

Child Support Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER 48

Collection and enforcement

29 Collection of child support maintenance. E+W+S

- (1) The [^{F1}Secretary of State] may arrange for the collection of any child support maintenance payable in accordance with a [^{F2}maintenance calculation] where—
 - ^{F3}(a)
 - (b) an application has been made to the [^{F1}Secretary of State] under section 4(2) or 7(3) for [^{F1}the Secretary of State] to arrange for its collection.
- (2) Where a [^{F2}maintenance calculation] is made under this Act, payments of child support maintenance under the [^{F4}calculation] shall be made in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) for payments of child support maintenance to be made—
 - (i) to the person caring for the child or children in question;
 - (ii) to, or through, the [^{F5}Secretary of State]; or
 - (iii) to, or through, such other person as the [^{F5}Secretary of State] may, from time to time, specify;
 - (b) as to the method by which payments of child support maintenance are to be made;
 - ^{F6}(c) for determining, on the basis of prescribed assumptions, the total amount of the payments of child support maintenance payable in a reference period (including provision for adjustments to such an amount);]
 - ^{F6}(ca) requiring payments of child support maintenance to be made—
 - (i) by reference to such an amount and a reference period; and
 - (ii) at prescribed intervals falling in a reference period;]
 - (d) as to the method and timing of the transmission of payments which are made, to or through the [^{F5}Secretary of State] or any other person, in accordance with the regulations;

Status: Point in time view as at 10/12/2012.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Collection and enforcement is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) empowering the [^{F5}Secretary of State] to direct any person liable to make payments in accordance with the [^{F4}calculation]—
 - (i) to make them by standing order or by any other method which requires one person to give his authority for payments to be made from an account of his to an account of another's on specific dates during the period for which the authority is in force and without the need for any further authority from him;
 - (ii) to open an account from which payments under the [^{F4}calculation] may be made in accordance with the method of payment which that person is obliged to adopt;
- (f) providing for the making of representations with respect to matters with which the regulations are concerned.

[^{F7}(3A) In subsection (3)(c) and (ca) “a reference period” means—

- (a) a period of 52 weeks beginning with a prescribed date; or
- (b) in prescribed circumstances, a prescribed period.]

[^{F8}(4) If the regulations include provision for payment by means of deduction in accordance with an order under section 31, they must make provision—

- (a) for that method of payment not to be used in any case where there is good reason not to use it; and
- (b) for the person against whom the order under section 31 would be made to have a right of appeal to a magistrates' court (or, in Scotland, to the sheriff) against a decision that the exclusion required by paragraph (a) does not apply.

(5) On an appeal under regulations made under subsection (4)(b) the court or (as the case may be) the sheriff shall not question the maintenance calculation by reference to which the order under section 31 would be made.

(6) Regulations under subsection (4)(b) may include—

- (a) provision with respect to the period within which a right of appeal under the regulations may be exercised;
- (b) provision with respect to the powers of a magistrates' court (or, in Scotland, of the sheriff) in relation to an appeal under the regulations.

(7) If the regulations include provision for payment by means of deduction in accordance with an order under section 31, they may make provision—

- (a) prescribing matters which are, or are not, to be taken into account in determining whether there is good reason not to use that method of payment;
- (b) prescribing circumstances in which good reason not to use that method of payment is, or is not, to be regarded as existing.]

