Introductory

51 Fixed penalty offences.

- (1) Any offence in respect of a vehicle under an enactment specified in column 1 of Schedule 3 to this Act is a fixed penalty offence for the purposes of this Part of this Act, but subject to subsection (2) below and to any limitation or exception shown against the enactment in column 2 (where the general nature of the offence is also indicated).
- (2) An offence under an enactment so specified is not a fixed penalty offence for those purposes if it is committed by causing or permitting a vehicle to be used by another person in contravention of any provision made or restriction or prohibition imposed by or under any enactment.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order provide for offences to become or (as the case may be) to cease to be fixed penalty offences for the purposes of this Part of this Act, and may make such modifications of the provisions of this Part of this Act as appear to him to be necessary for the purpose.

*Status: Point in time view as at 10/04/2015. This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

52 Fixed penalty notices.

- (1) In this Part of this Act “fixed penalty notice” means a notice offering the opportunity of the discharge of any liability to conviction of the offence to which the notice relates by payment of a fixed penalty in accordance with this Part of this Act.
- (2) A fixed penalty notice must give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence to which it relates as are necessary for giving reasonable information about the alleged offence.
- (3) A fixed penalty notice must state—
 - (a) the period during which, by virtue of section 78(1) of this Act, proceedings cannot be brought against any person for the offence to which the notice relates, being the period of twenty-one days following the date of the notice or such longer period (if any) as may be specified in the notice (referred to in this Part of this Act as the “suspended enforcement period”),
 - (b) the amount of the fixed penalty, and
 - (c) ^{F1}the person to] whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid.

^{F3}[53 Amount of fixed penalty.

- (1) The fixed penalty for an offence is—
 - (a) such amount as the Secretary of State may by order prescribe, or
 - (b) one half of the maximum amount of the fine to which a person committing that offence would be liable on summary conviction ^{F4}or, where there is no such maximum amount, the amount corresponding to level 4 on the standard scale for summary offences], whichever is the less.
- ^{F5}(2) Any order made under subsection (1)(a) above in relation to an offence may make provision for the fixed penalty for the offence to be different depending on the circumstances, including (in particular)—
 - (a) the nature of the contravention or failure constituting the offence,
 - (b) how serious it is,
 - (c) the area, or sort of place, where it takes place, and
 - (d) whether the offender appears to have committed any offence or offences of a description specified in the order during a period so specified.]]

Giving notices to suspected offenders

54 Notices on-the-spot [^{F6} etc.].

- (1) This section applies where [^{F7}in England and Wales] on any occasion a constable in uniform [^{F8}, or a vehicle examiner who produces his authority,] has reason to believe that a person he finds is committing or has on that occasion committed a fixed penalty offence.
- (2) Subject to [^{F9}the following provisions of this section] , the constable [^{F10}or vehicle examiner] may give him a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence.
- (3) Where the offence appears to the constable [^{F11}or vehicle examiner] to involve obligatory endorsement [^{F12}, and the person is the holder of a licence,], the constable [^{F11}or vehicle examiner] may only give him a fixed penalty notice under subsection (2) above in respect of the offence if—
- he produces his licence [^{F13}and its counterpart] for inspection by the constable [^{F11}or vehicle examiner],
 - the constable [^{F11}or vehicle examiner] is satisfied, on inspecting the licence [^{F13}and its counterpart], that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence, and
 - he surrenders his licence [^{F13}and its counterpart] to the constable [^{F11}or vehicle examiner] to be retained and dealt with in accordance with this Part of this Act.
- (4) Where—
- the offence appears to the constable [^{F14}or vehicle examiner] to involve obligatory endorsement,
- [^{F15}(aa) the person concerned is the holder of a licence, and]
- [^{F16}he] does not produce his licence [^{F17}and its counterpart] for inspection by the constable [^{F14}or vehicle examiner], the constable [^{F14}or vehicle examiner] may give him a notice stating that if [^{F18}he delivers] the notice together with his licence [^{F19}and its counterpart] in [^{F20}accordance with subsection (4A) below] and the requirements of subsection (5)(a) and (b) below are met he will then be given a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence.

