to any particular undertaking so far as it imposes on persons carrying on that undertaking—
- (a) a duty to connect, or afford facilities for the connection of, any siding to a railway; or
 - (b) a duty to permit privately owned railway wagons to be used on a railway owned or operated by them; or
 - (c) a duty (otherwise than to a named person, or to the successor of a named person, or for the benefit of specified lands) to provide or maintain any other railway services or facilities (including the provision of stations, sidings or carriages and of any services, facilities or amenities connected with stations, sidings or carriages);
- or so far as it otherwise makes provision corresponding to any of the repealed enactments, shall apply to London Regional Transport.
- (5) The reference in sub-paragraph (4) above to the repealed enactments is a reference to the following enactments, that is to say—
- section 76 of the ^{M2}Railways Clauses Consolidation Act 1845;
 - section 69 of the ^{M3}Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845;
 - sections 2 and 7 of the ^{M4}Railway and Canal Traffic Act 1854;
 - sections 16 and 39 of the ^{M5}Railways Act 1921;
 - section 30 of the ^{M6}London Passenger Transport Act 1933;
 - section 39 of the ^{M7}Road and Rail Traffic Act 1933; and
 - section 22 of the ^{M8}Transport Act 1953;
- all of which made provision with respect to transport charges and facilities and were repealed by the 1962 Act.

Other activities

- 8 (1) London Regional Transport may develop their land in such manner as they think fit.
- (2) London Regional Transport may in particular—
- (a) develop for use by other persons land belonging to them which is not required for the purposes of their business; and
 - (b) where the use of their land for the purposes of their business can be combined with its use by other persons, develop the land by constructing or adapting buildings on it for use wholly or partly by other persons;
- with a view to the disposal of any right or interest in the land or (as the case may be) the buildings or any part of the buildings, after the development is carried out.
- (3) London Regional Transport shall not incur any substantial item of expenditure in developing their land for use for purposes which are not the purposes of their business without the consent of the Secretary of State; and the Secretary of State may from time to time give directions to London Regional Transport indicating what is to be treated for the purposes of this paragraph as a substantial item of expenditure.
- (4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, where London Regional Transport propose under this paragraph to develop any land for use otherwise than for the purposes of their business they may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, acquire by agreement adjoining land for the purpose of developing it together with the other land.
- (5) The consent of the Secretary of State is not required to a proposal by London Regional Transport to acquire land in exercise of the power under sub-paragraph (4) above in any case where the Secretary of State has under sub-paragraph (3) above consented to the incurring by London Regional Transport of a substantial item of expenditure in developing their land as mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) which includes expenditure in carrying out that proposal.
- 9 (1) London Regional Transport may manufacture and repair any spare parts and components or other supplementary machinery or equipment required for the purpose of the operation or repair of any existing vehicles or other equipment of theirs or of any subsidiary of theirs.
- (2) London Regional Transport may repair any vehicles or other equipment, whether owned by them or any subsidiary of theirs or by any other person, and for the purpose of repairing any vehicle or equipment not belonging to them may supply any necessary parts and components for that vehicle or equipment.
- (3) The exercise of any of London Regional Transport's powers under sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above is subject to any directions given by the Secretary of State; and, in addition, London Regional Transport shall from time to time submit to the Secretary of State for his approval proposals as to the manner in which—
- (a) any activities of manufacture authorised by sub-paragraph (1) above; or
 - (b) any activities authorised by sub-paragraph (2) above, so far as relates to repair of vehicles or equipment not belonging to them or any subsidiary of theirs;
- are to be carried on by them or any such subsidiary, and shall carry on or (as the case may be) exercise their control over that subsidiary so as to ensure that the subsidiary carries on, those activities in accordance with the approval of the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Secretary of State may approve any proposals submitted to him by London Regional Transport under sub-paragraph (3) above with such modifications or subject to compliance with such conditions as he thinks fit.
- (5) The Secretary of State may at any time, after consultation with London Regional Transport, direct London Regional Transport to discontinue or (as the case may be) to exercise their control over any of their subsidiaries so as to require the subsidiary to discontinue, any of the activities which London Regional Transport or the subsidiary are carrying on in accordance with the approval of the Secretary of State given under this paragraph.
- (6) In this paragraph—
- (a) references to manufacture include references to construction and production; and
 - (b) references to repair include references to maintenance.
- 10 London Regional Transport may let passenger vehicles on hire with or without other vehicles drawn by or with, or propelled with, those passenger vehicles for the carriage of goods.
- 11 (1) London Regional Transport may do anything which appears to them to be practicable and desirable for the purpose of promoting—
- (a) research on lines settled from time to time with the approval of the Secretary of State into matters affecting, or arising out of, the exercise of the functions of London Regional Transport or any subsidiary of theirs; and
 - (b) the exploitation of the results of any research into any such matter (whether or not promoted by London Regional Transport) and of anything resulting from any idea affecting, or arising out of, the exercise of any of those functions.
- In paragraph (b) above “exploitation” means the doing of any work requisite to enable the results or (as the case may be) the thing in question to be turned to account.
- (2) London Regional Transport may exercise their powers under sub-paragraph (1) above by carrying out any research or work for that purpose themselves or by arranging for it to be carried out or done by some other person with or without assistance (including financial assistance) from London Regional Transport.
- (3) Nothing in this paragraph authorises London Regional Transport to do themselves, either directly or through a subsidiary, any work which London Regional Transport would not have power to do apart from this paragraph.
- 12 (1) London Regional Transport may provide for any person technical advice or assistance, including research services, as respects any matter in which London Regional Transport have skill or experience.
- (2) London Regional Transport may, on the request of any person for whom they are providing advice or assistance under sub-paragraph (1) above, establish for that person an undertaking carrying on any business in which London Regional Transport have skill or experience and manage it on his behalf.
- 13 (1) In this paragraph—
- (a) “relevant passenger service” means any London passenger service or London connecting service within the meaning of paragraph 5 above which

