

Animal Health and Welfare Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 40

Animal Health Act 1981

1 Seizure and disposal of things likely to spread disease.

(1) In section 35(1) of the ^{M1}Animal Health Act 1981 (power of Ministers to provide for seizure, disposal etc. to prevent spread of disease)—

(a) for paragraph (a) (seizure of carcasses and other specified things) there is substituted—

“(a) for the seizure of anything, whether animate or inanimate, by or by means of which it appears to them that any disease to which this subsection applies might be carried or transmitted, and”; and

(b) for the words from “disease” to the end there is substituted “such disease”.

(2) After that subsection there is inserted—

“(1A) Subsection (1) above does not authorise provision for the seizure of any animal; but such an order may provide for the seizure of carcasses and of anything obtained from or produced by an animal.

In this subsection, “animal” includes anything that may, by virtue of an order under section 87 below, be included for any of the purposes of this Act in the definition of animals or of poultry contained in that section, and “carcasses” is to be construed accordingly.”

(3) In section 36 of that Act (compensation)—

(a) in subsection (1)(b) (duty to pay compensation for things seized under section 35(1), except carcasses of animals or birds affected with disease) after the words “carcase of” there is inserted “or anything obtained from or produced by”, and

(b) in subsection (2) (power to pay compensation for such carcasses) for the words “seized as mentioned above of” there is substituted “of, or things obtained from or produced by” and, at the end of that subsection, there is inserted “

6 Licences.

For section 3 of that Act (regulations for securing humane conditions of slaughter) there is substituted—

“3 Regulations for securing humane conditions of slaughter.

- (1) The Ministers may make regulations for the purpose of securing humane conditions and practices in connection with the slaughter of birds to which this Act applies.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) specify conditions to be observed in connection with the confinement and treatment of any such birds while awaiting slaughter and in connection with the slaughter of any such birds;
 - (b) prohibit the slaughter of any such birds or any activity connected with their slaughter—
 - (i) on premises to which the regulations apply, or
 - (ii) by methods or in circumstances of any description specified in the regulations,except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence under the regulations;
 - (c) require occupiers of premises to which the regulations apply to secure that the provisions of the regulations are complied with on the premises;
 - (d) make different provision for different cases;
 - (e) provide, in the case of any contravention of any provision of the regulations, for the creation of offences and their punishment on summary conviction with a fine of an amount not exceeding that specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may include provision in respect of—
 - (a) the granting, modification, suspension and revocation of licences by local authorities and, in connection with those matters, the charging of such reasonable fees as the authority concerned may determine;
 - (b) the requirements to be satisfied for the granting of licences and the conditions to which they are to be subject; and
 - (c) the duration of licences.
- (4) The amount that may be specified under subsection (2)(e) of this section is an amount not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section.
- (6) The Ministers shall, before making any regulations under this section, consult with such persons or bodies as seem to them representative of the interests concerned.
- (7) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

7 Codes of practice.

After section 3 of that Act there is inserted—

“3A Codes of practice.

- (1) The Ministers may from time to time after consultation with such persons or bodies as seem to them representative of the interests concerned—
 - (a) prepare and issue codes of practice for the purpose of providing practical guidance in respect of any provision of this Act or regulations under it; and
 - (b) revise any such code by revoking, varying, amending or adding to the provisions of the code.
- (2) A code prepared in pursuance of this section and any alterations proposed to be made on a revision of such a code shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and the Ministers shall not issue the code or revised code, as the case may be, until after the end of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the code or the proposed alterations were so laid.
- (3) If, within the period mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, either House resolves that the code be not issued or the proposed alterations be not made, as the case may be, the Ministers shall not issue the code or revised code (without prejudice to their power under that subsection to lay further codes or proposed alterations before Parliament).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section—
 - (a) where a code or proposed alterations are laid before each House of Parliament on different days, the later day shall be taken to be the day on which the code or the proposed alterations, as the case may be, were laid before both Houses; and
 - (b) in reckoning any period of 40 days, no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
- (5) The Ministers shall cause any code issued or revised under this section to be printed and distributed, and may make such arrangements as they think fit for its distribution, including causing copies of it to be put on sale to the public at such reasonable price as the Ministers may determine.
- (6) A failure on the part of any person to follow any guidance contained in a code issued under this section shall not of itself render that person liable to proceedings of any kind.
- (7) If, in proceedings against any person for an offence consisting of the contravention of any provision of this Act or of regulations under it, it is shown that, at any material time, he failed to follow any guidance contained in a code issued under this section, being guidance which was relevant to the provision concerned, that failure may be relied on by the prosecution as tending to establish his guilt.”

