Children Act 1989

1989 CHAPTER 41

PART II

ORDERS WITH RESPECT TO CHILDREN IN FAMILY PROCEEDINGS

General

VALID FROM 07/11/2008

[F1 11G   Contact activity directions and conditions: monitoring

(1) This section applies if in any family proceedings the court—

    (a)   makes a contact activity direction in relation to an individual, or

    (b)   makes a contact order that imposes, or varies a contact order so as to impose, a contact activity condition on an individual.

(2) The court may on making the direction (or imposing the condition by means of a contact order) ask an officer of the Service or a Welsh family proceedings officer—

    (a)   to monitor, or arrange for the monitoring of, the individual's compliance with the direction (or the condition);

    (b)   to report to the court on any failure by the individual to comply with the direction (or the condition).

(3) It shall be the duty of the officer of the Service or Welsh family proceedings officer to comply with any request under subsection (2).]