[^{F21}(4A) Delivery must—

- if the notice is given by a constable, be made in person, within seven days after the notice is given, to a constable or authorised person at the police station specified in the notice (being a police station chosen by the person concerned), or
- if the notice is given by a vehicle examiner, be made (either by post or in person), within fourteen days after the notice is given, to the Secretary of State at the place specified in the notice.]

Status: Point in time view as at 10/04/2015. This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(5) If a person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (4) above [^{F22}delivers] the notice together with his licence [^{F23}and its counterpart] in [^{F24}accordance with subsection (4A) above] and the following requirements are met, that is—

- (a) the [^{F25}person to whom the notice under subsection (4) above is delivered] is satisfied, on inspecting the licence [^{F26}and its counterpart], that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, and
- (b) [^{F27}... his licence [^{F28}and its counterpart][^{F29}are delivered] to be retained and dealt with in accordance with this Part of this Act, the [^{F25}person to whom the notice under subsection (4) above is delivered] must give him a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence to which the notice under subsection (4) above relates.

[^{F30}(5A) Where the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement, and the person is not the holder of a licence, the constable or vehicle examiner may only give him a fixed penalty notice under subsection (2) above in respect of the offence if the constable or vehicle examiner is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence.

(5B) Subsection (5C) below applies where—

- (a) the offence appears to the constable or vehicle examiner to involve obligatory endorsement,
- (b) the person concerned is not the holder of a licence, and
- (c) the constable or vehicle examiner is unable to satisfy himself, by accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of that offence.

(5C) Where this subsection applies, the constable or vehicle examiner may give the person a notice stating that if—

- (a) he delivers the notice in accordance with subsection (5D) below, and
- (b) the person to whom it is delivered is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, he will then be given a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence.

(5D) Delivery must—

- (a) if the notice is given by a constable, be made in person, within seven days after the notice is given, to a constable or authorised person at the police station specified in the notice (being a police station chosen by the person concerned), or
- (b) if the notice is given by a vehicle examiner, be made (either by post or in person), within fourteen days after the notice is given, to the Secretary of State at the place specified in the notice.

(5E) If a person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (5C) above delivers the notice in accordance with subsection (5D) above, and the person to whom it is delivered is satisfied, on accessing information held on his driving record, that he would not be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence, that person must give him a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence to which the notice under subsection (5C) relates.]

- (6) A notice under subsection (4) [^{F31}or (5C)] above shall give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence to which it relates as are necessary for giving reasonable information about the alleged offence.
- (7) A licence [^{F32}and a counterpart of a licence] surrendered [^{F33}or delivered] in accordance with this section must be sent to the fixed penalty clerk [^{F34}if the fixed penalty notice was given by a constable or authorised person].
- ^{F35}(8)
- (9) In this Part of this Act “authorised person”, in relation to a fixed penalty notice given at a police station, means a person authorised for the purposes of this section by or on behalf of the chief officer of police for the area in which the police station is situated [^{F36}or a person authorised for those purposes by or on behalf of the chief constable of the British Transport Police].
- ^{F37}[(10) In determining for the purposes of [^{F38}this section] whether a person convicted of an offence would be liable to disqualification under section 35, it shall be assumed, in the case of an offence in relation to which a range of numbers is shown in the last column of Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act, that the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence would be the lowest in the range.]

