1987 CHAPTER 31

PART V

MANAGEMENT OF LEASEHOLD PROPERTY

Managing agents

44 Recognised tenants' associations to be consulted about managing agents.

The following section shall be inserted in the 1985 Act after the section 30A inserted by section 43—

“ Managing agents

30B Recognised tenants' associations to be consulted about managing agents.

- (1) A recognised tenants' association may at any time serve a notice on the landlord requesting him to consult the association in accordance with this section on matters relating to the appointment or employment by him of a managing agent for any relevant premises.
- (2) Where, at the time when any such notice is served by a recognised tenants' association, the landlord does not employ any managing agent for any relevant premises, the landlord shall, before appointing such a managing agent, serve on the association a notice specifying—
  - (a) the name of the proposed managing agent;
  - (b) the landlord's obligations to the tenants represented by the association which it is proposed that the managing agent should be required to discharge on his behalf; and
  - (c) a period of not less than one month beginning with the date of service of the notice within which the association may make observations on the proposed appointment.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1997.

*Changes to legislation: Landlord and Tenant Act 1987, Cross Heading: Managing agents is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 July 2024. - (3) Where, at the time when a notice is served under subsection (1) by a recognised tenants' association, the landlord employs a managing agent for any relevant premises, the landlord shall, within the period of one month beginning with the date of service of that notice, serve on the association a notice specifying—
- (a) the landlord's obligations to the tenants represented by the association which the managing agent is required to discharge on his behalf; and
  - (b) a reasonable period within which the association may make observations on the manner in which the managing agent has been discharging those obligations, and on the desirability of his continuing to discharge them.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a landlord who has been served with a notice by an association under subsection (1) shall, so long as he employs a managing agent for any relevant premises—
- (a) serve on that association at least once in every five years a notice specifying—
    - (i) any change occurring since the date of the last notice served by him on the association under this section in the obligations which the managing agent has been required to discharge on his behalf; and
    - (ii) a reasonable period within which the association may make observations on the manner in which the managing agent has discharged those obligations since that date, and on the desirability of his continuing to discharge them;
  - (b) serve on that association, whenever he proposes to appoint any new managing agent for any relevant premises, a notice specifying the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2).
- (5) A landlord shall not, by virtue of a notice served by an association under subsection (1), be required to serve on the association a notice under subsection (4)(a) or (b) if the association subsequently serves on the landlord a notice withdrawing its request under subsection (1) to be consulted by him.
- (6) Where—
- (a) a recognised tenants' association has served a notice under subsection (1) with respect to any relevant premises, and
  - (b) the interest of the landlord in those premises becomes vested in a new landlord,
- that notice shall cease to have effect with respect to those premises (without prejudice to the service by the association on the new landlord of a fresh notice under that subsection with respect to those premises).
- (7) Any notice served by a landlord under this section shall specify the name and the address in the United Kingdom of the person to whom any observations made in pursuance of the notice are to be sent; and the landlord shall have regard to any such observations that are received by that person within the period specified in the notice.
- (8) In this section—
- “landlord”, in relation to a recognised tenants' association, means the immediate landlord of the tenants represented by the association or