- (2) The [F16Secretary of State] may make an order (“a deduction from earnings order”) against a liable person to secure the payment of any amount due under the [F2maintenance calculation] in question.
- (3) A deduction from earnings order may be made so as to secure the payment of—
- (a) arrears of child support maintenance payable under the [F4calculation];
 - (b) amounts of child support maintenance which will become due under the [F4calculation]; or
 - (c) both such arrears and such future amounts.
- (4) A deduction from earnings order—
- (a) shall be expressed to be directed at a person (“the employer”) who has the liable person in his employment; and
 - (b) shall have effect from such date as may be specified in the order.
- (5) A deduction from earnings order shall operate as an instruction to the employer to—
- (a) make deductions from the liable person’s earnings; and
 - (b) pay the amounts deducted to the [F17Secretary of State].
- (6) The [F18Secretary of State] shall serve a copy of any deduction from earnings order [F18made] under this section on—
- (a) the person who appears to the [F18Secretary of State] to have the liable person in question in his employment; and
 - (b) the liable person.
- (7) Where—
- (a) a deduction from earnings order has been made; and
 - (b) a copy of the order has been served on the liable person’s employer,
- it shall be the duty of that employer to comply with the order; but he shall not be under any liability for non-compliance before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the date on which the copy was served on him.
- (8) In this section and in section 32 “earnings” has such meaning as may be prescribed.

32 Regulations about deduction from earnings orders. E+W+S

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to deduction from earnings orders.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) as to the circumstances in which one person is to be treated as employed by another;
 - (b) requiring any deduction from earnings under an order to be made in the prescribed manner;
 - ^F19 for the amount or amounts which are to be deducted from the liable person's earnings not to exceed a prescribed proportion of his earnings (as determined by the employer);]
 - (c) requiring an order to specify the amount or amounts to which the order relates and the amount or amounts which are to be deducted from the liable person's earnings in order to meet his liabilities under the ^[F2]maintenance calculation] in question;
 - (d) requiring the intervals between deductions to be made under an order to be specified in the order;
 - (e) as to the payment of sums deducted under an order to the ^[F20]Secretary of State];
 - (f) allowing the person who deducts and pays any amount under an order to deduct from the liable person's earnings a prescribed sum towards his administrative costs;
 - (g) with respect to the notification to be given to the liable person of amounts deducted, and amounts paid, under the order;
 - (h) requiring any person on whom a copy of an order is served to notify the ^[F20]Secretary of State] in the prescribed manner and within a prescribed period if he does not have the liable person in his employment or if the liable person ceases to be in his employment;
 - (i) as to the operation of an order where the liable person is in the employment of the Crown;
 - (j) for the variation of orders;
 - (k) similar to that made by section 31(7), in relation to any variation of an order;
 - (l) for an order to lapse when the employer concerned ceases to have the liable person in his employment;
 - (m) as to the revival of an order in such circumstances as may be prescribed;
 - (n) allowing or requiring an order to be discharged;

- (o) as to the giving of notice by the ^{F20}Secretary of State] to the employer concerned that an order has lapsed or has ceased to have effect.
- (3) The regulations may include provision that while a deduction from earnings order is in force—
 - (a) the liable person shall from time to time notify the ^{F20}Secretary of State], in the prescribed manner and within a prescribed period, of each occasion on which he leaves any employment or becomes employed, or re-employed, and shall include in such a notification a statement of his earnings and expected earnings from the employment concerned and of such other matters as may be prescribed;
 - (b) any person who becomes the liable person's employer and knows that the order is in force shall notify the ^{F20}Secretary of State], in the prescribed manner and within a prescribed period, that he is the liable person's employer, and shall include in such a notification a statement of the liable person's earnings and expected earnings from the employment concerned and of such other matters as may be prescribed.
- (4) The regulations may include provision with respect to the priority as between a deduction from earnings order and—
 - (a) any other deduction from earnings order;
 - (b) any order under any other enactment relating to England and Wales which provides for deductions from the liable person's earnings;
 - (c) any diligence against earnings.
- (5) The regulations may include a provision that a liable person may appeal to a magistrates' court (or in Scotland to the sheriff) if he is aggrieved by the making of a deduction from earnings order against him, or by the terms of any such order, or there is a dispute as to whether payments constitute earnings or as to any other prescribed matter relating to the order.
- (6) On an appeal under subsection (5) the court or (as the case may be) the sheriff shall not question the ^{F2}maintenance calculation] by reference to which the deduction from earnings order was made.
- (7) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (5) may include^{F21}—
 - (a) provision with respect to the period within which a right of appeal under the regulations may be exercised;
 - (b)] provision as to the powers of a magistrates' court, or in Scotland of the sheriff, in relation to an appeal (which may include provision as to the quashing of a deduction from earnings order or the variation of the terms of such an order).
- (8) If any person fails to comply with the requirements of a deduction from earnings order, or with any regulation under this section which is designated for the purposes of this subsection, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (9) In subsection (8) "designated" means designated by the regulations.
- (10) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (8) to prove that he took all reasonable steps to comply with the requirements in question.
- (11) Any person guilty of an offence under subsection (8) shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level two on the standard scale.

