Applications for building control approval

1B (1) Building regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with applications for building control approval (including approval of changes to anything that has already been approved).

(2) “Building control approval”—

- (a) in relation to any work, means the approval by the building control authority of—
 - (i) plans of the work, and
 - (ii) such other documents, relating to compliance with any provision of building regulations, as may be prescribed (or, in a case within sub-paragraph \(5\), as are provided to the authority);
- (b) in relation to a change to a relevant document, means the approval by the authority of the change.

(3) Building regulations may—

- (a) confer on building control authorities a power, with the consent of the applicant—
 - (i) to impose requirements (including in particular requirements of a kind mentioned in sub-paragraph \(4\)) when granting an application;
 - (ii) to vary requirements;
- (b) make provision about the cases in which an application for approval of a change must be made (including provision conferring on building control authorities a power to specify the circumstances in which such an application must be made).

(4) The requirements referred to in sub-paragraph \(3\)\(a\) are—

- (a) a requirement relating to the provision of a revised version of a specified relevant document;
- (b) a requirement that the work does not proceed beyond a specified stage unless a specified relevant document has been given to, and approved by, the building control authority.

(5) Building regulations may provide that in prescribed cases—

- (a) an application may be made to the authority for approval of the plans and such other relevant documents as the applicant considers appropriate, and
- (b) the authority may refuse the application if the applicant does not, on request, provide it with a specified relevant document.

(6) In this paragraph—

- (a) “relevant document” means—
 - (i) the plans mentioned in sub-paragraph \(2\)\(a\)\(i\), or
 - (ii) a document prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph \(2\)\(a\)\(ii\);
- (b) “specified” means specified by the building control authority;
- (c) a reference to a change to a document includes the replacement of it.

Certificates: approved schemes

- 1C (1) Building regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with certificates that are given—
- (a) by a member of a scheme that is approved,
 - (b) in accordance with the scheme, and
 - (c) in accordance with any prescribed requirement relating to the provision of insurance cover in respect of work to which the certificate relates.
- (2) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
- (a) the approval of schemes by the appropriate national authority or a person designated by that authority;
 - (b) the suspension or withdrawal of approvals (including provision about appeals to the appropriate court or tribunal against the suspension or withdrawal of approvals).
- (3) The regulations may in particular provide that a scheme may be approved (and may remain approved) only if prescribed requirements relating to the provision of insurance cover are complied with.
- (4) The regulations may provide—
- (a) that an approval has effect for a particular period (including a period specified in the approval), or
 - (b) that an approval has effect until it is suspended or withdrawn.
- (5) The requirements relating to insurance cover that may be prescribed include in particular a requirement that insurance cover is provided through a scheme of insurance approved by the appropriate national authority or a person designated by that authority.

Obtaining, keeping and giving information and documents

- 1D (1) Building regulations may, in relation to any work, make provision about—
- (a) obtaining information or documents;
 - (b) creating documents;
 - (c) keeping information or documents;
 - (d) giving information or documents.
- (2) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) provide that information or documents must be given or kept in accordance with prescribed standards;
 - (b) impose requirements as regards keeping information or documents up to date;
 - (c) confer on building control authorities or other prescribed persons a power, in prescribed circumstances, to require a person to give information to them.
- (3) Where building regulations provide that any information or document must be given, they may make provision about the admissibility in any criminal proceedings of the information or document.

Changes to legislation: Building Act 1984 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Reporting requirements: duty to establish and operate system

- 1E (1) This paragraph applies where building regulations made by virtue of paragraph 1D require a person to give information—
- (a) in relation to work in England, to the regulator;
 - (b) in relation to work in Wales, to the building control authority.
- (2) For the purpose of facilitating and securing compliance with any such requirement, the regulations may—
- (a) require a prescribed person to establish and operate a system for the giving of prescribed information to such person as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) make provision about such systems.

Form and content of documents etc

- 1F (1) Where building regulations provide that any document must or may be given, they may make provision about—
- (a) the form and content of the document;
 - (b) the information and other documents that must accompany it;
 - (c) the way in which the document, and anything that is to accompany it, is to be given.
- (2) Where building regulations provide that any information must or may be given, they may make provision about the way in which it is to be given.
- (3) Building regulations may provide that any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-paragraph \(1\), or in sub-paragraph \(2\), are to be specified in a direction made and published in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) Building regulations may provide that—
- (a) a prescribed application must be accompanied by such prescribed documents as the applicant considers appropriate, and
 - (b) the building control authority may refuse the application if the applicant does not, on request, provide it with a document of a kind prescribed for the purposes of paragraph \(a\) in relation to the application.

