

Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 1

PART XIV

PENSION SCHEMES, SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS, LIFE ANNUITIES ETC.

CHAPTER IV

PERSONAL PENSION SCHEMES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Pt. 14 Ch. 5 excluded (1.5.1995) by Finance Act 1995 (c. 4), s. 60(5)

Preliminary

630 Interpretation.

[^{F1}(1)] ^{M1}In this Chapter—

“approved”—

- (a) in relation to a scheme [^{F2}(other than an approved retirement benefits scheme)], means approved by the Board under this Chapter; and
- (b) in relation to arrangements, means—
 - (i) ^{F3}made in accordance with a scheme which is for the time being, and was when the arrangements were made, an approved scheme^{F4}; or
 - (ii) made in accordance with a scheme which is for the time being an approved converted scheme but which was, when the arrangements were made, an approved retirement benefits scheme;]

but does not refer to cases in which approval has been withdrawn;

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER IV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F5}“approved converted scheme” means an approved personal pension scheme which is such a scheme by virtue of paragraph 3(2)(b) of Schedule 23ZA;]

[^{F6}“approved retirement benefits scheme” means a retirement benefits scheme approved under Chapter I of this Part;]

[^{F7}“authorised insurance company” has the meaning given by section 659B;]

[^{F8}“the earnings threshold” for any year of assessment is £3,600;

[^{F9}“higher level contributions”, in the case of any year of assessment, means contributions in excess of the earnings threshold for the year;]

[^{F10}“income withdrawal” means a payment of income, under arrangements made in accordance with a personal pension scheme, otherwise than by way of an annuity;]

“member”, in relation to a personal pension scheme, means an individual who makes arrangements in accordance with the scheme;

[^{F11}“pension date”, in relation to any personal pension arrangements, means [^{F12}(subject to section 638ZA)] the date determined in accordance with the arrangements on which—

- (a) an annuity such as is mentioned in section 634 is first payable, or
- (b) the member elects to defer the purchase of such an annuity and to make income withdrawals in accordance with section 634A;]

“personal pension arrangements” means arrangements made by an individual in accordance with a personal pension scheme;

[^{F13}“the personal pension fund”, in the case of any personal pension arrangement and an individual, means the accrued rights to which the individual is entitled conferring prospective entitlement to benefits under the arrangement;

“personal pension scheme” means a scheme whose sole purpose is the provision of annuities [^{F14}, income withdrawals] or lump sums under arrangements made by individuals in accordance with the scheme;

[^{F15}“retirement benefits scheme” has the same meaning as in Chapter I of this Part (see section 611);]

“scheme administrator” means the person referred to in section 638(1);

[^{F16}and references to an employee or to an employer include references to the holder of an office or to the person under whom an office is held.]

[^{F17}(1A) The Treasury may by order amend the definition of “the earnings threshold” in subsection (1) above for any year of assessment by varying the amount there specified.]

[^{F18}(2) For the purposes of this Chapter the annual amount of the annuity which would have been purchasable by a person on any date shall be calculated by reference to—

- (a) the value on that date, determined by or on behalf of the scheme administrator, of the [^{F19}“personal pension fund”] under the arrangements in question, and
- (b) the current published tables of rates of annuities prepared for the purposes of this Chapter by the Government Actuary.

[^{F20} Where a lump sum falls to be paid on the date in question, the reference is to the value of the personal pension fund after allowing for that payment.]

(3) ^{F21}

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER IV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Board may make provision by regulations as to the basis on which the tables mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above are to be prepared and the manner in which they are to be applied.]]]

[^{F34}632A Eligibility to make contributions.

- (1) The Board shall not approve a personal pension scheme if it permits, in relation to arrangements made by a member in accordance with the scheme, the acceptance of—
- (a) contributions by the member, or
 - (b) contributions by an employer of the member,
- at a time when the member is not eligible to make contributions.
- (2) The Board shall not approve a personal pension scheme unless it makes provision for ensuring, in relation to any such arrangements, that any contributions accepted at a time when the member is not eligible to make contributions are repaid—

