Making etc. of administration order

8 Power of court to make order.

(1) Subject to this section, if the court—

- (a) is satisfied that a company is or is likely to become unable to pay its debts (within the meaning given to that expression by section 123 of this Act), and
- (b) considers that the making of an order under this section would be likely to achieve one or more of the purposes mentioned below.

the court may make an administration order in relation to the company.

[^{F2}(1A) For the purposes of a petition presented by the Financial Services Authority alone or together with any other party, an authorised deposit taker who defaults in an obligation to pay any sum due and payable in respect of a relevant deposit is deemed to be unable to pay its debts as mentioned in subsection (1).

(1B) In subsection (1A)—

- (a) “authorised deposit taker” means a person who has permission under Part 4 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to accept deposits, but excludes a person who has such permission only for the purpose of carrying on another regulated activity in accordance with that permission; and
- (b) “relevant deposit” must be read with—
 - (i) section 22 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000,
 - (ii) any relevant order under that section, and
 - (iii) Schedule 2 to that Act, but any restriction on the meaning of deposit which arises from the identity of the person making it is to be disregarded.]

(2) An administration order is an order directing that, during the period for which the order is in force, the affairs, business and property of the company shall be managed by a person (“the administrator”) appointed for the purpose by the court.

(3) The purposes for whose achievement an administration order may be made are—

- (a) the survival of the company, and the whole or any part of its undertaking, as a going concern;
- (b) the approval of a voluntary arrangement under Part 1;
- (c) the sanctioning under section 425 of the Companies Act of a compromise or arrangement between the company and any such persons as are mentioned in that section; and
- (d) a more advantageous realisation of the company’s assets than would be effected on a winding up; and the order shall specify the purpose or purposes for which it is made.

[^{F3}(4) An administration order shall not be made in relation to a company after it has gone into liquidation.

(5) An administration order shall not be made against a company if—

- [it effects or carries out contracts of insurance, but is not—
- ^{F4}(a) (i) exempt from the general prohibition, within the meaning of section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, in relation to effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance, or

Status: Point in time view as at 24/03/2003.

- (ii) an authorised deposit taker within the meaning given by subsection (1B), and effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance in the course of a banking business;
 - (b) it continues to have a liability in respect of a deposit which was held by it in accordance with the Banking Act 1979 or the Banking Act 1987 ^[F5], but is not an authorised deposit taker, within the meaning given by subsection (1B)].
- (6) Subsection (5)(a) must be read with—
- (a) section 22 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
 - (b) any relevant order under that section; and
 - (c) Schedule 2 to that Act.]
- ^F6 In this Part a reference to a company includes a reference to a company in relation to which an administration order may be made by virtue of Article 3 of the EC Regulation.]

9 Application for order.

- (1) An application to the court for an administration order shall be by petition presented either by the company or the directors, or by a creditor or creditors (including any contingent or prospective creditor or creditors), ^[F7]or by the clerk of a magistrates' court in the exercise of the power conferred by section 87A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (enforcement of fines imposed on companies)] or by all or any of those parties, together or separately.
- (2) Where a petition is presented to the court—
- (a) notice of the petition shall be given forthwith to any person who has appointed, or is or may be entitled to appoint, an administrative receiver of the company, and to such other persons as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) the petition shall not be withdrawn except with the leave of the court.
- (3) Where the court is satisfied that there is an administrative receiver of the company, the court shall dismiss the petition unless it is also satisfied either—
- (a) that the person by whom or on whose behalf the receiver was appointed has consented to the making of the order, or
 - (b) that, if an administration order were made, any security by virtue of which the receiver was appointed would—

10 Effect of application.

(1) During the period beginning with the presentation of a petition for an administration order and ending with the making of such an order or the dismissal of the petition—

- (a) no resolution may be passed or order made for the winding up of the company;
- [^{F9}(aa) no landlord or other person to whom rent is payable may exercise any right of forfeiture by peaceable re-entry in relation to premises let to the company in respect of a failure by the company to comply with any term or condition of its tenancy of such premises, except with the leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court may impose]
- (b) no steps may be taken to enforce any security over the company's property, or to repossess goods in the company's possession under any hire-purchase agreement, except with the leave of the court and subject to such terms as the court may impose; and
- (c) no other proceedings and no execution or other legal process may be commenced or continued, and no distress may be levied, against the company or its property except with the leave of the court and subject to such terms as aforesaid.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires the leave of the court—

- (a) for the presentation of a petition for the winding up of the company,
- (b) for the appointment of an administrative receiver of the company, or
- (c) for the carrying out by such a receiver (whenever appointed) of any of his functions.