- arrears of child support maintenance payable under the calculation;
 - amounts of child support maintenance which will become payable under the calculation; or
 - both such arrears and such future amounts.
- (3) An order under this section may be made in respect of amounts due under a maintenance calculation which is the subject of an appeal only if it appears to the [^{F24}Secretary of State]—
- that liability for the amounts would not be affected were the appeal to succeed; or
 - where paragraph (a) does not apply, that the making of an order under this section in respect of the amounts would nonetheless be fair in all the circumstances.
- (4) An order under this section—
- may not be made in respect of an account of a prescribed description; and

- (b) may be made in respect of a joint account which is held by the person against whom the order is made and one or more other persons, and which is not of a description prescribed under paragraph (a), if (but only if) regulations made by the Secretary of State so provide.
- (5) An order under this section—
- (a) shall specify the account in respect of which it is made;
 - (b) shall be expressed to be directed at the deposit-taker with which the account is held; and
 - (c) shall have effect from such date as may be specified in the order.
- (6) An order under this section shall operate as an instruction to the deposit-taker at which it is directed to—
- (a) make deductions from the amount (if any) standing to the credit of the account specified in the order; and
 - (b) pay the amount deducted to the [^{F25}Secretary of State].
- (7) The [^{F26}Secretary of State] shall serve a copy of any order made under this section on—
- (a) the deposit-taker at which it is directed;
 - (b) the person against whom it is made; and
 - (c) if the order is made in respect of a joint account, the other account-holders.
- (8) Where—
- (a) an order under this section has been made; and
 - (b) a copy of the order has been served on the deposit-taker at which it is directed, it shall be the duty of that deposit-taker to comply with the order; but the deposit-taker shall not be under any liability for non-compliance before the end of the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the copy was served on the deposit-taker.
- (9) Where regulations have been made under section 29(3)(a), a person liable to pay an amount of child support maintenance is to be taken for the purposes of this section to have failed to pay an amount of child support maintenance unless it is paid to or through the person specified in, or by virtue of, the regulations for the case in question.

32H Orders under section 32F: deductions and payments E+W+S

- (1) Once the relevant period has ended, an order under section 32F which specifies an account held with a deposit-taker shall operate as an instruction to the deposit-taker—
 - (a) if the amount standing to the credit of the account is less than the remaining amount, to pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] the amount standing to the credit of the account; and
 - (b) otherwise, to deduct from the account and pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] the remaining amount.
- (2) If an amount of arrears specified in the order remains unpaid after any payment required by subsection (1) has been made, the order shall operate until the relevant time as an instruction to the deposit-taker—
 - (a) to pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] any amount (not exceeding the remaining amount) standing to the credit of the account specified in the order; and
 - (b) not to do anything else that would reduce the amount standing to the credit of the account.
- (3) Once the relevant period has ended, any other order under section 32F shall operate as an instruction to the third party at which it is directed—
 - (a) if the amount due to the liable person is less than the remaining amount, to pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] the amount due to the liable person; and
 - (b) otherwise, to deduct from the amount due to the liable person and pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] the remaining amount.
- (4) If an amount of arrears specified in the order remains unpaid after any payment required by subsection (3) has been made, the order shall operate until the relevant time as an instruction to the third party—
 - (a) to pay to the [^{F38}Secretary of State] any amount (not exceeding the remaining amount) due to the liable person; and
 - (b) not to do anything else that would reduce any amount due to the liable person.
- (5) This section has effect subject to regulations made under sections 32I(1) and 32J(2)(c).