- (a) representations made to the consultative body as mentioned in section 14(1) (a) of the 1969 Act; and
 - (b) representations made to the Area Committee as mentioned in section 56(4) (a) of the 1962 Act;
- other than representations which that body or Committee have determined not to consider as being representations appearing to them to be frivolous.
- (5) In this paragraph “relevant reference” means any reference made—
- (a) to the consultative body by the Greater London Council or by the Executive under section 14(1)(b) of the 1969 Act; or
 - (b) to the Area Committee by the Secretary of State or by the Railways Board under section 56(4)(b) of the 1962 Act.
- (6) London Regional Transport and the Railways Board shall each send to the Passengers’ Committee—
- (a) copies of any representations of which copies have been sent to them in pursuance of sub-paragraph (2) above which are pending before the consultative body or (as the case may be) the Area Committee at the appointed day; and
 - (b) copies of any relevant reference pending before the consultative body or (as the case may be) the Area Committee at the appointed day.
- (7) Any representations of which a copy is sent to the Passengers’ Committee in accordance with sub-paragraph (6)(a) above shall be treated for the purposes of section 40(5)(a) of this Act as having been made to that Committee as there mentioned.
- (8) Any reference of which a copy is sent to the Passengers’ Committee in accordance with sub-paragraph (6)(b) above shall be treated for the purposes of section 40(5)(b) of this Act as having been made to that Committee and (where it was made by the Greater London Council) as having been so made by London Regional Transport.
- (9) For the purposes of this paragraph, any representations or reference made to the consultative body or (as the case may be) to the Area Committee before any relevant time are to be regarded as pending before that body or Committee at that time if that body or Committee have not before that time—
- (a) made, and sent to the Executive under section 14(1) of the 1969 Act or (as the case may be) to the Railways Board under section 56(4) of the 1962 Act, any recommendation with respect to the matter which is the subject of the representations or (as the case may be) of the reference; or
 - (b) determined that it is not desirable to make any such recommendation with respect to that matter and, in the case of any such determination on or after the passing of this Act, set written notification of that determination to the Executive or the Railways Board in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) above.
- (10) In sub-paragraph (9) above “relevant time” means—
- (a) for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) above, the passing of this Act; and
 - (b) for the purposes of sub-paragraph (6) above, the appointed day.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Compensation for chairmen of bodies superseded by the Passengers' Committee

- 9 Where a person ceases to hold office (otherwise than on the expiration of his term of office)—
- (a) as chairman of the consultative body by virtue of the appeal by this Act of section 14 of the 1969 Act; or
 - (b) as Chairman of the Area Committee by virtue of the dissolution of that Committee by section 41(1) of this Act;
- the Secretary of State shall pay to that person compensation of such amount, and on such terms, as the Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine.

