1990 CHAPTER 10

Variation and revocation of consents

- 13 Application for hazardous substances consent without condition attached to previous consent.
- (1) This section applies to an application for hazardous substances consent without a condition subject to which a previous hazardous substances consent was granted.
  - (2) On such an application the hazardous substances authority shall consider only the question of the conditions subject to which hazardous substances consent should be granted.
  - (3) If on such an application the hazardous substances authority determine—
    - (a) that hazardous substances consent should be granted subject to conditions differing from those subject to which the previous consent was granted; or
    - (b) that it should be granted unconditionally,they shall grant hazardous substances consent accordingly.
  - (4) If on such an application the hazardous substances authority determine that hazardous substances consent should be granted subject to the same conditions as those subject to which the previous consent was granted, they shall refuse the application.
  - (5) Where—
    - (a) hazardous substances consent has been granted or is deemed to have been granted for the presence on, over or under land of more than one hazardous substance; and
    - (b) an application under this section does not relate to all the substances,the hazardous substances authority shall only have regard to any condition relating to a substance to which the application does not relate to the extent that it has implications for a substance to which the application does relate.
  - (6) Where—

14 General power by order to revoke or modify hazardous substances consent.

- (1) The hazardous substances authority may by order revoke a hazardous substances consent or modify it to such extent as they consider expedient if it appears to them, having regard to any material consideration, that it is expedient to revoke or modify it.
- (2) The hazardous substances authority may also by order revoke a hazardous substances consent if it appears to them—
  - (a) that there has been a material change of use of land to which a hazardous substances consent relates; or
  - (b) that planning permission [<sup>F2</sup> or development consent] has been granted for development the carrying out of which would involve a material change of use of such land and the development to which the permission [<sup>F3</sup> or development consent] relates has been commenced; or
  - (c) in the case of a hazardous substances consent which relates only to one substance, that that substance has not for at least five years been present on, over or under the land to which the consent relates in a quantity equal to or exceeding the controlled quantity; or
  - (d) in the case of a hazardous substances consent which relates to a number of substances, that none of those substances has for at least five years been so present.
- (3) An order made by virtue of subsection (2)(a) or (b) in the case of a consent relating to more than one substance may revoke it entirely or only so far as it relates to a specified substance.
- (4) An order under this section shall specify the grounds on which it is made.

16 Compensation in respect of s. 14 orders.

- (1) This section applies where an order is made under section 14(1) revoking or modifying a hazardous substances consent.
- (2) If, on a claim made to the hazardous substances authority within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, it is shown that any person has suffered damage in consequence of the order—
  - (a) by depreciation of the value of an interest to which he is entitled in the land or in minerals in, on or under it; or
  - (b) by being disturbed in his enjoyment of the land or of minerals in, on or under it, the authority shall pay him compensation in respect of that damage.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2), any person who carries out any works in compliance with the order shall be entitled, on a claim made as mentioned in that subsection, to recover from the hazardous substances authority compensation in respect of any expenses reasonably incurred by him in that behalf.
- (4) Any compensation payable to a person under this section by virtue of an order shall be reduced by the value to him of any timber, apparatus or other materials removed for the purpose of complying with the order.
- (5) Sections 117 and 118 of the principal Act (which contain general provisions as to the assessment of and the determination of claims for compensation) shall apply as if compensation under this section were compensation under section 115 of that Act.