55 Effect of fixed penalty notice given under section 54.

- (1) This section applies where a fixed penalty notice relating to an offence has been given to any person under section 54 of this Act, and references in this section to the recipient are to the person to whom the notice was given.
- (2) No proceedings shall be brought against the recipient for the offence to which the fixed penalty notice relates unless before the end of the suspended enforcement period he has given notice requesting a hearing in respect of that offence in the manner specified in the fixed penalty notice.
- (3) Where—
- the recipient has not given notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence to which the fixed penalty notice relates in the manner so specified, and
 - the fixed penalty has not been paid in accordance with this Part of this Act before the end of the suspended enforcement period,
- a sum equal to the fixed penalty plus one-half of the amount of that penalty may be registered under section 71 of this Act for enforcement against the recipient as a fine.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where a person [F50]who is the holder of a licence] (referred to in this section as “the licence holder”) [F51]has been given a fixed penalty notice under section 54 of this Act in respect of an offence involving obligatory endorsement,][F52]the counterpart of] his licence may be endorsed in accordance with this section without any order of a court.
- (2) [F53]The counterpart of] A person’s licence may not be endorsed under this section if at the end of the suspended enforcement period—
 - (a) he has given notice, in the manner specified in the fixed penalty notice, requesting a hearing in respect of the offence to which the fixed penalty notice relates, and
 - (b) the fixed penalty has not been paid in accordance with this Part of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/04/2015. This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 September 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) On the payment of the fixed penalty before the end of the suspended enforcement period, the ^{F54}[person to whom it is paid] must endorse the relevant particulars on the ^{F55}[counterpart of the] licence and return it ^{F55}[together with the licence] to the licence holder.
- (4) Where any sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty is registered under section 71 of this Act for enforcement against the licence holder as a fine, the ^{F56}[person to whom the fixed penalty is required to be paid] must endorse the relevant particulars on the ^{F55}[counterpart of the] licence and return it ^{F55}[together with the licence] to the licence holder—
- (a) if he is himself ^{F57}[the person] who registers that sum, on the registration of that sum, and
 - (b) in any other case, on being notified of the registration by ^{F57}[the person] who registers that sum.
- (5) References in this section to the relevant particulars are to—
- (a) particulars of the offence, including the date when it was committed, and
 - (b) the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence.
- (6) ^{F58}Where the endorsement of ^{F59}[the counterpart of] a person's licence under this section ^{F60}is made by the fixed penalty clerk, the fixed penalty clerk must send notice of the endorsement and of the particulars endorsed to the Secretary of State.
- ^{F61}(7) Subsections (3) and (4) above are subject to section 2(4)(a) of and paragraph 7(4)(a) of Schedule 1 to the Road Traffic (New Drivers) Act 1995; and the fixed penalty clerk need not comply with subsection (6) above in a case where he sends a person's licence and its counterpart to the Secretary of State under section 2(4)(b) of or paragraph 7(4)(b) of Schedule 1 to that Act.]

who appears to him (or to any person authorised to act on his behalf for the purposes of this section) to be the owner of the vehicle.

Such a notice is referred to in this Part of this Act as a “notice to owner”.

[^{F81}(2A) In this section “the relevant person” means—

- (a) if the fixed penalty notice was fixed by a constable, the chief officer of police, and
- (b) if it was fixed by a vehicle examiner, the Secretary of State.]

(3) Subsection (2) above does not apply where before the end of the suspended enforcement period—

- (a) any person has given notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence in the manner specified in the fixed penalty notice, and
- (b) the notice so given contains a statement by that person to the effect that he was the driver of the vehicle at the time when the offence is alleged to have been committed.

That time is referred to in this Part of this Act as the “time of the alleged offence”.

(4) A notice to owner—

- (a) must give particulars of the alleged offence and of the fixed penalty concerned,
- (b) must state the period allowed for response to the notice, and
- (c) must indicate that, if the fixed penalty is not paid before the end of that period, the person on whom the notice is served is asked to provide before the end of that period to the [^{F82}relevant person] a statutory statement of ownership (as defined in Part I of Schedule 4 to this Act).

(5) For the purposes of this Part of this Act, the period allowed for response to a notice to owner is the period of twenty-one days from the date on which the notice is served, or such longer period (if any) as may be specified in the notice.