London bus services

- 10 (1)) Notwithstanding any repeal made by this Act, sections 23A and 23B of the 1969 Act (right of appeal where Executive refuses to make or vary an agreement authorising a London bus service)—
- (a) shall continue to apply in relation to any appeal made in accordance with section 23A which has not been determined or withdrawn before the appointed day and in relation to any appeal under section 23B from the decision of the Secretary of State on any such appeal under section 23A; and
 - (b) subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, shall continue to authorise appeals to be brought on or after that day against a refusal or failure on the part of London Regional Transport to enter into an agreement to vary the terms of an agreement made under section 23(2) of that Act for the time being subsisting between any person and London Regional Transport.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1)(b) above only applies to any agreement under section 23(2) which is in force immediately before the appointed day or is entered into by London Regional Transport in pursuance of any order made by the Secretary of State on any appeal to which sub-paragraph (1)(a) above applies.
- (3) Notwithstanding any repeal made by this Act, but subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, paragraphs 4 to 13 of Schedule 4 to the 1969 Act (provisions with respect to consents for London bus services continued in force or granted under that Schedule) shall continue to apply in relation to—
- (a) any consent continued in force or granted under that Schedule which is in force immediately before the appointed day; and
 - (b) any application for the grant of a consent under paragraph 4 or 5 of that Schedule (consents as of right for certain successors in title) which has not been determined before the appointed day and any consent granted (or deemed by virtue of paragraph 6 of that Schedule to have been granted) in pursuance of any such application.
- (4) A consent continued in force or granted under Schedule 4 to the 1969 Act may not be renewed under paragraph 8(1) of that Schedule except on an application made before the appointed day.
- (5) Where on the date when any agreement to which sub-paragraph (1)(b) above applies would apart from this sub-paragraph expire there is pending in relation to that agreement any such appeal as is mentioned in that sub-paragraph, that agreement shall not cease to be in force until the appeal is determined or withdrawn.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where on the date when any consent within sub-paragraph (3)(a) or (b) above would apart from this sub-paragraph expire there is pending in relation to that consent—
- (a) any appeal under paragraph 7 or 9 of that Schedule (including paragraph 9 as applied by paragraph 10); or
 - (b) any appeal under paragraph 12 of that Schedule against the cancellation of that consent under that paragraph;
- that consent shall not cease to be in force until the appeal is determined or withdrawn.
- (7) In any provisions of the 1969 Act which by virtue of this paragraph continues to apply for any purpose after the appointed day, references to the Executive shall be read as references to London Regional Transport.
- (8) So far as relates to the purposes of section 23A of the 1969 Act as that section applies by virtue of this paragraph section 248 of the ^{M41}Road Traffic Act 1960 (power of Secretary of State to hold inquiries) shall have effect as if the repeal made by this Act of words referring to section 23A had not been made.
- [^{F6}(9) In this paragraph and paragraphs 11 and 12 below—
- (a) “London Bus Service” has the same meaning as in Part II of the Transport Act 1985; and
 - (b) “London local service licence” means a London local service licence under that Part of that Act.]

- 11 (1) This paragraph applies to—
- (a) any agreement under section 23(2) of the 1969 Act to which paragraph 10(1) (b) above applies; and
 - (b) any consent within paragraph 10(3)(a) or (b) above.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, any agreement or consent to which this paragraph applies shall be treated for the purposes of this paragraph as remaining in force for an additional period of one month beginning with the day immediately following the date on which it expires (whether according to its terms or as extended by virtue of paragraph 10(5) or (6) above).
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) above does not apply where in a case within paragraph 10(6)(b) above the cancellation of the consent takes effect on the determination of the appeal.
- (4) So long as any agreement or consent to which this paragraph applies remains in force, any person providing a London bus service in accordance with that agreement or consent shall be treated for the purposes of any reference in this or any other Act to any service or services provided in pursuance of an agreement entered into by virtue of section 3(2) of this Act (except the references in sections 8(a), 30(1)(a), 40(4)(b), and 51(3)(e) of this Act) as providing that service in pursuance of such an agreement . . . ^{F7}

Compensation for loss of employment, etc.

