SCHEDULE 6

Section 9.

CONSIDERATION FOR FUEL SUPPLIED FOR PRIVATE USE

- 1 This Schedule has effect to determine the consideration referred to in subsection (7) of section 9 of this Act in respect of any one vehicle; and in this Schedule—
- (a) “the principal section” means that section;
 - (b) “the prescribed accounting period” means that in respect of supplies in which the consideration is to be determined; and
 - (c) “the individual” means the individual to whom those supplies are treated as made.
- 2 (1) Subject to paragraph 3 below, where the prescribed accounting period is a period of three months, the consideration appropriate to any vehicle is that specified in relation to a vehicle of the appropriate description in the second column of Table A below.
- (2) Subject to paragraph 3 below, where the prescribed accounting period is a period of one month, the consideration appropriate to any vehicle is that specified in relation to a vehicle of the appropriate description in the third column of Table A below.

TABLE A

Cylinder capacity of vehicle in cubic centimetres	3 month period	1 month period
1400 or less	120	40
More than 1400 but not more than 2000	150	50
More than 2000	225	75

- 3 (1) If in the prescribed accounting period a vehicle is used by the individual referred to in subsection (7) of the principal section for the purposes of business travel to the extent of at least 4500 miles or, if the prescribed accounting period is a period of one month, 1500 miles, then paragraph 2 above shall have effect as if for any reference therein to Table A there were substituted a reference to Table B below.
- (2) Where, by virtue of subsection (8) of the principal section, subsection (7) of that section has effect as if, in the prescribed accounting period, supplies of fuel for private use made in respect of two or more vehicles were made in respect of only one vehicle, sub-paragraph (1) above shall have effect as if the reference to a vehicle were a reference to those two or more vehicles taken together.

- (3) In this paragraph “business travel” means travelling which an individual is necessarily obliged to do in the performance of the duties of his employment, the partnership or, in the case of the taxable person himself, his business.

TABLE B

Cylinder capacity of vehicle in cubic centimetres	3 month period	1 month period
1400 or less	60	20
More than 1400 but not more than 2000	75	25
More than 2000	113	38

- 4 The Treasury may by order taking effect from the beginning of any prescribed accounting period beginning after the order is made substitute a different Table for either of the Tables set out above.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Sch. 6 para. 4 amended (27.7.1993) by 1993 c. 34, s. 43(3).

- 5 (1) Where, by virtue of subsection (8) of the principal section, subsection (7) of that section has effect as if, in the prescribed accounting period, supplies of fuel for private use made in respect of two or more vehicles were made in respect of only one vehicle, the consideration appropriate shall be determined as follows—
- if each of the two or more vehicles falls within the same description of cubic capacity specified in Table A or Table B above, the Table in question shall apply as if only one of the vehicles were to be considered throughout the whole period; and
 - if one of those vehicles falls within a description of cubic capacity specified in those Tables which is different from the other or others the consideration shall be the aggregate of the relevant fractions of the consideration appropriate for each description of vehicle under the Table in question.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b) above, the relevant fraction in relation to any vehicle is that which the part of the prescribed accounting period in which fuel for private use was supplied in respect of that vehicle bears to the whole of that period.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

SCHEDULE 19

Section 101.

INHERITANCE TAX

PART I

AMENDMENTS OF 1984 ACT

1 After section there shall be inserted the following section—

“3A Potentially exempt transfers.

- (1) Any reference in this Act to a potentially exempt transfer is a reference to a transfer of value—
- (a) which is made by an individual on or after 18th March 1986; and
 - (b) which, apart from this section, would be a chargeable transfer (or to the extent to which, apart from this section, it would be such a transfer); and
 - (c) to the extent that it constitutes either a gift to another individual or a gift into an accumulation and maintenance trust or a disabled trust; but this subsection has effect subject to any provision of this Act which provides that a disposition (or transfer of value) of a particular description is not a potentially exempt transfer.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below, a transfer of value falls within subsection (1) (c) above, as a gift to another individual,—
- (a) to the extent that the value transferred is attributable to property which, by virtue of the transfer, becomes comprised in the estate of that other individual, otherwise than as settled property, or
 - (b) so far as that value is not attributable to property which becomes comprised in the estate of another person, to the extent that, by virtue of the transfer, the estate of that other individual is increased, otherwise than by an increase in the value of settled property comprised in this estate.
- (3) Subject to subsection (6) below, a transfer of value falls within subsection (1) (c) above, as a gift into an accumulation and maintenance trust or a disabled trust, to the extent that the value transferred is attributable to property which, by virtue of the transfer, becomes settled property to which section 71 or 89 of this Act applies.
- (4) A potentially exempt transfer which is made seven years or more before the death of the transferor is an exempt transfer and any other potentially exempt transfer is a chargeable transfer.
- (5) During the period beginning on the date of a potentially exempt transfer and ending immediately before—
- (a) the seventh anniversary of that date, or
 - (b) if it is earlier, the death of the transferor,
- it shall be assumed for the purposes of this Act that the transfer will prove to be an exempt transfer.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where, under any provision of this Act, tax is in any circumstances to be charged as if a transfer of value had been made, that transfer shall be taken to be a transfer which is not a potentially exempt transfer.”
- 2 (1) In section 7 (rates of tax), in subsection (1)—
 - (a) at the beginning there shall be inserted the words “Subject to subsections (2), (4) and (5) below”;
 - (b) for the words “ten years” there shall be substituted “ seven years ”; and
 - (c) the word “appropriate” shall be omitted.
- (2) For subsection (2) of that section there shall be substituted the following subsection—

“(2) Except as provided by subsection (4) below, the tax charged on the value transferred by a chargeable transfer made before the death of the transferor shall be charged at one-half of the rate or rates referred to in subsection (1) above.”
- (3) In subsection (3) of that section for the words “each of the Tables” there shall be substituted “ Table ”.
- (4) After subsection (3) of that section there shall be inserted the following subsections—

“(4) Subject to subsection (5) below, subsection (2) does not apply in the case of a chargeable transfer made at any time within the period of seven years ending with the death of the transferor but, in the case of a chargeable transfer made within that period but more than three years before the death, the tax charged on the value transferred shall be charged at the following percentage of the rate or rates referred to in subsection (1) above—

 - (a) where the transfer is made more than three but not more than four years before the death, 80 per cent;
 - (b) where the transfer is made more than four but not more than five years before the death, 60 per cent;
 - (c) where the transfer is made more than five but not more than six years before the death, 40 per cent; and
 - (d) where the transfer is made more than six but not more than seven years before the death, 20 per cent.

