PART I U.K.

THE DISTRIBUTION TEST

Commodity income

- 4 (1) To the extent that the income of an offshore fund for any account period includes profits from dealing in commodities, one half of those profits shall be left out of account in determining for the purposes of paragraphs 1(1)(b) and 5 below—
- (a) the income of the fund for that period; and
 - (b) the fund's United Kingdom equivalent profits for that period;
- but in any account period in which an offshore fund incurs a loss in dealing in commodities the amount of that loss shall not be varied by virtue of this paragraph.
- (2) In this paragraph “dealing in commodities” shall be construed as follows—
- (a) “commodities” does not include currency, securities, debts or other assets of a financial nature but, subject to that, means tangible assets which are dealt with on a commodity exchange in any part of the world; and
 - (b) “dealing” includes dealing by way of futures contracts and traded options.
- (3) Where the income of an offshore fund for any account period consists of profits from dealing in commodities and other income, then—
- (a) in determining whether the condition in paragraph 1(1)(b) above is fulfilled with respect to that account period, the expenditure of the fund shall be apportioned in such manner as is just and reasonable between the profits from dealing in commodities and the other income; and
 - (b) in determining whether, and to what extent, any expenditure is deductible under section [75 ^{F1}] in computing the fund's United Kingdom equivalent profits for that period, so much of the business of the fund as does not consist
