

Child Support Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER 48

Reviews and appeals

16 Periodical reviews.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make such arrangements as he considers necessary to secure that, where any maintenance assessment has been in force for a prescribed period, the amount of child support maintenance fixed by that assessment (“the original assessment”) is reviewed by a child support officer under this section as soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of that prescribed period.
- (2) Before conducting any review under this section, the child support officer concerned shall give, to such persons as may be prescribed, such notice of the proposed review as may be prescribed.
- (3) A review shall be conducted under this section as if a fresh application for a maintenance assessment had been made by the person in whose favour the original assessment was made.
- (4) On completing any review under this section, the child support officer concerned shall make a fresh maintenance assessment, unless he is satisfied that the original assessment has ceased to have effect or should be brought to an end.
- (5) Where a fresh maintenance assessment is made under subsection (4), it shall take effect—
 - (a) on the day immediately after the end of the prescribed period mentioned in subsection (1); or
 - (b) in such circumstances as may be prescribed, on such later date as may be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe circumstances (for example, where the maintenance assessment is about to terminate) in which a child support officer may decide not to conduct a review under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/11/1996.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Reviews and appeals is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

17 Reviews on change of circumstances.

- (1) Where a maintenance assessment is in force—
- (a) the absent parent or person with care with respect to whom it was made; or
 - (b) where the application for the assessment was made under section 7, either of them or the child concerned, may apply to the Secretary of State for the amount of child support maintenance fixed by that assessment (“the original assessment”) to be reviewed under this section.

- (2) An application under this section may be made only on the ground that, by reason of a change of circumstance since the original assessment was made, the amount of child support maintenance payable by the absent parent would be significantly different if it were to be fixed by a maintenance assessment made by reference to the circumstances of the case as at the date of the application.

[^{F1}(2A) The Secretary of State shall refer to a child support officer any application under this section which is duly made.]

- (3) The child support officer to whom an application under this section has been referred shall not proceed unless, on the information before him, he considers that it is likely that he will be required by subsection (6)[^{F2}, or by virtue of subsection (7),] to make a fresh maintenance assessment if he conducts [^{F3}a review].

- (4) Before conducting any review under this section, the child support officer concerned shall give to such persons as may be prescribed, such notice of the proposed review as may be prescribed.

[^{F4}(4A) Where a child support officer is conducting a review under this section, and the original assessment has ceased to have effect, he may continue the review as if the application for a review related to the original assessment and any subsequent assessment.]

[^{F5}(5) In conducting a review under this section, the child support officer shall take into account a change of circumstance only if—

- (a) he has been notified of it in such manner, and by such person, as may be prescribed; or
- (b) it is one which he knows has taken place.]

- (6) On completing [^{F6}a review of the original assessment] under this section, the child support officer concerned shall make a fresh maintenance assessment [^{F7}by reference to the circumstances of the case as at the date of the application under this section], unless—

- (a) he is satisfied that the original assessment has ceased to have effect or should be brought to an end; or
- (b) the difference between the amount of child support maintenance fixed by the original assessment and the amount that would be fixed if a fresh assessment were to be made as a result of the review is less than such amount as may be prescribed.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/11/1996.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F8}(7) On completing a review of any subsequent assessment under this section, the child support officer concerned shall make a fresh maintenance assessment except in such circumstances as may be prescribed.

(8) In this section “subsequent assessment” means a maintenance assessment made after the original assessment with respect to the same persons as the original assessment.]

18 Reviews of decisions of child support officers.

(1) Where—

- (a) an application for a maintenance assessment is refused; or
- (b) an application, under section 17, for the review of a maintenance assessment which is in force is refused, the person who made that application may apply to the Secretary of State for the refusal to be reviewed.

(2) Where a maintenance assessment is in force—

- (a) the absent parent or person with care with respect to whom it was made; or
- (b) where the application for the assessment was made under section 7, either of them or the child concerned, may apply to the Secretary of State for the assessment to be reviewed.