Inspection, testing etc

- 1G (1) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
- (a) the inspection and testing of work;
 - (b) the inspection and testing of buildings;
 - (c) the inspection and testing of services, fittings and equipment provided in connection with buildings;
 - (d) the taking of samples.
- (2) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) prohibit the covering up of any work, for a prescribed period after a prescribed or specified event;
 - (b) provide for the cutting into or laying open of any work or building, or the pulling down of any work.
- (3) In sub-paragraph \(2\)\(a\) “specified” means specified by the building control authority.

Applications to building control authorities: extension of period by agreement

- 1H Building regulations may provide that any prescribed period for the doing of a thing by a building control authority in connection with an application made to it may be extended by agreement between the authority and the applicant.

Appeals

- 1I (1) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with appeals against decisions made under, or under an instrument made under, Part 1, 2 or 2A of this Act.
- (2) The regulations may confer, in respect of a prescribed decision—
- (a) in relation to England—
 - (i) a right to appeal to the regulator or the tribunal, and
 - (ii) in the case of an appeal to the regulator, a right of appeal to the tribunal against the decision of the regulator made on appeal;
 - (b) in relation to Wales—
 - (i) a right to appeal to the Welsh Ministers or a magistrates’ court, and
 - (ii) in the case of an appeal to the Welsh Ministers, a right of appeal to a magistrates’ court or a right of appeal to the High Court, against the decision of the Welsh Ministers made on appeal.
- (3) The provision that may be made in connection with appeals includes provision about a right of appeal conferred by Part 1, 2 or 2A.
- (4) The regulations may in particular make provision about—
- (a) the grounds upon which an appeal may be made;
 - (b) the period within which an appeal must be made;
 - (c) the way in which any appeal is to be made;
 - (d) the powers of the court, tribunal or other person determining the appeal (including provision conferring a power to give directions and, in the case of the regulator or Welsh Ministers, powers in respect of costs).
- (5) In respect of appeals to the regulator or the Welsh Ministers, the regulations may make provision about procedural matters (including provision conferring a discretion as to the procedure to be adopted).
- (6) In respect of appeals to the Welsh Ministers, the regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with the Welsh Ministers appointing a person to determine the appeal (including provision conferring functions on that person and providing that their decision is treated as the decision of the Welsh Ministers).]

SCHEDULE 2 E+W

RELAXATION OF BUILDING REGULATIONS FOR EXISTING WORK

Application of schedule

- 1 This Schedule applies to a direction under section 8 of this Act that will affect the application of building regulations to work that has been carried out before the giving of the direction.

Cases where no direction may be given

- 2 Neither the ^[F25]appropriate national authority] nor a ^[F26]building control authority] shall give a direction to which this Schedule applies—
- (a) if the ^[F26]building control authority] have, before the making of the application for the direction, become entitled under section 36(3) of this Act to pull down, remove or alter the work to which the application relates, or

Suspension of certain provisions while application pending

- 3 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, after the making of an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies, and until the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of, no section 36 notice shall be given as regards the work to which the application relates on the ground that it contravenes the requirement to which the application relates.
- (2) If an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made less than 12 months after the completion of the work to which the application relates, section 36(4) of this Act does not prevent the giving of a notice as regards that work at any time within a period of 3 months from the date on which the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of.
- (3) If an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made after a section 36 notice has been given on the ground that the work to which the application relates contravenes the requirement to which the application relates (not being an application prohibited by paragraph 2 of this Schedule), section 36(3) of this Act has effect in relation to that work as if for the reference to the period there mentioned there were substituted a reference to a period expiring 28 days after the application is withdrawn or finally disposed of, or such longer period as [^{F28}the appropriate court or tribunal] may allow.
- (4) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, if an application for a direction to which this Schedule applies is made after any person has, in consequence of the carrying out of the work to which the application relates in contravention of building regulations, become liable to a penalty continuing from day to day, the daily penalty is not recoverable in respect of any day after the making of the application and before it is withdrawn or finally disposed of.
- (5) In a case where an application is withdrawn or is finally disposed of without any direction being given, the [^{F29}appropriate national authority] or, as the case may be, the [^{F26}building control authority] may order that the daily penalty is not recoverable in respect of any day during such further period not exceeding 28 days as may be specified in the order.