(6) A notice to owner relating to any offence must indicate that the person on whom it is served may, before the end of the period allowed for response to the notice, either—

- (a) give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence in the manner indicated by the notice, or
- (b) if—
 - (i) he was not the driver of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence, and
 - (ii) a person purporting to be the driver wishes to give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence, provide, together with a statutory statement of ownership provided as requested in that notice, a statutory statement of facts (as defined by Part II of Schedule 4 to this Act) having the effect referred to in paragraph 3(2) of that Schedule (that is, as a notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence given by the driver).

(7) In any case where a person on whom a notice to owner relating to any offence has been served provides a statutory statement of facts in pursuance of subsection (6)(b) above—

- (a) any notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence that he purports to give on his own account shall be of no effect, and

- (4) If the person on whom the notice to owner was served—
- (a) was not the owner of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence, and
 - (b) provides a statutory statement of ownership to that effect in response to the notice before the end of the period allowed for response to the notice,
- he shall not be liable in respect of the offence by virtue of this section nor shall any sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty for the offence be so registered by virtue of this section for enforcement against him as a fine.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6) below—
- (a) for the purposes of the institution of proceedings by virtue of subsection (3) above against any person on whom a notice to owner has been served, and
 - (b) in any proceedings brought by virtue of that subsection against any such person,
- it shall be conclusively presumed (notwithstanding that that person may not be an individual) that he was the driver of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence and,

65 Restrictions on proceedings against owner and others.

(1) In any case where a notice to owner relating to an offence may be served under section 63 of this Act, no proceedings shall be brought in respect of the offence against any person other than a person on whom such a notice has been served unless he is identified as the driver of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence in a statutory statement of facts provided in pursuance of section 63(6)(b) of this Act by a person on whom such a notice has been served.

(2) Proceedings in respect of an offence to which a notice to owner relates shall not be brought against the person on whom the notice was served unless, before the end of the period allowed for response to the notice, he has given notice, in the manner indicated by the notice to owner, requesting a hearing in respect of the offence.

(3) Proceedings in respect of an offence to which a notice to owner relates may not be brought against any person identified as the driver of the vehicle in a statutory statement of facts provided in response to the notice if the fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Part of this Act before the end of the period allowed for response to the notice.

(4) Once any sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty for an offence has been registered by virtue of section 64 of this Act under section 71 for enforcement as a fine against a person on whom a notice to owner relating to that offence has been served, no proceedings shall be brought against any other person in respect of that offence.

- (a) a notice to owner has been served on a vehicle-hire firm,
 - (b) at the time of the alleged offence the vehicle in respect of which the notice was served was let to another person by the vehicle-hire firm under a hiring agreement to which this section applies, and
 - (c) within the period allowed for response to the notice the firm provides the [^{F84}relevant person] with the documents mentioned in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Those documents are a statement on an official form, signed by or on behalf of the firm, stating that at the time of the alleged offence the vehicle concerned was hired under a hiring agreement to which this section applies, together with—
 - (a) a copy of that hiring agreement, and
 - (b) a copy of a statement of liability signed by the hirer under that hiring agreement.
- (3) In this section a “statement of liability” means a statement made by the hirer under a hiring agreement to which this section applies to the effect that the hirer acknowledges that he will be liable, as the owner of the vehicle, in respect of any fixed penalty offence which may be committed with respect to the vehicle during the currency of the hiring agreement and giving such information as may be prescribed.
- (4) In any case where this section applies, sections 63, 64 and 65 of this Act shall have effect as if—
 - (a) any reference to the owner of the vehicle were a reference to the hirer under the hiring agreement, and
 - (b) any reference to a statutory statement of ownership were a reference to a statutory statement of hiring,and accordingly references in this Part of this Act (with the exceptions mentioned below) to a notice to owner include references to a notice served under section 63 of this Act as it applies by virtue of this section.

