55 Inspection etc. of local education authority institutions, other than schools, and advice to Secretary of State.

- (1) The chief inspector shall have the general duty of keeping the Secretary of State informed about—
 - (a) the quality of education provided in local education authority institutions,
 - (b) the educational standards achieved in such institutions, and
 - (c) whether the financial resources made available to such institutions are managed efficiently.
- (2) When asked to do so by the Secretary of State, the chief inspector shall—
 - (a) give advice to the Secretary of State on such matters relating to local education authority institutions, and on such other matters relating to further education, as may be specified in the Secretary of State's request, and
 - (b) inspect and report on any such local education authority institution, or any such class of local education authority institution, as may be so specified.
- (3) In connection with the duties imposed on the chief inspector under this section, his powers, and those of his inspectors, in relation to the inspection of schools under any enactment shall extend to the inspection of institutions under this section.
- (4) In relation to any local education authority institution maintained or assisted by them, a local education authority—
 - (a) shall keep under review the quality of education provided, the educational standards achieved and whether the financial resources made available are managed efficiently, and
 - (b) may cause an inspection to be made by persons authorised by them.
- (5) A local education authority shall not authorise any person to inspect any institution under this section unless they are satisfied that he is suitably qualified to do so.
- (6) A person who wilfully obstructs any person authorised to inspect an institution under or by virtue of this section in the exercise of his functions shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.
- (7) In this section—
 - (a) in relation to institutions in England, “chief inspector” means Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in England and “his inspectors” means Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in England,
 - (b) in relation to institutions in Wales, “chief inspector” means Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in Wales and “his inspectors” means Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools in Wales, and 58 Reorganisations of schools involving establishment of further education corporation.

- (1) Subsection (2) below applies where, in connection with a reorganisation of schools maintained by a local education authority, any land used for the purposes of one or more of the schools affected by the reorganisation or, as the case may be, the school so affected—
- (a) is to cease to be so used or is to continue to be so used for a limited period, and
 - (b) while it is so used, or after it has ceased to be so used, is to be used for the purposes of an institution conducted by a further education corporation;
- and in that subsection that land is referred to as “the land to be transferred”.
- (2) If the land to be transferred is land of the local authority, the land and any other property of the local authority used for the purposes of the school on that land shall be treated for the purposes of section 23 of this Act as used for the purposes of the educational institution conducted by the corporation.
- (3) For the purposes of this section there is a reorganisation of schools maintained by a local education authority if, in the case of each of the schools affected by the reorganisation or (if there is only one) the school so affected—
- (a) the local education authority cease to maintain the school, or
 - (b) a significant change is made in the character of the school or the premises of the school are significantly enlarged,
- whether or not the reorganisation also involves the establishment of one or more new schools.