- (a) to the member, to the extent of his contributions; and
 - (b) as to the remainder, to his employer.
- (3) The following provisions of this section, and the provisions of section 632B, have effect for determining for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) above the times at which a member is eligible to make contributions (and, for those purposes, a member is not eligible to make contributions at any other time).
- (4) A member is eligible to make contributions at any time during a year of assessment for which he has actual net relevant earnings.
- (5) A member who does not have actual net relevant earnings for a year of assessment (“the relevant year”) is eligible to make contributions at any time during that year if—
- (a) for at least some part of the year he does not hold an office or employment to which section 645 applies; and
 - (b) the condition in any of subsections (6) to (9) below is satisfied.
- (6) Condition A is that at some time in the relevant year the member is resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom.
- (7) Condition B is that the member—
- (a) at some time during the five years of assessment preceding the relevant year, has been resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom; and
 - (b) was resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom when he made the personal pension arrangements in question.
- (8) Condition C is that at some time in the relevant year the member is a person who performs duties which, by virtue of section 132(4)(a), are treated as being performed in the United Kingdom.
- (9) Condition D is that at some time in the relevant year the member is the spouse of a person who performs such duties as are mentioned in subsection (8) above.]

F34 Ss. 632A, 632B inserted (6.4.2001) by Finance Act 2000 (c. 17), Sch. 13 para. 8 (with Sch. 13 Pt. 2)

[^{F34} 632B Eligibility to make contributions: concurrent membership.

- (1) A member who would not, apart from this section, be eligible to make contributions during a year of assessment shall be eligible to make contributions at any time during that year if—
- (a) throughout the year he holds an office or employment to which section 645 applies;
 - (b) the condition in any of subsections (6) to (9) of section 632A is satisfied in his case as respects the year;
 - (c) he is not, and has not been, a controlling director of a company at any time in the year or in any of the five years of assessment preceding it;
 - (d) for at least one of the five years of assessment preceding the year, the aggregate of his grossed-up remuneration from each office and each employment held on 5th April in that preceding year does not exceed the remuneration limit for the relevant year; and

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

- (e) the total relevant contributions made in the year do not exceed the earnings threshold for the year.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) above, no account shall be taken of any year of assessment earlier than the year 2000-01.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) above, a person is a controlling director of a company at any time if at that time—
- (a) he is a director, as defined by section 612(1); and
 - (b) he is within paragraph (b) of section 417(5) in relation to the company.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) above—
- (a) “grossed up”, in relation to a person’s remuneration from an office or employment, means increased by being multiplied by a figure determined in accordance with an order made by the Treasury (or left unchanged, if that figure is unity);
 - (b) “remuneration” shall be construed in accordance with an order made by the Treasury;
 - (c) “the remuneration limit” for any year of assessment is £30,000;
 - (d) “the relevant year” means the year of assessment first mentioned in subsection (1) above.
- The Treasury may by order amend the definition of “the remuneration limit” in paragraph (c) above for any year of assessment by varying the amount there specified.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (e) of subsection (1) above and the following provisions of this section, “the total relevant contributions”, in the case of a year of assessment, means the aggregate amount of the contributions made in the year—
- (a) by the member in question, and
 - (b) by any employer of his,
- under arrangements made by the member under the scheme in question, together with the aggregate amounts of such contributions under other approved personal pension arrangements made by that member.
- (6) If—
- (a) in the case of a member, the total relevant contributions in a year of assessment, apart from this subsection, exceed the earnings threshold for the year, and
 - (b) but for that, the member would be eligible to make contributions by virtue of subsection (1) above at any time in that year,
- the repayment required by subsection (2) of section 632A is repayment of the relevant excess contributions only (so that the condition in subsection (1)(e) above becomes satisfied).
- (7) In subsection (6) above “the relevant excess contributions” means—
- (a) to the extent that a contribution is the first which caused the total relevant contributions in the year to exceed the earnings threshold for the year, that contribution; and
 - (b) all subsequent contributions in the year.
- (8) The Treasury may by order make provision requiring any person who claims to be eligible to make contributions by virtue of this section to provide to—

634 Annuity to member.

- ^{M14}(1) The annuity must be payable by an authorised insurance company which may be chosen by the member.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, the annuity must not commence before the member attains the age of 50 or after he attains the age of 75.
- (3) The annuity may commence before the member attains the age of 50 if—
- (a) it is payable on his becoming incapable through infirmity of body or mind of carrying on his own occupation or any occupation of a similar nature for which he is trained or fitted; or
 - (b) the Board are satisfied that his occupation is one in which persons customarily retire before that age.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, the annuity must be payable to the member for his life.
- (5) The annuity may continue for a term certain not exceeding ten years, notwithstanding the member's death within that term; and for this purpose an annuity shall be regarded as payable for a term certain notwithstanding that it may terminate, after the death of the member and before expiry of that term, on the happening of any of the following—
- (a) the marriage of the annuitant;
 - (b) his attaining the age of 18;
 - (c) the later of his attaining that age and ceasing to be in full-time education.
- (6) The annuity must not be capable of assignment or surrender, [^{F41}except that—
- (a) an annuity may be assigned or surrendered for the purpose of giving effect to a pension sharing order or provision; and
 - (b) an annuity for a term certain may be assigned by will or by the annuitant's personal representatives in the distribution of his estate so as to give effect to a testamentary disposition, or to the rights of those entitled on an intestacy, or to an appropriation of it to a legacy or to a share or interest in the estate.

