SCHEDULE 3

Section 35.

MARRIED COUPLES: MINOR AND CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS

PART I

AMENDMENTS OF THE TAXES ACT 1988

Introductory

1 The Taxes Act 1988 shall have effect subject to the following amendments.

Commencement of trade etc.

2 In section 62 (special basis for early years following commencement of trade etc.) the following subsection shall be inserted after subsection (2)—

“(2A) Where—

- (a) the second year of assessment is the year 1989-90,
- (b) the person charged, or liable to be charged, for that year is a married man, and
- (c) the person charged, or liable to be charged, for the year 1990-91 is his wife, subsection (2) above shall have effect as if it conferred the right to give notice on her and not on him.”

Discontinuance of trade etc.

3 In section 63 (special basis on discontinuance of trade etc.)—

- (a) in subsection (1)(b), for the words “that person” and the word “he”, in both places where it occurs, there shall be substituted the words “ income tax ”, and
- (b) in subsection (2), for the words “a person has been charged with income tax” there shall be substituted the words “ income tax has been charged ”.

Underpayments

4 In section 203 (PAYE) the following subsection shall be inserted after subsection (3)

“(3A) Regulations under this section may include provision for income tax in respect of any of a person’s income for the year 1989-90 or any earlier year of assessment to be collected and recovered (whether by deduction from

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. income assessable under Schedule E or otherwise) from the person's spouse if—

- (a) the income was income to which section 279 applied, and
- (b) the tax has not been deducted or otherwise recovered before 6th April 1990.”

Additional relief in respect of children

5 (1) For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment section 259 (additional relief in respect of children) shall have effect with the following amendments.

(2) For subsection (1) there shall be substituted—

“(1) This section applies to—

- (a) any woman who is not throughout the year of assessment married and living with her husband;
- (b) any man who is neither married and living with his wife for the whole or any part of the year, nor entitled to a deduction from his total income by virtue of section 257F; and
- (c) any man who for the whole or any part of the year is married to and living with a wife who is totally incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity throughout the year.”

(3) In subsection (2), for the words “the difference between” onwards there shall be substituted the words “that specified in section 257A(1) for the year”.

(4) For subsection (4) there shall be substituted—

“(4) A woman shall not be entitled to relief under this section for a year of assessment during any part of which she is married and living with her husband unless the child in respect of whom the relief is claimed is resident with her during a part of the year when she is not married and living with her husband.”

6 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment the following section shall be substituted for section 261 (year of marriage)—

“261 Claims under section 259 for year of marriage.

A man (but not a woman) who becomes married during a year of assessment may by notice to the inspector elect that his marriage shall be disregarded for the purposes of any claim that he makes for that year under section 259, and, in that case, the marriage shall also be disregarded for the purposes of any claim that he makes for that year under section 257A.”

Widow's bereavement allowance

7 (1) The section set out in sub-paragraph (2) below shall have effect in substitution for section 262 (widow's bereavement allowance) in relation to deaths occurring during the year 1989-90, and the section set out in sub-paragraph (3) below shall have effect

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) in substitution for that section in relation to deaths occurring during the year 1990-91 or any subsequent year of assessment.

(2) The section first referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above is—

Widow’s bereavement allowance.

“262 Where a man dies in the year 1989-90 and for that year he is entitled to the higher (married person’s) relief under section 257(1), or would be so entitled but for an election under section 261 or 287, his widow shall be entitled—

- (a) for that year of assessment, to a deduction from her total income of an amount equal to the amount referred to in section 259(2), and
- (b) (unless she marries again before the beginning of it) for the year 1990-91, to a deduction from her total income of an amount equal to the amount specified in section 257A(1) for that year.”

(3) The section second referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above is—

Widow’s bereavement allowance.

“262 Where a married man whose wife is living with him dies, his widow shall be entitled—

- (a) for the year of assessment in which the death occurs, to a deduction from her total income of an amount equal to the amount specified in section 257A(1) for that year, and
- (b) (unless she marries again before the beginning of it) for the next following year of assessment, to a deduction of an amount equal to the amount specified in section 257A(1) for that year.”

Blind person’s allowance

8 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment the following section shall be substituted for section 265—

“265 Blind person’s allowance.

(1) If the claimant proves that he is a registered blind person for the whole or any part of the year of assessment, he shall be entitled to a deduction of £540 from his total income.