(3) Where a maintenance assessment is cancelled the appropriate person may apply to the Secretary of State for the cancellation to be reviewed.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/11/1996.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Reviews and appeals is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where an application for the cancellation of a maintenance assessment is refused, the appropriate person may apply to the Secretary of State for the refusal to be reviewed.
- (5) An application under this section shall give the applicant's reasons (in writing) for making it.
- (6) The Secretary of State shall refer to a child support officer any application under this section which is duly made; and the child support officer shall conduct the review applied for unless in his opinion there are no reasonable grounds for supposing that the refusal, assessment or cancellation in question—
 - (a) was made in ignorance of a material fact;
 - (b) was based on a mistake as to a material fact; [^{F9}or]
 - (c) was wrong in law.
- [^{F10}(6A) Where a child support officer is conducting a review under this section and the maintenance assessment in question (“the original assessment”) is no longer in force, he may continue the review as if the application for a review related to the original assessment and any maintenance assessment made after the original assessment with respect to the same persons as the original assessment.]
- (7) The Secretary of State shall arrange for a review under this section to be conducted by a child support officer who played no part in taking the decision which is to be reviewed.
- (8) Before conducting any review under this section, the child support officer concerned shall give to such persons as may be prescribed, such notice of the proposed review as may be prescribed.
- (9) If a child support officer conducting a review under this section is satisfied that a maintenance assessment or (as the case may be) a fresh maintenance assessment should be made, he shall proceed accordingly.
- (10) In making a maintenance assessment by virtue of subsection (9), a child support officer shall, if he is aware of any material change of circumstance since the decision being reviewed was taken, take account of that change of circumstance in making the assessment.
- [^{F11}(10A) If a child support officer conducting a review under this section is satisfied that the maintenance assessment in question was not validly made he may cancel it with effect from the date on which it took effect.]
- (11) The Secretary of State may make regulations—
 - (a) as to the manner in which applications under this section are to be made;
 - (b) as to the procedure to be followed with respect to such applications; and
 - (c) with respect to reviews conducted under this section.
- (12) In this section “appropriate person” means—
 - (a) the absent parent or person with care with respect to whom the maintenance assessment in question was, or remains, in force; or
 - (b) where the application for that assessment was made under section 7, either of those persons or the child concerned.

[^{F12}19] Reviews at instigation of child support officers.

- (1) Where a child support officer is not conducting a review under section 16, 17 or 18, he may nevertheless review—
- a refusal to make a maintenance assessment,
 - a refusal to review a maintenance assessment under section 17,
 - a maintenance assessment (whether or not in force),
 - a cancellation of a maintenance assessment, or
 - a refusal to cancel a maintenance assessment,
- if he suspects that it may be defective for one or more of the reasons set out in subsection (2).
- (2) The reasons are that the refusal, assessment or cancellation—
- was made in ignorance of a material fact;
 - was based on a mistake as to a material fact; or
 - was wrong in law.
- (3) If, on completing such a review, the child support officer is satisfied that the refusal, assessment or cancellation is defective for one or more of those reasons, he may—
- take no further action;
 - in the case of a maintenance assessment which has been cancelled, set aside the cancellation;
 - make a maintenance assessment;
 - make a fresh maintenance assessment;
 - cancel the maintenance assessment in question.

- (4) Where a child support officer sets a cancellation aside under subsection (3), the maintenance assessment in question shall have effect as if it had never been cancelled.
- (5) Any cancellation of a maintenance assessment under this section shall have effect from such date as may be determined by the child support officer.
- (6) Where a child support officer suspects that if an application for a review of a maintenance assessment were to be made under section 17 it would be appropriate to make one or more fresh maintenance assessments, he may review the maintenance assessment even though no application for its review has been made under that section.
- (7) If, on completing a review by virtue of subsection (6), the child support officer is satisfied that it would be appropriate to make one or more fresh maintenance assessments, he may do so.]

24 Appeal to Child Support Commissioner.

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of a child support appeal tribunal, and any child support officer, may appeal to a Child Support Commissioner on a question of law.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/11/1996.

