77 Acquisition of target company's share capital U.K.

- (1) Stamp duty under [F62Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (conveyance or transfer on sale)] shall not be chargeable on an instrument transferring shares in one company (the target company) to another company (the acquiring company) if the conditions mentioned in subsection (3) below are fulfilled.
- (2) An instrument on which stamp duty is not chargeable by virtue only of subsection (1) above shall not be taken to be duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would be liable but for that subsection or it has, in accordance with section 12 of the Stamp Act 1891, been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.
- (3) The conditions are that —
 - (a) the registered office of the acquiring company is in the United Kingdom,
 - (b) the transfer forms part of an arrangement by which the acquiring company acquires the whole of the issued share capital of the target company,
 - (c) the acquisition is effected for bona fide commercial reasons and does not form part of a scheme or arrangement of which the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, is avoidance of liability to stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, income tax, corporation tax or capital gains tax,
 - (d) the consideration for the acquisition consists only of the issue of shares in the acquiring company to the shareholders of the target company,
 - (e) after the acquisition has been made, each person who immediately before it was made was a shareholder of the target company is a shareholder of the acquiring company,
 - (f) after the acquisition has been made, the shares in the acquiring company are of the same classes as were the shares in the target company immediately before the acquisition was made,
 - (g) after the acquisition has been made, the number of shares of any particular class in the acquiring company bears to all the shares in that company the same proportion as the number of shares of that class in the target company bore to all the shares in that company immediately before the acquisition was made, and
 - (h) after the acquisition has been made, the proportion of shares of any particular class in the acquiring company held by any particular shareholder is the same as the proportion of shares of that class in the target company held by him immediately before the acquisition was made.
- (4) In this section references to shares and to share capital include references to stock.
- (5) This section applies to any instrument executed on or after 1st August 1986.

subsections (2) to (4A) apply.

(1D) The conditions referred to in subsection (1C) are—

(a) that, in relation to the transfer made in pursuance of the own-shares agreement, a return has been made in respect of each of those shares in accordance with section 169(1) or (1B) of the Companies Act 1985 (disclosure by company of purchase of own shares), and

(b) that any such return has been duly stamped in accordance with section 66.]

(2) If any of the tax charged has been paid, and a claim for repayment is made within the period of six years mentioned in subsection (1) [^{F145}or, as the case may be, (1C)] above, the tax paid shall be repaid; and where the tax paid is not less than £25 it shall be repaid with interest on it at the [^{F146}rate applicable under section 178 of the Finance Act 1989] from the time it was paid.

(3) To the extent that the tax charged has not been paid, the charge shall be cancelled by virtue of this subsection.

96 Clearance services U.K.

- (1) Subject to subsection (5) below and [F169 sections 97 and 97A] below, there shall be a charge to stamp duty reserve tax under this section where —
- (a) a person (A) whose business is or includes the provision of clearance services for the purchase and sale of chargeable securities has entered into an arrangement to provide such clearance services for another person, and
 - (b) in pursuance of the arrangement, chargeable securities are transferred or issued to A or to a person whose business is or includes holding chargeable securities as nominee for A.
- (2) Subject to subsections F170(4) and below, tax under this section shall be charged at the rate of [F171 1.5 per cent.] of the following —
- (a) in a case where the securities are issued, their price when issued;
 - (b) in a case where the securities are transferred for consideration in money or money's worth, the amount or value of the consideration;
 - (c) in any other case, the value of the securities.
- (3) F172
- (4) In a case where —
- (a) securities are issued, or securities sold are transferred, and (in either case) they are to be paid for in instalments,
 - (b) the person to whom they are issued or transferred holds them and transfers them to another person when the last instalment is paid,
 - (c) subsection (2)(c) above applies in the case of the transfer to the other person,