32J Regulations about orders under section 32E or 32F E+W+S

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to orders under section 32E or 32F.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
 - (a) as to circumstances in which amounts standing to the credit of an account are to be disregarded for the purposes of sections 32E, 32G and 32H;
 - (b) as to the payment to the [^{F40}Secretary of State] of sums deducted under an order under section 32F;
 - (c) allowing a deposit-taker or third party at which an order under section 32F is directed to deduct from the amount standing to the credit of the account specified in the order, or due to the liable person, a prescribed amount towards its administrative costs before making any payment to the [^{F40}Secretary of State] required by section 32H;
 - (d) with respect to notifications to be given to the liable person (and, in the case of an order made in respect of a joint account, to the other account-holders) as to amounts deducted, and amounts paid, under an order under section 32F;
 - (e) requiring a deposit-taker or third party at which an order under section 32E or 32F is directed to supply information of a prescribed description to the [^{F40}Secretary of State], or to notify the [^{F40}Secretary of State] if a prescribed event occurs or prescribed circumstances arise;
 - (f) for the variation of an order under section 32E or 32F;
 - (g) for an order under section 32E or 32F to lapse in such circumstances as may be prescribed;
 - (h) as to the revival of an order under section 32E or 32F in such circumstances as may be prescribed;
 - (i) allowing or requiring an order under section 32E or 32F to be discharged.
- (3) Where regulations under subsection (1) make provision for the variation of an order under section 32E or 32F, the power to vary the order shall not be exercised so as to increase the amount of arrears of child support maintenance specified in the order.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision with respect to priority as between an order under section 32F and—
 - (a) any other order under that section;
 - (b) any order under any other enactment relating to England and Wales which provides for payments to be made from amounts to which the order under section 32F relates;
 - (c) any diligence done in Scotland against amounts to which the order under section 32F relates.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall by regulations make provision for any person affected by an order under section 32F to have a right to appeal to a court against the making of the order.
- (6) On an appeal under regulations under subsection (5), the court shall not question the maintenance calculation by reference to which the order under section 32F was made.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (5) may include—
 - (a) provision with respect to the period within which a right of appeal under the regulations may be exercised;

[^{F41}32L Orders preventing avoidance E+W+S

- (1) The [^{F42}Secretary of State] may apply to the court, on the grounds that a person—
- (a) has failed to pay an amount of child support maintenance, and
 - (b) with the intention of avoiding payment of child support maintenance, is about to make a disposition or to transfer out of the jurisdiction or otherwise deal with any property,
- for an order restraining or, in Scotland, interdicting the person from doing so.
- (2) The [^{F43}Secretary of State] may apply to the court, on the grounds that a person—
- (a) has failed to pay an amount of child support maintenance, and
 - (b) with the intention of avoiding payment of child support maintenance, has at any time made a reviewable disposition,
- for an order setting aside or, in Scotland, reducing the disposition.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/12/2012.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Collection and enforcement is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. - (3) If the court is satisfied of the grounds mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) it may make an order under that subsection.
- (4) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1) or (2) it may make such consequential provision by order or directions as it thinks fit for giving effect to the order (including provision requiring the making of any payments or the disposal of any property).
- (5) Any disposition is a reviewable disposition for the purposes of subsection (2), unless it was made for valuable or, in Scotland, adequate consideration (other than marriage) to a person who, at the time of the disposition, acted in relation to it in good faith and without notice of an intention to avoid payment of child support maintenance.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies where an application is made under this section with respect to—
- (a) a disposition or other dealing with property which is about to take place, or
 - (b) a disposition which took place after the making of the application on which the maintenance calculation concerned was made.
- (7) If the court is satisfied—
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1), that the disposition or other dealing would (apart from this section) have the consequence of making ineffective a step that has been or may be taken to recover the amount outstanding, or
 - (b) in a case falling within subsection (2), that the disposition has had that consequence,
- it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the person who disposed of or is about to dispose of or deal with the property did so or, as the case may be, is about to do so, with the intention of avoiding payment of child support maintenance.
- (8) In this section “disposition” does not include any provision contained in a will or codicil but, with that exception, includes any conveyance, assurance or gift of property of any description, whether made by an instrument or otherwise.
- (9) This section does not apply to a disposition made before the coming into force of section 24 of the Child Maintenance and Other Payments Act 2008.
- (10) In this section “the court” means—
- (a) in relation to England and Wales, the High Court;
 - (b) in relation to Scotland, the Court of Session or the sheriff.
- (11) An order under this section interdicting a person—
- (a) is effective for such period (including an indefinite period) as the order may specify;
 - (b) may, on application to the court, be varied or recalled.]

