

Road Traffic Act 1988

1988 CHAPTER 52

PART III

LICENSING OF DRIVERS OF VEHICLES

Granting of licences, their form and duration

97 Grant of licences.

- (1) Subject to [^{F1}the following provisions of this section] and section 92 of this Act [^{F2}and, in the case of licences to drive large goods vehicles or passenger-carrying vehicles, to Part IV of this Act], the Secretary of State must ^{F3} . . . grant a licence to a person who—
- (a) makes an application for it in such manner and containing such particulars as the Secretary of State may specify [^{F4}and pays the fee (if any) which is prescribed],
 - (b) provides the Secretary of State with such evidence or further evidence in support of the application as the Secretary of State may require,
 - [^{F5}(c) surrenders to the Secretary of State—
 - (i) any previous licence granted to him after 1st January 1976 and its counterpart,
 - (ii) any Community licence and its counterpart (if any) issued to him, and
 - (iii) any British external licence or British Forces licence or exchangeable licence held by him,or provides the Secretary of State with an explanation for not surrendering them which the Secretary of State considers adequate,]
 - (d) is not [^{F6}, in accordance with section 88(1B) of this Act, subject to a current disqualification which is relevant to the licence he applies for] and is not prevented from obtaining it by the provisions of section 89 of this Act.
- (2) If the application for the licence states that it is made for the purpose of enabling the applicant to drive a motor vehicle with a view to passing a test of competence to drive,

Status: Point in time view as at 23/07/1996. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Road Traffic Act 1988, Cross Heading: Granting of licences, their form and duration is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) any licence granted in pursuance of the application shall be a provisional licence for that purpose, and nothing in section 89 of this Act shall apply to such a licence.

- (3) A provisional licence—
- (a) shall be granted subject to prescribed conditions,
 - (b) shall, in any cases prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, be restricted so as to authorise only the driving of vehicles of the classes so prescribed,
 - (c) may, in the case of a person appearing to the Secretary of State to be suffering from a relevant disability or a prospective disability, be restricted so as to authorise only the driving of vehicles of a particular construction or design specified in the licence,^{F7} . . .
 - ^{F8}(d) shall not authorise a person under the age of 21 years, before he has passed a test of competence to drive a motor bicycle,—
 - (i) to drive a motor bicycle without a side-car unless it is a learner motor bicycle (as defined in subsection (5) below) or its first use (as defined in regulations) occurred before 1st January 1982 and the cylinder capacity of its engine does not exceed 125 cubic centimetres, or
 - (ii) to drive a motor bicycle with a side-car unless its power to weight ratio is less than or equal to 0.16 kilowatts per kilogram,^{F9} and
 - (e) except as provided under subsection (3B) below, shall not authorise a person, before he has passed a test of competence to drive, to drive on a road a motor bicycle except where he has successfully completed an approved training course for motor cyclists or is undergoing training on such a course and is driving the motor [^{F10}bicycle] on the road as part of the training.]

^{F11}(3A) Regulations may make provision as respects the training in the driving of motor bicycles of persons wishing to obtain licences authorising the driving of such motor [^{F12}bicycles] by means of courses of training provided in accordance with the regulations; and the regulations may in particular make provision with respect to—

- (a) the nature of the courses of training;
- (b) the approval by the Secretary of State of the persons providing the courses and the withdrawal of his approval;
- (c) the maximum amount of any charges payable by persons undergoing the training;
- (d) certificates evidencing the successful completion by persons of a course of training and the supply by the Secretary of State of the forms which are to be used for such certificates; and
- (e) the making, in connection with the supply of forms of certificates, of reasonable charges for the discharge of the functions of the Secretary of State under the regulations; and different provision may be made for training in different classes of motor [^{F12}bicycles].