Changes to legislation: Child Support Act 1991, Cross Heading: Reviews and appeals is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where, on an appeal under this section, a Child Support Commissioner holds that the decision appealed against was wrong in law he shall set it aside.
- (3) Where a decision is set aside under subsection (2), the Child Support Commissioner may—
 - (a) if he can do so without making fresh or further findings of fact, give the decision which he considers should have been given by the child support appeal tribunal;
 - (b) if he considers it expedient, make such findings and give such decision as he considers appropriate in the light of those findings; or
 - (c) refer the case, with directions for its determination, to a child support officer or, if he considers it appropriate, to a child support appeal tribunal.
- (4) Any reference under subsection (3) to a child support officer shall, subject to any direction of the Child Support Commissioner, be to a child support officer who has taken no part in the decision originally appealed against.
- (5) On a reference under subsection (3) to a child support appeal tribunal, the tribunal shall, subject to any direction of the Child Support Commissioner, consist of persons who were not members of the tribunal which gave the decision which has been appealed against.
- (6) No appeal lies under this section without the leave—
 - (a) of the person who was the chairman of the child support appeal tribunal when the decision appealed against was given or of such other chairman of a child support appeal tribunal as may be determined in accordance with regulations made by the Lord Chancellor; or
 - (b) subject to and in accordance with regulations so made, of a Child Support Commissioner.
- (7) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision as to the manner in which, and the time within which, appeals under this section are to be brought and applications for leave under this section are to be made.
- (8) Where a question which would otherwise fall to be determined by a child support officer first arises in the course of an appeal to a Child Support Commissioner, he may, if he thinks fit, determine it even though it has not been considered by a child support officer.
- (9) Before making any regulations under subsection (6) or (7), the Lord Chancellor shall consult the Lord Advocate.

- (2) No such appeal may be brought except—
- (a) with leave of the Child Support Commissioner who gave the decision or, where regulations made by the Lord Chancellor so provide, of a Child Support Commissioner selected in accordance with the regulations; or
 - (b) if the Child Support Commissioner refuses leave, with the leave of the appropriate court.
- (3) An application for leave to appeal under this section against a decision of a Child Support Commissioner (“the appeal decision”) may only be made by—
- (a) a person who was a party to the proceedings in which the original decision, or appeal decision, was given;
 - (b) the Secretary of State; or
 - (c) any other person who is authorised to do so by regulations made by the Lord Chancellor.
- [^{F14}(3A) The Child Support Commissioner to whom an application for leave to appeal under this section is made shall specify as the appropriate court either the Court of Appeal or the Court of Session.
- (3B) In determining the appropriate court, the Child Support Commissioner shall have regard to the circumstances of the case, and in particular the convenience of the persons who may be parties to the appeal.]
- (4) In this section—
- “appropriate court” [^{F15}, except in subsections (3A) and (3B), means the court specified in accordance with those subsections]; and
- “original decision” means the decision to which the appeal decision in question relates.
- (5) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision with respect to—
- (a) the manner in which and the time within which applications must be made to a Child Support Commissioner for leave under this section; and
 - (b) the procedure for dealing with such applications.

26 Disputes about parentage.

(1) Where a person who is alleged to be a parent of the child with respect to whom an application for a maintenance assessment has been made (“the alleged parent”) denies that he is one of the child’s parents, the child support officer concerned shall not make a maintenance assessment on the assumption that the alleged parent is one of the child’s parents unless the case falls within one of those set out in subsection (2).

(2) The Cases are —

CASE A

Where the alleged parent is a parent of the child in question by virtue of having adopted him.

CASE B

Where the alleged parent is a parent of the child in question by virtue of an order under section 30 of the ^{M2}Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 1990 (parental orders in favour of gamete donors).

CASE C

Where—

(a) either—

(i) a declaration that the alleged parent is a parent of the child in question (or a declaration which has that effect) is in force under section 56 of the ^{M3}Family Law Act 1986 [^{F16}or Article 32 of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings (Northern Ireland) Order 1989] (declarations of parentage); or

(ii) a declarator by a court in Scotland that the alleged parent is a parent of the child in question (or a declarator which has that effect) is in force; and

(b) the child has not subsequently been adopted.

CASE D

Where—

(a) a declaration to the effect that the alleged parent is one of the parents of the child in question has been made under section 27; and

(b) the child has not subsequently been adopted.

CASE E

Where—

(a) the child is habitually resident in Scotland;

(b) the child support officer is satisfied that one or other of the presumptions set out in section 5(1) of the ^{M4}Law Reform (Parent and Child) (Scotland) Act 1986 applies; and

(c) the child has not subsequently been adopted.

CASE F

Where—

(a) the alleged parent has been found, or adjudged, to be the father of the child in question—