33 Liability orders. E+W+S

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a person who is liable to make payments of child support maintenance (“the liable person”) fails to make one or more of those payments; and
- (b) it appears to the ^{F44}Secretary of State] that—
 - (i) it is inappropriate to make a deduction from earnings order against him (because, for example, he is not employed); or
 - (ii) although such an order has been made against him, it has proved ineffective as a means of securing that payments are made in accordance with the ^{F2}maintenance calculation] in question.

(2) The ^{F45}Secretary of State] may apply to a magistrates’ court or, in Scotland, to the sheriff for an order (“a liability order”) against the liable person.

(3) Where the ^{F45}Secretary of State] applies for a liability order, the magistrates’ court or (as the case may be) sheriff shall make the order if satisfied that the payments in question have become payable by the liable person and have not been paid.

(4) On an application under subsection (2), the court or (as the case may be) the sheriff shall not question the ^{F2}maintenance calculation] under which the payments of child support maintenance fell to be made.

^{F46}(5) If the ^{F47}Secretary of State] designates a liability order for the purposes of this subsection it shall be treated as a judgment entered in a county court for the purposes of ^{F48}section 98 of the Courts Act 2003 (register of judgments and orders etc).]

^{F49}(6) Where regulations have been made under section 29(3)(a)—

- (a) the liable person fails to make a payment (for the purposes of subsection (1) (a) of this section); and
 - (b) a payment is not paid (for the purposes of subsection (3)),
- unless the payment is made to, or through, the person specified in or by virtue of those regulations for the case of the liable person in question.]

35 Enforcement of liability orders by distress. E+W

- (1) Where a liability order has been made against a person (“the liable person”), the [^{F53}Secretary of State] may levy the appropriate amount by distress and sale of the liable person’s goods.
- (2) In subsection (1), “the appropriate amount” means the aggregate of—
 - (a) the amount in respect of which the order was made, to the extent that it remains unpaid; and
 - (b) an amount, determined in such manner as may be prescribed, in respect of the charges connected with the distress.
- (3) The [^{F54}Secretary of State] may, in exercising [^{F54}the] powers under subsection (1) against the liable person’s goods, seize—
 - (a) any of the liable person’s goods except—
 - (i) such tools, books, vehicles and other items of equipment as are necessary to him for use personally by him in his employment, business or vocation;
 - (ii) such clothing, bedding, furniture, household equipment and provisions as are necessary for satisfying his basic domestic needs; and
 - (b) any money, banknotes, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money belonging to the liable person.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the liable person’s domestic needs shall be taken to include those of any member of his family with whom he resides.
- (5) No person levying a distress under this section shall be taken to be a trespasser—
 - (a) on that account; or
 - (b) from the beginning, on account of any subsequent irregularity in levying the distress.
- (6) A person sustaining special damage by reason of any irregularity in levying a distress under this section may recover full satisfaction for the damage (and no more) by proceedings in trespass or otherwise.
- (7) The Secretary of State may make regulations supplementing the provisions of this section.
- (8) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) provide that a distress under this section may be levied anywhere in England and Wales;
 - (b) provide that such a distress shall not be deemed unlawful on account of any defect or want of form in the liability order;
 - (c) provide for an appeal to a magistrates’ court by any person aggrieved by the levying of, or an attempt to levy, a distress under this section;
 - (d) make provision as to the powers of the court on an appeal (which may include provision as to the discharge of goods distrained or the payment of compensation in respect of goods distrained and sold).