- (3B) Regulations may prescribe cases in which persons holding a provisional licence are exempt from the restriction imposed by subsection (3)(e) above on their driving under the licence; and the regulations may—
- (a) limit the exemption to persons in prescribed circumstances;
 - (b) limit the exemption to a prescribed period or in respect of driving in a prescribed area;
 - (c) attach conditions to the exemption; and

- (d) regulate applications for, and the issue and form of, certificates evidencing the holder’s exemption from the restriction.]
- (4) Regulations may authorise or require the Secretary of State to refuse a provisional licence authorising the driving of a motor [^{F13}bicycle] of a prescribed class if the applicant has held such a provisional licence and the licence applied for would come into force within the prescribed period—
 - (a) beginning at the end of the period for which the previous licence authorised (or would, if not surrendered or revoked, have authorised) the driving of such a motor [^{F13}bicycle], or
 - (b) beginning at such other time as may be prescribed.
- (5) A learner motor [^{F14}bicycle] is a motor [^{F14}bicycle] which either is propelled by electric power or has the following characteristics—
 - (a) the cylinder capacity of its engine does not exceed 125 cubic centimetres,
 - [^{F15}(b) the maximum net power output of its engine does not exceed eleven kilowatts.]
- [^{F16}(6) In this section—
 - “maximum net power output”, in relation to an engine, means the maximum net power output measured under full engine load, and
 - “power to weight ratio”, in relation to a motor bicycle with a side-car, means the ratio of the maximum net power output of the engine of the motor bicycle to the weight of the combination with—
 - (a) a full supply of fuel in the tank,
 - (b) an adequate supply of other liquids needed for its propulsion, and
 - (c) no load other than its normal equipment, including loose tools.]

98 Form of licence.

- (1) A licence shall be in such form as the Secretary of State may determine and shall—
- (a) state whether, apart from subsection (2) below, it authorises its holder to drive motor vehicles of all classes or of certain classes only and, in the latter case, specify those classes,
 - (b) specify [^{F18}(in such manner as the Secretary of State may determine)] the restrictions on the driving of vehicles of any class in pursuance of the licence to which its holder is subject by virtue of the provisions of section 101 of this Act, [^{F19}and]
 - (c) in the case of a provisional licence, specify [^{F18}(in such manner as the Secretary of State may determine)] the conditions subject to which it is granted,^{F20}
 - ^{F20}(d)
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) [^{F21}, (4) and (4A)] below, a [^{F22}person who holds a licence which] authorises its holder to drive motor vehicles of certain classes only (not being —
- ^{F23}(a) a provisional licence, or
 - (b) any other prescribed description of licence)]
- [^{F24}may]drive motor vehicles of all other classes subject to the same conditions as if he were authorised by a provisional licence to drive motor vehicles of those other classes.
- (3) [^{F25}Subsection (2) above does not] authorise a person to drive—
- (a) a vehicle of a class for the driving of which he could not, by reason of the provisions of section 101 of this Act, lawfully hold a licence, or
 - (b) unless [^{F26}he has either passed a test of competence to drive a motor bicycle or attained the age of 21 years, a motor bicycle]which, by virtue of section 97(3) (d) of this Act, a provisional licence would not authorise him to drive before he had passed that test [^{F27}or attained that age (as the case may be)]; [^{F28}or
 - ^{F28}(c) unless he has passed a test of competence to drive, a motor bicycle on a road in circumstances in which, by virtue of section 97(3)(e) of this Act, a provisional licence would not authorise him to drive it before he had passed that test.]