(5) If, in the case of a chargeable transfer made before the death of the transferor, the tax which would fall to be charged in accordance with subsection (4) above is less than the tax which would have been chargeable (in accordance with subsection (2) above) if the transferor had not died within the period of seven years beginning with the date of the transfer, subsection (4) above shall not apply in the case of that transfer.”
- 3 (1) In section 8 (indexation) in subsection (1) for the words “new Tables for the Tables” there shall be substituted “ a new Table for the Table ”.
- (2) F18

“113A Transfers within seven years before death of transferor.

- (1) Where any part of the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer which proves to be a chargeable transfer would (apart from this section) be reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, it shall not be so reduced unless the conditions in subsection (3) are satisfied.
- (2) Where—
- (a) any part of the value transferred by any chargeable transfer, other than a potentially exempt transfer, is reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, and
- (b) the transfer is made within seven years of the death of the transferor, then, unless the conditions in subsection (3) are satisfied, the additional tax chargeable by reason of the death shall be calculated as if the value transferred had not been so reduced.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsections (1) and (2) above are—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that the original property was owned by the transferee throughout the period beginning with the date of the chargeable transfer and ending with the death of the transferor; and
 - (b) that, in relation to a notional transfer of value made by the transferee immediately before the death, the original property would (apart from section 106 above) be relevant business property.
- (4) If the transferee has died before the transferor, the reference in subsection (3) above to the death of the transferor shall have effect as a reference to the death of the transferee.
- (5) If the conditions in subsection (3) above are satisfied only with respect to part of the original property, then—
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1) above, only a proportionate part of so much of the value transferred as is attributable to the original property shall be reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, and
 - (a) in a case falling within subsection (2) above, the additional tax shall be calculated as if only a proportionate part of so much of the value transferred was attributable to the original property had been so reduced.
- (6) Where any shares owned by the transferee immediately before the death in question—
- (a) would under any of the provisions of sections 77 to 86 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 be identified with the original property (or part of it), or
 - (b) were issued to him in consideration of the transfer of a business or interest in a business consisting of the original property (or part of it),
- they shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if they were the original property (or that part of it).
- (7) This section has effect subject to section 113B below.

- (8) In this section—

“the original property” means the property which was relevant business property in relation to the chargeable transfer referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2) above; and

“the transferee” means the person whose property the original property became on that chargeable transfer or, where on the transfer the original property became or remained settled property in which no qualifying interest in possession (within the meaning of Chapter III of Part III of this Act) subsists, the trustees of the settlement.

113B Application of section 113A to replacement property.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, this section applies where—
- (a) the transferee has disposed of all or part of the original property before the death of the transferor; and
 - (b) the whole of the consideration received by him for the disposal has been applied by him in acquiring other property (in this section referred to as “the replacement property”).

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (2) This section does not apply unless—
- (a) the replacement property is acquired, or binding contract for its acquisition is entered into, within twelve months after the disposal of the original property (or, as the case may be, the part concerned); and
 - (b) the disposal and acquisition are both made in transactions at arm's length or on terms such as might be expected to be included in a transaction at arm's length.
- (3) Where this section applies, the conditions in section 113A(3) above shall be taken to be satisfied in relation to the original property (or, as the case may be, the part concerned) if—
- (a) the replacement property is owned by the transferee immediately before the death of the transferor; and
 - (b) throughout the period beginning with the date of the chargeable transfer and ending with the death (disregarding any period between the disposal and acquisition) either the original property or the replacement property was owned by the transferee; and
 - (c) in relation to notional transfer of value made by the transferee immediately before the death, the replacement property would (apart from section 106 above) be relevant business property.
- (4) If the transferee has died before the transferor, any reference in subsections (1) to (3) above to the death of the transferor shall have effect as a reference to the death of the transferee.
- (5) In any case where—
- (a) all or part of the original property has been disposed of before the death of the transferor or is excluded by section 113 above from being relevant business property in relation to the notional transfer of value referred to in section 113A(b) above, and
 - (b) the replacement property is acquired, or a binding contract for its acquisition is entered into, after the death of the transferor but within twelve months after the disposal of the original property or part, and
 - (c) the transferor dies before the transferee,
- subsection (3) above shall have effect with the omission of paragraph (a), and as if any reference to a time immediately before the death of the transferor or to the death were a reference to the time when the replacement property is acquired.
- (6) Section 113A(6) above shall have effect in relation to the replacement property as it has effect in relation to the original property.
- (7) Where a binding contract for the disposal of any property is entered into at any time before the disposal of the property, the disposal shall be regarded for the purposes of subsections (2)(a) and (5)(b) above as taking place at that time.
- (8) In this section “the original property” and “the transferee” have the same meaning as in section 113A above.”

“124A Transfers within seven years before the death of the transferor.

- (1) Where any part of the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer which proves to be a chargeable transfer would (apart from this section) be reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, it shall be reduced unless the conditions in subsection (3) below are satisfied.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) any part of the value transferred by any chargeable transfer, other than a potentially exempt transfer, is reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, and
 - (b) the transfer is made within seven years of the death of the transferor, then, unless the conditions in subsection (3) below are satisfied, the additional tax chargeable by reason of the death shall be calculated as if the value transferred had not been so reduced.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsections (1) and (2) are—
 - (a) that the original property was owned by the transferee throughout the period beginning with the date of the chargeable transfer and ending with the death of the transferor (in this subsection referred to as “the relevant period”) and it is not at the time of the death subject to a binding contract for sale; and
 - (b) except in a case falling within paragraph (c) below, that the original property is agricultural property immediately before the death and has been occupied (by the transferee or another) for the purposes of agriculture throughout the relevant period; and
 - (c) where the original property consists of shares in or securities of a company, that throughout the relevant period the agricultural property to which section 116 above applies by virtue of section 122(1) above on the chargeable transfer was owned by the company and occupied (by the company or another) for the purposes of agriculture.
- (4) If the transferee has died before the transferor, the reference in subsection (3) above to the death of the transferor shall have effect as a reference to the death of the transferee.
- (5) If the conditions in subsection (3) above are satisfied only with respect to part of the original property, then,—
 - (a) in a case falling within subsection (1) above, only a proportionate part of so much of the value transferred as is attributable to the original property shall be reduced in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Chapter, and
 - (b) in a case falling within subsection (2) above, the additional tax shall be calculated as if only a proportionate part of so much of the value transferred as was attributable to the original property had been so reduced.
- (6) Where any shares owned by the transferee immediately before the death in question—

