

Court of Session Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 36

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

45 Restoration of possession and specific performance

The Court may, on application by summary petition—

- (a) order the restoration of possession of any real or personal property of the possession of which the petitioner may have been violently or fraudulently deprived; and
- (b) order the specific performance of any statutory duty, under such conditions and penalties (including fine and imprisonment, where consistent with the enactment concerned) in the event of the order not being implemented, as to the Court seem proper.