Application of provisions by building regulations.

- 2 (1) Where, by section 91(2) above or by building regulations made under paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to this Act or paragraph 14(1) of this Schedule, local authorities, or a prescribed person or class of persons other than local authorities, are made responsible for—
- (a) enforcing, or
 - (b) performing prescribed functions under or in connection with,
- building regulations in force in inner London, then, without prejudice to the said paragraphs 6 and 14(1), building regulations may in that connection provide for any relevant provision to apply (with any prescribed modifications, and notwithstanding paragraph 1 above) in relation to any such authority, person or class of persons as that provision applies in relation to a local authority outside inner London.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) above, “relevant provision” means any of the following provisions of this Act that may be prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above: sections 4, 8 to 10, 16, 18(1), (4) and (5), 21 to 23, 24(1), (2) and (4), 26 to 29, 32, 36, 37, 39 and 40.

Repeal and modification of Acts.

- 3 Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 11(1) of Schedule 1 to this Act, building regulations may repeal or modify—
- (a) any provision of the London Building Acts 1930 to 1939,
 - (b) any provision of an Act passed before the 20th September 1974, in so far as that provision—
 - (i) applies to or to any part of inner London, and
 - (ii) relates to, or to the making of, byelaws for or for any part of inner London with respect to any matter for or in connection with which provision can be made by building regulations, or
 - (c) any provision of byelaws made or having effect under the said Acts or of any such byelaws as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (b)(ii) above,
- if it appears to the Secretary of State that the repeal or, as the case may be, the modification of that provision is expedient—
- (i) in consequence of the application of any of sections 61, 62 and 67 of the ^{M2}Public Health Act 1936, sections 4(2), (5), (6) and (7), 5 and 9 of the ^{M3}Public Health Act 1961 and sections 61 to 74 and 76 of the ^{M4}Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 to inner London by virtue of section 70(1) of the said Act of 1974 (which section is repealed by and incorporated in this Act),

^{F43} Cancellation of a public body’s notice where work to a building in England becomes higher-risk building work

Textual Amendments

- F43 Sch. 4 paras. 1A-1C inserted (1.10.2023) by The Building \(Public Bodies and Higher-Risk Building Work\) \(England\) Regulations 2023 \(S.I. 2023/504\), regs. 1(2), 4(3); S.I. 2023/993, reg. 2(f) (with reg. 4)

- 1A. (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where—
- (a) a public body’s notice relating to a building in England is in force, and
 - (b) it appears to the public body that some or all of the work in relation to which that notice has effect has become higher-risk building work.
- (2) Where this sub-paragraph applies the public body must, as soon as is reasonably practicable—
- (a) cancel the relevant part of the public body’s notice by notice in the prescribed form given to the local authority concerned, and
 - (b) give a copy of that notice to the regulator.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) applies where—
- (a) a public body’s notice relating to a building in England is in force, and
 - (b) it appears to the local authority concerned that some or all of the work in relation to which that notice has effect has become higher-risk building work.
- (4) Where this sub-paragraph applies the local authority must, as soon as is reasonably practicable—
- (a) cancel the relevant part of the public body’s notice by notice in the prescribed form given to the public body, and
 - (b) give a copy of that notice to the regulator.
- (5) Where a notice is given under sub-paragraph (2) or (4) (a “cancellation notice”)—
- (a) the part of the public body’s notice to which the cancellation notice relates is cancelled with effect from the day after the day on which the cancellation notice is given, and
 - (b) a new public body’s notice may not be given in relation to any of the work to which the cancelled part of the public body’s notice related.
- (6) Where a public body fails to—
- (a) give to a local authority a notice that the body is required to give by sub-paragraph (2);
 - (b) give to the regulator a copy of a notice that the body is required to give by sub-paragraph (2),
- then on becoming aware of the failure the regulator may, by notice in writing, impose a penalty of £7,500, which is recoverable by the regulator as a debt.
- (7) Before imposing a penalty under sub-paragraph (6) the regulator must—
- (a) give the public body a notice of its intention to impose the penalty; and