- (d) before the making of the transfer to the other person an instrument is received by A or a person whose business is or includes holding chargeable securities as nominee for A,
 - (e) the instrument so received evidences all the rights which (by virtue of the terms under which the securities are issued or sold as mentioned in paragraph (a) above) subsist in respect of them at the time of the receipt, and
 - (f) the transfer to the other person is effected by an instrument containing a statement that paragraphs (a), (b) and (e) above are fulfilled,
- subsection (2)(c) above shall have effect as if the reference to the value there mentioned were to an amount (if any) equal to the total of the instalments payable, less those paid before the transfer to the other person is effected.
- (5) Where tax is (or would apart from this subsection be) charged under this section in respect of a transfer of securities and ad valorem stamp duty is chargeable on any instrument effecting the transfer, then —
 - (a) if the amount of the duty is less than the amount of tax found by virtue of F173 subsections (2) and above, the tax charged under this section shall be the amount so found less the amount of the duty;
 - (b) in any other case, there shall be no charge to tax under this section in respect of the transfer.
 - (6) Where tax is charged under the preceding provisions of this section, the person liable for the tax shall (subject to subsection (7) below) be A.
 - (7) Where tax is charged under the preceding provisions of this section in a case where securities are transferred to a person other than A, and at the time of the transfer A is not resident in the United Kingdom and has no branch or agency in the United Kingdom, the person liable for the tax shall be the person to whom the securities are transferred.
 - (8) Where chargeable securities are issued or transferred on sale under terms providing for payment in instalments and for an issue of other chargeable securities, and (apart from this subsection) tax would be charged under this section in respect of that issue, tax shall not be so charged but —
 - (a) if any of the instalments becomes payable by A or by a person whose business is or includes holding chargeable securities as nominee for A, there shall be a charge to stamp duty reserve tax under this section when the instalment becomes payable;
 - (b) the charge shall be at the rate of [F174 1.5 per cent. of the amount] of the instalment payable;
 - (c) the person liable to pay the instalment shall be liable for the tax.
 - (9) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above the value of any consideration not consisting of money shall be taken to be the price it might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale in the open market at the time the securities are transferred.
 - (10) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c) above the value of securities shall be taken to be the price they might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale in the open market at the time they are transferred.

[^{F184}97A Clearance services: election for alternative system of charge. U.K.

- (1) A person whose business is or includes the provision of clearance services for the purchase and sale of chargeable securities or relevant securities (an “operator”) may, with the approval of the Board, elect that stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax shall be chargeable in accordance with this section in connection with those clearance services.
- (2) An election under subsection (1) above—
 - (a) shall come into force on such date as may be notified to the operator by the Board in giving their approval; and
 - (b) shall continue in force unless and until it is terminated in accordance with the following provisions of this section.
- (3) If and so long as an election under subsection (1) above is in force, stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax (as the case may require) shall, in connection with the clearance services to which the election relates, be chargeable in relation to—
 - (a) a transfer or issue falling within section 70(1) or 96(1) above,
 - (b) an agreement falling within section 90(4) above by virtue of section 96(1) above, or
 - (c) an agreement falling within section 90(5) above, as it would be chargeable apart from sections 70, 90(4) and (5) and 96 above.
- (4) Where stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is chargeable by virtue of subsection (3) above in relation to a transfer, issue or agreement, sections 70, 90(4) and (5) and 96 above shall not have effect in relation to that transfer, issue or agreement.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) above affects the application of section 70 or 96 above in relation to a transfer falling within section 70(1) or 96(1) above by the operator or his nominee to, or to a nominee of, another operator in relation to whom no election under subsection (1) above is for the time being in force.
- (6) The Board may require the operator, as a condition of the approval of his election under subsection (1) above, to make and maintain such arrangements as they may consider satisfactory—
 - (a) for the collection of stamp duty reserve tax chargeable in accordance with this section, and
 - (b) for complying, or securing compliance, with the provisions of this Part and of regulations under section 98 below, so far as relating to such tax.