636 Annuity after death of member.

- ^{M16}(1) The annuity must be payable by an authorised insurance company which may be chosen by the member or by the annuitant.
- (2) The annuity must be payable to the surviving spouse of the member, or to a person who was at the member's death a dependant of his.
- (3) The aggregate annual amount (or, if that amount varies, the aggregate of the initial annual amounts) of all annuities to which this section applies and which are payable under the same personal pension arrangements shall not exceed—
- (a) where before his death the member was in receipt of an annuity under the arrangements, the annual amount (or, if it varied, the highest annual amount) of that annuity; or
 - (b) where paragraph (a) does not apply, the highest annual amount of the annuity that would have been payable under the arrangements to the member (ignoring any entitlement of his to commute part of it for a lump sum) if it had [^{F53}been purchased] on the day before his death.
- [^{F54}(3A) The references in subsection (3) above—
- (a) to the annual amount or highest annual amount of an annuity of which the member was in receipt before his death, and
 - (b) to the highest annual amount of an annuity that would have been payable if it had been purchased on the day before the member's death,
- shall each be construed in a case where payments of that annuity were or would have been affected by the making of any pension sharing order or provision as if the only payments of that annuity to be taken into account were those that have been or would have been so affected.]
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) to (9) below, the annuity must be payable for the life of the annuitant.
- (5) Where the annuity is payable to the surviving spouse of the member and at the time of the member's death the surviving spouse is under the age of 60, the annuity may be deferred to a time not later than—
- (a) the time when the surviving spouse attains that age; or [^{F72}638Z] Personal pension arrangements with more than one pension date etc.

- (1) This section applies where a personal pension scheme makes provision for a personal pension arrangement under the scheme to make provision—
- (a) for the payment of more than one annuity satisfying the conditions in section 634 or 636 (a “qualifying annuity”) and for different such annuities to commence, or be capable of commencing, on different days;
 - (b) for elections such as are mentioned in section 634A(1) or 636A(1) (“elections for deferral”) to be capable of being made at different times in relation to different portions of the personal pension fund; and
 - (c) for a qualifying lump sum to be payable in connection with—
 - (i) each qualifying annuity (other than one purchased pursuant to section 634A, 636 or 636A); and
 - (ii) each election for deferral such as is mentioned in section 634A(1).
- (2) The Board shall not refuse to approve a personal pension scheme by reason only that it makes such provision as is mentioned in subsection (1) above if they are satisfied that it makes provision in conformity with the provisions of this section.
- (3) In this section—
- “income withdrawal fund” means a portion of the personal pension fund which is specified or described in an election for deferral as the portion of that fund to which the election relates;
- “qualifying lump sum” means a lump sum satisfying the conditions of section 635 (as that section has effect by virtue of and in accordance with this section);

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER IV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- “the relevant date”, in relation to any qualifying annuity or election for deferral, means the date determined in accordance with the arrangement on which—
- (a) the qualifying annuity commences; or
 - (b) the member makes the election for deferral.
- (4) In the application of section 635 in relation to a qualifying lump sum, for the condition in subsection (3) there shall be substituted the conditions in subsections (5) and (6) below (as read with subsection (7) below).
- (5) The first condition is that the lump sum must not exceed one-third of—
- (a) the difference between—
 - (i) the value of the portion of the personal pension fund applied in the provision of the qualifying annuity in connection with which the lump sum is paid, determined as at the date on which that portion is so applied, and
 - (ii) the value, determined as at that date, of so much of that portion as represents protected rights, or
 - (b) the value, as at the relevant date, of the income withdrawal fund which relates to the election for deferral in connection with it is paid,
- as the case may be.
- (6) The second condition is that the lump sum must not represent any of the value, at the time when the lump sum is paid, of any protected rights.
- (7) In subsections (5) and (6) above, “protected rights” means any of the member’s rights under the personal pension arrangement which are protected rights for the purposes of the ^{M21}Pension Schemes Act 1993 or the ^{M22}Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993.
- (8) Where a qualifying annuity commences, this Chapter and the personal pension scheme concerned shall have effect, as from the relevant date, as if there had been a separate personal pension arrangement and—
- (a) the annuity, and any qualifying lump sum payable in connection with it, were benefits provided for by that separate arrangement (instead of by the personal pension arrangement by which it was actually provided (in this subsection referred to as “the relevant arrangement”));
 - (b) the portion of the personal pension fund applied in the provision of the annuity, together with the amount of any qualifying lump sum payable in connection with the annuity, had been the personal pension fund in the case of that separate arrangement (and were excluded from the personal pension fund in the case of the relevant arrangement);
 - (c) any election for the annuity, or for such a qualifying lump sum, had been made under that separate arrangement (instead of under the relevant arrangement); and
 - (d) except in the case of an annuity satisfying the conditions in section 636, the relevant date were the pension date in relation to that separate arrangement (and were not, by reference to that annuity, the pension date in relation to the relevant arrangement).
- (9) Where, in the case of any personal pension arrangement (in this subsection referred to as “the relevant arrangement”), an election for deferral is made, this Chapter and the [^{F73}638A Power to prescribe restrictions on approval.