8 Powers of entry under 1967 Act.

For section 4 of that Act (power to enter premises where slaughter for purposes of preparation for sale for human consumption takes place) there is substituted—

“4 Power of entry.

- (1) Where the power conferred by this subsection is exercisable in relation to any premises to which regulations under section 3 of this Act apply, a person authorised in that behalf by the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food or the Secretary of State or by the local authority within whose area the premises are situated may enter the premises for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is, or has been, on those premises any contravention of any provision of this Act or of any regulation made or code of practice issued under it.
- (2) Where it is, or appears to the person so authorised to be, the case that the slaughter of birds to which this Act applies is in progress on the premises, the power conferred by subsection (1) of this section is exercisable at any time.
- (3) Where it is, or appears to the person so authorised to be, the case that—
 - (a) the slaughter of such birds has within 48 hours been in progress on the premises, or
 - (b) such birds are on the premises for the purpose of their being slaughtered,the power conferred by subsection (1) of this section is exercisable at all reasonable hours.
- (4) A person who intentionally obstructs a person in the exercise of his powers under subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.”

9 Enforcement of 1967 Act.

For section 6 of that Act (power to institute proceedings) there is substituted—

“6 Execution and enforcement.

- (1) Every local authority shall execute and enforce in their area the provisions of this Act and of regulations under section 3 of this Act.
- (2) In particular, every local authority shall, for the purpose of securing the execution of those provisions, make arrangements for the supervision by persons having such qualifications as may be specified in the regulations of any premises in their area to which the regulations apply.
- (3) Arrangements under subsection (2) of this section shall comply with such directions as the Ministers may give from time to time.
- (4) This section does not authorise a local authority in Scotland to institute proceedings for any offence.”

Controls over Breeding of Livestock

10 Artificial breeding of livestock.

- (1) The appropriate Minister may make regulations for controlling the practice of artificial breeding of livestock.

In this section “artificial breeding” includes artificial insemination and transfer of ova or embryos.

- (2) Regulations under this section—

- (a) may, for the purpose of controlling the use for artificial breeding of any specified kind of livestock or of semen, ova or embryos of such livestock, prohibit the carrying on of any specified activity in connection with such livestock or with such semen, ova or embryos except under the authority of a licence or approval issued under the regulations;
- (b) may, for the purpose of controlling their use for artificial breeding, prohibit the importation of semen, ova or embryos of any specified kind of livestock except under the authority of such a licence; and, accordingly, the regulations may make such provision as appears to the appropriate Minister to be expedient in respect of the issue, modification, suspension and revocation of licences or approvals under the regulations including the conditions subject to which they may be issued.

- (3) Regulations under this section may include provision—

- (a) in respect of advertisements in connection with artificial breeding;
- (b) for the seizure and detention of anything imported in contravention of any provision of the regulations or any conditions of any licence under them or anything which appears to any person authorised in that behalf to have been so imported and for dealing with anything so imported (whether by requiring it to be destroyed or taken out of Great Britain or otherwise);
- (c) for the payment of fees in connection with—
 - (i) the issue of licences or approvals under the regulations, and
 - (ii) tests or examinations carried out for the purposes of the regulations, and, where the regulations provide for an appeal against a refusal to issue any such licence or approval, in connection with such an appeal, being (in all cases) fees determined with the approval of the Treasury;

but subsection (2) above and this subsection are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above.

- (4) For the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of regulations under this section or the conditions of any licence or approval under them are being or have been contravened, a person authorised in writing in that behalf by the appropriate Minister may, on producing his authority, enter at all reasonable times—

- (a) any premises used by the holder of a licence or approval under the regulations, being premises used for or in connection with any of the purposes authorised by the licence or approval; and
- (b) any premises on which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence under this section is being or has been committed;

and may inspect the premises and any livestock or articles on them and carry out such test or other investigation as he thinks fit.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1995.