- (7) Where the operator is not resident in the United Kingdom and has no branch or agency in the United Kingdom, the Board may require him, as a condition of the approval of his election under subsection (1) above, to appoint and, so long as the election remains in force, maintain a tax representative.
- (8) A person shall not be an operator's tax representative under this section unless that person—
- (a) has a business establishment in the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) is approved by the Board.
- (9) A person who is at any time an operator's tax representative under this section—
- (a) shall be entitled to act on the operator's behalf for the purposes of stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax in connection with the clearance services to which the operator's election under subsection (1) above relates,
 - (b) shall secure (where appropriate by acting on the operator's behalf) the operator's compliance with and discharge of the obligations and liabilities to which the operator is subject, in connection with the clearance services to which the operator's election under subsection (1) above relates, by virtue of legislation relating to stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax (including obligations and liabilities arising before he became the operator's tax representative), and
 - (c) shall be personally liable in respect of any failure to secure the operator's compliance with or discharge of any such obligation or liability, and in respect of anything done for purposes connected with acting on the operator's behalf, as if the obligations and liabilities imposed on the operator were imposed jointly and severally on the tax representative and the operator.
- (10) An election under subsection (1) above may be terminated—
- (a) by not less than thirty days' notice given by the operator to the Board or by the Board to the operator; or
 - (b) if there is or has been a breach of a condition of the approval of the election imposed by virtue of subsection (6) or (7) above, by a notice—
 - (i) given by the Board to the operator,
 - (ii) taking effect on the giving of the notice or at such later time as may be specified in the notice, and
 - (iii) stating that it is given by reason of the breach of condition.
- (11) Where an election under subsection (1) above is terminated, section 96 above shall have effect as if chargeable securities of the same amounts and kinds as are, immediately before the termination, held by the operator or his nominee in connection with the provision of the clearance services, had, immediately after the termination, been transferred to the operator or, as the case may be, to the nominee by a transfer falling within subsection (1) of that section.
- (12) In this section "relevant securities" has the same meaning as in section 70 above.
- [Nothing in section 70(9) or 97(1) above has effect to prevent a charge to stamp duty
- ^{F185}(13) or stamp duty reserve tax arising—

(1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

[^{F188}(1A) “Bearer instrument” has the same meaning as in Schedule 15 to the Finance Act 1999. An instrument is a “UK bearer instrument” or “non-UK bearer instrument” according to whether it is issued by or on behalf of a UK company or a non-UK company within the meaning of that Schedule.]

(2) “The Board” means the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

[^{F189}(3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, “chargeable securities” means —

- (a) stocks, shares or loan capital,
- (b) interests in, or in dividends or other rights arising out of, stocks, shares or loan capital,
- (c) rights to allotments of or to subscribe for, or options to acquire, stocks, shares or loan capital, and
- (d) units under a unit trust scheme.

(4) “Chargeable securities” does not include securities falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (3) above which are issued or raised by a body corporate not incorporated in the United Kingdom unless —

- (a) they are registered in a register kept in the United Kingdom by or on behalf of the body corporate by which they are issued or raised, or
- (b) in the case of shares, they are paired with shares issued by a body corporate incorporated in the United Kingdom, or
- (c) in the case of securities falling within paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (3) above, paragraph (a) or (b) above applies to the stocks, shares or loan capital to which they relate [^{F190}, or 100 Capital transfer tax to be known as inheritance tax. U.K.

- (1) On and after the passing of this Act, the tax charged under the Capital Transfer Tax Act 1984 (in this Part of this Act referred to as “the 1984 Act”) shall be known as inheritance tax and, accordingly, on and after that passing,—
- (a) the 1984 Act may be cited as the Inheritance Tax Act 1984 ; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (2) below, any reference to capital transfer tax in the 1984 Act, in any other enactment passed before or in the same Session as this Act or in any document executed, made, served or issued on or before the passing of this Act or at any time thereafter shall have effect as a reference to inheritance tax.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) above does not apply where the reference to capital transfer tax relates to a liability arising before the passing of this Act.
- (3) In the following provisions of this Part of this Act, any reference to tax except where it is a reference to a named tax is a reference to inheritance tax and, in so far as it occurs in a provision which relates to a time before the passing of this Act, includes a reference to capital transfer tax.

101 Lifetime transfers potentially exempt etc. U.K.

- (1) The 1984 Act shall have effect subject to the amendments in Part I of Schedule 19 to this Act, being amendments—
- (a) removing liability for tax on certain transfers of value where the transfer occurs at least seven years before the transferor’s death;
 - (b) providing for one Table of rates of tax;
 - (c) abolishing exemptions for mutual transfers;
 - (d) making provision with respect to the amounts of tax to be charged on transfers occurring before the death of the transferor;
 - (e) making provision with respect to the application of relief under Chapter I (business property) and Chapter II (agricultural property) of Part V of the 1984 Act to such transfers; and
 - (f) reducing the period during which the values transferred by chargeable transfers are aggregates from ten years to seven;
- and amendments making provisions consequential on or incidental to the matters referred to above and to sections 102 and 103 below.