This subsection does not apply to references to a notice to owner in this section or in section 81(2)(b) of or Part I of Schedule 4 to this Act.
- (5) In any case where this section applies, a person authorised in that behalf by the [^{F85}person] to whom the documents mentioned in subsection (2) above are provided may, at any reasonable time within six months after service of the notice to owner (and on the production of his authority) require the firm to produce the originals of the hiring agreement and statement of liability in question.
- (6) If a vehicle-hire firm fails to produce the original of a document when required to do so under subsection (5) above, this section shall thereupon cease to apply (and section 64 of this Act shall apply accordingly in any such case after that time as it applies in a case where the person on whom the notice to owner was served has failed to provide a statutory statement of ownership in response to the notice within the period allowed).
- (7) This section applies to a hiring agreement under the terms of which the vehicle concerned is let to the hirer for a fixed period of less than six months (whether or not that period is capable of extension by agreement between the parties or otherwise); and any reference in this section to the currency of the hiring agreement includes a reference to any period during which, with the consent of the vehicle-hire firm, the hirer continues in possession of the vehicle as hirer, after the expiry of the fixed period specified in the agreement, but otherwise on the terms and conditions so specified.

70 Registration certificates.

- (1) This section and section 71 of this Act apply where by virtue of section 55(3) or 64(2) of this Act a sum determined by reference to the fixed penalty for any offence may be registered under section 71 of this Act for enforcement against any person as a fine.

In this section and section 71 of this Act—

- (a) that sum is referred to as a “sum payable in default”, and
- (b) the person against whom that sum may be so registered is referred to as the “defaulter”.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, the [^{F96}relevant person] may in respect of any sum payable in default issue a certificate (referred to in this section and section 71 as a “registration certificate”) stating that the sum is registrable under section 71 for enforcement against the defaulter as a fine.

[^{F97}(2A) In subsection (2) above “the relevant person” means—

- (b) that he was not the owner of the vehicle at the time of the alleged offence of which particulars are given in the relevant notice to owner and that he has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with that notice, or
- (c) that he gave notice requesting a hearing in respect of that offence as permitted by the relevant notice to owner before the end of the period allowed for response to that notice.

(3) In any case within subsection (2)(a) or (b) above—

- (a) the relevant notice to owner,
- (b) the registration, and
- (c) any proceedings taken before the declaration was served for enforcing payment of the sum registered, shall be void but without prejudice, in a case within subsection (2)(a) above, to the service of a further notice to owner under section 63 of this Act on the person making the declaration.

This subsection applies whether or not the relevant notice to owner was duly served in accordance with that section on the person making the declaration.

(4) In any case within subsection (2)(c) above—

- (a) no proceedings shall be taken, after the statutory declaration is served until the end of the period of twenty-one days following the date of that declaration, for enforcing payment of the sum registered, and
- (b) where before the end of that period a notice is served by or on behalf of [^{F129}the relevant person] on the person making the declaration asking him to provide a new statutory statement of ownership to [^{F129}the relevant person] before the end of the period of twenty-one days from the date on which the notice is served, no such proceedings shall be taken until the end of the period allowed for response to that notice.

^{F159}76 Effect of offer and payment of penalty.

(1) This section applies where a conditional offer has been [^{F160}issued] to a person under section 75 of this Act.

[^{F161}2] Where the alleged offender makes payment of the fixed penalty in accordance with the conditional offer, no proceedings shall be brought against him for the offence to which the offer relates unless subsection (3) below applies.

(3) This subsection applies where—

- (a) it appears to the appropriate person, on inspecting the licence and its counterpart [^{F162}or (where the alleged offender is not the holder of a licence) accessing information held on his driving record], that the alleged offender would be liable to be disqualified under section 35 of this Act if he were convicted of the offence to which the conditional offer relates,
- (b) the appropriate person returns the payment to the alleged offender together with [^{F163}(where he is the holder of a licence)] his licence and its counterpart, and
- (c) where the appropriate person is not the Secretary of State, the appropriate person gives notice that he has done so to the person required to be notified.