(2) Where—

- (a) a person entitled to relief under subsection (1) above is a married man whose wife is living with him for the whole or any part of the year of assessment, but
- (b) the amount which he is entitled to deduct from his total income by virtue of that subsection exceeds what is left of his total income after all other deductions have been made from it, his wife shall be entitled to a deduction from her total income of an amount equal to the excess.

(3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above the amount that is left of a person’s total income for a year of assessment after other deductions have been made from it, there shall be disregarded any deduction made—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) on account of any payments of relevant loan interest which become due in that year and to which section 369 applies, or
 - (b) under section 257A or section 289.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) above shall have effect where a wife is entitled to relief under subsection (1) above as they have effect where the husband is entitled to that relief, but with the appropriate modifications (and in particular the omission from subsection (3) of the reference to section 257A).
- (5) Subsections (2) to (4) above shall not apply for a year of assessment unless the person entitled to relief under subsection (1) has given to the inspector written notice that they are to apply; and any such notice—
- (a) shall be given not later than six years after the end of the year of assessment to which it relates,
 - (b) shall be in such form as the Board may determine, and
 - (c) shall be irrevocable.
- (6) A notice given under subsection (5) above in relation to a year of assessment by a husband shall have effect also as a notice under section 257B(3).
- (7) In this section “registered blind person” means a person registered as a blind person in a register compiled under section 29 of the National Assistance Act 1948 or, in the case of a person ordinarily resident in Scotland or Northern Ireland, a person who is a blind person within the meaning of section 64(1) of that Act.”

Life assurance premiums

- 9 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment section 266 (life assurance premiums) shall have effect with the substitution—
- (a) in subsection (9), of the word “spouse” for the words “wife (but not the husband)”, and
 - (b) in subsection (11)(a), of the words “spouse, widow, widower or children or other dependants of any such employee or person,” for the word “wife” onwards.

Payments securing annuities

- 10 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment the following section shall be substituted for section 273 (payments securing annuities)—

“273 Payments securing annuities.

Subject to sections 274, 617(3) and 619(6), if the claimant is, under any Act of Parliament or under any terms and conditions of employment, liable to the payment of any sum, or to the deduction from any salary or stipend of any sum, for the purpose of securing a deferred annuity to a widow or widower of the claimant or provision for the claimant’s children after the claimant dies, the claimant shall be entitled to a deduction from the amount of income tax on which he or she is chargeable equal to income tax at the basic rate on the amount of the sum which he or she has paid or which has been deducted from his or her salary or stipend.”

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Married couples living together

- 11 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment the following section shall be substituted for section 282 (construction of references to married women living with their husbands)—

“282 Construction of references to husband and wife living together.

A husband and wife shall be treated for income tax purposes as living together unless—

- (a) they are separated under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or by deed of separation, or
- (b) they are in fact separated in such circumstances that the separation is likely to be permanent.”

Business expansion scheme

- 12 (1) For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment section 304 (business expansion scheme: husband and wife) shall have effect—
- (a) with the omission of subsections (1) to (4), and
 - (b) with the substitution of the following subsections for subsections (5) and (6)

“(5) Subsection (1) of section 299 shall not apply to a disposal made by a married man to his wife or a married woman to her husband at a time when they are living together; but where shares issued to one of them have been transferred to the other by a transaction inter vivos that subsection shall apply on the disposal of the shares by the transferee to a third person and any assessment for withdrawing relief in respect of the shares shall be made on the transferee.

(6) If any relief given for the year 1989-90 or any earlier year of assessment in respect of shares for which a married man or married woman has subscribed and which were issued while they were living together falls to be withdrawn in the year 1990-91 or any subsequent year of assessment by virtue of a disposal of those shares by the person who subscribed for them, any assessment for withdrawing that relief shall be made on the person making the disposal and shall be made by reference to the reduction of tax flowing from the amount of the relief regardless of any allocation of that relief under section 280 or of any allocation of the reduction under section 284 for the year of assessment for which the relief was given.”

- (2) Sub-paragraph (3) below applies where—
- (a) an amount is subscribed for shares in the year 1990-91 by one of a married couple who are living together,
 - (b) the couple were married and living together throughout the year 1989-90, and
 - (c) the subscriber claims that relief in respect of the amount be given partly by way of deduction from total income for the year 1989-90 in accordance with section 289(6).