- (a) would under any of the provisions of section 77 to 86 of the Capital Gains Tax Act 1979 be identified with the original property (or part of it), or
 - (b) were issued to him in consideration of the transfer of agricultural property consisting of the original property or (part of it),
- they shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if they were the original property (or part of it).
- (7) This section has effect subject to section 124B below.
- (8) In this section—
- “the original property” means the property which, in relation to the chargeable transfer referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2) above, was either agricultural property to which section 116 above applied or shares or securities of a company owning agricultural property to which that section applies by virtue of section 122(1) above; and
 - “the transferee” means the person whose property the original property became on that chargeable transfer or, where on the transfer the original property became or remained settled property in which no qualifying interest in possession (within the meaning of Chapter III of Part III of this Act) subsists, the trustees of the settlement.

124B Application of section 124A to replacement property.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, this section applies where—
- (a) the transferee has disposed of all or part of the original property before the death of the transferor; and
 - (b) the whole of the consideration received by him for the disposal has been applied by him in acquiring other property (in this section referred to as “the replacement property”).
- (2) This section does not apply unless—
- (a) the replacement property is acquired, or binding contract for its acquisition is entered into, within twelve months after the disposal of the original property (or, as the case may be, the part concerned); and
 - (b) the disposal and acquisition are both made in transactions at arm’s length or on terms such as might be expected to be included in a transaction at arm’s length.
- (3) Where this section applies, the conditions in section 124A(3) above shall be taken to be satisfied in relation to the original property (or, as the case may be, the part concerned) if—
- (a) the replacement property is owned by the transferee immediately before the death of the transferor and is not at that time subject to a binding contract for sale; and
 - (b) throughout the period beginning with the date of the chargeable transfer and ending with the disposal, the original property was owned by the transferee and occupied (by the transferee or another) for the purposes of agriculture; and

- (c) throughout the period beginning with the date when the transferee acquired the replacement property and ending with the death, the replacement property was owned by the transferee and occupied (by the transferee or another) for the purposes of agriculture; and
 - (d) the replacement property is agricultural property immediately before the death.
 - (4) If the transferee has died before the transferor, any reference in subsections (1) to (3) above to the death of the transferor shall have effect as a reference to the death of the transferee.
 - (5) In any case where—
 - (a) all or part of the original property has been disposed of before the death of the transferor or is subject to a binding contract for sale at the time of the death, and
 - (b) the replacement property is acquired, or a binding contract for its acquisition is entered into, after the death of the transferor but within twelve months after the disposal of the original property or part, and
 - (c) the transferor dies before the transferee, subsection (3) above shall have effect with the omission of paragraphs (a) and (c), and as if any reference to a time immediately before the death of the transferor were a reference to the time when the replacement property is acquired.
 - (6) Section 124A(6) above shall have effect in relation to the replacement property as it has effect in relation to the original property.
 - (7) Where a binding contract for the disposal of any property is entered into at any time before the disposal of the property, the disposal shall be regarded for the purposes of subsections (2)(a) and (5)(b) above as taking place at that time.
 - (8) In this section “the original property” and “the transferee” have the same meaning as in section 124A above.”
- 23 (1) In section 131 (relief in respect of additional tax payable on transfers within three years of death), in subsection (1) for the words from “(by virtue” to “transfer and” there shall be substituted “ because of the transferor’s death within seven years of the transfer, tax becomes chargeable in respect of the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer or (by virtue of section 7(4) above) additional tax becomes chargeable in respect of the value transferred by any other chargeable transfer and (in either case) ”.
- (2) In subsection (2) of that section for the words “additional tax” in each place where they occur, there shall be substituted “ the tax or, as the case may be, additional tax ”.
- (3) After that subsection there shall be inserted the following subsection—
 - “(2A) Where so much of the value transferred as is attributable to the value, or agricultural value, of the transferred property is reduced by any percentage (in this subsection referred to as “the appropriate percentage”), in accordance with Chapter I of this Part of this Act, references in subsection (2) above to the market value of the transferred property at any time shall have effect—
 - (a) in a case within chapter I, as references to that market value reduced by the appropriate percentage; and

- (b) in a case within Chapter II, as references to that market value less the appropriate percentage of the agricultural value of the transferred property at that time.”
- 24 In section 142 (alteration of dispositions taking effect on death) at the end of subsection (5) there shall be added “ or section 102 of the Finance Act 1986 ”.
- 25 Sections 148 and 149 (exemptions for mutual transfers) shall not apply if the donee’s transfer (as defined in section 148) is made on or after 18th March 1986.
- 26 In section 199 (liability for tax etc. on dispositions by transferor) for subsection (2) there shall be substituted the following subsection—
- “(2) Subsection (1)(a) above shall apply in relation to—
- (a) the tax on the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer; and
- (b) so much of the tax on the value transferred by any other chargeable transfer made within seven years of the transferor’s death as exceeds what it would have been had the transferor died more than seven years after the transfer,
- with the substitution for the reference to the transferor of a reference to his personal representatives.”
- 27 In section 201 (liability for tax in respect of settled property), in subsection (2) for the words “three years”, in each place where they occur, there shall be substituted “ seven years ”.
- 28 (1) In section 204 (limitation of liability), subsection (4) shall be omitted.
- (2) In subsection (6)(a) of that section, after the word “transferor” there shall be inserted “ or personal representative of the transferor ”.
- (3) For subsection (7) of that section there shall be substituted the following subsections—
- “(7>) Where the tax exceeds what it would have been had the transferor dies more than seven years after the transfer, subsection (6) above shall not apply in relation to the excess.
- (8) A person liable by virtue of section 199(2) above for any tax as personal representative of the transferor shall be liable only to the extent that either—
- (a) in consequence of subsections (2), (3) and (5) above, no person falling within paragraphs (b) to (d) of section 199(1) above is liable for the tax, or
- (b) the tax remains unpaid twelve months after the end of the month in which the death of the transferor occurs,
- and, subject to that, shall be liable to the extent of the assets mentioned in subsection (1) above.
- (9) Where by virtue of subsection (3) of section 102 of the Finance Act 1986 the estate of a deceased person is treated as including property which would not apart from that subsection form part of his estate, a person shall be liable under section 200(1)(a) above as personal representative for tax attributable to the value of the property only if the tax remains unpaid twelve months after the end of the month in which the death occurs and, subject to that, only to the extent of the assets mentioned in subsection (1) above.”

