

Water Industry Act 1991

1991 CHAPTER 56

PART III

WATER SUPPLY

CHAPTER III

QUALITY AND SUFFICIENCY OF SUPPLIES

General obligations of undertakers [F1 and F1 water supply licensees]]

70 Offence of supplying water unfit for human consumption.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) below, where a [F1 water undertaker's supply system is used for the purposes of supplying water] to any premises and that water is unfit for human consumption, [F2 the relevant persons] shall be guilty of an offence and liable [F3 on summary conviction, or on conviction on indictment, to a fine].

[F4(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, the relevant persons are—

- (a) the water undertaker whose supply system is used for the purposes of supplying the water (in this section referred to as the “primary water undertaker”); and
 - (b) any employer of persons, or any self-employed person, who is concerned in the supply of the water.]
- (2) For the purposes of section 210 below and any other enactment under which an individual is guilty of an offence by virtue of subsection (1) above the penalty on conviction on indictment of an offence under this section shall be deemed to include imprisonment (in addition to or instead of a fine) for a term not exceeding two years.
- (3) In any proceedings against any [F5 relevant person] for an offence under this section it shall be a defence for [F6 that person] to show that it—

Changes to legislation: Water Industry Act 1991, Section 70 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 31 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the water would be used for human consumption; or
- (b) took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence for securing that the water was fit for human consumption on leaving [^{F7}the primary water undertaker's] pipes or was not used for human consumption.

[^{F8}(3A) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) above—

- (a) in the case of proceedings against a primary water undertaker, showing that the undertaker took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence as mentioned in that paragraph includes (among other things) showing that the relevant arrangements were reasonable in all the circumstances; and
- (b) in the case of proceedings against any other relevant person, showing that the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence as mentioned in that paragraph includes (among other things) showing that it took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence for securing that all aspects of the relevant arrangements for which it was responsible were properly carried out.

(3B) In subsection (3A) above, “relevant arrangements” means arrangements made by the primary water undertaker to ensure that all other relevant persons were required to take all reasonable steps and exercise all due diligence for securing that the water was fit for human consumption on leaving the undertaker’s pipes or was not used for human consumption.]

(4) Proceedings for an offence under this section shall not be instituted except by the Secretary of State or the Director of Public Prosecutions.