(4) Where the requirements specified in the conditional offer in accordance with subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of section 75(8)(a) [^{F164}or (8A)(a)] of this Act have not been fulfilled, no proceedings shall be brought against the alleged offender for the offence to which the offer relates—

- (a) until the end of the period of twenty-eight days following the date on which the conditional offer was made, or such longer period as may be specified in the offer, and
- (b) where the appropriate person is not the Secretary of State, unless the appropriate person notifies the person required to be notified that proceedings may be brought by virtue of this subsection.

(5) In this section and section 77 of this Act “the person required to be notified” means—

- (a) if the conditional offer was issued under subsection (1) of section 75 of this Act, the chief officer of police,
- (b) if it was issued under subsection (2) of that section, the procurator fiscal, and

- (c) if it was issued under subsection (3) of that section, the chief constable or (as the case may be) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force.]
- (6) In determining for the purposes of subsection [F165(3)(a)] above whether a person convicted of an offence would be liable to disqualification under section 35, it shall be assumed, in the case of an offence in relation to which a range of numbers is shown in the last column of Part I of Schedule 2 to this Act, that the number of penalty points to be attributed to the offence would be the lowest in the range.
- (7) In any proceedings a certificate that by a date specified in the certificate payment of a fixed penalty was or was not received by [F166the appropriate person] shall, if the certificate purports to be signed by [F166the appropriate person], be evidence, or in Scotland sufficient evidence, of the facts stated.
- (8) In relation to licences which came into force before 1st June 1990, the references in subsection [F167(3)] above to the counterpart of a licence shall be disregarded.
- (9) In Scotland, the Secretary of State may by regulations vary the provisions of subsection [F168(5)(b) or (c)] above.

- the [F¹⁷⁴appropriate person] must forthwith endorse the relevant particulars on the counterpart of the licence and return it to the licence holder together with the licence.
- (2) Where [F¹⁷⁵in Scotland it appears to the appropriate person] that there is an error in an endorsement made by virtue of this section on the counterpart of a licence he may amend the endorsement so as to correct the error; and the amended endorsement shall have effect and shall be treated for all purposes as if it had been correctly made on receipt of the fixed penalty.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) below, where a cheque tendered in payment is subsequently dishonoured—
- any endorsement made by [F¹⁷⁶the appropriate person] under subsection (1) above remains effective, notwithstanding that the licence holder is still liable to prosecution in respect of the alleged offence to which the endorsement relates, and
 - [F¹⁷⁷unless the appropriate person is the Secretary of State, the appropriate person] must, upon the expiry of the period specified in the conditional offer or, if the period has expired, forthwith notify the person [F¹⁷⁸required to be notified] that no payment has been made.
- (4) When proceedings are brought against a licence holder [F¹⁷⁹where subsection (3) above applies], the court—
- must order the removal of the fixed penalty endorsement from the counterpart of the licence, and
 - may, on finding the licence holder guilty, make any competent order of endorsement or disqualification and pass any competent sentence.

- (2) Proceedings shall not be brought against any person for the offence to which a fixed penalty notice relates if the fixed penalty is paid in accordance with this Part of this Act before the end of the suspended enforcement period.