- (1) The Board—
 - (a) may by regulations restrict their discretion to approve a personal pension scheme; and
 - (b) shall not approve any such scheme if to do so would be inconsistent with any regulations under this section.
- (2) The restrictions that may be imposed by regulations under this section may be imposed by reference to any one or more of the following, that is to say—
 - (a) the benefits for which the scheme provides;
 - (b) the investments held for the purposes of the scheme;
 - (c) the manner in which the scheme is administered;
 - (d) any other circumstances whatever.
- (3) The following provisions of this section apply where—
 - (a) any regulations are made under this section imposing a restriction (“the new restriction”) on the Board’s discretion to approve a personal pension scheme;
 - (b) the new restriction did not exist immediately before the making of the regulations; and
 - (c) that restriction is one imposed by reference to circumstances other than the benefits for which the scheme provides.

- (a) anything in respect of which tax is chargeable under Schedule E and which arises from the acquisition or disposal of shares or an interest in shares or from a right to acquire shares;
 - (b) anything in respect of which tax is chargeable by virtue of section 148.
- (5) Emoluments of an individual as director of a company are not income within subsection (2) above if—
- (a) the income of the company consists wholly or mainly of investment income; and
 - (b) the individual, either alone or together with any other persons who are or have been at any time directors of the company, controls the company;
- and section 840 shall apply for the purposes of this subsection.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5) above—
- “director” includes any person occupying the position of director by whatever name called; and
 - [^{F96}“investment income” means income which if the company were an individual, would not be earned income.]
- [^{F97}(6A) Emoluments of an individual as an employee of a company are not income within subsection (2) above if—
- (a) he is a controlling director of the company at any time in the year of assessment in question or has been a controlling director of the company at any time in the ten years immediately preceding that year of assessment, and
 - (b) any of subsections (6B) to (6E) below applies in his case.
- (6B) This subsection applies in the case of the individual if—
- (a) at any time in the year of assessment in question he is in receipt of benefits under a relevant superannuation scheme, and
 - (b) the benefits are payable in respect of past service with the company.
- (6C) This subsection applies in the case of the individual if—
- (a) at any time in the year of assessment in question he is in receipt of benefits under a personal pension scheme.
 - (b) the scheme has received a transfer payment relating to him from a relevant superannuation scheme, and
 - (c) the transfer payment is in respect of past service with the company.
- (6D) This subsection applies in the case of the individual if—
- (a) at any time in the year of assessment in question he is in receipt of benefits under a relevant superannuation scheme,
 - (b) the benefits are payable in respect of past service with another company,
 - (c) the emoluments are for a period during which the company mentioned in subsection (6A) above has carried on a trade or business previously carried on by the other company, and

- (d) the other company carried on the trade or business at anytime during the period of service in respect of which the benefits are payable.

(6E) This subsection applies in the case of the individual if—

- (a) at any time in the year of assessment in question he is in receipt of benefits under a personal pension scheme,
- (b) the scheme has received a transfer payment relating to him from a relevant superannuation scheme,
- (c) the transfer payment is in respect of past service with another company,
- (d) the emoluments are for a period during which the company mentioned in subsection (6A) above has carried on a trade or business previously carried on by the other company, and
- (e) the other company carried on the trade or business at any time during the period of service in respect of which the transfer payment was made.

