

Computer Misuse Act 1990

1990 CHAPTER 18

Computer misuse offences

2 Unauthorised access with intent to commit or facilitate commission of further offences.

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence under this section if he commits an offence under section 1 above (“the unauthorised access offence”) with intent—
- to commit an offence to which this section applies; or
 - to facilitate the commission of such an offence (whether by himself or by any other person); and the offence he intends to commit or facilitate is referred to below in this section as the further offence.

- (2) This section applies to offences—
- for which the sentence is fixed by law; or
 - for which a person who has attained the age of twenty-one years (eighteen in relation to England and Wales) and has no previous convictions may be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of five years (or, in England and Wales, might be so sentenced but for the restrictions imposed by section 33 of the ^{M1}Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980).

- (3) It is immaterial for the purposes of this section whether the further offence is to be committed on the same occasion as the unauthorised access offence or on any future occasion.

- (4) A person may be guilty of an offence under this section even though the facts are such that the commission of the further offence is impossible.

- [^{F1}(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
- on summary conviction in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding [^{F2}the general limit in a magistrates’ court] or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both;
 - on summary conviction in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding [^{F3}12] months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both;