- (3) Where this sub-paragraph applies—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the deduction shall be made from the husband's total income (references in Chapter II of Part VII to the relief to which an individual is entitled in respect of any shares being construed accordingly), and
- (b) the limits in sections 289(7) and 290 shall apply jointly to the husband and wife for the year 1989-90 as respects the amount subscribed.

Qualifying maintenance payments

- 13 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment section 347B(3) (qualifying maintenance payments) shall have effect with the substitution of the words "specified in section 257A(1) for the year" for the words "of the difference between" onwards.

Home loans

- 14 For the year 1990-91 and subsequent years of assessment the following section shall be substituted for section 356B—

“356B Residence basis: married couples.

- (1) A husband and wife who are not separated may jointly elect—
 - (a) that qualifying interest payable or paid by one of them for a year of assessment (or a period within a year), or such part of that interest as may be specified in the election, shall be treated for the purposes of sections 353 to 356A and 369 to 379 as payable or paid by the other, and
 - (b) that the sharer's limit under section 356A for the year (or period) in the case of one of them shall be reduced by such amount as may be specified in the election and the sharer's limit under that section for the year (or period) in the case of the other shall be correspondingly increased.
- (2) An election under subsection (1) above—
 - (a) shall be made before the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the end of the first year of assessment for which it is made or such longer period as the Board may in any particular case allow,
 - (b) shall, subject to subsection (4) below, have effect not only for the year of assessment for which it is made but also for subsequent years of assessment, and
 - (c) shall be in such form, and be made in such manner, as the Board may prescribe.
- (3) Where a husband and wife have made an election under subsection (1) above for any year of assessment either of them may give, for any subsequent year, a notice to withdraw that election; and, if he or she does so, the election shall not have effect (in relation to either of them) for the year for which the notice is given or any subsequent year.
- (4) A notice of withdrawal under subsection (3) above—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) shall be in such form, and be given in such manner, as the Board may prescribe,
- (b) shall not be given after the end of the period of twelve months beginning with the end of the year of assessment for which it is given or such longer period as the Board may in any particular case allow, and
- (c) shall not prejudice the making of a fresh election for any subsequent year.

(5) Where—

- (a) a husband and wife are not separated,
- (b) the husband pays interest in relation to a residence used or to be used as his only or main residence, and
- (c) the wife pays interest in relation to some other residence used or to be used as her only or main residence, the residence which was purchased first shall be treated for the purposes of sections 355(1)(a) and 356 as used or to be used as the only or main residence of both of them and the other residence shall be treated as used or to be used as the only or main residence of neither.”

Loans for shares in employee-controlled company

15 (1) In section 361 (relief for interest on loans to acquire shares in employee-controlled company)—

- (a) the words “or his spouse” in subsection (4)(d) and “, or whose spouses,” in subsection (5) shall cease to have effect, and
- (b) the following subsection shall be substituted for subsections (6) and (7)—

“(6) Where an individual owns beneficially more than 10 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of, or voting power in, a company, the excess shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (5) above as being owned by an individual who is not a full-time employee of the company.”

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) above shall have effect in relation to payments of interest made on or after 6th April 1990 unless the proceeds of the loan were used before that date to defray money applied as mentioned in section 361(3).

(3) Interest paid on a loan made on or after 6th April 1990 to defray money applied in paying off another loan shall not be eligible for relief by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 361 unless—

- (a) the proceeds of the loan paid off were used on or after 6th April 1990 to defray money applied as mentioned in that subsection, or
- (b) those proceeds were so used before that date but interest on the loan paid off would have been eligible for relief had they been so used on or after that date.

Close company loans

16 (1) In section 420(2)(a)(i) (exception from charge in case where close company loans to borrower and spouse do not exceed £15,000) the words “or the wife or husband of the borrower” shall cease to have effect.

SCHEDULE 5

Section 58.

UNDERWRITERS: ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF TAX

Preliminary

- 1 (1) In this Schedule—
- “agent”, in relation to a syndicate and a year of assessment, means—
 - (a) the person who was acting as underwriting agent for that syndicate at the end of the corresponding underwriting year; or
 - (b) such other person as may be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Board by statutory instrument;
 - “closing year”, in relation to a year of assessment, means the year of assessment next but one following that year;
 - “inspector” includes any officer of the Board;
 - “profits” includes gains;
 - “syndicate” means a syndicate of underwriting members of Lloyd’s formed for an underwriting year;
 - “syndicate profit or loss”, in relation to a syndicate, means the aggregate amount of the profits or losses arising to all the members of the syndicate (taken together), and “syndicate profits” and “syndicate losses” shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) References in this Schedule to profits or losses arising to a member of a syndicate are references to profits or losses which—
- (a) arise to him in his capacity as such a member, whether from his underwriting business or from assets forming part of a premiums trust fund; and
 - (b) are chargeable or, as the case may be, allowable under Case I of Schedule D.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Regulations under this paragraph may make provision with respect to the year of assessment next but one preceding the year of assessment in which they are made.