102 Gifts with reservation. U.K.

- (1) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) below, this section applies where, on or after 28th March 1986, an individual disposes of any property by way of gift and either—
- (a) possession and enjoyment of the property is not bona fide assumed by the donee at or before the beginning of the relevant period; or
 - (b) at any time in the relevant period the property is not enjoyed to the entire exclusion, or virtually to the entire exclusion, of the donor and of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise;
- and in this section “the relevant period” means a period ending on the date of the donor’s death and beginning seven years before that date or, if it is later, on the date of the gift.
- (2) If and so long as—
- (a) possession and enjoyment of any property is not bona fide assumed as mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above, or
 - (b) any property is not enjoyed as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above,
- the property is referred to (in relation to the gift and the donor) as property subject to a reservation.
- (3) If, immediately before the death of the donor, there is any property which, in relation to him, is property subject to a reservation then, to the extent that the property would not, apart from this section, form part of the donor’s estate immediately before his death, that property shall be treated for the purposes of the 1984 Act as property to which he was beneficially entitled immediately before his death.
- (4) If, at a time before the end of the relevant period, any property ceases to be property subject to a reservation, the donor shall be treated for the purposes of the 1984 Act as having at that time made a disposition of the property by a disposition which is a potentially exempt transfer.
- (5) This section does not apply if or, as the case may be, to the extent that the disposal of the property by way of gift is an exempt transfer by virtue of any of the following provisions of Part II of the 1984 Act,—
- (a) section 18 (transfers between spouses [^{F205}or civil partners]) [^{F206}], except as provided by subsections (5A) and (5B) below;
 - (b) section 20 (small gifts);
 - (c) section 22 (gifts in consideration of marriage [^{F207}or civil partnership]);
 - (d) section 23 (gifts to charities);
 - (e) section 24 (gifts to political parties);
 - [^{F208}(ee) section 24A (gifts to housing associations);]

Status: Point in time view as at 22/03/2006.

- (f) section 25 (gifts for national purposes, etc);
- ^{F209}(g)
- (h) section 27 (maintenance funds for historic buildings); and
- (i) section 28 (employee trusts).

[^{F210}(5A) Subsection (5)(a) above does not prevent this section from applying if or, as the case may be, to the extent that—

- (a) the property becomes settled property by virtue of the gift,
- (b) by reason of the donor’s spouse [^{F211}or civil partner] (“the relevant beneficiary”) becoming beneficially entitled to an interest in possession in the settled property, the disposal is or, as the case may be, is to any extent an exempt transfer by virtue of section 18 of the 1984 Act in consequence of the operation of section 49 of that Act (treatment of interests in possession),
- (c) at some time after the disposal, but before the death of the donor, the relevant beneficiary’s interest in possession comes to an end, and
- (d) on the occasion on which that interest comes to an end, the relevant beneficiary does not become beneficially entitled to the settled property or to another interest in possession in the settled property.

(5B) If or, as the case may be, to the extent that this section applies by virtue of subsection (5A) above, it has effect as if the disposal by way of gift had been made immediately after the relevant beneficiary’s interest in possession came to an end.

(5C) For the purposes of subsections (5A) and (5B) above—

- (a) section 51(1)(b) of the 1984 Act (disposal of interest in possession treated as coming to end of interest) applies as it applies for the purposes of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of that Act; and
- (b) references to any property or to an interest in any property include references to part of any property or interest.]

(6) This section does not apply if the disposal of property by way of gift is made under the terms of a policy issued in respect of an insurance made before 18th March 1986 unless the policy is varied on or after that date so as to increase the benefits secured or to extend the term of the insurance; and, for this purpose, any change in the terms of the policy which is made in pursuance of an option or other power conferred by the policy shall be deemed to be a variation of the policy.

(7) If a policy issued as mentioned in subsection (6) above confers an option or other power under which benefits and premiums may be increased to take account of increases in the retail price index (as defined in section 8(3) of the 1984 Act) or any similar index specified in the policy, then, to the extent that the right to exercise on or before 1st August 1986, the exercise of that option or power before that date shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (6) above.

(8) Schedule 20 to this Act has effect for supplementing this section.

F215 Ss. 102A, 102B, 102C inserted (27.7.1999) by 1999 c. 16, s. 104

F216 102C Sections 102A and 102B: supplemental. U.K.

