

Dartford-Thurrock Crossing Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 20

PART IV E+W

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

38 Restrictions on works on crossing and approach roads. E+W*

- (1) No works shall be carried out in, on, under or over any part of the crossing or of the approach roads otherwise than by or on behalf of the Secretary of State unless the Secretary of State gives his written consent.
- (2) Consent under subsection (1) above may be granted subject to such reasonable terms and conditions (including conditions imposing a charge) as the Secretary of State may determine; and any question whether any such terms and conditions are reasonable shall be determined by arbitration.
- (3) Section 15 of the <sup>M1</sup>Pipe-lines Act 1962 shall not apply where this section applies.
- (4) Subsection (1) above shall not be taken to require the consent of the Secretary of State for the carrying out of works in relation to any highway or railway passing under or over any part of the crossing or of the approach roads.