(3) Where—

- (a) a petition for an administration order is presented at a time when there is an administrative receiver of the company, and
- (b) the person by or on whose behalf the receiver was appointed has not consented to the making of the order, the period mentioned in subsection (1) is deemed not begin unless and until that person so consents.

(4) References in this section and the next to hire-purchase agreements include conditional sale agreements, chattel leasing agreements and retention of title agreements.

(5) In the application of this section and the next to Scotland, references to execution being commenced or continued include references to diligence being carried out or continued, and references to distress being levied shall be omitted.

14 General powers.

- (1) The administrator of a company—
- (a) may do all such things as may be necessary for the management of the affairs, business and property of the company, and
 - (b) without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a), has the powers specified in Schedule 1 to this Act; and in the application of that Schedule to the administrator of a company the words “he” and “him” refer to the administrator.

- (2) The administrator also has power—
- (a) to remove any director of the company and to appoint any person to be a director of it, whether to fill a vacancy or otherwise, and
 - (b) to call any meeting of the members or creditors of the company.
- (3) The administrator may apply to the court for directions in relation to any particular matter arising in connection with the carrying out of his functions.
- (4) Any power conferred on the company or its officers, whether by this Act or the Companies Act or by the memorandum or articles of association, which could be exercised in such a way as to interfere with the exercise by the administrator of his powers is not exercisable except with the consent of the administrator, which may be given either generally or in relation to particular cases.
- (5) In exercising his powers the administrator is deemed to act as the company's agent.

15 Power to deal with charged property, etc.

- (1) The administrator of a company may dispose of or otherwise exercise his powers in relation to any property of the company which is subject to a security to which this subsection applies as if the property were not subject to the security.
- (2) Where, on an application by the administrator, the court is satisfied that the disposal (with or without other assets) of—
- (a) any property of the company subject to a security to which this subsection applies, or
 - (b) any goods in the possession of the company under a hire-purchase agreement, would be likely to promote the purpose or one or more of the purposes specified in the administration order, the court may by order authorise the administrator to dispose of the property as if it were not subject to the security or to dispose of the goods as if all rights of the owner under the hire-purchase agreement were vested in the company.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies to any security which, as created, was a floating charge; and subsection (2) applies to any other security.
- (4) Where property is disposed of under subsection (1), the holder of the security has the same priority in respect of any property of the company directly or indirectly representing the property disposed of as he would have had in respect of the property subject to the security.
- (5) It shall be a condition of an order under subsection (2) that—
- (a) the net proceeds of the disposal, and
 - (b) where those proceeds are less than such amount as may be determined by the court to be the net amount which would be realised on a sale of the property or goods in the open market by a willing vendor, such sums as may be required to make good the deficiency, shall be applied towards discharging the sums secured by the security or payable under the hire-purchase agreement.

- (6) Where a condition imposed in pursuance of subsection (5) relates to two or more securities, that condition requires the net proceeds of the disposal and, where paragraph (b) of that subsection applies, the sums mentioned in that paragraph to be applied towards discharging the sums secured by those securities in the order of their priorities.
- (7) An office copy of an order under subsection (2) shall, within 14 days after the making of the order, be sent by the administrator to the registrar of companies.
- (8) If the administrator without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (7), he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.
- (9) References in this section to hire-purchase agreements include conditional sale agreements, chattel leasing agreements and retention of title agreements.

