

Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987

1987 CHAPTER 18

PART V

MESSENGERS-AT-ARMS AND SHERIFF OFFICERS

75 Regulation of organisation, training, conduct and procedure.

- (1) The Court of Session may, by Act of Sederunt, in respect of officers of court—
- (a) regulate their organisation;
 - (b) regulate their training and the qualifications required to obtain a commission as messenger-at-arms or sheriff officer;
 - (c) regulate their conduct in exercising their official functions;
 - (d) regulate the scope of their official functions;
 - (e) make provision prohibiting the undertaking by them of activities other than their official functions (referred to in this Part of this Act as “extra-official activities”) which appear to the Court to be incompatible with their official functions;
 - (f) make provision permitting the undertaking by them for remuneration of other extra-official activities, not appearing to the Court to be incompatible as aforesaid, and the Act of Sederunt may attach conditions to any such permission;
 - (g) prescribe the procedure in respect of applications for a commission as messenger-at-arms under section 77 of this Act or as sheriff officer;
 - (h) prescribe the procedure in disciplinary proceedings against them under section 79 of this Act, and provide for the remit of any such proceedings from the Court of Session to a sheriff principal, from one sheriff principal to another sheriff principal and from a sheriff principal to the Court of Session;
 - (j) make provision for the keeping of accounts by them and the auditing of those accounts;
 - (k) make provision for the keeping of records by them and the inspection of those records;
 - (l) make provision in respect of the finding of caution by them;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987, PART V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (m) make such other provision as may appear to the Court to be necessary or proper.
- (2) No extra-official activity (not being an activity prohibited or regulated by an Act of Sederunt made under subsection (1)(e) or (f) above) may be undertaken by an officer of court for remuneration unless the officer of court obtains the permission of the sheriff principal from whom he holds a commission to his undertaking the activity, but the sheriff principal shall not withhold such permission unless it appears to him that the undertaking by the officer of court of the activity would be incompatible with the officer of court's official functions.
- (3) The sheriff principal may attach conditions to any permission granted by him under subsection (2) above.

76 Advisory Council.

- (1) There shall be a body, (to be known as “the Advisory Council on Messengers-at-Arms and Sheriff Officers” and in this section referred to as “the Advisory Council”) whose duties shall be to advise the Court of Session on the making of Acts of Sederunt under section 75 of this Act and generally to keep under review all matters relating to officers of court.
- (2) The Advisory Council shall consist of—
 - (a) the following persons appointed by the Lord President of the Court of Session—
 - (i) a judge of the Court of Session who shall act as chairman;
 - (ii) 2 sheriffs principal;
 - (iii) 2 officers of court; and
 - (iv) 2 solicitors;
 - (b) one person appointed by the Lord Advocate; and
 - (c) the Lord Lyon King of Arms.
- (3) The secretary of the Advisory Council shall be appointed by the Secretary of State.
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) below, the members of the Advisory Council appointed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above shall hold office for 3 years and be eligible for reappointment.
- (5) Subsection (4) above applies to members of the Advisory Council appointed under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) above only so long as they respectively retain the offices or, as the case may be, qualification specified in that paragraph.
- (6) If the Lord President or, as the case may be, the Lord Advocate is satisfied that a person appointed by him under subsection (2) above has ceased to be a fit and proper person to hold the appointment, he may terminate that person's appointment.
- (7) Where a member of the Advisory Council appointed under subsection (2)(a) or (b) above ceases to be a member (whether by resignation or otherwise) prior to the expiry of 3 years after the date of his appointment or reappointment, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment of another person holding the same office or, as the case may be, possessing the same qualification.
- (8) Subject to subsection (6) above, any person appointed in pursuance of subsection (7) above to fill a vacancy shall remain a member of the Advisory Council only until the expiry of 3 years after the date of the appointment or reappointment of the member whom he succeeded, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

- (9) The Advisory Council shall have power to regulate the summoning of its meetings and the procedure at such meetings; and at any such meetings 3 members shall be a quorum.

77 Appointment of messenger-at-arms.

- (1) The Court of Session, on an application made under this section by a sheriff officer, may find the applicant suitable to be appointed as a messenger-at-arms and recommend such appointment to the Lord Lyon King of Arms; and, on receipt of such a recommendation, the Lord Lyon King of Arms may grant the applicant a commission as a messenger-at-arms.
- (2) A messenger-at-arms shall not be authorised by his commission as messenger-at-arms to execute a warrant granted by a sheriff or sheriff clerk.
- (3) A messenger-at-arms shall cease to be entitled to hold a commission as messenger-at-arms if he no longer holds a commission as a sheriff officer.
- (4) Any rule of law and any other enactment regulating the appointment of messengers-at-arms shall cease to have effect.

78 Inspection of work.

- (1) The sheriff principal—
- (a) may from time to time in relation to any sheriff officer who holds a commission from him, and
 - (b) shall, if directed to do so by the Court of Session in relation to any sheriff officer who is a messenger-at-arms,
- appoint such a person as he thinks fit to inspect the work or particular aspects of the work of that officer.
- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1) above may, and if the Court of Session directs the sheriff principal so to require shall, be required by the sheriff principal to make enquiry as to extra-official activities undertaken for remuneration by the officer of court concerned.
- (3) A person appointed under subsection (1) above shall make a report of his inspection and of any enquiry under subsection (2) above to the sheriff principal and, if the report is concerned with the work or extra-official activities of any messenger-at-arms, shall send a copy thereof to the Court of Session.
- (4) A person appointed under subsection (1) above shall be entitled—
- (a) to a fee, unless he is employed full-time in the civil service of the Crown; and
 - (b) to payment of his outlays incurred,
- in connection with an inspection, enquiry and report under this section.

