

Transport Act 1985

1985 CHAPTER 67

[^{F1}PART 5A

PASSENGERS' COUNCIL: ROAD PASSENGER TRANSPORT FUNCTIONS IN ENGLAND

Textual Amendments

- F1 Pt. 5A inserted (25.2.2010) by The Passengers' Council \(Non-Railway Functions\) Order 2010 \(S.I. 2010/439\), arts. 1, 3

112A Introductory

- (1) “Road passenger transport service” means—
 - (a) a local service, so far as operating in England;
 - (b) a domestic coach service, so far as operating in England; or
 - (c) a tramway passenger service, so far as operating in England.
- (2) But a service is not a “road passenger transport service” if—
 - (a) it is an excursion or tour; or
 - (b) it is provided in a public service vehicle used under a permit granted under section 19.
- (3) “Road passenger transport facility” means a facility in England for road passenger transport services.
- (4) This section has effect for the purposes of this Part.

112B Duty to keep road passenger transport services and facilities under review

- (1) The Passengers' Council must, so far as it appears expedient from time to time to do so—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/06/2022.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 1985, PART 5A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) keep under review matters affecting the interests of the public in relation to road passenger transport services and facilities; and
 - (b) make representations to, and consult, such persons as it considers appropriate about those matters.
- (2) The Council and any other public body may enter into an agreement for that other body to be responsible, in accordance with the agreement, for—
- (a) determining what is expedient for the purposes of subsection (1) in relation to an area specified in the agreement; and
 - (b) otherwise performing the Council’s functions under subsection (1) in relation to that area.
- (3) So long as an agreement under subsection (2) is in force—
- (a) the duties of the Council under subsection (1) in relation to the area specified in the agreement fall on the other party to the agreement instead of on the Council; but
 - (b) the Council is not prevented from doing anything mentioned in subsection (1) in relation to that area.
- (4) An agreement under subsection (2)—
- (a) may be entered into on such terms and conditions as the parties to it may agree; and
 - (b) may contain provision for determining, for the purposes of this section, in what circumstances things done under or for the purposes of subsection (1) are to be treated as done in relation to the area specified in the agreement.
- (5) The written consent of the Secretary of State is required before the Council and another public body may enter into an agreement under this section.
- (6) In this section “public body” means any authority or other body on which functions are conferred by or under an enactment.

112C Duty to investigate road passenger transport services and facilities

- (1) The Passengers’ Council must investigate any matter relating to the provision of road passenger transport services or facilities if—
- (a) the matter is the subject of a representation made to the Council by a user or potential user of road passenger transport services or facilities;
 - (b) the matter is the subject of a representation made to the Council by an organisation representative of users or potential users of road passenger transport services or facilities;
 - (c) the matter is referred to the Council by the Secretary of State for investigation; or
 - (d) it appears to the Council that the matter is one which the Council ought to investigate.
- (2) The Council is not required to investigate a matter in a case falling within subsection (1)(a) or (b) if the matter appears to the Council to be frivolous or vexatious.
- (3) The Council is not required to investigate a matter in a case falling within subsection (1)(a) or (b) if, or to the extent that, the Council refers the matter to another body under section 112D.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/06/2022.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 1985, PART 5A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Council must not investigate by virtue of subsection (1)(d) any matter which relates solely to the provision of London road passenger transport services or facilities.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not prevent the Council from so investigating any such matter as part of an investigation of a matter which relates wholly or mainly to—
 - (a) the provision of road passenger transport services or facilities other than London road passenger services or facilities; or
 - (b) the provision of road passenger transport services or facilities in any part of England outside London.

112D Power to refer matters elsewhere instead of investigating

- (1) This section applies in relation to a matter which is the subject of a representation made to the Passengers’ Council under section 112C(1)(a) or (b).
- (2) If the Council thinks that it would be more appropriate for the matter to be considered—
 - (a) by an operator of road passenger transport services;
 - (b) by a provider of road passenger transport facilities; or
 - (c) by any body which does not fall within paragraph (a) or (b);the Council may refer the matter to that person or body.
- (3) The Council must refer the matter to the London Transport Users’ Committee if, or in so far as, it appears to the Council to relate to the provision of London road passenger transport services or facilities.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not require the Council to refer a matter to the Committee if, or in so far as, it appears to the Council to relate to the provision of a long distance coach service.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in the case of a matter if, or in so far as, it appears to the Council to relate to a London local passenger.
- (6) Subsection (4) does not prevent the Council referring a matter under subsection (3) if, or in so far as, it considers it appropriate to do so.
- (7) In this section—

“London local passenger” means a passenger making a journey which begins and ends at stopping places in London;

“long distance coach service” means a bus service—

 - (a) which has one or more stopping places outside London; and
 - (b) which would be a domestic coach service, if no account were taken of any London local passengers.