- “(bb) is liable under section 199(1)(b) above for tax on the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer which proves to be a chargeable transfer, or would be so liable if tax were chargeable on that value, or
 - (bc) is liable under section 200(1)(c) above for tax on the value transferred by a chargeable transfer made on death, so far as the tax is attributable to the value of the property which, apart from section 102(3) of the Finance Act 1986, would not form part of the deceased’s estate, or would be so liable if tax were chargeable on the value transferred on the death, or”
- (2) In subsection (3) of that section after the words “his death” there shall be inserted “other than property which would not, apart from section 102(3) of the Finance Act 1986, form part of his estate”.
- (3) In subsection (6) of that section after paragraph (a) there shall be inserted the following paragraphs—
- “(aa) in the case of an account to be delivered by a person within subsection (1)(bb) above, before the expiration of the period of twelve months from the end of the month in which the death occurs;
 - (ab) in the case of an account to be delivered by a person within subsection (1)(bc) above, before the expiration of the period of twelve months from the end of the month in which the death occurs”.
- 30 (1) In section 226 (payment: general rules), in subsection (3) for the words “three years”, in each place where they occur, there shall be substituted “seven years”.
- (2) After subsection (3) of that subsection there shall be inserted the following subsections—
- “(3A) Without prejudice to subsection (3) above, the tax chargeable on the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer which proves to be a chargeable transfer shall be due six months after the end of the month in which the transferor’s death occurs.
 - (3B) So much (if any) of the tax chargeable on the value transferred by a chargeable transfer made under Chapter III of Part III of this Act within the period of seven years ending with the settlor’s death as exceeds what it would have been had the settlor died more than seven years after the date of the transfer shall be due six months after the end of the month in which the death occurs.”
- 31 (1) In section 227 (payment by instalments) after subsection (1) there shall be inserted the following subsections—
- “(1A) Subsection (1) above does not apply to tax payable on the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer which proves to be a chargeable transfer, except to the extent that the tax is attributable to qualifying property which is owned by the transferee immediately before the death of the transferor (or, if earlier, his own death).
 - (1B) In subsection (1A) above “the transferee” means the person whose property the qualifying property became on the transfer or, where on the transfer the

- 38 (1) In Schedule 4 (maintenance funds for historic buildings etc.) in paragraph 14 (rates of charge) in sub-paragraphs (1) to (3), for the words “under the appropriate Table”, wherever occurring, there shall be substituted “ in accordance with the appropriate provision of section 7 of this Act ”.
- (2) After sub-paragraph (1) of that paragraph there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph—
- “(1A) The rate of tax determined under sub-paragraph (1) above in respect of any occasion shall not be affected by the death of the settlor after that occasion.”
- (3) In sub-paragraph (6) of that paragraph for the words “ten years” there shall be substituted “ seven years ”.
- (4) For sub-paragraph (9) of that paragraph there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph—
- “(9) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above the appropriate provision of section 7 of this Act is subsection (2), and for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) above it is (if the settlement was made on death) subsection (1) and (if not) subsection (2).”
- 39 In Schedule 6 (transition from estate duty) in paragraph 4(3) after the words “sections 33(7)” there shall be inserted the words “ and (8). ”

PART II

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

- 40 (1) Notwithstanding that Part of this Schedule has effect with respect to events occurring on or after 18th March 1986, where a death or other event occurs on or after that date, nothing in that Part shall affect the tax chargeable on a transfer of value occurring before that date.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not authorise the making of a claim under section 149 of the 1984 Act where the donee’s transfer, as defined in section 148 of that Act, occurs on or after 18th March 1986.
- 41 Where tax is chargeable under section 32 or section 32A of the 1984 Act by reason of a chargeable event occurring on or after 18th March 1986 and the rate or rates at which it is charged fall to be determined under the provisions of section 33(1)(b) (ii) of the 1984 Act by reference to a death which occurred before that date, those provisions shall apply (subject to paragraph 5 of Schedule 2 to that Act) as if the amendments of section 7 of, and Schedule 1 to, that Act contained in Part I of this Schedule had been in force at the time of the death.
- 42 Where tax is chargeable under paragraph 8 of Schedule 4 to the 1984 Act on any occasion on or after 18th March 1986 and the rate at which it is charged falls to be determined under paragraph 14 of that Schedule by reference to a death which occurred before that date, that paragraph shall apply (subject to paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act) as if the amendments of section 7 of, and Schedule 2 to, the 1984 Act contained in Part I of this Schedule had been in force at the time of the death.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- 43 (1) This paragraph applies if, in the case of a settlement,—
- (a) tax is charged under section 65 of the 1984 Act on an occasion falling on or after 18th March 1986; and
 - (b) the rate at which tax is so charged falls to be determined under section 69 of that Act (rate between ten-year anniversaries) by reference to the rate (in this paragraph referred to as “the last ten-year rate”) at which tax was last charged under section 64 of that Act (or would have been charged apart from section 66(2) there of); and
 - (c) the most recent ten-year anniversary fell before 18th March 1986.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the rate at which tax is charged on the occasion referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) above, it shall be assumed that the last ten-year rate was what that rate would have been if, immediately before the ten-year anniversary referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(c) above, the amendments of sections 66 and 67 of the 1984 Act contained in Part I of this Schedule had been in force.
- (3) Where this paragraph applies, paragraph 3 of Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act shall have effect as if—
- (a) references to a reduction included reference to a reduction by the substitution of a new Table in Schedule 1 to the 1984 Act; and
 - (b) in relation to a reduction resulting from the substitution of such a new Table, the reference to the second of the Tables in Schedule 1 to the 1984 Act were a reference to a Table in which the rates of tax were one-half of those specified in the new Table.
- (4) In this paragraph “ten-year anniversary” has the same meaning as in Chapter III of Part III of the 1984 Act.
- 44 In relation to a death on or after 18th March 1986, paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act (provisions applying on reduction of tax) shall have effect, in a case where the chargeable transfer in question was made before 18th March 1986, as if—
- (a) references to a reduction included references to a reduction by the substitution of a new Table in Schedule 1 to the 1984 Act; and
 - (b) the Table in Schedule 1 to the Act was the first Table in that Schedule.
- 45 In relation to a disposal of trees or underwood on or after 18th March 1986, paragraph 4 of Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act shall have effect, in a case where the death in question occurred before 18th March 1986, as mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 44 above.
- 46 Notwithstanding anything in section 3A of the 1984 Act, a transfer of value which is made on or after 1st July 1986 and which, by virtue of subsection (4) of section 49 of the ^{M17}Finance Act 1975 (transitional provision relating to estate duty deferment in respect of timber etc.), brings to an end of the period during which estate duty is payable on the net moneys received from the sale of timber etc. is not a potentially exempt transfer.