^{F77} 41A Penalty payments. E+W+S

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the payment to ^{F78}the ^{F79}Secretary of State]] by non-resident parents who are in arrears with payments of child support maintenance of penalty payments determined in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) The amount of a penalty payment in respect of any week may not exceed 25% of the amount of child support maintenance payable for that week, but otherwise is to be determined by the ^{F79}Secretary of State].
- (3) The liability of a non-resident parent to make a penalty payment does not affect his liability to pay the arrears of child support maintenance concerned.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/12/2012.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Collection and enforcement is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) as to the time at which a penalty payment is to be payable;
 - (b) for the [^{F80}Secretary of State] to waive a penalty payment, or part of it.
- (5) The provisions of this Act with respect to—
- (a) the collection of child support maintenance;
 - (b) the enforcement of an obligation to pay child support maintenance,
- apply equally (with any necessary modifications) to penalty payments payable by virtue of regulations under this section.
- (6) The [^{F81}Secretary of State] shall pay penalty payments received by [^{F81}the Secretary of State] into the Consolidated Fund.]

[^{F82}41B Repayment of overpaid child support maintenance. E+W+S

- (1) This section applies where it appears to the [^{F83}Secretary of State] that [^{F12}a non-resident parent] has made a payment by way of child support maintenance which amounts to an overpayment by him of that maintenance and that—
- (a) it would not be possible for the [^{F12}non-resident parent] to recover the amount of the overpayment by way of an adjustment of the amount payable under a [^{F2}maintenance calculation]; or
 - (b) it would be inappropriate to rely on an adjustment of the amount payable under a [^{F2}maintenance calculation] as the means of enabling the [^{F12}non-resident parent] to recover the amount of the overpayment.

Status: Point in time view as at 10/12/2012.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Collection and enforcement is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [This section also applies where the non-resident parent has made a voluntary payment^{F84}(1A) and it appears to the [F85Secretary of State]—
- (a) that he is not liable to pay child support maintenance; or
 - (b) that he is liable, but some or all of the payment amounts to an overpayment, and, in a case falling within paragraph (b), it also appears to [F85the Secretary of State] that subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies.]
- (2) The [F86Secretary of State] may make such payment to the [F12non-resident parent] by way of reimbursement, or partial reimbursement, of the overpayment as the [F86Secretary of State] considers appropriate.
- (3) Where the [F87Secretary of State] has made a payment under this section [F87the Secretary of State] may, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, require the relevant person to pay to [F87the Secretary of State] the whole, or a specified proportion, of the amount of that payment.
- (4) Any such requirement shall be imposed by giving the relevant person a written demand for the amount which the [F88Secretary of State] wishes to recover from him.
- (5) Any sum which a person is required to pay to the [F88Secretary of State] under this section shall be recoverable from him by the [F88Secretary of State] as a debt due to the Crown.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision in relation to any case in which—
- (a) one or more overpayments of child support maintenance are being reimbursed to the [F89Secretary of State] by the relevant person; and
 - (b) child support maintenance has continued to be payable by the [F12non-resident parent] concerned to the person with care concerned, or again becomes so payable.
- [F90(7) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) a payment made by a person under a maintenance calculation which was not validly made; and
 - (b) a voluntary payment made in the circumstances set out in subsection (1A)(a), shall be treated as an overpayment of child support maintenance made by a non-resident parent.]
- (8) In this section “relevant person”, in relation to an overpayment, means the person with care to whom the overpayment was made.
- (9) Any sum recovered by the [F91Secretary of State] under this section shall be paid by [F91the Secretary of State] into the Consolidated Fund.]