[Where—

- ^{F98}(6EA) (a) there is a time at which a person would be in receipt of any benefits under a scheme but for any debit to which any of his rights under that scheme became subject by virtue of any pension sharing order or provision, and
- (b) the benefits he would be in receipt of are benefits payable in respect of past service with a company, that person shall be deemed for the purposes of subsections (6A) to (6E) above to be in receipt at that time of benefits under that scheme and the benefits which he is deemed to be in receipt of shall be deemed to be benefits in respect of past service with that company.]

(6F) For the purposes of subsections (6A) to [^{F99}(6EA)] above—

- (a) a person is a controlling director of a company if he is a director (as defined by section 612(1)), and he is within paragraph (b) of section 417(5), in relation to the company;
- (b) “relevant superannuation scheme” has the same meaning as in section 645(1);
- (c) references to benefits payable in respect of past service with a company include references to benefits payable partly in respect of past service with the company [^{F100}but do not include references to benefits which (within the meaning of section 590) are provided for him as an ex-spouse]; and
- (d) references to a transfer payment in respect of past service with a company include references to a transfer payment partly in respect of past service with the company [^{F101}but do not include references to any transfer payment made for the purpose of giving effect to a pension sharing order or provision.]]

645 Earnings from pensionable employment.

- ^{M30}(1) This section applies to an office or employment held by an individual if—
- service in it is service to which a relevant superannuation scheme relates; and
 - the individual is a participant in the scheme; and
 - [^{F103}subsection (4) below does not apply] to his participation in the scheme.
- (2) This section applies whether or not the duties of the office or employment are performed wholly or partly in the United Kingdom or the individual is chargeable to tax in respect of it.
- (3) In subsection (1) above “a relevant superannuation scheme” means a scheme or arrangement—
- the object or one of the objects of which is the provision, in respect of persons serving in particular offices or employments, of relevant benefits within the meaning of section 612; ^{F104} . . .
 - which is established by a person other than the individual [^{F103}; ^{F105} . . .
 - which is of a description mentioned in section 596(1)(a), (b) or (c)] [^{F106}; and
 - which is not an approved converted scheme].
- (4) This subsection applies to an individual’s participation in a scheme if the scheme provides no benefits in relation to him other than—
- an annuity payable to his surviving spouse or a dependant of his;
 - a lump sum payable on his death in service.
- [^{F107}(4A) Where the emoluments from an office or employment held by an individual are foreign emoluments within the meaning of section 192, this section shall have effect with the substitution of the following for paragraph (c) of subsection (3) above—

646 Meaning of “net relevant earnings”.

- ^{M31}(1) Subject to subsections (3) to (7) below [^{F109} and section 646(A)], in this Chapter “net relevant earnings”, in relation to an individual, means the amount of his relevant earnings for the year of assessment in question, less the amount of any deductions within subsection (2) below which fall to be made from the relevant earnings in computing for the purposes of income tax his total income for that year.
- (2) Deductions are within this subsection if they are—
- (a) deductions which but for section 74(m), (p) or (q) could be made in computing the profits or gains of the individual;
 - (b) deductions made by virtue of section 198, 201 or 332(3);
 - (c) deductions in respect of relief under Schedule 9 to the Finance Act 1981 (stock relief);
 - (d) deductions in respect of losses or capital allowances, being losses or capital allowances arising from activities profits or gains of which would be included in computing relevant earnings of the individual or the individual’s wife or husband^{F110}.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, an individual’s relevant earnings shall be taken to be those earnings before giving effect to any capital allowances, other than deductions allowable in computing profits or gains, but after taking into account the amounts on which charges fall to be made [^{F111} under the 1990 Act (including enactments which under this Act are to be treated as contained in the 1990 Act)]; and in subsections (4) and (5) below, references to income (other than references to total income) shall be construed similarly.
- (4) In the case of an individual’s partnership profits, the amount to be included in arriving at his net relevant earnings shall be his share of the partnership income (estimated in accordance with the Income Tax Acts) after making from it any such deductions in respect of—
- (a) payments made by the partnership;
 - (b) relief given to the partnership under Schedule 9 to the Finance Act 1981; or
 - (c) capital allowances falling to be made to the partnership,
- as would be made in computing the tax payable in respect of that income.

- (5) Where, in a year of assessment for which ^{F112}the basic rate limit is increased in accordance with section 639(5A) in the case] of an individual—
- (a) a deduction in respect of such a loss or allowance of the individual as is mentioned in subsection (2)(d) above falls to be made in computing the total income of the individual or the individual's wife or husband^{F113}; and
 - (b) the deduction or part of it falls to be so made from income other than relevant earnings;
- the amount of the deduction made from that other income shall be treated as reducing the individual's net relevant earnings for subsequent years of assessment in accordance with subsection (6) below.
- (6) The deduction shall be made so far as possible from the individual's net relevant earnings for the first of the subsequent years of assessment (whether or not he is entitled to relief ^{F114}in accordance with section 639(5A)] for that year), and then, so far as it cannot be so made, from those of the next year, and so on.