- (1) In sections 102A and 102B above “the relevant period” has the same meaning as in section 102 above.
- (2) An interest or share disposed of is not property subject to a reservation under section 102A(2) or 102B(2) above if or, as the case may be, to the extent that the disposal is an exempt transfer by virtue of any of the provisions listed in section 102(5) above.
- (3) In applying sections 102A and 102B above no account shall be taken of—
 - (a) occupation of land by a donor, or
 - (b) an arrangement which enables land to be occupied by a donor, in circumstances where the occupation, or occupation pursuant to the arrangement, would be disregarded in accordance with paragraph 6(1)(b) of Schedule 20 to this Act.
- (4) The provisions of Schedule 20 to this Act, apart from paragraph 6, shall have effect for the purposes of sections 102A and 102B above as they have effect for the purposes of section 102 above; and any question which falls to be answered under section 102A or 102B above in relation to an interest in land shall be determined by reference to the interest which is at that time treated as property comprised in the gift.
- (5) Where property other than an interest in land is treated by virtue of paragraph 2 of that Schedule as property comprised in a gift, the provisions of section 102 above shall apply to determine whether or not that property is property subject to a reservation.
- (6) Sections 102 and 102A above shall not apply to a case to which section 102B above applies.
- (7) Section 102A above shall not apply to a case to which section 102 above applies.

103 Treatment of certain debts and incumbrances. U.K.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, if, in determining the value of a person’s estate immediately before his death, account would be taken, apart from this subsection, of a liability consisting of a debt incurred by him or an incumbrance created by a disposition made by him, that liability shall be subject to abatement to an extent

Status: Point in time view as at 22/03/2006.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. proportionate to the value of any of the consideration given for the debt or incumbrance which consisted of—

- (a) property derived from the deceased; or
 - (b) consideration (not being property derived from the deceased) given by any person who was at the time entitled to, or amongst whose resources there were at any time included, any property derived from the deceased.
- (2) If, in the case where the whole or part of the consideration given for a debt or incumbrance consisted of such consideration as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b) above, it is shown that the value of the consideration given, or of that part thereof, as the case may be, exceeded that which could have been rendered available by application of all the property derived from the deceased, other than such (if any) of that property—
 - (a) as is included in the consideration given, or
 - (b) as to which it is shown that the disposition of which it, or the property which it represented, was the subject matter was not made with reference to, or with a view to enabling or facilitating, the giving of the consideration or the recoupment in any manner of the cost thereof, no abatement shall be made under subsection (1) above in respect of the excess.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2) above “property derived from” means, subject to subsection (4) below, any property which was the subject matter of a disposition made by the deceased, either by himself alone or in concert or by arrangement with any other person or which represented any of the subject matter of such a disposition, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by virtue of one or more intermediate dispositions.
- (4) If the disposition first-mentioned in subsection (3) above was not a transfer of value and it is shown that the disposition was not part of associated operations which included—
 - (a) a disposition by the deceased, either alone or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, otherwise than for full consideration in money or money’s worth paid to the deceased for his own use or benefit; or
 - (b) a disposition by any other person operating to reduce the value of the property of the deceased,that first-mentioned disposition shall be left out of account for the purposes of subsections (1) to (3) above.
- (5) If, before a person’s death but on or after 18th March 1986, money or money’s worth is paid or applied by him—
 - (a) in or towards the satisfaction or discharge of a debt or incumbrance in the case of which subsection (1) above would have effect on his death if the debt or incumbrance had not been satisfied or discharged, or
 - (b) in reduction of debt or incumbrance in the case of which that subsection has effect on his death,the 1984 Act shall have effect as if, at the time of the payment or application, the person concerned had made a transfer of value equal to the money or money’s worth and that transfer were a potentially exempt transfer.
- (6) Any reference in this section to a debt is a reference to a debt incurred on or after 18th March 1986 and any reference to an incumbrance created by a disposition is a reference to an incumbrance created by an disposition made on or after that date; and in this section “subject matter” includes, in relation to any disposition, any annual or periodical payment made or payable under or by virtue of the disposition

- (7) In determining the value of a person's estate immediately before his death, no account shall be taken (by virtue of section 5 of the 1984 Act) of any liability arising under or in connection with a policy of life insurance issued in respect of an insurance made on or after 1st July 1986 unless the whole of the sums assured under that policy form part of that person's estate immediately before his death.