PROSPECTIVE

[^{F33}98A Compulsory surrender of old-form licences

(1) The Secretary of State may by order require the holders of licences of a specified description, or any specified description of the holders of such licences, to surrender the licences [^{F34}and their counterparts] to the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/07/1996. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Road Traffic Act 1988, Cross Heading: Granting of licences, their form and duration is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An order under this section may specify as the description of licences to be surrendered—
 - (a) licences which are not in the form of a photocard, or
 - (b) licences in the form of a photocard of a description no longer specified by the Secretary of State as a form in which licences are granted.
- (3) An order under this section must specify the date by which the licences to which it relates [^{F35}(and their counterparts)] are to be surrendered; and may specify different dates in relation to different descriptions of licence holders.
- (4) An order under this section must include provision for the grant of a new licence to every holder of a licence surrendered [^{F36}(with its counterpart)] in pursuance of the order who—
 - (a) pays such fee (if any) as is specified by the order, ^{F37}...
 - (b) provides the Secretary of State with such evidence or further evidence as the Secretary of State may require (which may include a photograph which is a current likeness of him).^{F38} and
 - (c) provides such evidence or further evidence as the Secretary of State may require for the purpose of satisfying the Secretary of State that the holder is not suffering from a relevant or prospective disability.]
- (5) A replacement licence granted pursuant to provision made by virtue of subsection (4) above expires on the date on which the surrendered licence would have expired had it not been surrendered (but subject to subsection (6) below).
- (6) Where the period for which the surrendered licence was granted was based on an error with respect to the licence holder's date of birth such that (if the error had not been made) that licence would have been expressed to expire on a different date, the replacement licence expires on that different date.
- (7) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any requirement to surrender a licence [^{F39}and its counterpart] imposed by an order under this section is guilty of an offence.
- (8) An order under this section may—
 - (a) make different provision for different cases, and
 - (b) contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (9) The power to make an order under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (10) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult with such representative organisations as he thinks fit.
- (11) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

99 Duration of licences.

(1) [^{F40}In so far as a licence authorises its holder to drive motor vehicles of classes other than any prescribed class of goods vehicle or any prescribed class of passenger-carrying vehicle, it] shall, unless previously revoked or surrendered, remain in force, subject to subsection (2) below—

- (a) except in a case falling within paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection, for the period ending on the seventieth anniversary of the applicant's date of birth or for a period of three years, whichever is the longer,
- (b) except in a case falling within paragraph (c) of this subsection, if the Secretary of State so determines in the case of a licence to be granted to a person appearing to him to be suffering from a relevant or prospective disability, for such period of not more than three years and not less than one year as the Secretary of State may determine, and
- (c) in the case of a licence granted in exchange for a subsisting licence and in pursuance of an application requesting a licence for the period authorised by this paragraph, for a period equal to the remainder of that for which the subsisting licence was granted, and any such period shall begin with the date on which the licence in question is expressed to come into force.

[^{F41}(1A) In so far as a licence authorises its holder to drive any prescribed class of goods vehicle or passenger-carrying vehicle, it shall, unless previously revoked, suspended or surrendered, remain in force—

- (a) except in a case falling within paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection—
 - (i) for the period ending on the forty-fifth anniversary of the applicant's date of birth or for a period of five years, whichever is the longer, or
 - (ii) where the applicant's age at the date on which the licence is to come into force will exceed forty-five but not sixty-five years, for the period ending on the sixty-sixth anniversary of the applicant's date of birth or for a period of five years, whichever is the shorter,

- and any such period shall begin with the date on which the licence in question is expressed to come into force.]
- (2) To the extent that a provisional licence authorises the driving of a motor [^{F42}bicycle] of a prescribed class it shall, unless previously surrendered or revoked, remain in force—
- (a) for such period as may be prescribed, or
- (b) if the licence is granted to the holder of a previous licence which was surrendered, revoked or treated as being revoked—
- (i) for the remainder of the period for which the previous licence would have authorised the driving of such a motor [^{F42}bicycle], or
- (ii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, for a period equal to that remainder at the time of surrender or revocation.
- (3) Where it appears to the Secretary of State—
- [^{F43}(a) that a licence granted by him to any person was granted in error or with an error or omission in the particulars specified in the licence, or
- (aa) that the counterpart of a licence granted by him to any person is required to be endorsed in pursuance of any enactment or was issued with an error or omission in the particulars specified in the counterpart or required to be so endorsed on it, or]
- (b) that the particulars specified in a licence granted by him to any person [^{F44}or in its counterpart]do not comply with any requirement imposed since the licence was granted by any provision made by or having effect under any enactment, the Secretary of State may serve notice in writing on that person revoking the licence and requiring him to surrender the licence [^{F45}and its counterpart]forthwith to the Secretary of State [^{F46}and it shall be the duty of that person to comply with the requirement].
