[^{F31}(1A) A tenancy cannot be an assured tenancy if it is granted on or after [^{F32}1 December 2017] .]

- (2) If and so long as a tenancy falls within any paragraph of Schedule 4 to this Act, it cannot be an assured tenancy; and in that Schedule “tenancy” means a tenancy under which a house is let as a separate dwelling.

13 Letting of a house together with other land.

- (1) If, under a tenancy, a house is let together with other land, then, for the purposes of this Act—
- (a) if and so long as the main purpose of the letting is the provision of a home for the tenant or, as the case may be, at least one of the joint tenants, the other land shall be treated as part of the house; and
 - (b) if and so long as the main purpose of the letting is not as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, the tenancy shall be treated as not being one under which a house is let as a separate dwelling.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) above affects any question whether a tenancy is precluded from being an assured tenancy by virtue of any provision of Schedule 4 to this Act.

14 Tenant sharing accommodation with persons other than landlord.

- (1) Where a tenant has the exclusive occupation of any accommodation (in this section referred to as “the separate accommodation”) and—

- (b) by reason only of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (a) above, the separate accommodation would not, apart from this section, be a house let on an assured tenancy, the separate accommodation shall be deemed to be a house let on an assured tenancy and the following provisions of this section shall have effect.

- (2) While the tenant is in possession of the separate accommodation, any term of the tenancy terminating or modifying, or providing for the termination or modification of, his right to the use of any of the shared accommodation which is living accommodation shall be of no effect.
- (3) Where the terms of the tenancy are such that, at any time during the tenancy, the persons in common with whom the tenant is entitled to the use of the shared accommodation could be varied or their number could be increased, nothing in subsection (2) above shall prevent those terms from having effect so far as they relate to any such variation or increase.
- (4) In this section “living accommodation” means accommodation of such a nature that the fact that it constitutes or is included in the shared accommodation is sufficient, apart from this section, to prevent the tenancy from constituting an assured tenancy of a house.

15 Certain sublettings not to exclude any part of sub-lessor’s premises from assured tenancy.

- (1) Where the tenant of a house has sublet a part but not the whole of the house, then, as against his landlord or any superior landlord, no part of the house shall be treated as excluded from being a house let on an assured tenancy by reason only that the terms on which any person claiming under the tenant holds any part of the house include the use of accommodation in common with other persons.
- (2) Nothing in this section affects the rights against, and liabilities to, each other of the tenant and any person claiming under him, or of any two such persons.

[^{F35}(1A) The factors referred to in subsection (1)(b)(ii) above must be—

25 [^{F101}Determination of rent by the First-tier Tribunal]

- (1) Where, under subsection (3)(a) of section 24 above, a tenant refers to [^{F102}the First-tier Tribunal] a notice under subsection (1) of that section, the [^{F103}First-tier Tribunal] shall determine the rent at which, subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, the [^{F104}First-tier Tribunal considers] that the house might reasonably be expected to be let in the open market by a willing landlord under an assured tenancy—
- (a) which begins at the beginning of the period to which the new rent specified in the notice relates;
 - (b) the terms of which (other than those relating to rent) are the same as those of the tenancy to which the notice relates; and
 - (c) in respect of which the same notices, if any, have been given under any of Grounds 1 to 5 of Schedule 5 to this Act, as have been given (or have effect as if given) in relation to the tenancy to which the notice relates.
- (2) In making a determination under this section, there shall be disregarded any effect on the rent attributable to—
- (a) the granting of a tenancy to a sitting tenant;
 - (b) an improvement carried out by the tenant or a predecessor in title of his unless the improvement was carried out in pursuance of the terms of the tenancy; and
 - (c) a failure by the tenant to comply with any terms of the tenancy.
- (3) In this section “rent” includes any sums payable by the tenant to the landlord on account of the use of furniture or for services [^{F105}or in respect of council tax], whether or not those sums are separate from the sums payable for the occupation of the house concerned or are payable under separate agreements.
- (4) Where any rates in respect of the house concerned are borne by the landlord or a superior landlord, the [^{F106}First-tier Tribunal is to make its] determination under this section as if the rates were not so borne.
- (5) In any case where—
- (a) [^{F107}the First-tier Tribunal has before it] at the same time the reference of a notice under section 17(2) above relating to a tenancy (in this subsection referred to as “the section 17 reference”) and the reference of a notice under section 24(1) above relating to the same tenancy (in this subsection referred to as “the section 24 reference”); and
 - (b) the date specified in the notice under section 17(2) above is not later than the first day of the new period specified in the notice under section 24(1) above; and

- (c) the [F108First-tier Tribunal proposes] to hear the two references together, the [F109the First-tier Tribunal] shall make a determination in relation to the section 17 reference before making [F109its] determination in relation to the section 24 reference and, accordingly, in such a case the reference in subsection (1)(b) above to the terms of the tenancy to which the notice relates shall be construed as a reference to those terms as varied by virtue of the determination made in relation to the section 17 reference.
- (6) Where a notice under section 24(1) above has been referred to [F110the First-tier Tribunal], then, unless the landlord and the tenant otherwise agree, the rent determined by the [F111First-tier Tribunal] (together with, in a case where subsection (4) above applies, the appropriate amount in respect of rates) shall be the rent under the tenancy with effect from the beginning of the period to which the new rent specified in the notice relates or, if it appears to the [F112First-tier Tribunal] that that would cause undue hardship to the tenant, with effect from such date as the [F113First-tier Tribunal] may direct (being a date after the beginning of that period but not after the date when the [F111First-tier Tribunal] determined the rent).
- (7) Nothing in this section requires [F113the First-tier Tribunal to continue with its] determination of a rent for a house if the tenancy has been brought to an end by order of the [F114First-tier Tribunal] under this Part of this Act or if the landlord and tenant give notice in writing that they no longer require such a determination.
- (8) Nothing in this section or section 24 above affects the right of the landlord and the tenant under an assured tenancy to vary by agreement any term of the tenancy (including a term relating to rent).