Returns by agent

- 2 (1) An inspector may, at any time after the end of the closing year for a year of assessment, by notice in writing to the agent require him to deliver to the inspector, on or before the final day determined under sub-paragraph (2) below, a return of the syndicate profit or loss for the year of assessment—
- (a) containing such information as may be required in pursuance of the notice; and
 - (b) accompanied by such accounts, statements and reports as may be so required; and
 - (c) in the case of a syndicate profit, containing a statement of the amount of tax which would be payable on that profit if the whole of it were charged to tax at the basic rate of income tax for that year.
- (2) The final day for the delivery of any return required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above is whichever is the later of—
- (a) the 1st September next following the end of the closing year for the year of assessment; and
 - (b) the end of the period of three months beginning on the day following that on which the notice was served.
- (3) If the agent, having been required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above to deliver a return, fails to deliver the return on or before the final day for its delivery, he shall be liable to a penalty equal to the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of days on which the failure continues; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £10 for each fifty members of the syndicate (counting any number of members left over as fifty).
- (4) If the agent fraudulently or negligently delivers an incorrect return under sub-paragraph (1) above, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of members of the syndicate; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £500 in the case of fraud and £250 in the case of negligence.
- (5) In relation to a return required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) any reference in sub-paragraph (2) or (3) above to the delivery of the return is a reference to its delivery together with the accompanying documents referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above; and
 - (b) the reference in sub-paragraph (4) above to the return being incorrect includes a reference to any of those documents being incorrect.

Payments on account of tax

- 3 (1) In the case of a syndicate profit for a year of assessment, the agent shall, on or before the 1st January next following the end of the closing year for that year—
- (a) pay to the collector, on account of the liabilities to tax of the members of the syndicate, the amount stated in his return for that year under paragraph 2(1)(c) above; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) deliver to the inspector a return apportioning, between those members, the amount so paid.
- (2) Where an amount is paid to the collector under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above for a year of assessment, the following provisions shall apply as between each member of the syndicate and the agent—
- (a) where the member's proportion of the amount so paid exceeds the amount deducted by the agent in accounting to the member for his share of the syndicate profit for that year, the amount of the excess shall be paid by the member to the agent; and
 - (b) where the amount so deducted exceeds that proportion, the amount of the excess shall be paid by the agent to the member.
- (3) Where an amount is paid to the collector under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above for a year of assessment, the following provisions shall apply as respects the liability to tax for that year of each member of the syndicate—
- (a) where the amount in which the member is charged to tax exceeds his proportion of the amount so paid, the amount of the excess shall be the amount of tax due and payable; and
 - (b) where that proportion exceeds the amount in which the member is so charged, the amount of the excess shall be treated as tax overpaid.
- (4) Any amount which is payable under sub-paragraph (1)(a) above shall carry interest at the prescribed rate from the date when it becomes payable until payment, whether or not that date is a non-business day within the meaning of the ^{M10}Bills of Exchange Act 1882; and—
- (a) section 89 of the ^{M11}Taxes Management Act 1970 (the prescribed rate of interest); and
 - (b) section 90 of that Act (disallowance of relief for interest on tax),
- shall apply for the purposes of this sub-paragraph as they apply for the purposes of any provision of Part IX of that Act.

Determinations by inspector

- (1) If the inspector is satisfied that a return under paragraph 2(1) above affords correct and complete information concerning the syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment, he shall determine that profit or loss accordingly.
 - (2) If for a year of assessment the inspector is dissatisfied with a return under paragraph 2(1) above, or there is no such return, the inspector shall determine the syndicate profit or loss for that year to the best of his judgment.
 - (3) If the inspector discovers that a determination under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) above—
 - (a) understates the syndicate profits for the year of assessment; or
 - (b) overstates the syndicate losses for that year,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

he may, by a determination under this sub-paragraph, vary the first-mentioned determination accordingly.