SCHEDULE 20

Section 102.

GIFTS WITH RESERVATION

Interpretation and application

- 1 (1) In this Schedule—
 - “the material date”, in relation to any property means, in the case of property falling within subsection (3) of the principal section, the date of the donor’s death and, in the case of property falling within subsection (4) of that section, the date on which the property ceases to be a property subject to a reservation;
 - “the principal section” means section 102 of this Act; and
 - “property subject to reservation” has the same meaning as in the principal section.
- (2) Any reference in this Schedule to a disposal by way of gift is a reference to such a disposal which is made on or after 18th March 1986.
- (3) This Schedule has effect for the purposes of the principal section and the 1984 Act.
- 2 (1) Where the disposal by way of gift and, at any time before the material date, the donee ceases to have possession and enjoyment of any of the property comprised in the gift, then on and after that time the principal section and the following provisions of this Schedule shall apply as if the property, if any, received by the donee in substitution for that property had been comprised in the gift instead of that property (but in addition to any other property comprised in the gift).
- (2) This paragraph does not apply if the property disposed of by the gift—
 - (a) becomes settled property by virtue of the gift; or
 - (b) is a sum of money in sterling or any other currency.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (1) above the reference to the property received by the donee in substitution for property comprised in the gift includes in particular—
 - (a) in relation to property sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of by the donee, any benefit received by him by way of consideration for the sale, exchange or other disposition; and
 - (b) in relation to a debt or security, any benefit received by the donee in or towards the satisfaction or redemption thereof; and
 - (c) in relation to any right to acquire property, any property acquired in pursuance of that right.
- (4) Where, at a time before the material date, the donee makes a gift of property comprised in the gift to him, or otherwise voluntarily divests himself of such property otherwise than for a consideration in money or money’s worth not less than the value of the property at that time, then, unless he does so in favour of the donor, he shall be treated for the purposes of the principal section and sub-paragraph (1) above as continuing to have possession and enjoyment of that property.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) above—
 - (a) a disposition made by the donee by agreement shall not be deemed to be made voluntarily if it is made to any authority who, when the agreement is made, is authorised by, or is or can be authorised under, any enactment to acquire the property compulsorily; and

- (b) a donee shall be treated as divesting himself, voluntarily and without consideration, of any interest in property which merges or is extinguished in another interest held or acquired by him in the same property.
- (6) Where any shares in or debentures of a body corporate are comprised in a gift and the donee is, as the holder of those shares or debentures, issued with shares in or debentures of the same or any other body corporate, or granted any right to acquire any such shares or debentures, then, unless the issue or grant is made by way of exchange for the first-mentioned shares or debentures, the shares or debentures so issued, or the right granted, shall be treated for the purposes of the principal section and this Schedule as having been comprised in the gift in addition to any other property so comprised.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) above the reference to an issue being made or right being granted to the donee as the holder of shares or debentures shall be taken to include any case in which an issue or grant is made to him as having been the holder of those shares or debentures, or is made to him in pursuance of an offer or invitation made to him as being or having been the holder of those shares or debentures, or of an offer or invitation in connection with which any preference is given to him as being or having been the holder thereof.
- 3 (1) Where either sub-paragraph (3)(c) or sub-paragraph (6) of paragraph 2 above applies to determine, for the purposes of the principal section, the property comprised in a gift made by the donor—
- (a) the value of any consideration in money or money's worth given by the donee for the acquisition in pursuance of the right referred to in the said sub-paragraph (3)(c) or for the issue or grant referred to in the said sub-paragraph (6), as the case may be, shall be allowed as a deduction in valuing the property comprised in the gift at any time after the consideration is given, but
- (b) if any part (not being a sum of money) of that consideration consists of property comprised in the same as another gift from the donor and treated for the purposes of the 1984 Act as forming part of the donor's estate immediately before his death or as being attributable to the value transferred by a potentially exempt transfer made by him, no deduction shall be made in respect of it under this sub-paragraph.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above, there shall be left out of account so much (if any) of the consideration for any shares in debentures of a body corporate, or for the grant of any right to be issued with any shares or debentures, as consists in the capitalisation of reserves of that body corporate, or in the retention by that body corporate, by way of set-off or otherwise, of any property distributable by it, or otherwise provided directly or indirectly out of the assets or at the expenses of that or any associated body corporate.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) above, two bodies corporate shall be deemed to be associated as if one has control of the other or if another person has control of both.

Donee predeceasing the material date

- 4 Where there is a disposal by way of gift and the donee dies before the date which is the material date in relation to any property comprised in the gift, paragraphs 2 and 3 above shall apply as if—

- (a) he had not dies and the acts of his personal representatives were his acts; and
- (b) property taken by another person under his testamentary dispositions or his intestacy (or partial intestacy) were taken under a gift made by him at the time of his death.

