

Housing (Scotland) Act 1987

1987 CHAPTER 26

PART III

RIGHTS OF PUBLIC SECTOR TENANTS

Right to buy

61 Secure tenant's right to purchase

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any agreement, a tenant of a house to which this section applies (or such one or more of joint tenants as may be agreed between them) shall, subject to this Part, have the right to purchase the house at a price fixed under section 62.
- (2) This section applies to every house let under a secure tenancy where—
  - (a) the landlord is either—
    - (i) an islands or district council, or a joint board or joint committee of an islands or district council or the common good of an islands or district council, or any trust under the control of an islands or district council; or
    - (ii) a regional council, or a joint board or joint committee of 2 or more regional councils, or any trust under the control of a regional council; or
    - (iii) a development corporation (including an urban development corporation); or
    - [<sup>F1</sup>(iv) Scottish Homes]
    - (v) the Housing Corporation; or
    - (vi) a registered housing association; or
    - (vii) a housing co-operative; or
    - (viii) a police authority in Scotland; or
    - (ix) a fire authority in Scotland; and

Changes to legislation: Housing (Scotland) Act 1987, Section 61 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the landlord is the heritable proprietor of the house or, in the case of a landlord who is a housing co-operative, a body mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) is the heritable proprietor; and
- (c) immediately prior to the date of service of an application to purchase, the tenant has been for not less than 2 years in occupation of a house (including accommodation provided as mentioned in subsection (11)(n)) or of a succession of houses provided by any persons mentioned in subsection (11).

[<sup>F2</sup>(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), where the house was provided by a housing association which, at any time while the house was so provided, was not a registered housing association, the association shall, if it became a registered housing association at any later time, be deemed to have been a registered housing association at all times since it first provided the house.]

(3) This section also applies to a house let under a secure tenancy granted in pursuance of section [<sup>F3</sup>282(2) or (3)] (grant of secure tenancy on acquisition of defective dwelling), if the tenant would not otherwise have the right to purchase under this Part; and where it so applies—

- (a) paragraph (c) of subsection (2) shall not have effect;
- (b) the words “beyond 2” in section 62(3)(b) shall not have effect.

(4) This section does not apply—

- (a) to a house that is one of a group which has been provided with facilities (including a call system and the services of a warden) specially designed or adapted for the needs of persons of pensionable age or disabled persons; or
- (b) where a landlord which is a registered housing association has at no time received a grant under—
  - (i) any enactment mentioned in paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the <sup>M1</sup>Housing Associations Act 1985 (grants under enactments superseded by the <sup>M2</sup>Housing Act 1974);
  - (ii) section 31 of the Housing Act 1974 (management grants);
  - (iii) section 41 of the Housing Associations Act 1985 (housing association grants);
  - (iv) section 54 of that Act (revenue deficit grants);
  - (v) section 55 of that Act (hostel deficit grants); [<sup>F4</sup>or]
  - (vi) section 59(2) of that Act (grants by local authorities); [<sup>F4</sup>or]
  - [<sup>F5</sup>(vii) section 50 of the Housing Act 1988 (housing association grants); or
  - (viii) section 51 of that Act (revenue deficit grants); or]
- (c) where such a landlord has at no time let (or had available for letting) more than 100 dwellings; or
- (d) where such a landlord is a charity—
  - (i) entered in the register of charities maintained under the <sup>M3</sup>Charities Act 1960 by the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales; or
  - (ii) which but for section 4(4) of, and paragraph (g) of the Second Schedule to, that Act (exempt charities) would require to be so entered; or
- (e) where by virtue of section 49(2) of the said Act of 1960 (extent) such a landlord is not one to which Part II of that Act (registration of charities, etc.) applies, but—