- (4) Notice of a determination under this paragraph shall be served on the agent and shall state the time within which any appeal against the determination may be made under paragraph 5 below.
- (5) After notice of a determination under this paragraph has been served on the agent, the determination shall not be altered except in accordance with the express provisions of the Taxes Acts.

Appeals

- 5 (1) The agent may appeal against a determination under paragraph 4 above by a notice of appeal in writing given to the inspector within thirty days after the date of the notice of determination.
- (2) An appeal under this paragraph shall be to the General Commissioners, except that the agent may elect (in accordance with section 46(1) of the Taxes Management Act 1970) to bring the appeal before the Special Commissioners instead of the General Commissioners; and subsections (5) to (5E) of section 31 of that Act shall apply for the purposes of an election under this sub-paragraph as they apply for the purposes of an election under subsection (4) of that section.

Modification of determinations pending appeal

- 6 (1) Where the agent appeals against a determination under paragraph 4 above, then, for the purpose of establishing, in the event of a member of the syndicate appealing against an assessment made on him, the amount of tax the payment of which should, pending the determination of that appeal, be postponed under section 55 of the Taxes Management Act 1970, that section shall apply to the first-mentioned appeal with the modifications specified in sub-paragraph (2) below.
- (2) The modifications are as follows—
 - (a) any reference to the notice of assessment shall be construed as a reference to the notice of determination;
 - (b) any reference to the appellant believing that he is overcharged to tax by the assessment shall be construed as a reference to him believing that the determination overstates the syndicate profits, or understates the syndicate losses, for the year of assessment, and any reference to the appellant having grounds for so believing, or there being reasonable grounds for so believing, shall be construed accordingly;
 - (c) any reference to a determination of the amount of tax the payment of which should be postponed pending the determination of the appeal shall be construed as a reference to a direction that the determination shall, pending the determination of the appeal, have effect for the purpose stated in sub-paragraph (1) above as if the syndicate profits there stated were reduced, or the syndicate losses there stated were increased, by such amount as may be specified in the direction, and any reference to an amount of tax so determined, or to the amount of tax which should be so postponed, shall be construed accordingly; and
 - (d) subsections (2) and (9) and, in subsection (6), paragraphs (a) and (b) and the word “and” immediately preceding paragraph (a) shall be omitted.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Apportionments of syndicate profit or loss

- (1) Where a determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment is made, varied or modified (whether under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule or on appeal), the inspector may, by notice in writing to the agent, require him to make to the inspector, within the specified period, a return apportioning, between the members of the syndicate, the syndicate profit or loss as stated in the determination as so made, varied or modified.
 - (2) If the agent, having been required by a notice under sub-paragraph (1) above to deliver a return within the specified period, fails to deliver the return within that period, he shall be liable to a penalty equal to the prescribed amount multiplied by the number of days on which the failure continues; and in this sub-paragraph “the prescribed amount” means £5 for each fifty members of the syndicate (counting any number of members left over as fifty).
 - (3) In this paragraph “the specified period” means such period, not being less than thirty days and beginning with the day following the date of the notice under sub-paragraph (1) above, as may be specified in that notice.

Individual members: effect of determinations

- 8
- (1) A determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment (whether as originally made or as varied or modified) shall, for the purpose of determining the liability to tax of each member of the syndicate, be conclusive against that member that the syndicate profit or loss for that year is as there stated.
 - (2) Where a determination of a syndicate profit or loss for a year of assessment is varied or modified at any time after the issue of a notice of assessment assessing any member of the syndicate to tax—
 - (a) section 31 of the ^{M12}Taxes Management Act 1970 (right of appeal) and section 55 of that Act (postponement of tax) shall have effect, in relation to that member, as if any reference to the date of the notice of assessment, or the date of the issue of the notice of assessment, were a reference to the date of the variation or modification; and
 - (b) in the case of a variation, an assessment which gives effect to the determination as varied shall not be out of time if it is made within one year of the date of the variation.
 - (3) Sub-paragraph (2)(b) above shall not apply in the case of a variation under paragraph 4(3) above which is made later than six years after the end of the closing year.