79 Statements by constables.

- (1) In any proceedings a certificate that a copy of a statement by a constable [^{F183}or vehicle examiner] with respect to the alleged offence (referred to in this section as a “[^{F184}relevant] witness statement”) was included in or given with a fixed penalty notice or a notice under section [^{F185}54(4)] of this Act given to the accused on a date specified in the certificate shall, if the certificate purports to be signed by the ^{F186}... person who gave the accused the notice, be evidence of service of a copy of that statement by delivery to the accused on that date.
- (2) In any proceedings a certificate that a copy of a [^{F187}relevant] witness statement was included in or served with a notice to owner served on the accused in the manner and on a date specified in the certificate shall, if the certificate purports to be signed by any person employed [^{F188}as a civilian police employee] for the police area in which the offence to which the proceedings relate is alleged to have been committed [^{F189}or on behalf of the Secretary of State], be evidence of service in the manner and on the date so specified both of a copy of that statement and of the notice to owner.
- (3) Any address specified in any such certificate as is mentioned in subsection (2) above as being the address at which service of the notice to owner was effected shall be taken for the purposes of any proceedings in which the certificate is tendered in evidence to be the accused's proper address, unless the contrary is proved.
- (4) Where a copy of a [^{F190}relevant] witness statement is included in or served with a notice to owner served in any manner in which the notice is authorised to be served under this Part of this Act, the statement shall be treated as duly served for the purposes of section 9 of the ^{M7}Criminal Justice Act 1967 (proof by written statement) notwithstanding that the manner of service is not authorised by subsection (8) of that section.

(5) In relation to any proceedings in which service of a [^{F190}relevant] witness statement is proved by certificate under this section—

- (a) that service shall be taken for the purposes of subsection (2)(c) of that section (copy of statement to be tendered in evidence to be served before hearing on other parties to the proceedings by or on behalf of the party proposing to tender it) to have been effected by or on behalf of the prosecutor, and
- (b) subsection (2)(d) of that section (time for objection) shall have effect with the substitution, for the reference to seven days from the service of the copy of the statement, of a reference to seven days from the relevant date.

[^{F191}(5A) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person is employed as a civilian police employee for a police area if—

- (a) in the case of a police area listed in Schedule 1 to the Police Act 1996, the person is a member of the civilian staff of the police force (within the meaning of Part 1 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011) maintained for that area;
- (b) in the case of the metropolitan police district, the person is a member of the civilian staff of the metropolitan police force (within the meaning of that Part of that Act);
- (c) in the case of the City of London, the person is employed by the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as police authority.]

(6) In subsection (5)(b) above “relevant date” means—

- (a) where the accused gives notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence in accordance with any provision of this Part of this Act, the date on which he gives that notice, and
- (b) where a notice in respect of the offence was given to the accused under section 54(4) of this Act but no fixed penalty notice is given in respect of it, the last day for [^{F192}delivery of the notice].

- (a) make different provision for different cases, and
 - (b) contain such incidental and supplemental provisions as the Secretary of State considers expedient for the purposes of the regulations.

89 Interpretation.

- (1) In this Part of this Act—

“authorised person” has the meaning given by section 54(9) of this Act,
^{F215}[^{F216} “British Transport Police” means the force of constables appointed under the British Transport Commission Act 1949 (c. xxix);]

^{F217}[“chief constable” means, in Scotland in relation to any conditional offer, the chief constable ^{F218}[of the Police Service of Scotland] .]

“chief officer of police” (except in the definition of “authorised person”) means, in relation to any fixed penalty notice ^{F219}, notice to owner or conditional offer], the chief officer of police for the police area in which the fixed penalty offence in question is alleged to have been committed,

“court of summary jurisdiction” has the same meaning as in ^{F220}section 307(1) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995],

“driver” except in section 62 of this Act means, in relation to an alleged fixed penalty offence, the person by whom, assuming the offence to have been committed, it was committed,

^{F221} . . .

“petty sessions area” has the same meaning as in the ^{M11}Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980, and “proceedings”, except in relation to proceedings for enforcing payment of a sum registered under section 71 of this Act, means criminal proceedings.

^{F222}“vehicle examiner” means an examiner appointed under section 66A of the Road Traffic Act 1988.]

- (2) In this Part of this Act—

- (a) references to a notice requesting a hearing in respect of an offence are references to a notice indicating that the person giving the notice wishes to contest liability for the offence or seeks a determination by a court with respect to the appropriate punishment for the offence,
- (b) references to an offence include an alleged offence, and
- (c) references to the person who is or was at any time the registered keeper of a vehicle are references to the person in whose name the vehicle is or was at that time registered under ^{F223}the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994].