Settled gifts

- 5 (1) Where there is a disposal by way of gift and the property comprised in the gift becomes settled property by virtue of the gift, paragraphs 2 to 4 above shall not apply but, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, the principal section and the following provisions of this Schedule shall apply as if the property comprised in the gift consisted of the property comprised in the settlement on the material date, except in so far as that property neither is, not represents, nor is derived from, property originally comprised in the gift.
- (2) If the settlement comes to an end at some time before the material date as respects all or any of the property which, if the donor had dies immediately before that time, would be treated as comprised in the gift,—
- (a) the property in question other than property to which the donor then becomes absolutely and beneficially entitled in possession, and
 - (b) any consideration (not consisting of rights under the settlement) given by the donor for any purposes of the property to which he so becomes entitled,
- shall be treated as comprised in the gift (in addition to any other property so comprised).
- (3) Where property comprised in a gift does not become settled property by virtue of the gift, but is before the material date settled by the donee, sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above shall apply in relation to property comprised in the settlement as if the settlement had been made by the gift; and for this purpose property which becomes settled property under any testamentary disposition of the donee or on his intestacy (or partial intestacy) shall be treated as settled by him.
- (4) Where property comprised in a gift becomes settled property either by virtue of the gift or as mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) above, any property which—
- (a) on the material date is comprised in the settlement, and
 - (b) is derived, directly or indirectly, from a loan made by the donor to the trustees of the settlement,
- shall be treated for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above as derived from property originally comprised in the gift.
- (5) Where, under any trust or power relating to settled property, income arising from that property after the material date is accumulated, the accumulations shall not be treated for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above as derived from that property.

Exclusion of benefit

- 6 (1) In determining whether any property which is disposed of by way of gift is enjoyed to the entire exclusion, or virtually to the entire exclusion, of the donor and of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise—
- (a) in the case of property which is an interest in land or a chattel, retention or assumption by the donor of actual occupation of the land or actual enjoyment

- of an incorporeal right over the land, or actual possession of the chattel shall be disregarded if it is for full consideration in money or money's worth;
- (b) in the case of property which is an interest in land, any occupation by the donor of the whole or any part of the land shall be disregarded if—
- (i) it results from a change in circumstances of the donor since the time of the gift, being a change which was unforeseen at the time and was not brought about by the donor to receive the benefit of this provision; and
 - (ii) it occurs at a time when the donor has become unable to maintain himself through old age, infirmity or otherwise; and
 - (iii) it represents a reasonable provision by the donee for the care and maintenance of the donor; and
 - (iv) the donee is a relative of the donor or his spouse;
- (c) a benefit which the donor obtained by virtue of any associated operations (as defined in section 268 of the 1984 Act) of which the disposal by way of gift is one shall be treated as a benefit to him by contract or otherwise.
- (2) Any question whether any property comprised in a gift was at any time enjoyed to the entire exclusion, or virtually to the entire exclusion, of the donor and of the benefit to him shall (so far as that question depends upon the identity of the property) be determined by reference to the property which is at that time treated as property comprised in the gift.
- (3) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland, references to a chattel shall be construed as references to a corporeal moveable.
- 7 (1) Where arrangements are entered into under which—
- (a) there is a disposal by way of gift which consists of or includes, or is made in connection with, a policy of insurance on the life of the donor or his spouse or on their joint lives, and
 - (b) the benefits which will or may accrue to the donee as a result of the gift vary by reference to benefits accruing to the donor or his spouse (or both of them) under that policy or under another policy (whether issued before, at the same time as or after that referred to in paragraph (a) above),
- the property comprised in the gift shall be treated for the purposes of the principal section as not enjoyed to the entire exclusion, or virtually to the entire exclusion, of the donor.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) the reference in paragraph (a) to a policy on the joint lives of the donor and his spouse includes a reference to a policy on their joint lives and on the life of the survivor; and
 - (b) the reference in paragraph (b) to the benefits accruing to the donor or his spouse (or both of them) includes a reference to benefits which accrue by virtue of the exercise of rights conferred on either or both of them.
- Agricultural property and business property*
- 8 (1) [^{F22}This paragraph applies where] there is a disposal by way of gift of property which, in relation to the donor, is at that time—

- (a) relevant business property within the meaning of Chapter I of Part V of the 1984 Act, or
- (b) agricultural property, within the meaning of Chapter II of that Part, to which section 116 of that Act applies, or
- (c) shares or securities to which section 122(1) of that Act applies (agricultural property of companies), and that property is property subject to a reservation ^{F23} . . .

[^{F24}(1A) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) any question whether, on the material transfer of value, any shares or securities fall within paragraph (b) or paragraph (bb) of section 105(1) of the 1984 Act (which specify shares and securities qualifying for 50 per cent. relief) shall be determined, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, as if the shares or securities were owned by the donor and had been owned by him since the disposal by way of gift; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (a) above, any question whether, on the material transfer of value, relief is available by virtue of Chapter I or Chapter II of Part V of the 1984 Act and, if relief is available by virtue of Chapter II, what is the appropriate percentage of that relief, shall be determined, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, as if, so far as it is attributable to the property comprised in the gift, that transfer were a transfer of value by the donee.]

(2) For the purpose only of determining whether, on the transfer of value which, by virtue of sub-paragraph [^{F25}(1A)(b)] above, the donee is assumed to make, the requirement of section 106 or, as the case may be, section 117 of the 1984 Act (minimum period of ownership or occupation) is fulfilled,—

- (a) ownership by the donor prior to the disposal by way of gift shall be treated as ownership by the donee; and
- (b) occupation by the donor prior to the disposal and any occupation by him after that disposal shall be treated as occupation by the donee.

(3) Where the property disposed of by way of gift consists of shares or securities falling within paragraph (c) of sub-paragraph (1) above, [^{F26}relief shall not be available by virtue of Chapter II of Part V of the 1984 Act on the material transfer of value] unless—

- (a) section 116 of the 1984 Act applies in relation to the value transferred by the disposal, and
- (b) throughout the period beginning with the disposal and ending on the material date, the shares or securities are owned by the donee, and for the purposes only of determining whether, on the transfer of value which, [^{F27}by virtue of sub-paragraph (1A)(b) above], the donee is assumed to make, the requirements of subsection (1) of section 123 of the 1984 Act are fulfilled, it shall be assumed that the requirement in paragraph (b) of that subsection (as to ownership of the shares or securities) is fulfilled.