104 Regulations for avoiding double charges etc. U.K.

- (1) For the purposes of the 1984 Act the Board may by regulations make such provision as is mentioned in subsection (2) below with respect to transfers of value made, and other events occurring, on or after 18th March 1986 where—
- (a) a potentially exempt transfer proves to be a chargeable transfer and, immediately before the death of the transferor, his estate includes property acquired by him from the transferee otherwise than for full consideration in money or money's worth;
 - (b) an individual disposes of property by a transfer of value which is or proves to be a chargeable transfer and the circumstances are such that subsection (3) or subsection (4) of section 102 above applies to the property as being or having been property subject to a reservation;
 - (c) in determining the value of a person's estate immediately before his death, a liability of his to any person is abated as mentioned in section 103 above and, before his death, the deceased made a transfer of value by virtue of which the estate of that other person was increased or by virtue of which property becomes comprised in a settlement of which that other person is a trustee; or
 - (d) the circumstances are such as may be specified in the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, being circumstances appearing to the Board to be similar to those referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) above.
- (2) The provision which may be made by regulations under this section is provision for either or both of the following,—
- (a) treating the value transferred by a transfer of value as reduced by reference to the value transferred by another transfer of value ; and
 - (b) treating the whole or any part of the tax paid or payable on the value transferred by a transfer of value as a credit against the tax payable on the value transferred by another transfer of value.
- (3) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.

105 Application of business and agricultural relief where transfer partly exempt. U.K.

With respect to transfers of value made on or after 18th March 1986, after section 39 of the 1984 Act there shall be inserted the following section—

“39A Operation of sections 38 and 39 in cases of business or agricultural relief.

- (1) Where any part of the value transferred by a transfer of value is attributable to—
- (a) the value of the relevant business property, or

- (b) the agricultural value of agricultural property, then, for the purpose of attributing the value transferred (as reduced in accordance with section 104 or 116 below), to specific gifts and gifts of residue, sections 38 and 39 above shall have effect subject to the following provisions of this section.
- (2) The value of any specific gifts of relevant business property or agricultural property shall be taken to be their value as reduced in accordance with section 104 or 116 below.
- (3) The value of any specific gifts not falling within subsection (2) above shall be taken to be the appropriate fraction of their value.
- (4) In subsection (3) above “the appropriate fraction” means a fraction of which—
- (a) the numerator is the difference between the value transferred and the value, reduced as mentioned in subsection (2) above, of any gifts falling within that subsection, and
- (b) the denominator is the difference between the unreduced value transferred and the value, before the reduction mentioned in subsection (2) above, of any gifts falling within that subsection;
- and in paragraph (b) above “the unreduced value transferred” means the amount which would be the value transferred by the transfer but for the reduction required by sections 104 and 116 below.
- (5) If or to the extent that specific gifts fall within paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of section 38 above, the amount corresponding to the value of the gifts shall be arrived at in accordance with subsections (3) to (5) of that section by reference to their value reduced as mentioned in subsection (2) or, as the case may be, subsection (3) of this section.
- (6) For the purposes of this section the value of a specific gift of relevant business property or agricultural property does not include the value of any other gift out of that property; and that other gift shall not itself be treated as a specific gift of relevant business property or agricultural property.
- (7) In this section—
- “agricultural property” and “the agricultural value of agricultural property” have the samemeaning as in Chapter II of Part V of this Act; and
- “relevant business property” has the same meaing as in Chapter I of that Part.”

106 Changes in financial institutions business property. U.K.

- (1) In section 105 of the 1984 Act (relevant business property) the following shall be substituted for subsection (4)(a)—

OIL TAXATION

108 The on-shore/off-shore boundary. U.K.

- (1) For the purposes of the enactments relating to oil taxation, land lying between the landward boundary of the territorial sea and the shoreline of the United Kingdom (as defined below) shall be treated as part of the bed of the territorial sea of the United Kingdom and any reference in those enactments to the territorial sea or the subsoil beneath it shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) Any reference to the United Kingdom in the enactments relating to oil taxation, where that reference is a reference to a geographical area, shall be treated as a reference to the United Kingdom exclusive of the land referred to in subsection (1) above and of any waters for the time being covering that land.
- (3) In this section—

