8 Role of the courts with respect to maintenance for children.

- (1) This subsection applies in any case where [^{F20}the Secretary of State] would have jurisdiction to make a [^{F2}maintenance calculation] with respect to a qualifying child and [^{F1}a non-resident parent] of his on an application duly made [^{F21}(or treated as made)] by a person entitled to apply for such [^{F3}a calculation] with respect to that child.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the circumstances of the case are such that [^{F20}the Secretary of State] would not make [^{F3}a calculation] if it were applied for.

 - (a) a written agreement (whether or not enforceable) provides for the making, or securing, by [^{F1}a non-resident parent] of the child of periodical payments to or for the benefit of the child; and
 - (b) the maintenance order which the court makes is, in all material respects, in the same terms as that agreement.
- (6) This section shall not prevent a court from exercising any power which it has to make a maintenance order in relation to a child if—

 - (a) the child is, will be or (if the order were to be made) would be receiving instruction at an educational establishment or undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation (whether or not while in gainful employment); and [^{F128}41B Repayment of overpaid child support maintenance.

- (1) This section applies where it appears to the Secretary of State that [^{F1}a non-resident parent] has made a payment by way of child support maintenance which amounts to an overpayment by him of that maintenance and that—
- (a) it would not be possible for the [^{F1}non-resident parent] to recover the amount of the overpayment by way of an adjustment of the amount payable under a [^{F2}maintenance calculation]; or
 - (b) it would be inappropriate to rely on an adjustment of the amount payable under a [^{F2}maintenance calculation] as the means of enabling the [^{F1}non-resident parent] to recover the amount of the overpayment.

[This section also applies where the non-resident parent has made a voluntary payment ^{F129}(1A) and it appears to the Secretary of State—

- (a) that he is not liable to pay child support maintenance; or
 - (b) that he is liable, but some or all of the payment amounts to an overpayment, and, in a case falling within paragraph (b), it also appears to him that subsection (1) (a) or (b) applies.]
- (2) The Secretary of State may make such payment to the [^{F1}non-resident parent] by way of reimbursement, or partial reimbursement, of the overpayment as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) Where the Secretary of State has made a payment under this section he may, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, require the relevant person to pay to him the whole, or a specified proportion, of the amount of that payment.
- (4) Any such requirement shall be imposed by giving the relevant person a written demand for the amount which the Secretary of State wishes to recover from him.
- (5) Any sum which a person is required to pay to the Secretary of State under this section shall be recoverable from him by the Secretary of State as a debt due to the Crown.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision in relation to any case in which—
- (a) one or more overpayments of child support maintenance are being reimbursed to the Secretary of State by the relevant person; and
 - (b) child support maintenance has continued to be payable by the [^{F1}non-resident parent] concerned to the person with care concerned, or again becomes so payable.
- [^{F130}(7) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a payment made by a person under a maintenance calculation which was not validly made; and
 - (b) a voluntary payment made in the circumstances set out in subsection (1A)(a), shall be treated as an overpayment of child support maintenance made by a non-resident parent.]
- (8) In this section “relevant person”, in relation to an overpayment, means the person with care to whom the overpayment was made.
- (9) Any sum recovered by the Secretary of State under this section shall be paid by him into the Consolidated Fund.]