- (i) the landlord has, in respect of all periods from 14th November 1985 or from the date of first being registered by the Housing Corporation [<sup>F6</sup>or by Scottish Homes] (whichever is the later) claimed and been granted (whether or not retrospectively), under section 360(1) of the <sup>M4</sup>Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970 (special exemptions for charities), exemption from tax; and
    - (ii) where such exemption has not been claimed and granted in respect of all periods from the said date of registration, the rules of the landlord, registered under the <sup>M5</sup>Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 and in force at that date, were such as would have admitted of such exemption had it been claimed as at that date; or
  - (f) where, within a neighbourhood, the house is one of a number (not exceeding 14) of houses with a common landlord, being a [<sup>F7</sup>landlord which is a registered housing association], and it is the practice of that landlord to let at least one half of those houses for occupation by any or all of the following—
    - (i) persons who have suffered from, or are suffering from, mental disorder (as defined in the <sup>M6</sup>Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984), physical handicap or addiction to alcohol or other drugs;
    - (ii) persons who have been released from prison or other institutions;
    - (iii) young persons who have left the care of a local authority,and a social service is, or special facilities are, provided wholly or partly for the purpose of assisting those persons.
- (5) Where the spouse of a tenant or, where there is a joint tenancy, the spouse of a joint tenant, occupies the house as his only or principal home but is not himself a joint tenant, the right to purchase the house under subsection (1) shall not be exercised without the consent of such spouse.
- (6) A tenant may exercise his right to purchase, if he so wishes, together with one or more members of his family acting as joint purchasers, provided—
  - (a) that such members are at least 18 years of age, that they have, during the period of 6 months ending with the date of service of the application to purchase, had their only or principal home with the tenant and that their residence in the house is not a breach of any obligation of the tenancy; or
  - (b) where the requirements of paragraph (a) are not satisfied, the landlord has consented.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument amend, or add to, the descriptions of persons set out in sub-paragraphs (i) to (iii) of paragraph (f) of subsection (4).
- (8) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall, as regards any registered housing association, at the request of the Secretary of State, provide him [<sup>F8</sup>, the Housing Corporation and Scottish Homes] with such information as will enable them to determine whether that association is a landlord in respect of which this section will not, by virtue of subsection (4)(d), apply; and where a registered housing association is refused exemption on a claim under section 360(1) of the <sup>M7</sup>Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970 the Commissioners shall forthwith inform the Secretary of State [<sup>F8</sup>, the Housing Corporation and Scottish Homes] of that fact.
- (9) Where information has been received by the Housing Corporation [<sup>F9</sup>or by Scottish Homes] under subsection (8) and having regard to that information the Corporation [<sup>F10</sup>or, as the case may be, Scottish Homes] is satisfied that the housing association to which it relates is not a landlord in respect of which this section applies, they shall make an entry to that effect in the register of housing associations maintained by them under section 3(1) [<sup>F11</sup>or, as the case may be, 3(1A)] of the <sup>M8</sup>Housing Associations Act 1985; and they shall cancel that entry where subsequent information so received in relation to that housing association is inconsistent with their being so satisfied.

(10) In this section and the following section—

- (a) references to occupation of a house include occupation—
  - (i) in the case of joint tenants, by any one of them;
  - (ii) by any person occupying the house rent-free;
  - (iii) as the spouse of the tenant, joint tenant or of any such person;
  - (iv) as the child, or the spouse of a child, of a tenant or a person occupying the house rent free who has succeeded, directly or indirectly, to the rights of that person in a house occupation of which would be reckonable for the purposes of this section; but only in relation to any period when the child, or as the case may be spouse of the child, is at least 16 years of age; or
  - (v) ..... <sup>F12</sup>, as a member of the family of a tenant or a person occupying the house rent free who, not being that person's spouse or child (or child's spouse), has succeeded, directly or indirectly, to such rights as are mentioned in paragraph (iv); but only in relation to any period when the member of the family is at least 16 years of age.
- (b) for the purpose of determining the period of occupation—
  - (i) any interruption in occupation of 12 months or less shall be regarded as not affecting continuity; and
  - (ii) any interruption in occupation of more than 12 months and less than 24 months may at the discretion of the landlord be regarded as not affecting continuity [<sup>F13</sup>; and]
  - [<sup>F13</sup>(iii) there shall be added to the period of occupation of a house by a joint tenant any earlier period during which he was at least 16 years of age and occupied the house as a member of the family of the tenant or of one or more of the joint tenants of the house.]

(11) The persons providing houses referred to in subsection (2)(c) (occupation requirement for exercise of right to purchase) and in section 62(3)(b) (calculation of the discount from the market value) are—

- (a) a regional, islands or district council in Scotland; any local authority in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland; and the statutory predecessors of any such council or authority, or the common good of any such council, or any trust under the control of any such council;
- (b) the Commission for the New Towns;
- (c) a development corporation, an urban development corporation; and any development corporation established under corresponding legislation in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland; and the statutory predecessors of any such authority;
- [<sup>F14</sup>(d) Scottish Homes and the Scottish Special Housing Association;]
- (e) a registered housing association;
- (f) the Housing Corporation;
- (g) a housing co-operative within the meaning of section 22 or a housing co-operative within the meaning of section 27B of the <sup>M9</sup>Housing Act 1985;