^{F116}646A Earnings from associated employments.

- (1) This section applies where in the year of assessment in question—
- (a) an individual holds two or more offices or employments which are associated in that year,
 - (b) one or more of them is an office or employment to which section 645 applies (“pensionable job”), and
 - (c) one or more of them is an office or employment to which that section does not apply (“non-pensionable job”).
- (2) Where the emoluments for that year from the pensionable job (or jobs) are equal to or exceed the allowable maximum for that year, section 646(1) shall have effect in the case of the individual as if the references to relevant earnings were references to relevant earnings not attributable to the non-pensionable job (or jobs).

[^{F117}646BP] Presumption of same level of relevant earnings etc for 5 years.

- (1) This section applies where an individual (the “relevant member”) who is or becomes a member of a personal pension scheme provides to the scheme administrator the requisite evidence of the relevant amounts for any year of assessment (the “basis year”).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the “relevant amounts” for any year of assessment are the amounts which need to be known in order to calculate the relevant member's net relevant earnings for that year.
- (3) The basis year need not be a year of assessment in which the relevant member is a member of the personal pension scheme concerned.
- (4) Where this section applies, it shall be presumed for the purposes of this Chapter in the case of the relevant member and the personal pension scheme concerned that, for each of the five years of assessment following the basis year, the relevant amounts (and, accordingly, the relevant member's net relevant earnings) are the same as for the basis year.
- (5) Subsection (4) above is subject to—
 - (a) subsections (6) to (9) below; and
 - (b) such conditions or exceptions as may be prescribed.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the requisite evidence provided for a later basis year (the “later basis year”) supersedes the requisite evidence provided for an earlier basis year (the “earlier basis year”).

[^{F118} 646D Higher level contributions after cessation of actual relevant earnings: modification of section 646B.

- (1) This section applies where a member of a personal pension scheme—
 - (a) has no actual relevant earnings in a year of assessment (the “break year”); but
 - (b) had actual relevant earnings in the preceding year of assessment (the “cessation year”); and
 - (c) was entitled to make higher level contributions under arrangements under the scheme in any one or more of the six years of assessment preceding the break year (the “reference years”).
- (2) In the application of the presumption in subsection (4) of section 646B for any qualifying post-cessation year, in a case where this section applies, the basis year may be any one of the reference years for which the member provides or has provided the requisite evidence—
 - (a) notwithstanding anything in subsections (6) to (9) of that section; and
 - (b) whether or not the qualifying post-cessation year is included among the five years of assessment following the basis year.
- (3) If the member provides or has provided the requisite evidence for two or more of the reference years, he may by notice in writing to the scheme administrator nominate that one of those years which is to be the basis year by virtue of subsection (2) above.
- (4) In this section “post-cessation year”, in the case of the member concerned, means any of the five years of assessment following the cessation year.
- (5) For the purposes of this section any post-cessation year is a “qualifying” post-cessation year unless—
 - (a) it is a year for which the member has any actual relevant earnings;
 - (b) it is a year throughout which the member holds an office or employment to which section 645 applies; or
 - (c) it immediately follows a post-cessation year which is not a qualifying post-cessation year.
- (6) Subsection (5) above is without prejudice to the further application of this section in relation to the member if the conditions in subsection (1) above are again fulfilled.

Charge to tax

647 Unauthorised payments.

- ^{M32}(1) This section applies to any payment within subsection (2) below which is made—
- (a) out of funds which are or have been held for the purposes of a personal pension scheme which is or has at any time been approved; and
 - (b) to or for the benefit of an individual who has made personal pension arrangements in accordance with the scheme.
- (2) A payment is within this subsection if—
- (a) it is not expressly authorised by the rules of the scheme; or
 - (b) it is made at a time when the scheme or the arrangements are not approved and it would not have been expressly authorised by the rules of the scheme or by the arrangements when the scheme, or as the case may be the arrangements, were last so approved.
- (3) The individual referred to in subsection (1)(b) above, whether or not he is the recipient of the payment, shall be chargeable to tax under Schedule E on the amount of the payment for the year of assessment in which the payment is made.
- (4) This section applies to a transfer of assets or other transfer of money's worth as it applies to a payment, and in relation to such a transfer the reference in subsection (3) above to the amount of the payment shall be read as a reference to the value of the transfer.