112E Investigations: power to obtain information

- (1) This section applies if the Passengers’ Council is carrying out an investigation under section 112C in relation to road passenger transport services or facilities.
- (2) If the Council requests an operator of services, or a provider of facilities, to provide any information which the Council considers necessary for the purpose of carrying out the investigation, subsection (3) applies.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/06/2022.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 1985, PART 5A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person who receives such a request must provide the information unless—
 - (a) the person does not have, and cannot reasonably obtain, it; or
 - (b) the provision of the information would impose an unreasonable burden on the person.
- (4) A person who relies on paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (3) must notify the Council in writing of that fact, stating the reason why the paragraph in question applies.
- (5) If the Council—
 - (a) has requested information from an operator of local services or domestic coach services, and
 - (b) considers that it has not received a satisfactory response to that request, the Council may refer the matter to a traffic commissioner.
- (6) If the Council—
 - (a) has requested information from an operator of tramway passenger services, and
 - (b) considers that it has not received a satisfactory response to that request, the Council may refer the matter to the promoter.
- (7) If a matter is referred by virtue of subsection (5) or (6), the traffic commissioner or, as the case may be, the promoter may require the recipient of the request mentioned in subsection (2) to provide such of the information as the traffic commissioner or promoter considers appropriate.

112F Investigations: protection of confidential information

- (1) This section applies to any information provided to the Passengers’ Council pursuant to section 112E(3) in the circumstances described in subsection (2).
- (2) The circumstances are that—
 - (a) the person who provided the information has requested that the information be held in confidence; and
 - (b) a person would not be entitled to the information in response to a request made in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 by virtue of the exemptions in section 41 or 43 of that Act.
- (3) Information to which this section applies must not—
 - (a) be included in any investigation report published under section 112K; or
 - (b) be disclosed by the Council to any other person.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects—
 - (a) the power of the Council to refer a matter, including the confidential information, following investigation in accordance with section 112H or 112I; or
 - (b) any obligation on the Council to disclose information in order to comply with an order of a court or a tribunal.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/06/2022.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 1985, PART 5A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

112G Investigations: representations

- (1) Having investigated a matter under section 112C the Passengers’ Council may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, make representations to—
 - (a) an operator of road passenger transport services;
 - (b) a provider of road passenger transport facilities;
 - (c) a local traffic authority in England;
 - [^{F2}(d) a strategic highways company for the time being appointed under Part 1 of the Infrastructure Act 2015;]
 - (e) a local transport authority in England.
- (2) If the Council makes representations to a person under this section—
 - (a) the person must have regard to those representations; and
 - (b) the person must, within a reasonable time, send the Council a written statement describing any actions that the person has taken or intends to take in response to the representations.

Textual Amendments

- F2 S. 112G(1)(d) substituted (5.3.2015) by Infrastructure Act 2015 \(c. 7\), s. 57\(1\), Sch. 1 para. 101; S.I. 2015/481, reg. 2\(a\)

112H Referrals following investigation

- (1) This section applies if the Passengers’ Council—
 - (a) has made representations under section 112G; and
 - (b) considers that it is unable to achieve a satisfactory outcome by that means.
- (2) If the representations were made to any operator of local services or domestic coach services, the Council may refer the matter to a traffic commissioner.
- (3) If the representations were made to any operator of tramway passenger services, the Council may refer the matter to the promoter.
- (4) If the representations were made to a local traffic authority and the Council considers that it may be appropriate for a traffic commissioner to exercise powers under section 27A (additional powers in relation to local traffic authorities where service not operated as registered), the Council may refer the matter to a traffic commissioner.
- (5) If the representations were made to a local traffic authority and the Council considers that it may be appropriate for the Secretary of State to exercise powers under Part 2 of the Traffic Management Act 2004 (enforcement of network management duties), the Council may refer the matter to the Secretary of State.

112I Referrals in cases where investigation identifies other failings

- (1) This section applies if, on investigating a matter under section 112C, the Passengers’ Council has reason to believe that—
 - (a) an operator of local services has failed to operate a local service registered under section 6 or has operated a local service in contravention of that section;or

Status: Point in time view as at 24/06/2022.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 1985, PART 5A is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the holder of a PSV operator’s licence is contravening, or is likely to contravene, any conditions or requirements of that licence.
- (2) The Council may refer a matter described in subsection (1) to a traffic commissioner.

112J Traffic commissioner’s duty following referral

- (1) This section applies if the Passengers’ Council refers a matter to a traffic commissioner under section 112E, 112H or 112I.
- (2) The traffic commissioner dealing with the matter must consider whether, in connection with the matter, it would be appropriate to exercise any of the powers of a traffic commissioner in respect of—
 - (a) an operator of local services;
 - (b) a holder of a PSV operator’s licence; or
 - (c) a local traffic authority.

112K Investigation reports

- (1) This section applies where the Passengers’ Council has investigated a matter under section 112C.
- (2) The Council may prepare a report of its findings (an “investigation report”).
- (3) The Council may send a copy of an investigation report to the Secretary of State and to such other persons as the Council thinks fit.
- (4) The Council may publish an investigation report.
- (5) In the case of an investigation report prepared following an investigation which is carried out as the result of a referral by the Secretary of State under section 112C(1)(c), the Council must obtain the Secretary of State’s consent before—
 - (a) sending the report to any person other than the Secretary of State; or
 - (b) publishing the report.

112L Interpretation of Part 5A

- (1) In this Part—
 - “domestic coach service” means a bus service which—
 - (a) carries passengers at separate fares; and
 - (b) is not a local service;
 - “local traffic authority” has the meaning given by section 121A of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984;
 - “local transport authority” has the meaning given by section 108(4) of the Transport Act 2000;