- (5) For the purposes of any test or investigation under subsection (4) above, the person so authorised may require any person on the premises to give such information as it is in his power to give.
- (6) A person who—
- (a) contravenes any provision of regulations under this section or any conditions of a licence or approval under such regulations;
 - (b) intentionally obstructs any person in the exercise of the powers conferred on him by or under this section; or
 - (c) refuses to give any such person any information which he is required to give under subsection (5) above;
- is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale, or both.
- F2 . . .
- (7) It is a defence to a charge of committing an offence under subsection (6)(a) above to prove that the accused took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.
- (8) In this section—
- “appropriate Minister” means, in relation to England, the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and, in relation to Scotland or to Wales, the Secretary of State;
 - “contravention” includes failure to comply and “contravene” is to be construed accordingly;
 - “livestock” includes any animal or bird not in the wild state;
 - “premises” includes any description of vehicle;
 - “specified” means specified in regulations under this section;
- and anything brought to Great Britain from a country out of Great Britain and landed here [F3 or brought here through the tunnel system as defined in the Channel Tunnel Act 1987] is imported for the purposes of this section.

product of any description in an animal feeding stuff unless such of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) of this section as may be specified in the regulations are satisfied.

- (2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) of this section are—
- (a) that it is incorporated in accordance with provisions relating to the incorporation of the medicinal product in animal feeding stuffs contained in a product licence or animal test certificate (whether held by him or by another person);
 - (b) that it is incorporated in accordance with a written direction given by a veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner, being a written direction complying with such requirements as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (c) that the person concerned is for the time being entered in a register kept for the purposes of the regulations by the registrar or the Northern Ireland enforcement authority.
- (3) A condition imposed by virtue of subsection (2)(a) of this section shall be taken to be satisfied if the person incorporating the medicinal product in the animal feeding stuff—
- (a) is not the holder of a product licence or animal test certificate containing such provisions as are mentioned in that paragraph, but
 - (b) believes, on reasonable grounds, that another person is the holder of such a licence or certificate containing such provisions and that the medicinal product is incorporated in accordance with those provisions.
- (4) The Agriculture Ministers may by regulations prohibit—
- (a) the sale, offer for sale, supply or export by any person in the course of a business carried on by him of any animal feeding stuff in which a medicinal product has been incorporated, or
 - (b) the importation by any person of any animal feeding stuff in which a medicinal product has been incorporated,
- unless such of the conditions mentioned in subsection (5) of this section as may be specified in the regulations are satisfied.
- (5) The conditions referred to in subsection (4) of this section are—
- (a) that the medicinal product was not incorporated in the animal feeding stuff in contravention of any prohibition imposed by virtue of subsection (1) of this section;
 - (b) that the feeding stuff is sold, offered for sale, supplied, exported or imported (as the case may be) in accordance with a written direction given by a veterinary surgeon or veterinary practitioner, being a written direction complying with such requirements as may be specified in the regulations;

- (a) did not incorporate the medicinal product in it, and
 - (b) had no reasonable grounds to believe that it was incorporated in contravention of any prohibition imposed by virtue of subsection (1) of this section.
- (7) Regulations under this section may impose such conditions as the Agriculture Ministers think fit in respect of the inclusion or retention of persons in a register kept for the purposes of the regulations, including conditions requiring the payment to the registrar or the Northern Ireland enforcement authority of fees of such amounts as the Agriculture Ministers may with the consent of the Treasury determine.
- (8) In determining any such fees, the Agriculture Ministers may have regard to—
 - (a) any costs incurred or to be incurred by the Pharmaceutical Society or the Northern Ireland enforcement authority in connection with any duty to enforce any provision of regulations under this section, and
 - (b) any costs incurred or to be incurred by any other person for the purpose of maintaining or improving standards among those engaged in the activities referred to in subsections (1) and (4) of this section.
- (9) Any fees received by virtue of this section for the inclusion or retention of any person in a register kept for the purposes of the regulations shall, if the Agriculture Ministers so determine, be applied to such extent and in such manner as they may determine towards meeting any costs falling within subsection (8)(b) of this section; subject to that, any such fees received by the registrar shall be applicable for the purposes of the Pharmaceutical Society.