Miscellaneous

649 Minimum contributions under Social Security Act 1986.

- ^{M34}(1) Where under [^{F122}section 43 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993] the [^{F123}Board pay] minimum contributions for the purposes of approved personal pension arrangements, the amount of the employee's share of those contributions shall, instead of being the amount provided for in that Part, be the grossed-up equivalent of the amount so provided for.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—

Status: Point in time view as at 28/07/2000.

Changes to legislation: Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988, CHAPTER IV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F124}“the employee”’s share’ of minimum contributions is the amount that would be the minimum contributions if, for the reference in section 45(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 to the appropriate age-related percentage, there were substituted a reference to the percentage mentioned in section 41(1A) (a) of that Act];

“the grossed-up equivalent” of an amount is such sum as, after deduction of income tax at the basic rate in force for the year of assessment for which the contributions are paid, is equal to that amount.

(3) The employee’s share of minimum contributions paid for a year of assessment by the [^{F125}Board] for the purposes of approved personal pension arrangements shall be treated for the purposes of income tax—

- (a) as the income for that year of the individual in respect of whom it is paid; and
- (b) as contributions paid in that year by that individual under those arrangements.

(4) The Board may make regulations—

- (a) ^{F126}
- (b) ^{F126}
- (c) prescribing circumstances in which this section or any provision of it shall not apply;
- (d) making such provision as appears to the Board to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of supplementing the provisions of this section.

[^{F127}(5) The Board shall pay into the National Insurance Fund out of money provided by Parliament the amount of any increase attributable to this section in the sums paid out of that Fund under the Pension Schemes Act 1993.]

(6) In relation to Northern Ireland, this section shall have effect as if—

- (a) ^{F128}
- (b) references to [^{F129}section 43, section 45(1) and section 41(1)(a) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993] were references to [^{F130}sections 39, 41(1) and 37(1)(a) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993, respectively];
- [^{F131}(bb) references to sections 45(1) and 41(1A)(a) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 were references to sections 41(1) and 37(1A)(a) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993, respectively;] and
- (c) references to the National Insurance Fund were references to the Northern Ireland National Insurance Fund.

[^{F133} 650] Charge on withdrawal of approval from arrangements.

- (1) Where any personal pension arrangements cease to be approved arrangements by virtue of the exercise by the Board of their power under section 650(2), tax shall be charged in accordance with this section.
- (2) The tax shall be charged under Case VI of Schedule D at the rate of 40 per cent. on an amount equal to the value (taking that value at the relevant time) of the appropriate part of the assets held at that time for the purposes of the relevant scheme.
- (3) In subsection (2) above—
 - “the appropriate part”, in relation to the value of any assets, is so much of those assets as is properly attributable, in accordance with the provisions of the scheme and any just and reasonable apportionment, to the arrangements in question; and
 - “the relevant time” means the time immediately before the date from which the Board’s approval is withdrawn.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, the person liable for the tax charged under this section shall be the scheme administrator for the relevant scheme.
- (5) If, in any case where an amount of tax has been charged under this section and has not been paid—
 - (a) there is at any time no person who, as the scheme administrator for the relevant scheme, may be assessed to that amount of tax, or is liable to pay it,
 - (b) the scheme administrator for that scheme cannot for the time being be traced,
 - (c) there has been such a failure by the scheme administrator for that scheme to meet a liability to pay that amount as the Board consider to be a failure of a serious nature, or
 - (d) it appears to the Board that a liability of the scheme administrator for that scheme to pay that amount of tax is a liability that he will be, or (were there an assessment) would be, unable to meet out of assets held in accordance with the scheme for the purposes of those arrangements,the Board shall be entitled to assess the unpaid tax on the person who made the arrangements in question as if the tax charged under this section, to the extent that it is unpaid, were assessable under this section on that person, instead of on the scheme administrator.
- (6) An assessment to tax made by virtue of subsection (5)(c) above shall not be out of time if it is made within three years after the date on which the tax which the scheme administrator has failed to pay first became due from him.