(4) In this paragraph, “the material transfer of value” means, as the case may require,—

- (a) the transfer of value under section 4 of the 1984 Act on the death of the donor; or
- (b) the transfer of value under subsection (4) of the principal section on the property concerned ceasing to be subject to a reservation.

M18 1982 c. 39.

General modifications

- 1 (1) For any reference in the 1982 Schedule to ethane there shall be substituted a reference to light gases, as defined in section 109 of this Act.
- (2) Except as provided below, any reference in the 1982 Schedule to section 134 of the Finance Act 1982 shall be construed as a reference to section 109 of this Act.

Specific modifications

- 2 (1) In paragraph 1 (provisions as to the election), in sub-paragraph (2)(b) for the words “and not exceeding fifteen years” there shall be substituted “or in the case of an election made before 31st December 1986, beginning on 1st July 1986” and for sub-paragraph (2)(d) there shall be substituted—
- “(d) specify the purposes for which the light gases to which the election applies will be applied or used.”.
- (2) At the end of that paragraph there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- “(4) If an election relates to light gases, then, in addition to the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (2) above, the election shall contain—
- (a) a description of the characteristics of the supply by which the disposal or appropriation is intended to be effected; and
 - (b) if that supply is of such a description that, if it were under a contract at arm’s length, it is reasonable to expect that the price of the gas would vary with the level of the supply, a description of the pattern of supply which the party or parties to the election consider most probable.”
- 3 (1) In paragraph 2 (conditions for acceptance of an election) in sub-paragraph (1) after the words “and (3)” there shall be inserted “and paragraph 2A”.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph, after the words “such that” there shall be inserted “subject to paragraphs 2A and 3A below”.
- 4 After paragraph 2 there shall be inserted the following paragraph—
- “(2A) —
- (1) The provisions of this paragraph apply if, having regard to the pattern of supply described in an election as mentioned in paragraph 1(4)(b) above, it is reasonable to assume that, under a contract for the sale at arm’s length of the light gases to which the election applies, the consideration would include—
 - (a) any such payments as are referred to in subsection (2) of section 114 of the Finance Act 1984 (“take or pay” payments), or
 - (b) any capacity payments, as defined in subsection (5) of that section.
 - (2) The relevant contract—
 - (a) shall be assumed to be for the delivery of gas according to the pattern of supply described in the election; and
 - (b) shall be assumed to contain provision for such of the payments referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above as are appropriate to that pattern of supply.
 - (3) Sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 2 above shall have effect as if for the words following “sale at arm’s length” there were substituted “of the light gases to which the election applies, the total sums payable under the contract in respect of deliveries of gas in any chargeable period would not differ materially from the sums determined in accordance with the price formula specified in the election for gases disposed of or appropriated in that period; and if the Board are not so satisfied they shall reject the election”.
 - (4) The price formula specified in the election shall contain provisions for determining sums corresponding to such of the payments referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above as, by virtue of sub-paragraph (2) above, are assumed to be provided for by the relevant contract.”
- 5 (1) In paragraph 3 (definition of “the relevant contract”) in paragraph (a) after the word “and”, in the first place where it occurs, there shall be inserted the words “which, subject to sub-paragraph (3) below” and in the words following paragraph (b) for the words from “is not” onwards, there shall be substituted “which, subject to paragraph 2A(2) above, is not necessarily a contract for the sale of light gases for the purposes specified in the election”.

(2) At the end of that paragraph there shall be added the following sub-paragraphs—

“(3) In the case of an election which relates to light gases which are “excluded oil”, as defined in section 10(1) of the principal Act, sub-paragraph (1)(a) above shall have effect with the omission of the words from “and which” to “date of the election”.

(4) Sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 2A of Schedule 3 to the principal Act (assumptions as to consents in determining price under an arm’s length contract) shall apply for the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 2A above as it applies for the purposes of paragraph 2 of that Schedule, substituting a reference to a relevant contract (as defined above) for any reference to the contract mentioned in paragraph 2(2) of that Schedule.”

6 After paragraph 3 there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“ Market value where paragraph 2A applies

3A (1) Where an election is accepted by the Board and the price formula contains provision for the determination of sums as mentioned in paragraph 2A(4) above, then, for the purpose of determining the market value of gas to which the election applies, section 114 of the Finance Act 1984 (which deals with the treatment of such payments as are referred to in paragraph 2A(1) above) shall have effect in relation to those sums and that gas as if—

- (a) those sums were part of the consideration under a contract for the sale of gas to which the election applies, and
- (b) that contract provided for delivery of the gas according to the pattern of supply described in the election, and where the said section 114 has effect by virtue of this sub-paragraph, subsections (4), (6) and (7) of that section (which provide for and relate to the deemed delivery of one tonne of oil in certain periods) shall be treated for the purposes of the principal Act as providing for and relating to the deemed disposal or appropriation of one tonne of gas to which the election applies.

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) above applies, the market value of the gas to which the election applies which is disposed of or appropriated in any chargeable period shall consist of—

- (a) such amount (if any) as is determined in accordance with the price formula by reference to the quantity of gas disposed of or appropriated in that chargeable period; and
- (b) any sums which, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above, either are treated as payments for gas supplied free of charge in that period or are treated as an additional element of the price received or receivable for gas disposed of or appropriated in that period.

(3) Where the market value of gas is determined as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above, any reference in the following provisions of this Schedule (however expressed) to the market value determined in accordance with the price formula is a reference to that value determined as mentioned in that sub-paragraph (that is to say, in accordance with the formula and section 114 of the Finance Act 1984 as applied by sub-paragraph (1) above).