18 Discharge or variation of administration order.

- (1) The administrator of a company may at any time apply to the court for the administration order to be discharged, or to be varied so as to specify an additional purpose.
- (2) The administrator shall make an application under this section if—
 - (a) it appears to him that the purpose or each of the purposes specified in the order either has been achieved or is incapable of achievement, or
 - (b) he is required to do so by a meeting of the company's creditors summoned for the purpose in accordance with the rules.
- (3) On the hearing of an application under this section, the court may by order discharge or vary the administration order and make such consequential provision as it thinks fit, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make an interim order or any other order it thinks fit.
- (4) Where the administration order is discharged or varied the administrator shall, within 14 days after the making of the order effecting the discharge or variation, send an office copy of that order to the registrar of companies.
- (5) If the administrator without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (4), he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

19 Vacation of office.

- (1) The administrator of a company may at any time be removed from office by order of the court and may, in the prescribed circumstances, resign his office by giving notice of his resignation to the court.
- (2) The administrator shall vacate office if—
 - (a) he ceases to be qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company, or
 - (b) the administration order is discharged.
- (3) Where at any time a person ceases to be administrator, the [^{F11}following] subsections apply.
- (4) His remuneration and any expenses properly incurred by him shall be charged on and paid out of any property of the company which is in his custody or under his control at that time in priority to any security to which section 15(1) then applies.
- (5) Any sums payable in respect of debts or liabilities incurred, while he was administrator, under contracts entered into ^{F12}. . . by him or a predecessor of his in the carrying out of his or the predecessor's functions shall be charged on and paid out of any such property as is mentioned in subsection (4) in priority to any charge arising under that subsection.
- [(6) ^{F13} Any sums payable in respect of liabilities incurred, while he was administrator, under contracts of employment adopted by him or a predecessor of his in the carrying out of his or the predecessor's functions shall, to the extent that the liabilities are qualifying liabilities, be charged on and paid out of any such property as is mentioned in subsection (4) and enjoy the same priority as any sums to which subsection (5) applies.]

^{F14}For this purpose, the administrator is not to be taken to have adopted a contract of employment by reason of anything done or omitted to be done within 14 days after his appointment.
- [^{F15}(7) For the purposes of subsection (6), a liability under a contract of employment is a qualifying liability if—
 - (a) it is a liability to pay a sum by way of wages or salary or contribution to an occupational pension scheme, and
 - (b) it is in respect of services rendered wholly or partly after the adoption of the contract.
- (8) There shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (6) so much of any qualifying liability as represents payment in respect of services rendered before the adoption of the contract.
- (9) For the purposes of subsections (7) and (8)—
 - (a) wages or salary payable in respect of a period of holiday or absence from work through sickness or other good cause are deemed to be wages or (as the case may be) salary in respect of services rendered in that period, and
 - (b) a sum payable in lieu of holiday is deemed to be wages or (as the case may be) salary in respect of services rendered in the period by reference to which the holiday entitlement arose.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/03/2003.

20 Release of administrator.

- (1) A person who has ceased to be the administrator of a company has his release with effect from the following time, that is to say—
- in the case of a person who has died, the time at which notice is given to the court in accordance with the rules that he has ceased to hold office;
 - in any other case, such time as the court may determine.
- (2) Where a person has his release under this section, he is, with effect from the time specified above, discharged from all liability both in respect of acts or omissions of his in the administration and otherwise in relation to his conduct as administrator.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/03/2003.

22 Statement of affairs to be submitted to administrator.

- (1) Where an administration order has been made, the administrator shall forthwith require some or all of the persons mentioned below to make out and submit to him a statement in the prescribed form as to the affairs of the company.
- (2) The statement shall be verified by affidavit by the persons required to submit it and shall show—
 - (a) particulars of the company’s assets, debts and liabilities;
 - (b) the names and addresses of its creditors;
 - (c) the securities held by them respectively;
 - (d) the dates when the securities were respectively given; and
 - (e) such further or other information as may be prescribed.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) those who are or have been officers of the company;
 - (b) those who have taken part in the company’s formation at any time within one year before the date of the administration order;
 - (c) those who are in the company’s employment or have been in its employment within that year, and are in the administrator’s opinion capable of giving the information required;
 - (d) those who are or have been within that year officers of or in the employment of a company which is, or within that year was, an officer of the company.

In this subsection “employment” includes employment under a contract for services.