- (a) “the landward boundary of the territorial sea” means the line for the time being ordered by Her Majesty in Council to be the baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured; and
 - (b) “the shoreline of the United Kingdom” means, subject to subsection (4) below, the high-water line along the coast, including the coast of all islands comprised in the United Kingdom.
- (4) In the case of waters adjacent to a bay, as defined in the Territorial Waters Order in Council 1964, the shoreline means—
- (a) if the bay has only one mouth and the distance between the high-water lines of the natural entrance points of the bay does not exceed 5,000 metres, a straight line joining those high-water lines;
 - (b) if, because of the presence of islands, the bay has more than one mouth and the distances between the high-water lines of the natural entrance points of each mouth added together do not exceed 5,000 metres, a series of straight lines across each of the mouths drawn so as to join those high-water lines; and
 - (c) if neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) above applies, a straight line 5,000 metres in length drawn from high-water line to high-water line within the bay in such a manner as to enclose the maximum area of water that is possible with a line of that length.
- (5) If, by virtue of this section, it becomes necessary at any time to establish the high-water line at any place, it shall be taken to be the line which, on the current Admiralty chart showing that place, is depicted as “the coastline”, and for this purpose,—
- (a) an Admiralty chart means a chart published under the superintendence of the Hydrographer of the Navy;
 - (b) if there are two or more Admiralty charts of different scales showing the place in question and depicting the coastline, account shall be taken only of the largest scale chart; and
 - (c) subject to paragraph (b) above, the current Admiralty chart at any time is that most recently published before that time.
- (6) In this section “the enactments relating to oil taxation” means Part I of the ^{M45}Oil Taxation Act 1975 and any enactment which is to be construed as one with that Part.
- (7) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on 1st April 1986.

to any such light gases, any reference to market value in any other provision of the Oil Taxation Acts shall be construed accordingly.

- (2) No election may be made under this section in respect of light gases which are “ethane” as defined in subsection (6)(a) of section 134 of the ^{M46}Finance Act 1982 (alternative valuation of ethane used for petrochemical purposes) if the principal purpose for which the gases are being or are to be used is that specified in subsection (2)(b) of the said section 134 (use for petrochemical purposes).
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, an election under this section applies only to light gases—
 - (a) which, during the period covered by the election, are either disposed of otherwise than in sales at arm’s length or relevantly appropriated; and
 - (b) which are not subject to fractionation between the time at which they are so disposed of or appropriated and the time at which they are applied or used for the purposes specified in the election.
- (4) In any case where,—
 - (a) at a time during the period covered by an election, a market value falls to be determined for light gases to which subsection (4)(b) or (5)(d) of section 2 of the principal Act applies (oil stocks at the end of chargeable periods), and
 - (b) after the expiry of the chargeable period in question, the light gases are disposed of or appropriated as mentioned in subsection (3) above,the market value of those light gases at the time referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be determined as if they were gases to which the election applies.
- (5) Schedule 18 to the ^{M47}Finance Act 1982 (which applies to elections under section 134 of that Act relating to ethane used or to be used for petrochemical purposes) shall have effect for supplementing this section but subject to the modifications in Schedule 21 to this Act (in which “the 1982 Schedule” means the said Schedule 18).
- (6) This section shall be construed as one with Part I of the principal Act and in this section—
 - (a) “light gases” means oil consisting of gas of which the largest component by volume over any chargeable period is methane or ethane or a combination of those gases and which—
 - (i) results from the fractionation of gas before it is disposed of or appropriated as mentioned in subsection (3)(a) above, or
 - (ii) before being so disposed of or appropriated, is not subjected to initial treatment or is subjected to initial treatment which does not include fractionation;
 - (b) “the principal Act” means the ^{M48}Oil Taxation Act 1975; and
 - (c) “the Oil Taxation Acts” means Part I of the principal Act and any enactment which is to be construed as one with that Part.
- (7) In this section “fractionation” means the treatment of gas in order to separate gas of one or more kinds as mentioned in paragraph 2A(3) of Schedule 3 to the principal Act; and for the purposes of subsection (6)(a) above,—
 - (a) the proportion of methane, ethane or a combination of the two in any gas shall be determined at a temperature of 15[2B]dgC and at a pressure of one atmosphere; and
 - (b) any component other than methane, ethane or liquified petroleum gas shall be disregarded.