- (b) have regard to any representations made by the public body during the period referred to in sub-paragraph (8).
- (8) The regulator must not give a notice under sub-paragraph (6) imposing a penalty on a public body until a period of 14 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice under sub-paragraph (7) is given has expired.
- (9) A public body may appeal to the tribunal against the decision of the regulator to impose a penalty under sub-paragraph (6) provided that the appeal is made within a period of 21 days beginning with the day after the day on which the regulator gives a notice to the body imposing the penalty.
- (10) On an appeal the tribunal—
 - (a) must determine whether the decision to impose the penalty was based on an error of fact, wrong in law or unreasonable, and
 - (b) may confirm, quash or vary the decision.
- (11) In this paragraph “the relevant part of the public body’s notice” means so much of the public body’s notice (whether all or part of it) as relates to work that has become higher-risk building work.

Effect of public body’s notice ceasing to be in force where work becomes higher-risk building work

- 1B. (1) This paragraph applies where a public body’s notice ceases to be in force, whether in whole or in part, by virtue of paragraph 1A.
- (2) If, before the day on which the relevant part of the public body’s notice ceased to be in force, a public body’s final certificate under paragraph 3 of this Schedule—
 - (a) was given in respect of part of the work to which the relevant part of the public body’s notice relates, and
 - (b) was accepted by the local authority,the fact that the relevant part of the public body’s notice has ceased to be in force does not affect the continuing operation of paragraph 3(3) of this Schedule in relation to that part of the work.
- (3) The building control authority in relation to any of the uncertified work is the regulator.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3), the “uncertified work” means any of the work—
 - (a) to which the relevant part of the public body’s notice relates, and
 - (b) in respect of which no public body’s final certificate has been accepted by the local authority as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2).
- (5) Sections 91(3) (duties of the regulator) and 121A(1) (meaning of “building control authority”) apply as if, in each case, the reference to section 91ZA or 91ZB were a reference to section 91ZA, 91ZB or this paragraph.
- (6) In any case where this paragraph applies, the reference in subsection (4) of section 36 to the date of the completion of the work in question has effect, in relation to a notice under subsection (1) of that section, as if it were a reference to the date on which the relevant part of the public body’s notice ceased to be in force.

- (7) In this paragraph “the relevant part of the public body’s notice” means so much of the public body’s notice (whether all or part of it) as was cancelled by a notice under paragraph 1A of this Schedule.

Appeals against cancellation of a public body’s notice by a local authority

- 1C. (1) Where a local authority cancels a public body’s notice, in whole or in part, by giving a notice (a “cancellation notice”) under paragraph 1A(4) of this Schedule the public body may appeal to the tribunal within 21 days of the day the notice is given under that paragraph.
- (2) On an appeal under sub-paragraph (1), the tribunal must determine whether the relevant part of the public body’s notice was properly cancelled.
- (3) In a case where the tribunal determines that the relevant part of the public body’s notice was not properly cancelled—
- (a) the determination does not have the effect of reinstating the relevant part of the public body’s notice;
 - (b) paragraph 1B(2) and (6) of this Schedule continue to apply in relation to the relevant part of the public body’s notice;
 - (c) the tribunal may give such directions as it considers appropriate in consequence of the determination (which may include giving directions to the regulator).
- (4) In this paragraph the “relevant part of the public body’s notice” means so much of the public body’s notice (whether all or part of it) as was subject to the cancellation notice.]

Public body’s plans certificates

- 2 [F44(1) In this Part a “public body’s plans certificate” means a certificate by a public body that the relevant conditions are met in relation to the work specified in the certificate (which must be work in relation to which the public body has given a public body’s notice).
- (1A) The relevant conditions are that the public body—
- (a) is satisfied that—
 - (i) a competent person has inspected full plans of the work, or
 - (ii) a competent person has inspected plans of the work which the public body is satisfied, in the light of that inspection, are sufficient for the purposes of giving a public body’s plans certificate in relation to the work,
 - (b) is satisfied in the light of that inspection that the plans are not defective,
 - (c) is satisfied in the light of that inspection that work carried out in accordance with the plans would not contravene any provision of building regulations, and
 - (d) has complied with any prescribed requirements as to consultation or otherwise.
- (1B) “Competent person” means a servant or agent of the public body who is competent to assess the plans.