- (4) Where any persons are required under this section to submit a statement of affairs to the administrator, they shall do so (subject to the next subsection) before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day after that on which the prescribed notice of the requirement is given to them by the administrator.
- (5) The administrator, if he thinks fit, may—
 - (a) at any time release a person from an obligation imposed on him under subsection (1) or (2), or
 - (b) either when giving notice under subsection (4) or subsequently, extend the period so mentioned;and where the administrator has refused to exercise a power conferred by this subsection, the court, if it thinks fit, may exercise it.
- (6) If a person without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any obligation imposed under this section, he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

Administrator's proposals

23 Statement of proposals.

- (1) Where an administration order has been made, the administrator shall, within 3 months (or such longer period as the court may allow) after the making of the order—
 - (a) send to the registrar of companies and (so far as he is aware of their addresses) to all creditors a statement of his proposals for achieving the purpose or purposes specified in the order, and
 - (b) lay a copy of the statement before a meeting of the company's creditors summoned for the purpose on not less than 14 days' notice.
- (2) The administrator shall also, within 3 months (or such longer period as the court may allow) after the making of the order, either—
 - (a) send a copy of the statement (so far as he is aware of their addresses) to all members of the company, or
 - (b) publish in the prescribed manner a notice stating an address to which members of the company should write for copies of the statement to be sent to them free of charge.
- (3) If the administrator without reasonable excuse fails to comply with this section, he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

24 Consideration of proposals by creditors' meeting.

- (1) A meeting of creditors summoned under section 23 shall decide whether to approve the administrator's proposals.
- (2) The meeting may approve the proposals with modifications, but shall not do so unless the administrator consents to each modification.
- (3) Subject as above, the meeting shall be conducted in accordance with the rules.
- (4) After the conclusion of the meeting in accordance with the rules, the administrator shall report the result of the meeting to the court and shall give notice of that result to the registrar of companies and to such persons as may be prescribed.
- (5) If a report is given to the court under subsection (4) that the meeting has declined to approve the administrator's proposals (with or without modifications), the court may by order discharge the administration order and make such consequential provision as it thinks fit, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make an interim order or any other order that it thinks fit.
- (6) Where the administration order is discharged, the administrator shall, within 14 days after the making of the order effecting the discharge, send an office copy of that order to the registrar of companies.
- (7) If the administrator without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsection (6), he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

C64 S. 26 amended (1.12.2001) by 2000 c. 8, s. 362(5)(b); S.I. 2001/3538, art. 2(1)

27 Protection of interests of creditors and members.

- (1) At any time when an administration order is in force, a creditor or member of the company may apply to the court by petition for an order under this section on the ground—
 - (a) that the company’s affairs, business and property are being or have been managed by the administrator in a manner which is unfairly prejudicial to the interests of its creditors or members generally, or of some part of its creditors or members (including at least himself), or
 - (b) that any actual or proposed act or omission of the administrator is or would be so prejudicial.
- (2) On an application for an order under this section the court may, subject as follows, make such order as it thinks fit for giving relief in respect of the matters complained of, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make an interim order or any other order that it thinks fit.

- (3) An order under this section shall not prejudice or prevent—
- (a) the implementation of a voluntary arrangement approved under ^{F16} . . . Part I, or any compromise or arrangement sanctioned under section 425 of the Companies Act; or
 - (b) where the application for the order was made more than 28 days after the approval of any proposals or revised proposals under section 24 or 25, the implementation of those proposals or revised proposals
- (4) Subject as above, an order under this section may in particular—
- (a) regulate the future management by the administrator of the company's affairs, business and property;
 - (b) require the administrator to refrain from doing or continuing an act complained of by the petitioner, or to do an act which the petitioner has complained he has omitted to do.
 - (c) require the summoning of a meeting of creditors or members for the purpose of considering such matters as the court may direct;
 - (d) discharge the administration order and make such consequential provision as the court thinks fit.
- (5) Nothing in section 15 or 16 is to be taken as prejudicing applications to the court under this section.
- (6) Where the administration order is discharged, the administrator shall, within 14 days after the making of the order effecting the discharge, send an office copy of that order to the registrar of companies; and if without reasonable excuse he fails to comply with this subsection, he is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.