- 13 (1) Any regulations made under section 37 of the 1969 Act, if and in so far as they are in force immediately before the appointed day—
- (a) shall continue in force notwithstanding the repeal by this Act of that section; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by regulations made under section 48 of this Act as if they had been made by reason of any such transfer of property, rights or liabilities as is mentioned in section 48(1)(b).
- (2) Section 48(5)
- and (6) shall apply in relation to any such regulations as if—
- (a) that one of the relevant authorities required by those regulations to pay compensation under the regulations were the person primarily liable; and
 - (b) the other two authorities were contributories.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2) above “the relevant authorities” means London Regional Transport, the Railways Board and the Bus Company.

Travel concessions

- 14 Arrangements made under section 138 of the 1968 Act by virtue of section 40 of the 1969 Act (which extended section 138 to the Executive and to local authorities in London) shall be treated as made under section 50 of this Act.

Commitments to pay grants

- 15 (1) Where before 2nd December 1983 the Greater London Council have entered into any commitment (whether legally enforceable or not)—
- (a) to make any payment to any person (other than the Executive) under section 56(2) of the 1968 Act (grants by local authorities towards capital expenditure on public passenger transport facilities); or
 - (b) to make any grant to the Railways Board under section 3(1)(b) of the 1969 Act (grants in respect of passenger transport services, amenities or facilities required to meet the needs of Greater London);
- that commitment shall have effect, so far as relates to anything falling to be done in accordance with it on or after the appointed day, as if entered into by London Regional Transport.
- (2) London Regional Transport shall be entitled to recover from the Greater London Council an amount equal to any expenditure incurred by them in the initial year in making payments in pursuance of any such commitment.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2) above, “the initial year” has the same meaning as in section 49 of this Act.
- 16 Any obligation of the Greater London Council—
- (a) to make any payment to the Executive under section 56(2) of the 1968 Act; or
 - (b) to make any grant to the Executive under section 3(1)(a) of the 1969 Act;
- shall cease to have effect.

Provisions as to transfer under 1969 Act

- 17 Notwithstanding any repeal made by this Act, the provisions of Schedule 2 to the 1969 Act, as they had effect immediately before the appointed day, continue to apply for the purpose of determining the effect of or giving effect to, or making any provision consequential on or incidental to, any transfer under section 16 of that Act.

Continuity of powers

- 18 (1) Anything done by the Executive under a superseded enactment, so far as that thing is still in force, subsisting or effective immediately before the appointed day, shall be treated for the purposes of this Act—
- (a) as done; and
 - (b) if properly done under the superseded enactment, as properly done;
- by London Regional Transport under the corresponding enactment in this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above a thing is properly done under an enactment if it is done with any approval or consent required by that enactment for the doing of that thing.
- (3) So far as relates to anything done before the appointed day under a superseded enactment, references in this Act to the approval or consent of the Secretary of State shall be read as references to any approval or consent required by the superseded enactment.
- (4) In this paragraph, “superseded enactment” means an enactment which—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the London Regional Transport Act 1984 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) is repealed by this Act or ceases to apply to London Regional Transport by virtue of any repeal made by this Act; and
- (b) is replaced by an enactment in this Act which re-enacts it, with or without modification.

Construction of references to London Regional Transport

19 To avoid doubt, it is declared that any reference (express or implied) to anything done by or to, to the employment of, or to any agreement or other thing subsisting in relation to or otherwise affecting London Regional Transport—

- (a) in this Act; or
- (b) in any statutory provision amended by this Act;

is to be read, in relation to anything occurring before the appointed day, as a reference to anything done by or to, to the employment of, or (as the case may be) to any agreement or other thing subsisting in relation to or otherwise affecting London Regional Transport under their former name.