- (1C) If the relevant conditions are met, the public body may give a public body's plans certificate to the local authority.
- (1D) A public body's plans certificate must be in the prescribed form.]
- (2) Building regulations may authorise the giving of a public body's notice combined with a public body's plans certificate, and may prescribe a single form for such a combined notice and certificate; and where such a prescribed form is used—
- (a) a reference in this Schedule or in any other provision of Part II of this Act to a public body's notice or to a public body's plans certificate includes a reference to that form, but
 - (b) should the form cease to be in force as a public body's notice by virtue of paragraph 1(1) above, nothing in that paragraph affects the continuing validity of the form as a public body's plans certificate.
- (3) A public body's plans certificate—
- (a) may relate either to the whole or to part only of the work specified in the public body's notice concerned, and
 - (b) does not have effect unless it is accepted by the local authority to whom it is given.
- (4) A local authority to whom a public body's plans certificate is given—
- (a) may not reject the certificate except on prescribed grounds, and
 - (b) shall reject the certificate if any of the prescribed grounds exists.
- (5) Unless, within the prescribed period, the local authority to whom a public body's plans certificate is given give notice of rejection, specifying the ground or grounds in question, to the public body by which the certificate was given, the authority are conclusively presumed to have accepted the certificate.
- (6) [^{F45}If it appears to a local authority by whom a public body's plans certificate has been accepted that the work to which the certificate relates has not been commenced within the period of three years beginning on the date on which the certificate was accepted, the authority may rescind their acceptance of the certificate by notice, specifying the ground or grounds in question given to the public body.]
- [^{F46}(7) Building regulations may make further provision about public body's plans certificates, including in particular provision—
- (a) requiring a public body's plans certificate to be given to the local authority in prescribed cases;
 - (b) about the consequences of failing to comply with such a requirement (for example, for a public body's notice to cease to have effect in whole or in part);
 - (c) requiring a public body's plans certificate stating that the condition in sub-paragraph \(1A\)\(a\)\(ii\) is met to include prescribed information about the further plans that the public body considers need to be provided.]

Public body’s final certificates

- 3 (1) Where a public body is satisfied that any work specified in a public body’s notice given by it has been completed, the body may give to the local authority such certificate with respect to the completion of the work and compliance with building regulations as may be prescribed (called a “public body’s final certificate”).
- (2) Sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) of paragraph 2 above have effect in relation to a public body’s final certificate as if any reference in those sub-paragraphs to a public body’s plans certificate were a reference to a public body’s final certificate.
- (3) Where a public body’s final certificate has been given with respect to any of the work specified in a public body’s notice and that certificate has been accepted by the local authority concerned, the public body’s notice ceases to apply to that work, but the provisions of section 48(1) of this Act, as applied by section 54(4), continue, by virtue of this sub-paragraph, to apply in relation to that work as if the public body’s notice continued in force in relation to it.

Effects of public body’s notice ceasing to be in force

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where a public body’s notice ceases to be in force by virtue of paragraph 1 above.
- (2) Building regulations may provide that if—
- (a) a public body’s plans certificate was given before the day on which the public body’s notice ceased to be in force, and
 - (b) that certificate was accepted by the local authority (before, on or after that day), ^{F47}and
 - (c) before that day, that acceptance was not rescinded by a notice under paragraph 2(6) above,]
- then, with respect to the work specified in the certificate, such of the functions of a local authority referred to in section 48(1) of this Act as may be prescribed for the purposes of this sub-paragraph either are not exercisable or are exercisable only in prescribed circumstances.
- (3) If, before the day on which the public body’s notice ceased to be in force, a public body’s final certificate was given in respect of part of the work specified in the notice and that certificate was accepted by the local authority (before, on or after that day), the fact that the public body’s notice has ceased to be in force does not affect the continuing operation of paragraph 3(3) above in relation to that part of the work.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) above, for the purpose of enabling the local authority to perform the functions referred to in section 48(1) of this Act in relation to any part of the work not specified in a public body’s plans