Supplemental: penalties

- 10 (1) If it appears to an inspector or the Board that the agent is liable to a penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above, the amount appearing to be due may be assessed by the inspector or the Board as if it were tax for the year of assessment in which the failure to make the return occurred; and, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the provisions of the Taxes Management Act 1970 relating to the assessment and collection of tax shall apply accordingly.
- (2) An amount assessed by way of penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above shall be due at the end of the period of thirty days beginning with the date of the issue of the notice of assessment.
- (3) On an appeal against an assessment of an amount by way of penalty under sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 2 or sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 7 above, subsections (6) to (8) of section 50 of that Act shall not apply but the Commissioners—
- (a) may confirm the amount of the assessment or, if it appears to them that the amount assessed is greater or smaller than the penalty provided for under that sub-paragraph, may reduce it or increase it to such an amount as is appropriate having regard to the provisions of that sub-paragraph; and
 - (b) if it appears to them that no penalty has been incurred, may set the assessment aside.
- (4) Where an amount has been assessed by way of penalty under sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 2 or sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 7 above and either no appeal has been brought against that assessment or the amount assessed has been confirmed or varied on appeal—
- (a) a certificate of an inspector or other officer of the Board that an amount is due by way of penalty under that sub-paragraph; and
 - (b) a certificate of a collector that payment of that amount has not been made to him or, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to any other collector, or to a person acting on his behalf or on behalf of another collector,
- shall be sufficient evidence that the amount mentioned in the certificates is unpaid and is due to the Crown; and any document purporting to be such a certificate as is mentioned in this sub-paragraph shall be deemed to be such a certificate unless the contrary is proved.
- (5) Section 100 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (procedure for recovery of penalties) shall not apply to a penalty under paragraph 2(3) or 7(2) above.

Supplemental: interest

- 11 (1) Interest charged under paragraph 3(4) above shall be treated for the purposes of the enactments mentioned in section 69 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (interest on tax) as if it were tax charged and due and payable under an assessment.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

- (2) References to section 86 of that Act in sections 70(2) and 92 of that Act (evidence, and remission of interest in certain cases) shall include a reference to paragraph 3(4) above.

SCHEDULE 6

Section 65.

COMMERCIAL WOODLANDS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Sch. 6 applied (31.7.1998) by 1988 c. 1, s. 21B (as substituted (31.7.1998) by 1998 c. 36, s. 38(1), Sch. 5 Pt. I paras. 4, 73)

Preliminary

- 1 In this Schedule “commercial woodlands” means woodlands in the United Kingdom which are managed on a commercial basis and with a view to the realisation of profits.

Abolition of charge under Schedule B

- 2 (1) The charge to tax under Schedule B in respect of the occupation of commercial woodlands is hereby abolished.
- (2) In any case where, as respects an accounting period of a company which begins before and ends on or after 6th April 1988, the charge to tax under Schedule B has effect in relation to one part of that period but does not have effect in relation to the other part—
- (a) the income deemed to arise to the company for that period from the occupation of the woodlands concerned shall be apportioned between those parts; and
 - (b) so much of that income as is apportioned to the part beginning on 6th April 1988 shall not be regarded as income arising to the company for that period.
- (3) This paragraph shall be deemed to have come into force on 6th April 1988.

Abolition of Schedule D election etc.

- 3 (1) Section 54 of the Taxes Act 1988 and section 111 of the Taxes Act 1970 (which confer on a person occupying commercial woodlands the right to elect to be assessed and charged to tax in respect of them under Schedule D instead of under Schedule B) shall cease to have effect.
- (2) Subject to paragraph 5(1) below, profits or gains or losses which arise to a person from the occupation of commercial woodlands on or after 15th March 1988 shall not be regarded for any purposes as profits or gains or losses chargeable under Schedule D.
- (3) Subject to paragraph 5(1) below—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/1997.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1988 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 01 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (a) interest which is paid by a company on or after 15th March 1988 shall not be treated as a charge on income for the purposes of corporation tax; and
 - (b) interest which is paid by any person on or after that date and—
 - (i) is stated in section 360(1), 361(3) or 362 of the Taxes Act 1988 (loans to buy interest in close company, interest in employee-controlled company or into partnership) to be eligible for relief under section 353 of that Act; or
 - (ii) is stated in any of the corresponding enactments repealed by that Act to be eligible for relief under section 75 of the ^{M14}Finance Act 1972, shall not be so eligible,if the relevant business consists of the occupation of commercial woodlands.
- (4) Where part only of the relevant business consists of the occupation of commercial woodlands—
- (a) interest falling within paragraph (a) of sub-paragraph (3) above shall not be treated as a charge on income for the purposes of corporation tax; and
 - (b) interest falling within paragraph (b) of that sub-paragraph shall not be eligible for relief under section 353 of the Taxes Act 1988 or section 75 of the ^{M15}Finance Act 1972,
- to such extent as may be just and reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, to the proportion which that part of that business bears to the whole.
- (5) In this paragraph “the relevant business” means—
- (a) in relation to interest paid on or after 15th March 1988 by a company which is not a member of a group, the business carried on by the company;
 - (b) in relation to interest paid on or after that date by a company which is a member of a group, the business carried on by the group; and
 - (c) in relation to interest falling within paragraph (b) of sub-paragraph (3) above, the business carried on by the close company, employee-controlled company or partnership concerned;
- and for the purposes of this paragraph two or more businesses carried on by a company, group or partnership shall be regarded as a single business.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a company shall be deemed to be a member of a group with one or more other companies if the relationship between that company and the other company or, as the case may be, each of the other companies is as mentioned in section 341(2) of the Taxes Act 1988 or section 60(2) of the ^{M16}Finance (No. 2) Act 1987 (payments of interest between related companies).
- (7) This paragraph shall be deemed to have come into force on 15th March 1988.