79 Investigation of alleged misconduct.

- (1) This section applies where—

- (a) a report under section 78(3) of this Act discloses that any officer of court may have been guilty of misconduct;
 - (b) a report by a sheriff or a complaint by any other person is made—
 - (i) to the Court of Session alleging misconduct by a messenger-at-arms;
 - (ii) to the sheriff principal from whom a sheriff officer holds a commission alleging misconduct by the officer; or
 - (c) any judge of the Court of Session, or a sheriff principal, has reason to believe that an officer of court may have been guilty of misconduct.
- (2) Where this section applies, a judge nominated by the Lord President of the Court of Session, or the sheriff principal, after giving the officer of court an opportunity to admit or deny the misconduct or to give an explanation of the matter, may appoint a solicitor to investigate the matter unless the officer of court—
- (a) admits the misconduct in writing, or
 - (b) gives a satisfactory explanation of the matter.
- (3) Where the solicitor after carrying out an investigation in pursuance of subsection (2) above is of the opinion—
- (a) that there is a probable case of misconduct and that there is evidence sufficient to justify proceedings, disciplinary proceedings shall be brought at his instance against the officer of court before the relevant court;
 - (b) that there is not a probable case of misconduct or that there is insufficient evidence to justify proceedings, he shall report that fact to the relevant court.
- (4) The solicitor shall be entitled to a fee, and to payment of his outlays incurred, in connection with an investigation, and any disciplinary proceedings brought by him, under this section.
- (5) The relevant court may award expenses in any disciplinary proceedings brought under this section in favour of or against either party to the proceedings; and for the purposes of this subsection and section 45 of the ^{M1}Crown Proceedings Act 1947 the party bringing the proceedings shall be deemed to be the Lord Advocate.
- (6) Where expenses are awarded under subsection (5) above in favour of—
- (a) the officer of court, the expenses shall be recoverable by him from the Lord Advocate;
 - (b) the Lord Advocate, the expenses shall be recoverable from the officer of court by the Lord Advocate.
- (7) If the person appointed under section 78(1) of this Act is a solicitor, that person may be appointed as solicitor under subsection (2) above.
- (8) In this section “the relevant court” means whichever of the Court of Session or the sheriff principal made the appointment under subsection (2) above.
- (9) In this section and section 80 of this Act “misconduct” includes conduct tending to bring the office of messenger-at-arms or sheriff officer into disrepute.

80 Courts' powers in relation to offences or misconduct.

- (1) Where the Court of Session becomes aware that a messenger-at-arms has been convicted by a court of any offence, it may make an order finding that the messenger-at-arms should be suspended from practice for such period as may be specified in the order, or deprived of office.
- (2) Where the sheriff principal from whom a sheriff officer holds a commission becomes aware that the sheriff officer has been convicted by a court of any offence, the sheriff principal may make an order suspending the sheriff officer from practice for such period as may be specified in the order, or depriving him of office, in that sheriffdom.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) above are without prejudice to section 4(3)(b) of the ^{M2}Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; and in those subsections “offence” means any offence of which the officer of court has been convicted before or after he was granted a commission as an officer of court, other than any offence disclosed in his application for such a commission.
- (4) Where—
 - (a) a messenger-at-arms admits in writing that he is guilty of misconduct; or
 - (b) the Court of Session at the end of disciplinary proceedings under section 79(3) (a) of this Act is satisfied that a messenger-at-arms is guilty of misconduct,the Court of Session may make one or more of the orders specified in subsection (5) below.
- (5) The orders referred to in subsection (4) above are—
 - (a) an order finding that the messenger-at-arms should be suspended from practice for such period as may be specified in the order, or deprived of office;
 - (b) an order imposing a fine on the messenger-at-arms not exceeding £2,500 or such sum as may be prescribed in regulations made by the Lord Advocate;
 - (c) an order censuring the messenger-at-arms;
 - (d) if the misconduct consists of, or includes, the charging of excessive fees or outlays, an order decerning for repayment by the messenger-at-arms of the fees or outlays, to the extent that they were excessive, to the person who paid them.
- (6) Where—
 - (a) a sheriff officer admits in writing that he is guilty of misconduct; or
 - (b) the sheriff principal at the end of disciplinary proceedings under section 79(3) (a) of this Act is satisfied that a sheriff officer is guilty of misconduct,the sheriff principal may make one or more of the orders specified in subsection (7) below.
- (7) The orders referred to in subsection (6) above are—
 - (a) an order suspending the sheriff officer from practice for such period as may be specified in the order, or depriving him of office, in that sheriffdom;
 - (b) an order in relation to the sheriff officer of a kind mentioned in subsection (5) (b), (c) or (d) above.
- (8) Where an officer of court fails to comply with an order under this section imposing a fine on him, the Court of Session or, as the case may be, the sheriff principal may make an order—