Status: Point in time view as at 06/03/1992.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1986 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where the market value of light gases to which an election applies is determined for a chargeable period as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above then, as respects a return for that period under paragraph 2 of Schedule 2 to the principal Act which is made by the participator who is the party or one of the parties to the election,—
- (a) sub-paragraphs (2)(a)(iii) and (2)(b)(ii) of that paragraph (which require information with respect to each delivery or relevant appropriation of oil in the period) shall not apply in relation to the light gases to which the election applies; and
 - (b) there shall be included in his return a statement of the market value (determined as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above) of the light gases relevantly appropriated or disposed of by him in that period.
- (5) Notwithstanding that, under sub-paragraph (2) above, a market value is determined for all the gas disposed of or appropriated in a particular chargeable period, for the purposes of determining—
- (a) the market value referred to in section 2(5)(d) of the principal Act (stocks at the end of a period), and
 - (b) the market value referred to in subsection (1) or, as the case may be, subsection (2) of section 14 of that Act (valuation for corporation tax purposes of oil disposed of or appropriated), then, except in a case where the only gas disposed of or appropriated in a particular chargeable period is a single tonne which, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) above, is treated as being disposed of or appropriated, the market value determined as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above shall be apportioned rateably to each quantity of gas disposed of or appropriated in that period.”

7 After paragraph 6 there shall be inserted the following paragraph—

“ Price formula no longer appropriate for pattern of supply, etc.

- 6A (1) In any case where it appears to the Board—
- (a) that light gases to which an election applies are being disposed of or appropriated in a manner, to an extent or by a pattern of supply which is different from that which was taken into consideration in the acceptance of the election, and
 - (b) that if, at the time the Board were considering whether the election should be accepted, they had taken into account as a probability the manner, extent or pattern of supply by which the gases are in fact being disposed of, they would have rejected the election,
- then, subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, the election shall not have effect with respect to any chargeable period beginning after the date on which the Board give notice under this paragraph to each of the parties to the election.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-paragraph (1) above, if at any time in a chargeable period the extent to which gases to which an election applies are disposed of or relevantly appropriated (including the case where none is so disposed of or appropriated) is such that, if the gas were being delivered under a contract at arm’s length,—

- (a) the seller would be likely to incur financial penalties by reason of a failure to meet requirements arising from the pattern of supply described in the election, and
- (b) those penalties would not be insubstantial,
- that shall be a ground for the Board to give notice under this paragraph.
- (3) A notice under this paragraph shall state that, by reason of the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above, the Board are no longer satisfied that the price formula specified in the election is appropriate to the disposals or appropriations actually being made of gases to which the election applies.
- (4) If, within the period of three months beginning on the date of a notice under this paragraph, the party or parties to the election give notice in writing to the Board—
- (a) specifying a new price formula taking account of the manner, extent or pattern of supply by which the gases to which the election applies are being disposed of or appropriated, and
- (b) containing, if appropriate, a description of the changed pattern of supply which, at the time of the notice, the party or parties to the election consider most probable,
- then, if that new price formula is accepted by the Board in accordance with paragraph 7 below, so much of sub-paragraph (1) above as provides that the election shall not have effect with respect to certain periods shall not apply.
- (5) If notice has been given under sub-paragraph (4) above and a new price formula has been accepted as mentioned in that sub-paragraph, then, for the purpose of determining, for any chargeable period beginning after the date on which the Board gave notice as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above, the market value of light gases to which the election applies, section 109 of the Finance Act 1986 shall have effect as if the new price formula were the formula specified in the election.”
- 8 (1) In paragraph 7 (acceptance or rejection of new price formula) in sub-paragraph (2) after the words “paragraph 3” there shall be inserted “and, where appropriate, paragraphs 2A and 3A”; and at the end of paragraph (b) of that sub-paragraph there shall be inserted “or
- (c) a new price formula specified in a notice under paragraph 6A(4) above”;
- and for the words from “were specified” onwards there shall be substituted “had been specified in, and at the time of, the election and as if the circumstances giving rise to the new price formula had been in contemplation at that time”.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (5) of that paragraph, after “6(5)(b)” there shall be inserted “or paragraph 6A(4)”.
- 9 (1) In paragraph 8 (appeals) in sub-paragraph (1) after paragraph (d) there shall be inserted the following paragraph—
- “(dd) under paragraph 6A above, that a price formula is no longer appropriate”.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (4)(b) of that paragraph after “6(1)(b)” there shall be inserted “or paragraph 6A”.
- 10 In paragraph 9 (returns)—

- (a) after “6(1)(b)” there shall be inserted “or paragraph 6A”; and
 - (b) for the words “section 134(3) of this Act” there shall be substituted “section 109(4) of the Finance Act 1986”; and
 - (c) in paragraph (b) after “6” there shall be inserted “or paragraph 6A”.
- 11 (1) In paragraph 11 (interpretation) sub-paragraph (1) shall be omitted.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph the words from “to an election” to “and any reference” shall be omitted.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (4) of that paragraph for the words “section 134(2)(a) of this Act” there shall be substituted “section 109(3)(a) of the Finance Act 1986”.

PART II

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

- 9 (1) In this paragraph—
- “new statutory provisions” means the provisions of the ^{M20}Broadcasting Act 1981 as amended by this Act; and
- “existing statutory provisions” means the provisions of that Act as they had effect immediately before the passing of this Act.
- (2) Any contract between the Authority and a programme contractor which is in force immediately before the passing of this Act shall, until it is varied or superseded by a further contract between them or expires or is otherwise terminated (whichever first occurs) be deemed to be modified by virtue of this Schedule so as—
- (a) to substitute provisions in conformity with the new statutory provisions for so much of the contract as is in accordance with the existing statutory provisions and is not in conformity with the new statutory provisions, and
- (b) to incorporate in the contract such additional provisions as a contract between the Authority and a programme contractor is required to include in accordance with the new statutory provisions;
- and (subject to paragraph 4 of Schedule 4 to the Act of 1981) any provisions of the contract which provide for arbitration as to any matters contained in the contract in accordance with the existing statutory provisions shall be construed as making the like provision for arbitration in relation to matters deemed to be included in the contract by virtue of this sub-paragraph.
- (3) Where it appears to the Authority that the new statutory provisions call for the inclusion of additional terms in any such contract, but do not afford sufficient particulars of what those terms should be, the Authority may, after consulting the programme contractor, decide what those terms are to be.
- (4) This paragraph shall not be taken to have effect in relation to any contract entered into by a programme contractor and any person other than the Authority before the passing of this Act.