[Transitional provisions

- ^{F27}4 (1) Where this paragraph applies in relation to a person's occupation of any commercial woodlands—
- (a) that person; or
 - (b) in the event of his death, any other person who occupies them by virtue of any disposition (whether effected by will, under the law relating to intestacy or otherwise) of property comprised in his estate immediately before his death, may elect to be assessed and charged to tax in respect of them under Schedule D; and the reference in this sub-paragraph to a disposition includes a reference to a disposition as varied under section 142 of the ^{M17}Inheritance Tax Act 1984.
- (2) This paragraph applies in relation to a person's occupation of any commercial woodlands if—
- (a) he had entered into a contract or made arrangements before 15th March 1988 for his occupation of them;
 - (b) he was occupying them on that date; or
 - (c) he is or was occupying them after that date and the requirements of sub-paragraph (3) below are satisfied with respect to the land which comprises them;
- and in this sub-paragraph and sub-paragraph (3) below “arrangements” does not include arrangements which are not evidenced by an instrument or other document made before that date.
- (3) The requirements of this sub-paragraph are satisfied with respect to any land which comprises commercial woodlands if, before 15th March 1988, the person who is or was occupying them after that date—
- (a) had entered into a contract or made arrangements for the afforestation (including the replanting) of the land; or
 - (b) had made an application for a grant under section 1 of the ^{M18}Forestry Act 1979 or section 2(1)(e) of the ^{M19}Forestry Act (Northern Ireland) 1953 with respect to the land;
- and for the purposes of paragraph (b) above an application shall be treated as made when it was received by the Forestry Commissioners or, in Northern Ireland, by the Department of Agriculture.
- (4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, an election under sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) shall be made by notice in writing given to the inspector not later than two years after the end of the chargeable period to which the election relates;
 - (b) shall have effect not only in relation to that period but also, so long as the person by whom it is made continues to occupy the woodlands, in relation to subsequent chargeable periods; and
 - (c) shall extend to all woodlands on the same estate.
- (5) An election made under sub-paragraph (1) above in respect of any commercial woodlands shall not have effect in relation to any chargeable period if before the beginning of that period a relevant grant has been made with respect to any land which comprises woodlands on the same estate.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (4) and (5) above, woodlands shall be treated as being on a separate estate if the person occupying them so elects by notice in writing

SCHEDULE 12

Section 145.

BUILDING SOCIETIES: CHANGE OF STATUS

Introductory

- 1 Paragraphs 2 to 7 below apply where there is a transfer of the whole of a building society's business to a company ("the successor company") in accordance with section 97 and the other applicable provisions of the ^{M23}Building Societies Act 1986.

Marginal Citations

Gilt-edged securities and other financial trading stock

- 2 (1) For the purposes of section 100(1) of the Taxes Act 1988 (valuation of trading stock on discontinuance of trade) the society's financial trading stock shall be valued at an amount equal to its cost to the society.
- (2) In computing for any corporation tax purpose the profits or gains of a trade carried on by the successor company, such of the assets comprised in the transfer as constituted the society's financial trading stock shall be regarded as acquired by the company at their cost to the society.
- (3) In this paragraph "financial trading stock", in relation to a building society, means such of the assets held by the society [^{F75}in liquid form (within the meaning given by section 45(7) of the Building Societies Act 1986)] as constitute trading stock for the purposes of section 100 of the Taxes Act 1988.