- (7) For the purposes of this section the value of an asset is, subject to subsection (8) below, its market value, construing “market value” in accordance with section 272 of the 1992 Act.
- (8) Where an asset held for the purposes of a scheme is a right or interest in respect of any money lent (directly or indirectly) to any person mentioned in subsection (9) below, the value of the asset shall be treated as being the amount owing (including any unpaid interest) on the money lent.
- (9) Those persons are—
- (a) the person who (whether or not before the making of the loan) made the arrangements in relation to which the Board’s approval has been withdrawn;
 - (b) any other person who has at any time (whether or not before the making of the loan) made contributions under those arrangements; and
 - (c) any person connected, at the time of the making of the loan or subsequently, with a person falling within paragraph (a) or (b) above.
- (10) In this section “the relevant scheme”, in relation to any personal pension arrangements, means the scheme in accordance with which those arrangements were made.
- (11) Section 839 shall apply for the purposes of this section.]

654 Remuneration of Ministers and other officers.

^{M39}(1) This section applies to any salary—

- (a) payable to the holder of a qualifying office who is also a Member of the House of Commons; and
- (b) payable for a period in respect of which the holder is not a participant in relation to that office in arrangements contained in the Parliamentary pension scheme but is a participant in relation to his membership of the House of Commons in any such arrangements, or for any part of such a period.

(2) So much of any salary to which this section applies as is equal to the difference between a Member's pensionable salary and the salary which (in accordance with any such resolution as is mentioned in subsection (4)(a) below) is payable to him as a Member holding that qualifying office, shall be treated for the purposes of this Chapter as remuneration from the office of Member and not from the qualifying office.

(3) In this section—

“Member's pensionable salary” means a Member's ordinary salary under any resolution of the House of Commons which, being framed otherwise than as an expression of opinion, is for the time being in force relating to the remuneration of Members or, if the resolution provides for a Member's ordinary salary thereunder to be treated for pension purposes as being at a higher rate, a notional yearly salary at that higher rate;

“qualifying office” means an office mentioned in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (2) of section 2 of the ^{M40}Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1987;

“the Parliamentary pension scheme” has the same meaning as in that Act; and, without prejudice to the power conferred by virtue of paragraph 13 of Schedule 1 to that Act, regulations under section 2 of that Act may make provision specifying the circumstances in which a person is to be regarded for the purposes of this section as being or not being a participant in relation to his membership of the House of Commons, or in relation to any office, in arrangements contained in the Parliamentary pension scheme.

(4) In subsection (3) above “a Member's ordinary salary”, in relation to any resolution of the House of Commons, means—

- (a) if the resolution provides for salary to be paid to Members at different rates according to whether or not they are holders of particular offices or are in receipt of salaries or pensions as the holders or former holders of particular offices, a Member's yearly salary at the higher or highest rate; and
- (b) in any other case, a Member's yearly salary at the rate specified in or determined under the resolution.

- (1)^{M41}Where approved personal pension arrangements are made by an individual who pays qualifying premiums within the meaning of section 620(1)—
 - (a) the amount [^{F138}of contributions in respect of which relief may be given] by virtue of section 639(1) in any year of assessment shall be reduced by the amount of any qualifying premiums which are paid in the year by the individual and in respect of which relief is given for the year under section 619(1)(a); and
 - (b) the relief which, by virtue of section 625, may be given under section 619 by reference to the individual's unused relief for any year shall be reduced by the amount of any contributions paid by him in that year under the approved personal pension arrangements.
- (2) Where an individual elects under section 641 that a contribution or part of a contribution shall be treated as paid in the year of assessment [^{F139}1985-86, 1986-87 or 1987-88], the payment shall be treated as the payment of a qualifying premium for the purposes of Chapter III of this Part; and in such a case references in section 641 to an amount of unused relief shall be construed in accordance with section 625.
- (3) The references in section 642 to unused relief for any year are, for years of assessment before [^{F140}1988-89], references to unused relief within the meaning of section 625.
- (4)^{M42}The Board shall not grant any application under section 631 so as to approve a scheme with effect from a date earlier than [^{F140}1st July] 1988.
- (5) The Board may by regulations make provision for applications for approval of personal pension schemes to be granted provisionally in cases where the applications are made before 1st [^{F140}February 1990] notwithstanding that the Board have not satisfied themselves that the schemes comply with the requirements of sections 632 to 638; and such regulations may, in particular, provide—
 - (a) for the contents and form of certificates or other documents which the Board may require the applicant to give them before they grant an application provisionally;
 - (b) for the making of such amendments of the rules of the scheme after the provisional grant of an application as are necessary to enable the scheme to comply with the requirements of sections 632 to 638, and for those amendments to have effect as from the date of approval of the scheme;
 - (c) for the withdrawal of approval of the scheme as from that date if it does not comply with the requirements of sections 632 to 638 and such amendments as are mentioned in paragraph (b) above are not made;

and may make such supplementary provision as appears to the Board to be necessary or expedient.
