

Housing Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 50

PART III

HOUSING ACTION TRUST AREAS

Areas and trusts

63 Objects and general powers of housing action trusts.

- (1) The primary objects of a housing action trust in relation to the designated area for which it is established shall be—
- (a) to secure the repair or improvement of housing accommodation for the time being held by the trust;
 - (b) to secure the proper and effective management and use of that housing accommodation;
 - (c) to encourage diversity in the interests by virtue of which housing accommodation in the area is occupied and, in the case of accommodation which is occupied under tenancies, diversity in the identity of the landlords; and
 - (d) generally to secure or facilitate the improvement of living conditions [^{F1}of those living] in the area and the social conditions and general environment of the area.
- (2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, a housing action trust may—
- (a) provide and maintain housing accommodation; and
 - (b) facilitate the provision of shops, advice centres and other facilities for the benefit of the community or communities who live in the designated area.

[^{F2}(2A) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that it is immaterial for the purposes of this section whether action taken by a housing action trust for achieving its objects or exercising the powers conferred on it by subsection (2) above also—

- (a) benefits persons who do not live in the designated area; or Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2020.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 1988, Section 63 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 18 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) improves the social conditions or general environment of an area outside the designated area.]
- (3) For the purpose of achieving its objects and exercising the powers conferred on it by subsection (2) above, a housing action trust may—
 - (a) acquire, hold, manage, reclaim and dispose of land and other property;
 - (b) carry out building and other operations;
 - (c) seek to ensure the provision of water, electricity, gas, sewerage and other services; and
 - (d) carry on any business or undertaking;
 and may generally do anything necessary or expedient for the purposes of those objects and powers or for purposes incidental thereto.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that subsection (3) above relates only to the capacity of a housing action trust as a statutory corporation; and nothing in this section authorises such a trust to disregard any enactment or rule of law.
- ^{F3}(5)
- (6) A transaction between any person and a housing action trust shall not be invalidated by reason of any failure by the trust to observe the objects in subsection (1) above or the requirement that the trust shall exercise the powers conferred by subsections (2) and (3) above for the purpose referred to in that subsection.

Textual Amendments
F1	Words in s. 63(1)(d) inserted (1.10.1996) by 1996 c. 52, s. 222, Sch. 18 Pt. IV para. 25(1)(a) ; S.I. 1996/2402, art. 3 (subject to transitional provisions in Sch.)
F2	S. 63(2A) inserted (1.10.1996) by 1996 c. 52, s. 222, Sch. 18 Pt. IV para. 25(1)(b) ; S.I. 1996/2402, art. 3 (subject to transitional provisions in Sch.)
F3	S. 63(5) repealed (2.4.2001) by 2000 c. 34, s. 9(2), Sch. 3 ; S.I. 2000/566, art. 2(1)

Status:

Point in time view as at 24/07/2020.

Changes to legislation:

Housing Act 1988, Section 63 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 18 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.